FREEPORT LODGE #379

Freeport Odd Fellows Lodge No. 379 held its annual picnic on Wednesday evening, June 15. The affair was in the form of a covered dish dinner with the Lodge furnishing the hamburgers, hot dogs, buns and drinks.

There were nearly one hundred persons in attendance, including Brothers of No. 379, their families and friends, and the members of Lady Freeport Rebekah Lodge and their husbands.

The guests enjoyed an evening of horse-shoe pitching and other games, as well as renewing acquaintances. Movies were shown by Delbert Burton.

Many complimentary remarks were given to the Committee for having made such fine arrangements. Allen Leard acted as Chairman. He was assisted by Robert Henry and Calvin McClain.

The Noble Grand, William B. Gaiser, presided at the regular meeting of the Lodge following the picnic supper. Plans were discussed for a bus trip to the Meadows Race Track.

REFLECTIONS

Love is a special word,
 Rich in meaning,
 Overflowing in thought.
 Love is sharing—
 Sharing happiness and sorrow,
 The blue skies and gray,
 The important and everyday
 Concerns of life.
 Love is understanding—
 A quiet understanding
 In which a thought
 May not be spoken
 But is understood.
 Above all, Love is what we share.

PENNSYLVANIA DINNER AT SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE

Plans are being formulated for the Pennsylvania Dinner to be held at the Sovereign Grand Lodge Sessions in Winnipeg on Sunday afternoon, September 18, 1983.

At the present time we do not have any definite arrangements, but we would like to have some idea as to how many will be attending so that we will have some idea as to how many to plan for.

The Dinner will be held as early as possible so that it will not interfere with the formal opening of the Sovereign Grand Lodge Sessions.

Anyone planning to be in Winnipeg, and also planning to attend the Pennsylvania Dinner, please get in touch with the following named person so that an approximate count can be made for the arrangements:

ODD FELLOWSHIP IN MEXICO CITY?

We have a Brother in Mexico City, a former P.D.D.G.M. from Uruguay and the Brother who founded the first lodge in Uruguay.

He has requested permission to commence efforts in Mexico City to form an Odd Fellows Lodge, and possibly a Rebekah Lodge there. However, he is having difficulty in finding five Third Degree Members presently in Mexico City, as the basic starting point.

If any members in U.S.A. or Canada have knowledge of any Brothers or Sisters now residing in Mexico City who might assist in the formation of Lodge there, please have them contact the Sovereign Grand Master, or Brother Idel Wasser,

Torres De Mixcoac
Edificio A-13, Apt. 302
Mexico of ZP19, CP01490
Mexico

You will recall that this is the same problem which faced Thomas Wildey in Baltimore in 1819. What a great expansion of Friendship, Love and Truth followed! The cooperation of all who can assist will be much appreciated.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

Grenfall Beck, P.D.D.G.M. of the Benevolent #40 Lodge in Linwood, and Associate member of Upper Birmingham Lodge #940, celebrated his 75th birthday on June 7. Frank O'Briens had Brother Beck up to their home for dinner and then all went to Sacred Heart Hospital to visit Brother Beck's wife, Elsie, who was in for 9 days to clear up pneumonia problems.

VANDERGRIFT LODGE #1116

There were seventy members and guests present in the North Apollo Fire Hall on Saturday, May 21 when Vandergrift Lodge #1116 held their annual Banquet.

Clarence Wise gave the Invocation and requested a moment of silence in memory of four of our Brothers who passed away since last Memorial Day.

John T. Klingsmith, Clair F. Wagle, Clair H. Fiscus and Charles E. France who died on the 74th anniversary of his initiation into the Order.

There were 26 members entitled to Veteran Buttons with a total of 1045 years of uninterrupted membership. Not all of these Brothers were able to attend, but our Treasurer and very active Brother George Clawson was present and received his Button for 65 years of service to our Order.

Past Grand J. Paul Black made the presentations to those present and introduced Past Grand Master James Whitehead Sr. and Past Grand Master Fred M. See. Each spoke briefly.

I'M FINE

By Willard Spence

There's nothing whatever the matter with me

I'm just as healthy as I can be.
I have arthritis in both my knees
And when I talk, I talk with a wheeze.
My pulse is weak and my blood is thin
But I'm awfully well for the shape I'm in.

My teeth will eventually have to come out
And my diet I hate to think about.
I'm overweight and I can't get thin
My appetite is such that it's sure to win
But I'm awfully well for the shape I'm in.

Arch supports I have for my feet
Or I wouldn't be able to go on the street.
Sleep is denied me night after night
And every morning I am a sight.
My memory's failing, my head's in a spin
I'm practically living on aspirin
But I'm awfully well for the shape I'm in.

The moral is, as this tale we unfold
That for you and me who are growing old,
It's better to say, I'M FINE—with a grin
Than to let them know the shape we are in.

HOW TO BE HAPPY

Keep your heart free from hate,
Keep your mind free from worry,
Live simply, expect little,
Give much, sing often.
Fill your life with love, scatter sunshine,
Forget yourself and think of others,
Do as you would be done by.
These are the tried links in contentment's golden chain.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Greetings to all my friends who have put in an appearance here tonight in my behalf. I am more than pleased by your presence and am planning on seeing you all later in my room for some punch and goodies.

I would like to thank all my friends and maybe my enemies for placing me in this very wonderful position. I thank you for your confidence in me to feel that I could do a job for you as your President. I feel very humble and honored by this appointment, or rather, election. I will try to perform my duties to the best of my ability, and with the help of our Supreme Being who is over us all.

I would like to tell you what I am using this year for my program.

My Emblem—Open Hand with Heart in the Palm.

My Motto—Love and Perseverance.

Colors—Red, White and Blue.

Flower—White Rose and Purple Pansy.

Songs—"My Cathedral," "How Great Thou Art," "Battle Hymn of the Republic."

My Scripture—Psalms 119:105, "Thy Word is a lamp unto my feet and a Light unto my Path."

My Projects—Our International Presidents projects for the year. I am trying for every member participation by our little quiz that I have for every member.

A few weeks ago I was talking to our Association Secretary and asking about our membership. I found out that in spite of the lovely new members we took in during the year we were still not on the gain. Our dropouts, for several different reasons, as well as deaths, left us eighteen on the minus side of the sheet. We will have to do better than that this year. We can if we work hard enough. Where there is a will there is a way. Call on your inactive members, ask them to go to Lodge with you. Plan a little something special on several nights that will interest your own members as well as those in nearby Lodges. You know a couple of summer picnics are always fun, not too hard to accomplish, and you have a fine time to communicate with your members. How about a Thanksgiving Supper and invite your older ones to the meal, as a good will gesture. Always we try to remember Christmas, how about making something special for your older ones as well as shut ins. You have several special days for Odd Fellowship during the year, too.

I am going to try something different this year for my project. I have sheets for every member to fill out as to what they have, don't do AND do do. It should average about $2.00 for every sheet. I hope this passes the Presidents project to all, not just the same ones who attend and buy tickets for everything. I will have a raffle at Session, on a ceramic clock (about 10"x12") and battery powered, also on the same ticket will be an afghan, and several other articles, which will be 3 chances for a dollar ($1.00). I will have these with me on my visitations. By the way, I am planning on several visitations this late summer and fall as well as next spring.

On October 8, 1983 there will be a Rally for P.M. and L.A.P.M. at Sellersville. Let's remember, we have just the one Rally for our Branch so would like to see everyone near or far there. It isn't any further in miles to the East than it is to the West. I would be happy to see as many of my Officers as can make it at the Rally. They will fill the chairs as far as their presence goes and substitutes will fill in. I would like someone to do our degree for us. There will be a small lunch provided for a nominal fee and the good old southern hospitality for dinner. More will follow on this. As you all know the whole is only as firm or solid as the weakest link. Let's have some visitation from one Auxiliary to another this year. It does everyone good to go visiting and to think that people like you will care enough to come visit you. I ask that every Auxiliary make at least one visitation. Remember, this is our means of communication.

I am very much in hopes that our L.A.P.M. & P.M. can get at least two (2) buses to go to the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier services. These are very impressive ceremonies and we should be very proud that it is our Odd Fellows and not some other organizations that does this.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to my Installing Officers and her Staff for our most impressive Installation, it was very well done and thanks again so much Lady Leasure.

I would like to pledge my cooperation to all the Branches yet to be installed. If there is anything I can do for you, let me know, if at all possible I will oblige. Just remember ALL Brothers, Sisters, Ladies and Chevaliers, we are first of all LOYAL REBEKAHS AND ODD FELLOWS.

Again, thank you so much for coming.

THIS POEM WAS RECITED DAILY BY CHILDREN OF ORPHANS HOME AT PHILADELPHIA

All hail the noble Odd Fellows heavens born band

No other secret order on earth is so grand
On missions of charity daily you go

To scatter sweet tokens of love to and fro
Down in the homes by bereavement made sad

There you appear and make sorrowing glad
Long may you live and ever abide

Long may you live may no ill betide
Sweet homes for the orphans you kindly prepare

From life's roughest battles you shelter them there

Your hand has the widow's tears tenderly dried

The tears that once flowed as a wide swelling tide

No secret band on this earth is so grand
As this great glorious Odd Fellows band

Long may you live and ever abide
Long may you live may no ill betide

Nor will it e'er be said a brother's child shall beg for bread

For when the earnest prayer is said
Give us this day our daily bread

Odd Fellowship produces then the needed loaf as her amen

Hail angel of the helping band
Go forth upon thy mission grand

Roll stones from darkened tombs away
Drive out the night let in the day

Change hate to love with touch divine
Transform each ancient soulless creed

Into a living loving deed
Till brother men from sea to sea

More brotherly in love shall be
Hail angel hail

And still we claim
Odd Fellowship is thy dear name

ALL STATE RALLY — SUCCESSFUL

The All State Rally was held at Econo Lodge, Highspire, Pa. on May 21, 1983. The Econo Lodge was stirring with activity by 1:00 p.m. when the Rally convened. Lady Butler No. 316, Mifflin County, presided for the Opening and Closing of the Rally. Sister Virginia McCreary served as Noble Grand and D.D.P., Sister Hannah Hassinger was Vice Grand. The assistance of Lady Greenwood No. 308 and others was greatly appreciated.

Sister Zelma Fishel "Welcomed" everyone and expressed appreciation for the good attendance which was later learned to be 108. She reminded everyone that the Jurisdictional Planning Board plans to hold annually the All State Rally the third Saturday of May as it provides an opportunity to honor the Grand Master and the Rebekah Assembly President. Sister Fishel also stated that plans are being made for the Rally in 1984.

Following the regular Opening of the Rally, the Rebekah Degree was exemplified by the Centre County Degree Team whose Degree Captain is Sister Marie Alexander. The team was highly commended for their excellent Degree Work. We were happy to have seven candidates; two Sisters and five Brothers.

The evening was enjoyed with a delicious Banquet and enjoyable entertainment which began at 6:00 p.m. Mistress of Ceremonies was Sister Zelma Fishel, President of the Jurisdictional Planning Board.

The heads of the various Branches at the head table were introduced as follows: Lady Katherine Gross, 2nd Vice President L.A.P.M. and her husband, John; Brother Earl Leiby, Vice President Jurisdictional Planning Board; Patriarch James V. Browning, Grand Patriarch, and his wife, Betty; Brother Paul Cook, Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge, and his wife, Winifred; Sister Zelma Fishel, President of the Jurisdictional Planning Board, and her husband, Blair; Sister Jane McElhaney, President of the Rebekah Assembly of Pennsylvania and her escort, Sister Jean Talbot; Sister Sara V. Bonson, Secretary of the Jurisdictional Planning Board; Sister Vera Hein, Treasurer of the Jurisdictional Planning Board; and Rev. Elmer Horst, Entertainer.

Rev. Horst presented a very interesting monologue. He displayed a variety of animal pictures and gave connotations which reminded us of human behavior. This brought laughter and jubilant responses.

We, the committee, expect to see all who attended, plus many more, at the All State Rally in May 1984.

A TRIP TO REMEMBER

A year ago Sister Marge and I were preparing for vacation and had made plans to go to Kentucky and visit the home Lodge of P.S.G.M. Harris, who was then S.G.M., but as the saying goes "oft times plans of mice and men go astray." Well that is just what happened to us because their meeting was the wrong week we had picked for vacation.

We had written to Bro. Harris and several letters were exchanged. This year things have turned out for us that we will be in Somerset, Ky. the evening of May 26, 1983. A few days before we left we received a letter from Bro. Harris, that the Rebekah Lodge is putting on a dinner in our honor. We didn't expect such a thing to be done for us. The dinner was delicious, of course, with southern fried chicken and a host of other good things to eat. We had taken some gifts from our section of the country and they presented us with a beautiful cut glass candy dish.

The Grand Master, Rondol Neikirk, was there with his lovely wife and after the meeting they invited us to their home for coffee and plenty of conversation filled with Odd Fellowship. It was a very rewarding evening all around. We were disappointed to find that P.S.G.M. Harris had been called out of town earlier in the week, so we did not get to see him. We had a few days the first part of the week to travel around Kentucky and see some of the new and old points of interest and enjoy some real good food and friendship with everyone we met. Some of the places we visited were Cumberland Falls, Frankfort, the capital and Fort Herrod. We saw many big and beautiful horse farms and horses. The scenery all the way was exceptional and so was the weather, no rain all week.

On our return home Grandma and I spent a couple of days with our grandchildren, something that always gives us a big lift. Marge added some bells to her collection including one that was a gift from the Grand Master's wife. It had the head of a thoroughbred horse on it. We would certainly like to make that trip again sometime and maybe we will.

Wherever we are we sing the praises of the Odd Fellow and Rebekah Magazine. While in Kentucky we took copies of our magazine and one lady was so impressed she paid for a subscription. Now they will see what we are doing in Pennsylvania.

At the end of our vacation we had a dark cloud cover the air as we learned that a 13 year old niece had been killed the day before in an automobile accident. Although the end was sad the memory of our trip was very good.

Warren Tripp

FROM THE DESK OF THE GRAND SECRETARY

The Twelfth Unified Sessions of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of the Jurisdiction of Pennsylvania are over, and are now history. We have new Officers to lead us through the ensuing year, but as we all know they cannot do the work that needs to be done all by themselves. It takes a lot of teamwork and cooperation, and every Odd Fellow and Rebekah in this Jurisdiction should pledge ourselves to do everything within our power to help in any way possible so that our Order here will begin to climb back to the position that we once held with honor.

HOW LONG HAS IT BEEN SINCE YOU ASKED SOMEONE TO BECOME A MEMBER OF YOUR LODGE AND OF THE ORDER? Regardless of how long it has been, why not try to get at least one new member during the year that lies ahead of all of us.

From my observations, the main reasons that a number of our Lodges are having problems today is the fact that for a good many years past there has been no effort put forth to try to bring in new members. Also, the fact that when new and younger members are introduced into Odd Fellowship a lot of the members of the Lodges will not permit them to try some new ideas that possibly could inspire some other younger persons to join also. The old excuse is that the Grand Lodge will not permit trying some of the suggested ideas, or, we never did it before.

Most of those who make such remarks actually do not know what Grand Lodge will or will not permit as they have had very little if any contact with the Grand Lodge for a number of years.

If there is something that your Lodge would like to try in order to try to increase interest and also attract new members, why not contact the Grand Master or the Grand Secretary to inquire about the matter. If you never ask you will never know.

During the past year there were about six Seminars held at various locations throughout the Jurisdiction for the benefit of all District Deputy Grand Masters, Lodge Officers, and all members who may be interested in learning the proper ways of conducting Lodge Meetings, filing Reports with the Grand Lodge, and answering the questions that anyone had in order to clarify things for the good of all concerned. The attendance at the Seminars was not really bad, but it could have been a lot better. Our new Grand Master has stated that he would like to continue the Seminars, and it is my hope that there will be a lot more interest shown. None of us are too old to learn something new, or the proper way to do the work of Odd Fellowship.

IT IS TIME THAT WE INSTILL A LOT MORE DIGNITY INTO THE WORKINGS OF ODD FELLOWSHIP SO THAT WE CAN ATTRACT MORE NEW MEMBERS, AND BRING BACK THE OLD ONES.

"MESSAGE TO YOUNG PEOPLE"

If you are to be happy in life, your first and most vital concern should be to know and understand yourself. You are a special individual! Each is unique from any other human being because your inherited potentials, your experiences, your physical environment, your cultural socialization, have created a personality that is like no other. Yet, you resemble all other humans because you are born with the same basic drives and needs; the physical need for oxygen, warmth, food, and avoidance of pain and the emotional needs for love and security. In conjunction with self-knowledge there should be self-like and self-respect.

You should get acquainted with the people around you, those that make up your world. Get to know a sister, a brother, cousin, mother, father, neighbor, grandparents and the community leaders. Learn about people in distant lands, friends, and even those that may dislike you. Find out what makes them happy, or sad, and what are their likes and dislikes, what are their hopes and dreams and beliefs. What ways are you alike, and or different? Only in understanding others will we be able to know ourselves.

If you are to be happy and successful in life you need to prepare yourself for productive living. But it is the form of learning a trade, developing a hobby, acquiring a college degree, or perfecting yourself as a parent. Only if you prepare yourself for productive living will you be able to increase the quality of your standard of living. Each generation should raise the standard of living compared to that of the previous generation.

An education is so important in our competitive world. The present generation, of college age, should not settle for or be satisfied with anything less than a college education. Take advantage of the many opportunities available to help you get an education. Young parents, please realize the importance of learning and developing your mind. If not for yourselves, then for your offspring. Parenthood and socializing are very serious business and you should be prepared to do a good job. The "Cradle" should be the start of an on-going quality education so that our people can strive for upward mobility and the attainment of the rewards that our society has to offer. Education is the magic key to an immeasurably fuller life. Invest in an excellent education!

CLOVER LODGE NEWS

The Delegate to the United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth representing Clover Lodge No. 348, Ambridge, Pennsylvania, will be Miss Tricia Renee Hetrick, granddaughter of Brother Thomas J. Slingluff. The Delegates will assemble in the city of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania on Wednesday, July 20, 1983, and leave by bus the following morning after the send-off breakfast. The Tour Director is Sister Elaine Hollerich of Library, Pennsylvania, and Assistant Tour Director is James W. Crowe, Grand Patriarch of the Grand Encampment of Pennsylvania, from Clover Lodge No. 348, and Coraopolis, Pennsylvania. This is the second tour that the Grand Patriarch has participated in. He has been selected by the Grand Master, Edward W. Binkley. He is also the current and future Jurisdictional Chairman of the Youth Program of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, of the United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth, in the Jurisdiction of Pennsylvania. He has been appointed to this Chairmanship for about the past 7 or 8 years, and once again during the term of June 1983 to June 1984. He has served in this position with much honor to himself and the Grand Lodge.

At the Twelfth Unified Session of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and Rebekah Assembly of Pennsylvania, held at the Host Inn, Harrisburg, Penna. the week of June 19 thru June 24, James W. Crowe was Invested and Installed as the Grand Patriarch of The Grand Encampment of Pennsylvania, on Thursday evening, June 23, 1983, to serve until June, 1984. There was a large delegation from Clover Lodge No. 348 and Ambridge Encampment No. 259 present to witness this most memorable occasion, in behalf of James W. Crowe. He is the second member of Clover Lodge No. 348 and Ambridge Encampment No. 259, to serve this Grand Encampment and Grand Jurisdiction as Grand Patriarch. The late J. Perry Kennedy was the other member from these units of Beaver County.

Every member of these units are very proud and honored to have one such as Brother and Patriarch Crowe receive this honor. It has been long delayed, but later maybe, is better than not at all. We all support and pray and wish him the best of everything in the future. We will support him 100% during his tenure as our Grand Patriarch.

With the close of the Unified Sessions of Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania another honored Brother, Robert K. Rees, will retire as the District Deputy Grand Master of District No. 63, Beaver County, after three or four terms. He has served well in his tenure as our D.D.G.M., and we wish for him the best of health and success in his future endeavors. He has been a credit to our District, our County, our Lodge and Encampment here in Ambridge, Pennsylvania. We are indeed fortunate and blessed to have both of these Brothers as members of our Grand Fraternity in this Beaver County community. They both are a "tough act" to follow.

Scripture is taken from Joshua 1:9 "Be strong and of good courage; be not dismayed for the Lord God is with thee whosoever thou goest." The alter song is "No Man Is An Island" and the closing song, "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You." Others are "I Made It Through the Rain," "If I Can Help Somebody," "Take My Hand Precious Lord," and "People." THE BEAUTIFUL IN LIFE

All you are, all you do
 Beautiful in life come back to you.
 Some talk of it in poetry,
 Some grow it from the soil,
 Some build it in a steeple,
 Some show it thru their toil.
 Some breathe it into music,
 Some mold it into art,
 Some shape it into breadloaves,
 Some hold it in their heart.
 Yes, all you are and all you do
 Beautiful in life, comes back to you.

WIT AND WISDOM

The trouble with being physically fit is that you're apt to wear yourself out trying to stay that way.

A SENIOR CITIZEN

You are a senior citizen if you remember:
When the village square was a place, not a person.

When wonder drugs were mustard plasters and castor oil.

When rackets were a part of a fireworks celebration.

When folks sat down to dinner and counted their blessings not their calories.

When in courting your girl, you turned out the gas instead of stepping on it.

When a bureau was a piece of furniture not a government office.

When a dish washer had to be married,
not bought.

HE MAKETH NO MISTAKE

My Father's way may twist and turn,

My heart may throb and ache,
But in my soul I'm glad I know,

He maketh no mistake.

My cherished plans may go astray.

My hopes may fade away,
But still I'll trust my Lord to lead

For He doth know the way.

Tho' night be dark and it may seem

That day will never break;

I'll pin my faith, my all in Him,

He maketh no mistake.

There's so much now I cannot see,

My eyesight's far too dim;

But come what may, I'll simply trust

And leave it all to Him.

For by and by the mist will lift

And plain it all He'll make.

Through all the way, tho' dark to me,
He made not one mistake.

"I will not work with Mr. Pen,"

said Mr. Ink, one day;

"Nor I with you," said Mr. Pen,

And so each went his way.

Said Mr. Pen, "Today, I think,
A letter I will write."

Alas! he could not make a mark

Upon the paper, white.

Said Mr. Ink, "I think I'll write

A story now; why not?"

But though he worked, both long and hard

He only made a blot.

Then Mr. Pen and Mr. Ink,

Said, "We have foolish been;

Hereafter, we'll work together,

Right now, we will begin."

Now we can all a lesson learn,

From this short tale, I guess

For "work together" is the rule,

If we would have success.

The White Cross of Remembrance followed with the Reading of the Deceased Patriarchs of the Encampments of District No. 61 by District Deputy Grand Patriarch, Herbert Heineman, assisted by Sister Louisa May Alcott, who placed the white carnations upon the White Cross of Remembrance as each name was read.

The soloist on the program was Brother Larry D. Knouse, who sang the hymns, "He Walks With Me and He Talks With Me," and "Nearer My God to Thee." Rees, assisted by a Brother of Ellwood City Lodge No. 9. The Deceased Sisters of the Rebekah Lodges were read by P.D.D.P. Sister Katherine Dever, assisted by a Sister Rebekah.

The speaker for this Memorial Service was Sister Katherine Dever, who offered a very impressive and enlightening Address pertaining to the Motto of our Grand Fraternity—Friendship, Love and Truth, and our Ritualistic Work, pertaining to our Lodges, and our actions within the public image that we project as Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, to show the general public what the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs represents, and what we are doing to make this a better world and life for all the people of the world. We should all practice our principles and our Motto, and the Tenets of Odd Fellowship and Rebekah Odd Fellowship, with everyone with whom we come in contact in our daily encounters with life.

The Prayer was offered by Brother P.G. Hilton Yelland, followed by the Closing Hymn, "America." The Benediction was then offered by Brother P.G. Hilton Yelland. AN ODD FELLOW IS . . .

Someone who believes that in a Lodge Room, where quiet reigns, reason abounds.

Someone who believes that a Lodge knows that anything it does will be insignificant in the future, but is very important that it does it for the present.

Someone who believes that it is the greatest of all mistakes for a Lodge to do nothing because it can do only a little. It must do what it can.

Someone who believes that all Oddfellows are divided into two classes: those who are dedicated workers and always remembered and those who are not involved and easily forgotten.

Someone who believes that it takes a lot of thought and effort and downright determination to be agreeable and a good Brother.

Someone who believes that anyone who thinks the world is always cheating him is right—he misses that wonderful Oddfellow feeling of trust in someone or something.

MEMORIAL SERVICE HELD BY UNIFIED LODGE #2

On a Thursday evening at the Regular Stated Meeting of Unified Lodge No. 2, North Side, Pittsburgh, the Annual Memorial Service was held in conjunction with the Stated Meeting. Following the Regular Business of the Lodge, the Noble Grand, John Kotler, turned the Lodge over to the Chairman of the Memorial Service, PDDGM Kenneth John Faub. Words of Welcome were offered by Brother Faub to Open the Memorial Service, followed by the Opening Prayer by the Chaplain, William Confer. It should be mentioned that this was a very impressive Memorial Service in the manner in which it was presented. As the Brothers' names were read, another Brother would approach the Memorial Display and read a poem in memory of the Deceased Brother, then light one of the candles and place a white carnation upon the Memorial Display. This was carried on throughout the Memorial Service in like manner. Also, several Brothers spoke a few words about each of the Deceased Brothers, in their memory. At the Closing of the Memorial Service each one of the Memorial Candles was extinguished.

The Memorial Odd Fellow's Flag, and American Flags were placed upon the Memorial Board, and two sprigs of Acacia, symbolizing that our Deceased Brethren would dwell in green pastures in the Kingdom of Heaven in Grand Lodge up above.

The following Brothers Deceased were honored at this Memorial Service: George Cain, initiated Feb. 2, 1951, died July 24, 1982; Stewart H. Healey, initiated Oct. 1, 1936, died Sept. 8, 1982; J. ODD FELLOWS INSTALL NEW GRAND MASTER AT STATE CONVENTION

LODGE VISITATION PROGRAM

Recently forms were sent to all Lodges in the Jurisdiction of Penna. from the Grand Lodge Office. Those forms included the following questions with spaces for response:

1. How long has it been since the Grand Master visited your Lodge?
2. How long since one or more Grand Lodge Officers visited your Lodge?
3. Would your Lodge be interested in having the Grand Master and Officers visit your Lodge?
4. If the answer to question 3 is Yes, then what would be a suitable time and date for a visitation?
5. Would your Lodge desire to have the Grand Lodge Degree conferred when the Officers visit your Lodge?
6. Does your Lodge have any Special Affairs at which you would want the Grand Master and other Officers present?

Early response to this program has been good; in fact, the first month's Lodge visitation schedule has been based upon prompt replies from specific areas of the state.

Some of those Lodges which replied promptly and were contacted for visitation also asked for press release formats for their local newspapers.

Because publicity is good for the Order, our Chairman for Publicity, West, Brother Morris J. Martin, has responded by sending our samples of advance press release formats. He also recommended that each Lodge should have a reporter appointed to do such work in advance of visitations and other affairs, then send a writeup of the meeting to the PENNSYLVANIA ODD FELLOWS.

Since the Lodge visitation schedule is presently based upon early response to our program, we would ask that members of Lodges in the general locale where visits are planned should try to attend. Depending upon response from various parts of the state, it could be a while before visitations are planned for that area again.

Thanks for your cooperation in this program.

Your Grand Master, Paul

DOWN LIMERICK LANE

There's a lad in our Lodge name of Walter
Who never has been to the altar
Says he, "I'm afraid
Of a beautiful maid
If she asks me to wed, I will halter."

Our Number One foe is pollution
We're searching to find the solution
With Ford at the helm
We'll soon overwhelm
Thus give our dear land a transfusion.

In the magical month of December
Let's strive to recruit and remember
It's workers we need
So get on your steed
Get a man. Get a boy, Get a Member.

Don't whine "In my Lodge there's a clique."
They're the ones very easy to pick
If there's work to be done
They're always the one
To do it quite well and right quick.

Never be faint in well doing
The good things of life are worth wooing
Put your heart in the task
It's not too much to ask
The effort you'll never be rueing.

There's a little fine Lodge in the Stix
Believe me they know all the tricks
They're taking men in
They've set out to win
For effort and work always mix.

FROM THE DESK OF "The RHYMING Rooter."

30 WAYS TO KILL AN ORGANIZATION

1. Don't attend meetings.
2. If you attend, come late.
3. If you don't like the weather, don't go.
4. If you do go, criticize the work of officers and members.
5. Never hold an office, as it is easier to find fault with others than to do things yourself.
6. Get upset if you're not appointed to a committee. If you are appointed, never attend committee meetings.
7. When asked by the chairman for your opinion on something, say you have nothing to say. Save your comments for after the meeting.
8. Don't do anything unless it's absolutely necessary. But when others attempt to really get something done, complain that the organization is controlled by a clique.
9. Don't attempt to recruit new members. Let somebody else do it.
10. When a party is planned, complain loudly that the organization is wasting money for nothing.
11. When no parties are planned, complain that the organization lacks life.
12. Don't try to obtain a party ticket till they're all sold out.
13. Then complain you were cheated out of yours.
14. If you do manage to get a ticket, don't pay for it.
15. If asked to sit at the head table, of course refuse.
16. If you're not asked, resign.
17. Don't pay your dues, or at least hold back from paying as long as possible.
18. If you're not asked to pay your dues, don't volunteer to pay them.
19. When you do receive a bill for your dues, don't pay till you get a second statement. Then become upset because you've been dunned.
20. If you receive a bill for dues that have been paid, resign, or at least complain that the treasurer is misusing finances.
21. Don't let the organization know how it can help you, but if it doesn't, resign.
22. If you can obtain some of the benefits without officially joining the organization, don't join.
23. If your organization doesn't correct abuses in other's business, complain nothing is being done.
24. If it calls attention to abuses in your own, resign.
25. Keep searching for something wrong in the organization when you find it, resign.
26. At every opportunity threaten to resign.
27. And, get your friends to resign too.
28. When you do go to a meeting, vote to do something. Then, go home and do just the opposite.
29. Agree to everything said during the meeting, then disagree after the meeting's over.
30. Delay replying to communications from the organization or better yet, don't answer at all.

MILLER KARNS LODGE

Miller-Karns Odd Fellows Lodge held their Annual Roll Call Dinner recently at the Centurion Restaurant in Petrolia.

Claire Geortz, Noble Grand welcomed the 28 members, District Deputy Wesley McCall, and Mr. Charles Hughes, Administrator at Orchard Manor.

D.D.G.M. McCall spoke briefly and thanked the Lodge for the invitation to dinner and expressed his best wishes to all attending. In closing remarks he praised Miller-Karns Lodge for having a dinner such as this to encourage members to attend lodge meetings as often as possible.

Mr. Hughes explained the "Mile of Pennies" program briefly as to what the money is spent for such as new table cloths for the dining room and a new laundry cart for the laundry department. A total of $80.00 was collected for this project later in the evening. He also spoke on "Reaganomics" and how it is affecting the home operations. Recently a 10% cutback in staff was necessary. He also stated that the Home does not participate in the Medicare program due to so much paper work. His talk was very well received and he was congratulated by Mr. Geortz on his outstanding work as administrator in these very difficult days.

Ross Slagle, a resident at Orchard Manor since 1953 and a member of Miller-Karns Lodge for 60 years was also present. Ross has been at the Home longer than anyone presently there.

D. W. Kelly, Lodge Chaplain, asked the Invocation and noted the passing of three members since last year's dinner: I. B. Kelly, Andrew Shawley, and Paul Potusbay. He remembered them and their families in his opening prayer.

Brother Kelly in his remarks before he gave the benediction told those attending that someone was responsible for a lot of work preparing for the evening's dinner. Dinner preparation, programs prepared and typed and just a good evening planned. Without anyone singled out a hearty thanks in the form of a good hand was given for their work.

Memories in silent grief we bear
But tears in our eyes we wipe away,
But the aches in our hearts will always stay
And the lonely days will pass by
But the many years of love and happiness you gave to us will always remain in our hearts

These beautiful memories of you I will always cherish. Life is just not the same without you. We miss you so very much here on earth. You were our heart, head and hands, and life without you sometimes we cannot stand. But may you dwell in the House and Kingdom of the Master above until we are reunited with you once again . . . God bless and keep you always close to Him.

THE LAST DEGREE

An old man sat at the Odd Fellows Home, feeble, old and gray. With tottering limbs and low-bowed head; just at the close of day. And there by a row of evergreen trees an angel from heaven came down, who gazed at the old man direct in the eye, stood an angel with flowing gown. The old man peered at the Heavenly form and asked, "Are you seeking for me," "For you, my brother," the angel replied, "It is time for your last degree. You have passed through the wilderness of life, you have traveled its treacherous sands, I've come to conduct you to a lodge of love and the grandest of all Noble Grands."

The old man said, "My teeth are gone, my eyes are dim and dried, my wrinkled old face is feeble now, though still it is opened wide. The trademark of age is on my brow, my hearing is nearly gone. My memory is failing fast and the race is nearly run. I am filled with a longing to see again my brothers up there with the blest. My weary old head is bowed with years, I am ready to go to rest. I have seen the rose spread its glowing leaves to the light of the morning sun, yet, they withered and died upon the ground; ere the warmth of the day was done. I have watched the young man in the strength of youth, his head proudly was high, but just like the rose, he withered away; for all who are born must die. Conductor I am ready to enter the hall, and I hope they will not blackball me. Just carry the word, I am ready for the last Degree."

"THANKS EVERYONE"

from: Kathryn M. Bieber

Many, many thanks to my Sisters and Brothers who assisted in any way in getting me to the hospital in Harrisburg so quickly to receive treatment for my eye hemorrhage on Thursday morning, the last day of our session. A special thanks to Louella Binkley and her brother-in-law, Clyde Binkley, who were so kind in taking good care of me and taking me to the hospital. Thanks to P.G.M. Gilbert Rand, and my own Lodge members, and Elizabeth Springer for packing my luggage at the motel, and getting me ready for my trip home, while I was still at the hospital. I understand there were others that helped and were concerned. Thanks, too, for the many telephone calls and notes I have received.

Now that I am home and in the care of my own eye doctor I am improving.

These are the times that true Odd Fellows and Rebekahs practice their teachings. ODD FELLOWS and REBEKAHS are the best people on earth!

MAKING THINGS LESS COMPLICATED

How many times have you heard it said, "I sure wish we could make things a little less complicated"?

Most of us recall the old family doctor. No matter what the ailment, these beloved physicians had a simple remedy. Do you remember horehound? Doctors always seemed to have their offices at home, it was all so comfortable and simple. Medical advances have been absolutely wonderful, but it certainly seems a lot more complicated than when we once went to "Doc" Smith's office down the street.

Even typewriters have changed. The old "Underwood" lasted for several lifetimes. It was almost indestructible. All you had to do is hit the keys and out would come the letter. Take a look at the keys of a new typewriter. The number has grown like "Topsy." The old levers with the letters on the end are gone too. In fact, the inside is almost empty. "It's all electronic," we're told. It's all done with "print-wheels." And, no matter what the ads say, it all seems complicated to most of us.

Even today, there are some things that really aren't very complicated. Many decades ago, a philosopher made one of the most basic truths of life utterly simple. In fact, it's so simple we often forget it. "The deepest principle in human nature is the craving to be appreciated." That's quite a sentence, isn't it? Just 12 words—no more! But what else is there today? When it comes right down to it, every human being wants—more than anything else—to be appreciated.

When you first read these words, you will then realize that in that one sentence it describes the purpose of Odd Fellowship, Rebekah Odd Fellowship. As Odd Fellows, and Rebekahs, we have one goal—to discover the goodness and greatness in each other and to confer on each other the dignity of Brotherhood. It is this sense of mutual appreciation that is at the heart of our Fraternity. That is why we continue to have a mission in this world. Strife between men, senseless crimes, trouble with young people, disharmony in the home—are not the roots of discord to be found in the human heart? The deepest principle in human nature is the craving "To be Appreciated."

Our task as Odd Fellows and Rebekahs is to make sure—every day—that we convey to those around us a sense of Appreciation. There is nothing complicated about that.

CONFIDE IN A FRIEND

When you're tired and worn at the close of day
And things just don't seem to be going your way,
When even your patience has come to an end,
Try taking time out and confide in a friend.
Perhaps he too may have walked the same road
With a much troubled heart and burden-some load,
To find peace and comfort somewhere near the end.
When he stopped long enough to confide in a friend.
For then are most welcome a few words of cheer,
For someone who willingly lends you an ear.
No troubles exist that time cannot mend,
But to get quick relief, just confide in a friend.
