This picture shows the Brothers of Nickel Plate Lodge #1125 loading me onto the van to go to the oyster stew and shrimp dinner held at our Lodge. Without hat, Henry Hartich, Vice Grand; with cap, Paul N. Goodwin, Treasurer; wheelchair, Herbert Filby.

Lodge boys built the ramp to wheel me from house into van—when we get to Lodge they reverse operation. Picture shows me with left prosthesis. I now have my prosthesis for right leg and am beginning to learn to walk again with the help of a metal walker. I don't have either real limbs but that's not going to keep me quiet; with the help of all my friends and Lodge Brothers I'll make it O.K. Hope to see you at session this June.

REBEKAH ASSEMBLY OFFICERS MEET GOVERNOR OF WEST VIRGINIA

Betty L. Elder, Vice President, and Helen Dinco, Warden, along with Rose Gearhart, P.D.D.P. and Elaine Hollerich, D.D.P. visited our neighboring State of West Virginia for the purpose of attending the Testimonial Dinner for our International President, Alberta Hudkins, in Clarksburg, W. Va., and early on were tipped off that Governor Jay Rockefeller would be staying in rooms next to theirs at the Holiday Inn.

A Governor watch was promptly instituted. Sister Betty, having studied the scouting tactics of John Wayne in numerous western movies, was sent out to ascertain if arrival of said Governor had taken place. She was assisted by that well-known Indian Scout, Elaine, but was heard to mutter as she padded shoeless down the hall, "Don't know why Vice President has to do this!" The Veep was suddenly confronted by a 6 ft. 2 inch security guard and rendered speechless—do you believe?—for some seconds at least! The Governor had indeed arrived.

Being true Pennsylvania Rebekah Goodwill Ambassadors, in no time at all, your fearless four were on first name basis with the security people and aids and to their delight found that one of the aids was a native of Conemaugh, PA. Pictures were taken by the Governor's photographer and will be forwarded to Sister Betty along with souvenirs for the four sisters.

Governor Rockefeller was a featured speaker at the Testimonial, paying a marvelous tribute to our International President, Alberta. The consensus of opinion was that he was just as handsome as his pictures; charming, friendly and very tall.

ANNUAL FISH FRY

On Friday, April 1, 1983 East Brunswick Lodge #802 held their Annual Fish Fry at the Fire House in New Ringgold, Pa. This is practically an all day affair, lasting until 6:00 P.M., and if a person goes away hungry it most certainly is their own fault. This is an all-you-can-eat Fish Fry, and the fish is delicious. In addition to the fish you have your choice of either baked or french fried potatoes, pepper slaw, baked beans, rolls, butter, coffee, tea, soft drinks and ice cream for dessert.

This affair is held every year on Good Friday, and for a very reasonable donation you can have a very enjoyable meal. This also helps the Odd Fellow and Rebekah Lodge financially in all of the good work that they do in that area. In addition to that, it gives a person the opportunity to visit with those friends that you may not have seen for quite awhile.

They disposed of approximately 550 lbs. of fish as of the last report that your reporter had.

If you missed the event this year, plan to attend next year.

It was good to see two residents of the Home in Middletown enjoying themselves at the Fish Fry. Doug Mills, son of the Home Administrator, David Mills, brought Brother Bob Snyder of Eureka Lodge and Brother Ralph Gerhard, a member of East Brunswick Lodge to New Ringgold for the dinner.

ALMA LODGE NO. 523 CONFERS INITIATORY DEGREE

On Friday, March 11, 1983, Alma Lodge conferred the Initiatory Degree on five young men. They are William W. Hartland, Richard B. Robertson, Charles L. Robertson and Jonathan R. Barron, all of Alma, and Manley Toy of Laurel Lodge No. 672, Punxsutawney.

Alma Lodge will again confer the Initiatory Degree April 15, for three or more candidates from Alert Lodge No. 936, Rochester Mills. All this candidate activity is for our upcoming Five County Degree Rally on Saturday, April 30, at Punxsutawney Area High School where the first, second and third degrees will be performed.

We at Alma Lodge would like to thank our degree captain, James Kuntz, for doing such a great job.

FROM THE GRAND MASTER:

Travelogue and Notes

In the past two months I have made two one week long swings across the state.

My Grand Conductor Richard Heffner and I made a trip across the northeastern portion of the state back in February. This trip started on the Monday following that 20 inches plus snow storm that fell in my home area on the previous Friday. It was indeed interesting to drive north and run out of the snow cover.

In Honesdale we observed a hall that was being renovated in order to make it more heat efficient.

On Tuesday evening at Hartford we had a grand evening at a covered dish dinner in the Hartford Social Hall, with several other lodges represented. By the way, a delicious oyster stew was served.

On Wednesday we spent the evening in Laceyville, a lodge that is showing promise for the future.

We motored over to Canton on Thursday for a meeting in a very attractive Hall. This was another good stop for oyster stew.

This trip was cut short as we had to head out to Finleyville for the viewing and service of our Grand Treasurer, Andrew Burgan. Andy was a victim of a work site accident. We will miss Andy. This was the second viewing and service of the month for the Grand Lodge. Sixteen days earlier we had gathered to pay our respects to Samuel J. Patterson, P.G.M., P.G.R., P.S. G.M.

In our March swing, Richard and I with The Grand Secretary, Willis G. Robinson and Grand Warden Howard Chew, went up to Jersey Shore where the Grand Lodge Degree was conferred on thirteen brothers. We had conferred the Degree on thirteen at Tunkhannock on March 1st, and by this time Howard was getting concerned. To ease his concern we conferred the Degree on fourteen at The Fisher Hall.

From Fisher, Richard and I went to Titusville for a call. We took the opportunity while we were in that area to have breakfast in the Jane McElhaney kitchen. With full stomachs, we went on to Pittsburgh to Brushton-Swissvale.

We had another good meeting at Brushton-Swissvale; from there the next day, Friday, brought us back to Mifflintown for a stop.

This type of trip allows one to stop by and do some visiting, even to share around the table. We thank all for their great hospitality.

Just in case you think that I shut down completely during winter; I made 6 visits in January, 8 in February, and 16 in March.

These little items I wanted to share with you, to let you know that we do get around Tuitt.

Your Grand Master, Ed

SEMINAR

On Saturday, April 2, 1983, Grand Master Edward W. Binkley and the District Deputy Grand Master's Association held a Seminar at Mackinaw Lodge #380 in New Bloomfield, Pa. This was a very profitable Session with quite a few Brothers and a few Sister Rebekahs in attendance. P.G.M. Earl R. Longstreth spoke and explained the various procedures for conducting an interesting Lodge Meeting as well as the fact that all Lodges should have a copy of the Sovereign Grand Lodge Code of Laws, the Grand Lodge Code of Laws, and of course their own By-Laws to refer to when they are in doubt about anything that transpires during their Lodge meetings.

Brother David Mills, Administrator of the Odd Fellow's Home of Pennsylvania at Middletown explained the proper procedure for a person to be admitted to the Home either as a paying guest or a permanent resident.

Grand Secretary Willis G. Robinson spoke on the proper procedures for obtaining the various Certificates such as Transfers, Withdrawals, Dismissals, Resignations, etc. He then explained the proper way for the Secretaries of the Lodges to make out their Annual and Semi Annual Reports to the Grand Lodge.

Anyone who desired to ask any questions was given the opportunity to do so during the course of these informational topics as they were being discussed.

To conclude the afternoon Session, Grand Master Binkley explained the ways and means of building the membership in the Lodges and of all the helpful information and guides that are available, mostly free of charge through the Grand Lodge Office.

Through the cooperation of both the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of the New Bloomfield area a very nice lunch was prepared, and, we who planned this Seminar are deeply appreciative of the efforts of the Brothers and Sisters of that area for helping to make it such a good day for all.

There are arrangements being made for three more of these Seminars during the latter part of May in the Western area of the Jurisdiction, and if at all possible YOU should make an effort to attend one or more. As soon as the details are all finalized, notices will be sent to all Odd Fellow Lodges in the Jurisdiction.

CONFIDENT LODGE #1133 I.O.O.F.

228 Nazareth Pike, Hecktown, Pa.

Confident Lodge #1133 of Hecktown, Pa. held a birthday party on March 25, 1983 for two Brothers. Bro. Raymond Young became 99 years old on March 9th, and Bro. Floyd Lahr became 90 years old on March 15th. Bro. Young is a member of the Lodge for 66 years, Bro. Lahr for over 50 years. Refreshments were served after the regular meeting. Walter D. Laubach

REBEKAH DEGREE CONFERRED

On Friday evening, September 17, 1982 Maple Glen Rebekah Lodge #392 with Noble Grand Helen Getz and her Officers presiding conferred the Rebekah Degree on four new members of Lady Evelyn Rebekah Lodge #22 of Cassville, Pa.

There were fourteen members of Lady Evelyn Rebekah Lodge present to see their new members initiated in a very lovely service.

On Monday evening, October 11, 1982 Frances Rebekah Lodge #578 of Three Springs, Pa., with District Deputy President Hannah Gordon and her Installing Staff presiding, had Installation of Officers for Lady Evelyn Rebekah Lodge #22 of Cassville, Pa. and Frances Rebekah Lodge #578 of Three Springs, Pa.

In keeping with the President of the Rebekah Assembly's theme, a white carnation arrangement with black and white ribbons was presented to each Noble Grand to be placed on her respective Altar for the ensuing year, by the District Deputy President, Hannah Gordon.

Lady Evelyn Rebekah Lodge #22 also held a Festival this past year in order to raise some funds for the Home.

Lady Evelyn Rebekah Lodge #22 was Instituted on May 29, 1982, and they are really doing something to build up their Lodge and increase interest for the benefit of Rebekah Odd Fellowship. They are in their new Lodge Hall now, and would be most happy to have visitors at any of their meetings.

* * * *

A baby sardine was happily swimming in the ocean near its mother when it saw its first submarine. The mother quickly reassured her frightened offspring. "Don't worry dear. It's just a can of people."

FIRST IMPRESSIONS

What happens to that new candidate if the ceremony of initiation is not conducted with the dignity and solemnity it deserves? If a Lodge is not prepared to confer a Degree, the candidate should not be called.

Let us go back to the first stages of a candidate's affiliation with a Lodge. He knows not too much of its history. He knows very little of what it does. He knows only that those who belong are men of good repute. They are honorable, they are helpful, they are law-abiding; in short, they are good citizens. Observing these things, he wishes to become associated with them. He applies for membership. Investigation proves he is worthy and well-qualified for acceptance. In due time he is notified to appear for initiation. That is where Fraternity begins for him in reality. That is where he gets his first impressions of Fraternity—and everybody knows that the first impressions are likely to be lasting ones. That is why the ceremony of initiation is so important; his whole fraternal life may be cast right there.

If this is improperly done, conducted in an "assembly-line" manner, with the members exhibiting boredom, and a "let's get-it-over-with" attitude, you can be sure the newly-obligated candidate is going away with a lowered opinion of the Lodge. He is bound to feel a sense of being cheated, and the hoodwink is certain to mean more to him than the symbol for which it stands.

Let's do away with carelessness that detracts from the solemnity, dignity, and honor when a member is about to enter the portals of a Fraternity.

The teacher asked her students to write an essay, explaining what they would do if they each had a million dollars. Every pupil except Teddy began writing immediately. He just sat in his chair, making faces and twiddling his thumbs.

At the end of the class period, the teacher collected the papers and Teddy turned his blank sheet in with the rest.

"What is the meaning of this, Teddy?" asked the teacher. "Is this your essay? All the others have written two pages or more, but you've done absolutely nothing!"

"Well," replied Teddy, "if I had that much money, that's exactly what I'd do—nothing."

HAZEL LONGSTRETH IN HOME

Hazel Longstreth, after one and a half years of hospital stays and confinement in her home, has been admitted to Stroud Manor, 221 E. Brown Street, East Stroudsburg, PA 18301. She is feeling a little low right now, and I think she would appreciate receiving cards and well wishes.

ODD FELLOWSHIP

ANCIENT ODD FELLOW—An Ancient Odd Fellow is one who has been regularly initiated into the Order and retired therefrom, in good standing, either by taking a Withdrawal Card, or by Resignation.

If a member resigns, he at once becomes an Ancient Odd Fellow, and if he takes a Withdrawal Card, and does not deposit it, he becomes one at the expiration of one year from the date of his card. He is not entitled to visit an Odd Fellow Lodge. He may be allowed to renew his membership by deposit of card in a Lodge, at the place of his residence, upon the payment of such fees as the laws of such Lodge require, if he can prove himself in the Work. If he becomes an Ancient Odd Fellow by written Resignation, he may be re-admitted, provided he can pass a satisfactory examination in the Work. If his card has been lost or destroyed, on satisfactory proof thereof, he may be re-admitted, and will be entitled to the rank he can prove himself to have attained. The holder of a dismissal certificate does not become an Ancient Odd Fellow. A member of a defunct Odd Fellow Lodge obtaining a card from the Grand Secretary or the Grand Lodge of the Jurisdiction in which the defunct Lodge was located, thereby becomes an Ancient Odd Fellow.

MRS. EDNA MILLER, ACTIVE IN REBEKAH LODGE PROJECTS, DIES

Mrs. Edna E. Miller, 76, of 815 New Castle Rd., well-known for her activities in state and local Rebekah and Odd Fellows Lodge projects, died January 16, 1983 in Butler County Memorial Hospital, after a short illness.

Mrs. Miller was the first woman to serve as president of the Board of Directors of the Odd Fellows Home, Grove City, and was the last surviving charter member of the Odd Fellows affiliate, the Ladies Auxiliary of the Patriarchs Militant 52 of Butler.

She was a member and Past Noble Grand of Queen Elizabeth Rebekah Lodge 463 of Butler, and had formerly served two terms in state-appointed offices for the Rebekah Assembly. She had received the Decoration of Chivalry Degree for meritorious service from the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Miller had served on the building committee for Orchard Manor, IOOF Home at Grove City, and had been a member and former second vice president of the board of directors of the Home.

She helped organize the Orchard Manor Auxiliary and was its first president.

She had also served on the board of directors of Fellowship Manor residential homes, of the IOOF and Rebekah Homes of Western Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Miller was a member of First Methodist Church, Butler, and was a charter member of the Meridian Volunteer Fire Department.

Born near the Butler Tollgate of the Old Plank Road, Butler Township, June 24, 1906, she was the daughter of John G. and Margaret Jane Long Mahler.

Her husband, C. Everett Miller, died in 1962.

Surviving are a son, Ralph J. Miller of Whitestone Road; a daughter, Marilyn Jane Miller, at home; two grandchildren, two great-grandchildren; a brother, John M. Mahler of North Duffy Road; two sisters, Mrs. Elmer (Margaret) Kriley of Crisswell Road, and Alda Jane Mahler of the Byre-Mor Apartments; and a number of nieces and nephews.

A sister preceded her in death.

Support your Lodge Officers, with their programs and projects, and help make them a success both for the Lodge and this Grand Order. And also be a regular attendant at all Lodge meetings. It is a good habit to get into! Try it soon! See what you have been missing by not attending your Lodge meetings. You get out what you put into your Lodge!

MT. ZION LODGE NO. 74, YORK, PA.

Dear Brothers:

Odd Fellowship is GROWING and GOING in the York area. Your Lodge has a vital and valuable program in progress which is designed to meet the needs of all the Brothers. If this program has not been able to meet your needs, perhaps a suggestion from you will be able to improve the program for yourself and all the Brothers.

We have not only taken care of sick Brothers within the Lodge, but the Lodge has been financially and physically involved in a number of community projects that have extended our services far beyond the borders of Lodge members alone. Each of us as Odd Fellows have reason to be proud of the accomplishments of Mount Zion Lodge and should be quick to tell those around us just what we really do.

March has been designated as Visual Research Month. The G. L. Committee has set a goal of $1.00 per member. If you have not donated to the Visual Research Program this year, you can still do so. Please see that your donation gets into the hands of the Financial Secretary LaMar Dockey sometime during this month. Mount Zion has a record of support that no one need be ashamed of in the past. To borrow a phrase, "Thanks to you, it works for all of us."

The members of Mount Zion Lodge have been invited to be the guests of Mt. Vernon Encampment for a dinner on March 28 at 6:15 p.m. If you have not yet joined the Encampment, you may want to take this opportunity to find out what this special branch of our Order is doing and how you may become a part of it.

Mount Zion has experienced great success with our last Prospective Member Night and it has been decided to repeat the opportunity. Prospective Member Night will be held on May 2 with a dinner served at 6:15 p.m. for all Lodge Brothers and their candidates.

Perhaps you haven't given much thought as to whom you can invite to join you in Odd Fellowship. May we make a few suggestions?

1. Do you have a brother who is not an Odd Fellow?
2. You can invite a business partner or the man you work with each day.
3. If you have a special friend that you socialize with regularly, he may appreciate an invitation.
4. A son or a son-in-law is an excellent candidate. You may wish to offer to pay his initiation fee as a birthday gift. Sometimes a little incentive such as this is all that is needed to get that member of your family. There is something special about father and son participating in activities together and Odd Fellowship offers a unique opportunity for this to be a part of your life.

Brother Ken Bubb has joined the sick list following surgery at the York Hospital on March 7. We all wish Ken a speedy recovery.

Look for this new feature in the Newsletter! We will try to include in each letter a note on some local program supported by our Lodge.

This month we want to spotlight the Margaret Moul Home. The Margaret Moul Home is a halfway house for sufferers of cerebral palsy. Recently the Lodge has given a donation to the bus fund. It is the desire of the directors to provide transportation to residents and others who come there for special assistance. Our most recent gift was $300.00.

Our gifts to this organization are totally used for local persons who need this special care.

This is just one more evidence that Odd Fellows do care!

QUEST FOR HAPPINESS

The "Quest for Happiness" is the universal urge in the very hearts of men and women. As we read historical records, we discover that in all the eras of time, human beings have been seeking happiness.

So important is the subject of happiness that it was included in the immortal American document, The Declaration of Independence. After stating the self-evident truth that men are created equal with certain inalienable rights, it declares that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

In these days of vast world problems, when strife brings heavy burdens to sensitive hearts everywhere, the question may arise how can we find happiness in a world so distraught with unhappiness, so filled with "fear of war," so oppressed with suffering? Mere acquisition of tangible possessions cannot insure happiness. These are only instruments to be used and their employment may bring neither contentment nor tranquility.

In reality, happiness is an attitude toward everything in life. It can never be external. It is always subjective, and the prospective one holds in life is conditioned by the inner being. Certainly no one can even begin to experience the wholeness of happiness without the respectful regard of their families and neighbors. In our very complex society no individual can be completely all alone. It is obvious that we cannot be happy unless we have self-respect and have earned the respect of our relatives and neighbors. As one cannot live by bread alone, so one cannot be happy alone.

MONEY MAKING PROJECT

Need a money making project for your Lodge? A rumor is circulating following a recent Virginia trip that Sister Rose Gearhart is available to model size 12 clothes and those who saw her one-woman-show highly recommend Sister Rose for the job! Sisters Betty L. Elder, V.P. Helen Dinco, Warden, Elaine Hollerich, D.D.P., Mary Cook, U.N. Pilgrimage Director and Gloria Mundt, P.P. I.A.R.A. were the satisfied shoppers enjoying Sister Rose's comments, chatter and descriptions of the dresses she so skillfully modeled and they kept West Virginia "Green" as their cash disappeared. Sister Gloria was heard to exclaim, "I've never before bought so much merchandise in a brown paper sack for $50.00!" For those interested in the Gearhart Modeling Agency, just see her Agent, B. Elder. (I get 10% of her salary, she gets 80% and you get the rest!)

AN ODD FELLOW'S IDENTIFICATION CARD

'Twas the midnight hour in a western town
And a fast Express came tumbling down,
With a glare and a screech it came thru the night

And with hiss and rumble was out of sight.
The slumbering passengers never knew
A man had been killed as it onward flew
That one who was once the image of God:
Now lay, dismembered, a senseless clod.
But the morning sun, and the sons of men
Saw pitiful sights where the train had been Garments and flesh all shredded and stained

Till little of human form remained.

The Coroner came and with decent haste
Took the remains to a quiet place.
He earnestly tried, but tried in vain
To find who had been killed by the rushing train.

Nothing to show the stranger's name
Nothing to show from whence he came,
Yesterday, man, today a clod,
A body crushed, a soul with God!

No loving hands to caress his face;
Or follow his form to its resting place,
Just to be buried away from sight
At public expense was this man's right.

The Undertaker, an honest man,
Placed the remains in a pauper's van
Prepared a box his form to conceal,
And dug a hole in the potter's field.
With the poor maimed body, all gory and torn,

He placed the garments that he had worn,
Thinking to bury away from sight,
All that would bring back that terrible
night.

On the floor beside him lay his vest,
He tosses it in beside the rest.
Some mud has broken, and fallen away
And something glistens, and what is it, prayer?

Only a little badge of gold,
Just three plain links worn and old,
Not worth the keeping, let it go,
No one would want it, 'tis better so.

How plain and cheap and almost mean,
It looked beside badges he had seen,
Heavy with gold and brilliance set
This poor little pin was the cheapest yet.
He crosses the street to the druggist's store
Whose owner the three links always wore,
Who as he entered stepped forward and said,

"How are you my friend, have you cared for the dead?"

"I have something like yours that I found on his vest,
Or perhaps you don't care; should it go with the rest?"

'Tis the only thing I cared to save,
I have the box ready, and I've finished the grave."

"Who wears those three links shall never go
To a pauper's grave, I'll have you know,
For wherever the sunshine of God is shed,
The living brothers bury the dead.
Put on this stranger a robe of white,
Trim up a casket, and do it right,
And on the plate which no name can tell,
Engrave the three links that he loved so well.

Fill the role for a pauper made,
For in a private lot shall his form be laid,
And tomorrow at noon the Odd Fellows will come
And take his remains to their last, long home."

THANK YOU ALL

A very special thank you to all the Sisters and Brothers in Pennsylvania for all the phone calls and cards, and the remembrance of me in your prayers, during my stay in the hospital. My recovery will be slow but with God's help and your concern I know I will soon be fine. One learns to appreciate the Order more each day when ill. It was great to be remembered by so many Brothers and Sisters from another jurisdiction during my illness.

Your Sister from across the State Line
In Friendship, Love and Truth.

"OUR CUP RUNNETH OVER"

Thought you would like to attend a special evening with us at Mary Belle Rebekah Lodge #326. At least we thought it was special, and we would like to share it with you folks. Our first meeting night of February, I was not able to attend the meeting because I was not feeling at all well. But, gee, I was just bored to death at home. Just didn't know what to do with myself. That husband of mine went though. He does not like to miss Lodge. "The Old Fellows or the Rebekahs."

Our 2nd meeting of the month was held a couple weeks ago. I made up my mind that I was really going to Lodge that night.

Now, we live one block from the Lodge Hall, but, in order to get to Lodge, I must ride. Our Noble Grand lives two blocks from the Lodge Hall. We pick Mary up and so, we have to go the long way around to get to the Hall. Our streets are mostly one way so you know what that means. When we do get to the building, we now have to walk up 29 steps to get to our Lodge Hall. Do you know what we are doing by now? Well, we are really "Puffing." One of the Sisters said recently "I do believe they add to these steps between meetings." I'm beginning to believe it myself. Second floor is a long way up.

Gee, we had the nicest meeting that night. We had several Sisters out that had not been to Lodge in just ages. Oh, it looked grand. At the close of our meeting, our Noble Grand asked everyone to remain at their places for a short time. She then asked the Conductor to escort my hubby and I to the center of the floor. We were shocked. What had we done to deserve this? Well, the Noble Grand said they were having a little "Surprise Celebration" (in honor of our 45th Anniversary, on February 28th). What a surprise!

Beginning with our Noble Grand, all of those present approached us and gave us cards. One by one, they read their cards and gave us their own special wishes. Hugs and kisses were also included. We then retired to our kitchen (no dining room at our Hall). The table was beautifully set with a small basket of flowers, mint and nut cups, ice cream and cake. "The works," believe me.

You will never know what a great feeling that is until it happens to you. It's really something. After lunch, we all played bingo and enjoyed that also. It was certainly a beautiful evening. Makes a person feel so privileged to belong to such a friendly Lodge. We also received cards from Sisters not able to be at Lodge. We wish to say "Thank you" to each and every one of them. We will never be able to really express how we feel. Now, you see what we mean when we say . . .

Thank God every morning that you have something to do each day, whether you like it or not. Being forced to work and forced to do your best will breed in you temperance and self control, diligence and strength of will, cheerfulness and contentment, and a hundred virtues the idle will never know.

To judge human nature rightly, a man may sometimes have a very small experience, provided he has a very large heart.

FROM THE DESK OF THE GRAND SECRETARY

As I sit down to write this column for our Magazine this month there are many thoughts and ideas that cross my mind that I could write about. Of all of these ideas the one that stands out the most in my mind is what we, and by this I mean every Odd Fellow and Rebekah in the Jurisdiction, are doing to increase the membership of our Lodges and the Order as a whole in Pennsylvania.

As I review the statistics that we have submitted to the Sovereign Grand Lodge this year I find that suspensions are the next highest cause of loss of members to deaths. Deaths we can do nothing about other than to obtain new members as replacements before that time arrives for us, so that there are members to carry on the work of the Order after we depart this world. But, suspensions are something that every Lodge and every member of this Order can do something about.

Does your Lodge have a Delinquent Committee to contact those Brothers and Sisters who have fallen behind in their dues payments to the Lodge? If not, why not? With the times the way they are in this State, and in the Country as a whole today, I believe that it would pay every Lodge to have a Delinquent Committee to go visit those members who are delinquent in order to find out just what the problem is. Many of these members may really be having a hard time making ends meet, and they are not too anxious to let their friends and other members of the Lodge know just what problems they are having.

We, as Odd Fellows and Rebekahs are obligated to help those in distress. What better way is there of retaining our membership than to help those who have been faithful members over the years at least to continue on as members of our Lodges through this time of trouble and tribulation. They will never forget what you have done for them, and possibly could be an asset to your Lodge later on when they regain their stability once again.

Over the past year there have been the best part of one hundred members of the Odd Fellow Lodges take Withdrawal Certificates, and better than two hundred of the Rebekahs. This is a strange situation also. How many of these members will deposit the Withdrawal Certificates into another Lodge? I do not think that the majority of these above mentioned members realize that if they do not deposit their Certificates in another Lodge within one year of the date of issue, they are automatically out of the Order. When this happens they automatically forfeit their right to be able to go to one of our Homes if and when the occasion ever arises. The law is that a member has to be a member in good standing for at least ten years prior to making application to become a Resident of the Home. If there is a break of one year or more, then the member has to start all over again to accumulate those ten years. There is no going back and picking up where you left off.

There are a number of the members of the Order that still think that you cannot transfer your membership to another Lodge unless you move out of the Jurisdiction, or unless you change your address. This is no longer true, but you do have to make application to the Lodge that you want to transfer to before the Transfer Certificate can be issued.

I do hope that I have brought some things of importance to the attention of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs in Pennsylvania, and that it may be a spark to ignite some enthusiasm and momentum towards retaining our present membership, and rebuilding and regaining for the future of Odd Fellowship in the Jurisdiction of Pennsylvania.

SPRING RENEWS LIFE

Now that the dark, dreary days of winter are over, we can look forward to the joys of Spring and the renewal of life. Let's promise ourselves to start with our right foot forward. Many of us worry too much about things that don't really matter, have fears and anxieties that never come to pass. These are the culprits that bow the head and break the spirit.

Nobody grows old by living a number of years. People grow old when they desert their ideals. Years wrinkle the skin, but to give up enthusiasm wrinkles the soul. Whether 16 or 70, there exists in the heart of every person who loves life the thrill of a new challenge, the insatiable appetite for what is coming next.

You are as young as your faith and as old as your doubts. So long as your heart receives from your head messages that reflect beauty, courage, joy, and commitments to do good, you are young. When your thinking becomes clouded with pessimisms and jealousies, then you become old.

So let us try to make life easier by accepting the impossible, do without the indispensable, bear the intolerable, and be able to smile at anything.

Betty Kahn

The sermon seemed to go on forever. Finally, the minister paused and asked, "what more my friends, can I possibly say?"

From the rear of the church came a reply, "Amen!"

GRAND MASTER EDWARD BINKLEY AT ODD FELLOWS DINNER

An oyster supper and smorgasbord was enjoyed by approximately 90 persons as guests of Harford's Live Oak Lodge 635 of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows on Tuesday evening, February 15. Members of Canawacta Lodge (New Milford) and Rush Lodge, with their wives, were also present.

John and Vivian Bolles entertained with saxophone and piano music as guests were arriving. Toastmaster Wilson E. Tingley of Canawacta Lodge called on Mr. Bolles for the blessing of the food. Richard W. Masters, Noble Grand of Live Oak Lodge, gave the welcome to the group.

After a bountiful meal, Mr. Tingley expressed the thanks of the guests to Kenneth MacConnell, chief chef for the oyster stew. Then Ken expressed his thanks for the willing hands that had helped with the stew and the huge variety of other foods.

Toastmaster Tingley called on the Noble Grands of the guest lodges, Rolland Hawk from Canawacta and William Jesse from Rush, for remarks. He introduced a past officer from Pennsylvania Grand Lodge, Kenneth Adams, and Jack Master, a candidate with Adams for re-election as county commissioner.

The speaker of the evening was Edward W. Binkley, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania. He is a resident of Kennett Square in Chester County. His traveling companion was also introduced: Grand Conductor of the state organizer and a member of a lodge in Dillsburg, York County.

Grand Master Binkley presented George Sloat with a Past Noble Grand's pin and certificate in recognition of his term as leader of Live Oak Lodge.

Binkley talked informally about the friendships formed through Odd Fellowship. He announced a seminar in Tunkhannock on March 1, where the Grand Lodge degree will be given and invited members from Susquehanna County to be present.

His suggestions to the local lodges included increasing their programs to make their communities aware of Odd Fellowship and to make the Order of benefit to the communities; being a living testimony to the beliefs and tenets of IOOF; sprucing up meetings by promptness and attention to ritual; and a rededication of the members to the high principles of Odd Fellowship. He also suggested a district rally in the county with state officers present.

Following the program, Mr. and Mrs. Bolles again entertained with music, beginning with group singing of "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" in honor of Valentine's Day.

The committee in charge of this most successful event included George Sloat, Merle Miller, Raymond Hunter, and Anson Tiffany, besides those already mentioned.

We are not sent into this world to do anything into which we cannot put our hearts. We have certain work to do for our bread, and that is to be done strenuously, other work to do for our delight, and that is done heartily—neither to be done by halves but with a will, and what is not worth this effort is not to be done at all.

RAYMOND FULMER NAMED I.O.O.F. MEMBER OF THE YEAR

Top Oddfellow honor

PHOENIXVILLE—Raymond S. Fulmer, of Ridge Avenue, Phoenixville, a retired tube winder at Synthane Corp., Oaks, was named Encampment Member of the Year at the annual banquet of Phoenix Encampment 79, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, held in the Bridge Street Temple on Wednesday, March 23, 1983.

Succeeding B. Clyde McDaniel, Hall St., Phoenixville, last year's recipient, Fulmer was honored for his 63 years of devoted service to the organization, filling many offices during this lengthy tenure.

Prior to his 27 years with Synthane, Fulmer's first job was projectionist at the Phoenix Theater, Main and Hall Streets. Subsequent employment was with the Eagle Silk Mill, Phoenix Iron Co. and the Chester County Highway Department.

A devout member of the Baptist Church of Phoenixville, he is a deacon emeritus and was honored in 1980 for changing the church bulletin board at the corner of Church and Gay Streets each week for a period of 40 years. He has also been a regular attender of Phoenixville Phantom football games for many years.

McDaniel, on behalf of the Encampment, presented Fulmer with a cash gift in token of the high esteem in which he is held by the Encampment.

Thomas W. Gay, toastmaster, introduced the following state officers of the IOOF Grand Lodge and Encampment: Grand Chaplain Jacob Hanna, Grand Marshal J.

Speaking at length for the visiting top-ranking officials, Grand Master Binkley spoke of the early trials and tribulations of the pioneering founders of the organization, making special mention of John Duncan, who instituted a lodge in Baltimore about the year 1800 and regardless of many discouragements, lived to get Washington Lodge No. 1, District of Columbia, underway in 1819.

"If Duncan could do it, so can we all. Each of us has an obligation to keep our lodge running efficiently and to have perseverance no matter what. We must never give up," Binkley stressed.

Bringing greetings from the City of Philadelphia, Junior Past Grand Patriarch Carl Muller spoke of his great love and admiration for the Phoenix Encampment. "There is a real feeling of warmth and companionship here which greets me whenever I visit," he commented. "With this spirit, Phoenix can go places. But you must keep working at it constantly and never let down."

The entertainment was presented by Robert Shaffner, retired Phoenix Steel engineer and Griffen Gun expert, who projected many pictures of Phoenix Steel as it existed at the turn of the century and up to the present time, when the tube mill is managing to keep the plant in operation. "Phoenix is celebrating 200 years of existence. It has had a proud history," he said.

The programs were supplied by John S. Keenan. The committee on arrangements included John V. Norris, chairman; Walter Jordan, William McKinley, Jr., Parke K. Snyder, Gay, Fulmer, McDaniel, Joseph Ash, Keenan and James Gere. The chicken dinner was prepared and served by Alfred Adams, director of Haven Catering Service.

RAMBLINGS

Take time out for reflection — it's the fight within a man that leads to success. All the world expects much of a graduate student in that he has learned how to learn. Relax and enjoy life—only a few of the things yearned for are absolute necessities. Theories that stand the test of time are a combination of aspiration and inspiration. A good broken field runner seldom has any trouble working his way through college. Behind every success story in this life lies good management and superior judgment. Today is short, yesterday is gone forever, tomorrow may never come, so why worry?

"A FRIEND IS . . ."

- A friend is one who is a source of sunshine when you are under the weather.
- A friend is one who strengthens you with his prayers, blesses you with his love, and encourages you with his hope.
- A friend is one to whom distance is no barrier to communication, concern, or caring.
- A friend is one whose thoughtfulness is exceeded only by his concern; whose helpfulness is second only to his awareness.
- A friend is one who believes in you so strongly that you are motivated to stretch, to reach, to achieve beyond your fondest expectations.
- A friend is one who transforms your loneliness into happiness, your sadness into joy, your gloom into gladness.
- A friend is one who believes in you when you have ceased to believe in yourself.
- A friend is one who is on the scene with you when you need him, and who quietly leaves when you want to be alone.
- A friend is a source of celebration when you feel there is nothing to celebrate.

MILTON J. FURNER, SOVEREIGN GRAND MUSICIAN

Milton J. Furner was born in Wolf Summit, West Virginia, where he has lived since birth, June 5, 1918. Here he attended grade school, graduated from Bristol High in 1936, and from Salem College in 1940 in the field of biology and business administration.

His early employment was in personnel and photography. He joined Harrison Lodge No. 223 and Rose Rebekah Lodge No. 165 in 1945, Star Encampment No. 4 and Canton Clarksburg No. 9, a short time after. In 1946 he became a member of Salem Lodge No. 84, A.F. & A.M. where he is still a member, although not too active.

In the mid thirties, Milt had become associated with the 4-H Clubs of West Virginia; continuing on he became a 4-H camp director and a member of the 4-H All Star Organization, membership into which is strictly honorary and is gained only through loyalty and much service to and in the field of 4-H. He is also a member of the 4-H Pin Wearers Organization and he was selected in 1970 4-H Alumni of the Year.

Furner attended his first Grand Lodge Session in 1947 and in 1948, when the Junior Odd Fellow-Theta Rho programs were accepted by the Grand Lodge and Rebekah Assembly, he was appointed to the first Board of Control. He has attended all but three of the institutions of the more than thirty Junior Lodges in the state of West Virginia; helped organize the Junior Odd Fellow-Theta Rho Girls Camp in 1950 and is the only Odd Fellow or Rebekah who has spent the entire week at every one of the thirty-three camps to date; he also helped organize the Grand Junior Lodge in West Virginia in 1951 and has been present at every one of the sessions since that time.

He helped institute his own Junior Lodge, Summit No. 8, in Wolf Summit in 1951 and is still serving as its Advisor.

Furner has worked for and with the late Conrad J. Hansen in New York for many weeks on the United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth, learning much from that great Youth Worker. Along with Sister Irene Meigs, now deceased, Milt Furner served on the committee planning Youth Day held in Gatlinburg, Tennessee. He served on the SGL-IARA Youth Committee for three years, having been appointed by SGM Don Smith. He has directed a majority of the youth camps in West Virginia throughout their successful operation as a co-ed camp.

Summit Junior Lodge No. 8 had a total of 141 members only a few years back, making it the largest Junior Lodge ever in the world, by at least forty members. No. 8 is the second oldest Junior Lodge in the world today. To date nearly 450 boys have held membership in Wolf Summit.

From 1957 to 1975 Furner was both newsman and Director of Photography at the Clarksburg TV Station. He had audiences before at least five presidents.

He is Editor of the West Virginia Odd Fellow Newspaper. He is beginning his 9th year as Chairman of the Grand Lodge Youth Committee. This past year he served as Chairman of the United Nations Pilgrimage Committee and West Virginia sent thirty young delegates to New York.

Milt is a bachelor and lives on the same farm on which he was born. His hobby of photography has turned into his business today — photographing and selling West Virginia scenic photographs. Recognized as one of the most outstanding photographers of scenic West Virginia, he excels in capturing its natural beauty. In his own coinage, Milt states, "Photography is the real art . . . photographing it as GOD MADE IT."

In 1978 Furner was honored by being presented the Meritorious Service Jewel, the third such jewel presented by the Grand Lodge of West Virginia.

Milt has not had a desire to advance through State Odd Fellow offices, since it would not be compatible with his efforts in the youth program, with the time those offices demand.

Who can measure the inspiration Milt has been to the youth of West Virginia by awakening early in life their sense of pride of achievement, love of country and the joys of music. Such is the 1983 Sovereign Grand Lodge Musician.

ALBERT HUDKINS TESTIMONIAL

A marvelous Testimonial Banquet was held March 26, 1983 in Clarksburg, West Virginia for Sister Albert Hudkins, President, International Association of Rebekah Assemblies.

The occasion was marked by the beauty of the entire evening. Sister Alberta, attired in muted-red gown and escorted by her husband Perry, was seated at the head table with many dignitaries led by the Governor of West Virginia, Jay Rockefeller. Senator Jennings Randolph was also present along with the Treasurer and the Under Secretary of State of W. VA. Brother Lloyd Cranston, Sovereign Grand Master and Mrs. Cranston were in attendance, along with Officers of all branches of Sovereign Grand Lodge and I.A.R.A. The program was outstanding from the toasts to our President Reagan and Queen Elizabeth to the Benediction! The Entertainment was provided by The West Virginians; a group of young men and women from Alderson-Broadus College led by Mark Fox, a young man from Ruffs Dale, PA. They were fantastic, performing music from the 50's and Broadway show tunes.

Sister Hudkins gave a lovely speech that touched the hearts of all there. She is truly a gracious and lovely President and we all salute her in her year as President of the Rebekahs of the World! The State of West Virginia can rightly be very proud of this wonderful Rebekah and of the unforgettable tribute they accorded her at her Testimonial.

Representing the Rebekah Assembly of Pennsylvania was Betty L. Elder, Vice President, accompanied by Helen Dinco, Warden. Their escorts for the evening were Rose Gearhart and Elaine Hollerich.

CHARTER PRESENTATION BY PRESIDENT, JANE McELHANEY, TO LADY EVELYN REBEKAH LODGE #22

On Monday evening, March 14, 1983, President Jane McElhaney presented Lady Evelyn Rebekah Lodge #22 of Cassville their Charter. Lady Evelyn Rebekah Lodge was instituted on May 29, 1982. The Charter was presented to Noble Grand Anna Belle Ramsey and Vice Grand Linda Allen during the regular meeting.

Since the forming of this Lodge the Rebekahs now have a permanent location in the one-room school house in Cassville. This school house was acquired by Mt. Hor Lodge #736, Independent Order of Odd Fellows in the fall of 1982. Mt. Hor Lodge was formed November 2, in the year 1870, with 10 charter members and had been in their previous location since 1878. Mt. Hor Lodge #736 has renovated the interior but the exterior has remained as it was during that year. It served as home to many students of the area. Lady Evelyn shares the expenses of upkeep and maintenance of the building.

President Jane praised the group for their progressive attitude and devotion and work to attain a suitable meeting place. She expressed her pleasure at seeing a Lodge work together to achieve a common goal of fellowship. President Jane was accompanied by Right Herald, Jeanne Talbat, Marshall Flossie Leasure, Rebekah Coordinator, Sara Bonson and Catherine R. Katinsky and Past President to the Rebekah Assembly, Dorothy Brown.

Other visitors were Mrs. Jean Woods, Lodge #322, Almeda Cross, Lady Greenwood #308, and Carrie Woodring, Faye Horton, Lady Emily #452. Soloist for the evening was Judy Calbert of Lady Evelyn #22.

President Jane admired the two beautiful Easter baskets made by Susan Watkins for a special fund raising project. An Easter egg hunt is being planned for Saturday, April 2, for children of the group and children of the immediate area. Noble Grand Anna Belle thanked Sister Jane and visitors for their visit and concern for Lady Evelyn Lodge.

THE SCANDINAVIAN SCENE
Vilmer Rasmussen, Denmark

Denmark is making plans to celebrate the centennial of the forming of their Grand Lodge on April 21, 1984, with the theme of "The Open Hand." A fund raising drive has been started with a goal of a half million Danish Kroner (U.S. $80,000) which will be donated to a long list of various relief organizations. Actually the Order was started in Denmark in 1868 but worked under the jurisdiction of Germany until there were enough lodges to form its own Grand Lodge.

In the midst of the 1981 Year of the Handicapped, a plea was received by the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of Tromso, Norway, to help restore an old log cabin which was used by handicapped youngsters from a nearby treatment center for recreational purposes. However, a survey revealed that the cabin was so old and shabby that even a costly restoration would not bring about suitable results. Units of the Order raised almost $10,000 and put in a lot of man hours to erect a new cabin on the site. A formal presentation was made in October 1982 to the center of a functional cabin, specially designed to accommodate wheelchair patients.

The Rebekahs of Norway recently donated $100,000 for the purchase of new equipment at the Oslo City Hospital for the detection of organic heart diseases, especially in newborn babies. This is the first equipment of its kind in Norway and there are only four others of its kind in Europe.

A fishing boat and a lifeboat, manned by volunteers, capsized in a severe storm in November 1981, off the west coast of Denmark with the loss of many lives. The Odd Fellows started a fund raising drive and recently presented a $35,000 check to an educational foundation for the benefit of the sixteen children orphaned by the marine catastrophe.

Odd Fellowship was brought to Finland in 1925 with the first Lodge using the Swedish language and coming under the jurisdiction of Sweden. As only 6.5% of the population speak Swedish, while 93.5% speak Finnish, it is remarkable that the first Finnish Lodge using the Finnish language was not instituted until forty years later, in 1965. There are now 24 lodges working in Swedish and 25 working in Finnish. A Grand Lodge of Finland is slated to be instituted June 2, 1984.

SOME THOUGHTS TO REMEMBER

Every Odd Fellow and Rebekah, Theta Rho and Junior Lodge member, and members of all Branches of our Grand Fraternity, world-wide, wherever they may hold membership, should take a great deal of pride in becoming a member of this Grand Order of ours. It is a privilege and honor to be a member of such a Godly Fraternal Order. Many times I think that many of us just take this honor and privilege too lightly. How many places in this world of ours do the people have the opportunities that we are all blessed with . . . the privileges and freedom that we have to enjoy? There are so many who are denied these wonderful and beautiful honors and privileges. Just imagine if we were in their places, and the privileges, honors and freedom that we are blessed with, were all taken away from us? What would we do, and how would we react?? It is said that a person never realizes, or appreciates anything, until that time when it is taken away from him, and he never again has the privilege and freedom to do the things he had taken so lightly in the past.

When the late Thomas Wildey, and four other Odd Fellows met in the city of Baltimore, Maryland, to contemplate the formation of Odd Fellowship on the North American continent, they had wonderful dreams, which have been passed on down through generations to the present time. These dreams were left in our hands to nurture, build and sustain this Grand Fraternity of ours. How much are we contributing of our time and talents, in furthering the growth and future of this Grand Order.

All of us should examine our interests, our time and talents, to see if we are devoting them to the benefit and advancement of this Order. Are we active in our lodges, signing up new members to replace each one of us, properly instructing these new Brothers and Sisters, Theta Rho and Junior Lodge Members, so that they can and will be qualified to assume the duties of such membership, and carry on the work we are continually engaged in? Are they encouraged and instructed in the proper manner of serving the various offices in the Lodges, etc.? Are they informed of all aspects of Odd Fellowship and are they attending Lodge meetings after they have had the Degrees conferred upon them? Do they truly understand what Odd Fellowship means and represents to each one of us, and what this Fraternity is endeavoring to attain in this troubled world, to make it a better place to live for all of us? Are they taught the tenets of Odd Fellowship, and made aware of the programs and projects of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and Grand Lodges in their Jurisdictions, in their communities . . . the Educational Foundation, the Student Loan program, the Tomb of the Unknown Pilgrimage, the International Peace Garden Gates, the Visual Eye Banks and Research Foundation, The Eye Bank Hospitals, the Chair of the Johns Hopkins University, Wills Eye Hospital, the Drug program at St. Luke's Hospital in Philadelphia, the Medical Eye Association of Western Pennsylvania, the Donation of Eyes and Transplants Programs we are engaged in.

Are we making our Lodge meetings attractive and interesting, and are each of these new members really made a part of their Lodges? If they are never taught the tenets of Odd Fellowship properly, then how can we expect them to assume the duties in our Lodges, and become the future leaders of our Subordinate Lodges, and in the Jurisdictional Lodges, and even in our Sovereign Grand Lodge.

Are we taking the time to form Junior Lodges, and Theta Rho Girls Clubs, and not just form them but assist the youth in learning the manner in which their ritualistic work is to be performed. We have to teach them to conduct their meetings properly, and support their programs and projects, so that they will be successful. We have the Joint Youth Committee of our Jurisdictions, and the Pilgrimage to the United Nations, which is supported by many, but there is a lot more that can be done, and more support is encouraged to continue the success of this wonderful program for our youth. How many of the Lodges who sponsor a youth for the United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth, encourage these youths to become members of our Lodges and our Grand Fraternity?

Are we doing enough to continue to maintain the present membership, and if we are curtailing the number of suspensions and withdrawals from our Lodges, are we caring for our ill and indigent members who are not residents of our Homes? Do we forget the widows once our departed Brothers demise? Are the members who are joining our Fraternity instructed about the Homes we maintain? Do we ever get a group of them together, take a trip and show them first-hand one of our Homes, tour the Home, and meet some of our residents in our Homes? Do we visit our Brothers and Sisters from our Lodges, who are in the Homes as residents, or are they placed in the Homes and forgotten about? Do we keep in contact with them when they are ill, either by visit, cards, a remembrance on their birthdays and holidays? Do we financially support our Homes so they can be maintained to afford the residents the best possible care we can give them?

There is a fine potential for membership in these areas mentioned above. Our brothers, sisters, in-laws, cousins, nephews, grandsons, granddaughters, mothers, fathers, friends, co-workers, church members, neighbors . . . that is a source that is ripe for selecting new members for our Fraternity. But if we show neglect in some of these areas, it is our loss rather than our advantage. We have to give love, care and assistance, and show the general public by our example and actions as members of this Grand Fraternity, that we desire to have them become one of us by becoming members of this Grand Order of ours. There are ways we can devote some of our time and talents for volunteer work in hospitals, V.A. hospitals, institutions, fund raising for different foundations for research, helping the needy in our local communities, whether they are members of our Grand Order or not. This is a good way to build the public image that we need.

CUBA TO CELEBRATE CENTENNIAL

Tomas Negrete, Grand Instructor, N. Y.

Our Order in Cuba will celebrate its 100th anniversary in August and hopes to have Sovereign Grand Master Lloyd G. Cranston and a group of Canadians and Americans partake in the celebration.

The records show that the first Cuban Odd Fellow was Evaristo Valdes Galindo, who was initiated in New York City, in April 1883 through his friendship with Brothers John Hatley and Jose Cayetano Campos. Before he returned to Cuba in July 1883, Valdes Galindo obtained the appointment of Deputy Grand Sire for Cuba from Sovereign Grand Lodge and it contained sufficient powers to institute subordinate lodges in that country. He must have been a fast worker because he was able to institute his first lodge on August 26, 1883, Porvenir Lodge No. 1, in Havana. By April 4, 1894, six other lodges had been instituted when the Spanish governor of the island, General Callejas, ordered the closing of all fraternal orders. However, two of the Odd Fellow lodges kept working clandestinely.

In 1908, after Cuba won its independence, the Grand Lodge of New York dispatched a charter to institute Gloria Lodge No. 8, in the province of Camaguey. In the same year the Rebekah Assembly of New York also dispatched a charter to institute the first Rebekah lodge in Cuba, Gloria Rebekah Lodge No. 1. Also in the same year, the Grand Lodge of New York sent a second charter to institute Camaguey #9.

The Grand Lodge of Cuba was constituted in 1925. The Order grew rapidly and at its zenith had over 20,000 members in 147 subordinate lodges. At the close of 1982, they still had 13,011 members in 109 subordinate lodges, 2,422 Rebekah members in 42 lodges, 2,175 Patriarchs in 26 Encampments, and 455 members in 12 Cantons. There had been a large number of very active Youth Lodges throughout the island before the Cuban revolution.

On February 15, 1957, the late Arthur G. Adams, Past General Commanding of the Patriarchs Militant, led a group of 41 Americans to Havana for the conferring of the Grand Decoration of Chivalry on three Cuban leaders and the institution of the first Ladies Auxiliary Patriarchs Militant.

It is inspiring to us in the "Free World" to know that despite all obstacles, Odd Fellowship is still flourishing in the "Pearl of the Antilles." Due to their government's break of relations with the United States, none of their members were able to attend the 1982 session of Sovereign Grand Lodge, but since there are more friendly relations with Canada, they are hopeful of being able to send Representatives this year to the session in Winnipeg. What is remarkable is that Cuba, slightly smaller in size than the state of Pennsylvania, has a population of more than 10 million with 2 million living in Greater Havana.

ODD FELLOWSHIP

Its policy is to promote the philosophy and the ideals of the Fraternity which is the application of Friendship and Truth and Love. It teaches a philosophy of life promoting peace and harmony among men.

A fraternal organization is a union of individuals into one body for a definite purpose with such obligations as to create a unity of thought and accomplishment of such purpose. However, Odd Fellowship recognizes that it is impossible to stand aloof from one's fellowman. Its basic principle recognizes that man is a constituent of a universal Brotherhood and unites man in the offices of human benefaction. It enlightens the mind without seeking to release the individual from any of his rights and privileges. The individual is taught to apply the principles of the Fraternity without usurping his religious beliefs and respect for the law.

The Fraternity provides a total of 59 Homes with a value of $26,500,000, to care for hundreds of orphans and thousands of aged members. Its children's Homes provide excellent schools and proper religious training in a friendly and affectionate atmosphere. They provide separate dormitories for boys and girls and nurseries for small children, together with nursing and medical care. They are equipped with all athletic facilities and playgrounds on large tracts of land where children can play. Funds are provided for higher educational opportunities for graduates. The Order's Lodges are in every state of the United States, in all provinces of Canada, many Latin American countries, Australia, New Zealand, Iceland, Tasmania, and all countries of Western Europe.

TO ALL OFFICERS OF ALL GRAND BODIES,
INDEPENDENT ORDER OF ODD FELLOWS

Dear Sisters and Brothers:

The Canadian Memorial Committee have been busy making final plans for the Wreath Laying Ceremony which will take place on the weekend of June 4th and 5th, 1983 in Ottawa, Canada.

The Ceremony will take place at the Canadian War Memorial, Ottawa, Canada at 10:00 A.M. sharp EDT on Sunday, June 5, 1983.

This ceremony will be performed by the four International Heads of the Order and arrangements will also include the participation of all Grand Bodies in attendance.

The pre-ceremony dinner will be held on Saturday, June 4th, 1983 at 6:30 P.M. at the R. A. Centre, 2451 Riverside Drive, Ottawa. The four Heads of the Order will deliver short messages to be followed by entertainment. The cost of the dinner tickets will be $14.00. Reservations for rooms and banquet tickets should be made by contacting the Secretary, Mrs. Emma L. Petch, 8 Argue Drive, Nepean, Ontario, K2E 6S1. It would assist the Committee a great deal if all the officers of the various branches would supply their names and titles when requesting reservations and tickets.

This year a Work Shop will be held on Saturday afternoon, June 4th, 1983 with the topic being Membership in our Order. At that time the Deputy Sovereign Grand Master and the President of the International Association of Rebekah Assemblies will be asked to give a short address followed by open discussion concerning this very important aspect of our Order. This workshop will be held at the Chateau Laurier Hotel in Ottawa from 1:30 P.M. to 4:00 P.M. and will be open to all Odd Fellows and Rebekahs.

Following the Wreath Laying Ceremony on Sunday morning, a luncheon will be served at the Odd Fellows Hall in Bells Corners for a nominal fee. Transportation will be arranged for those traveling without cars.

We hope as many members of the Order as possible will come to Ottawa for this Memorial weekend. Your support in the past has been greatly appreciated and we hope that we will have your continued support in the future.

The promulgation of this information to all Lodges and Grand Bodies in each jurisdiction will be greatly appreciated.

Marilyn Law, Chairman

JOHN KUNKLEMAN GRAND MARSHAL

Maj. Gen. (Ret.) John A. Kunkleman, former Commander of the Department of Pennsylvania, Patriarchs Militant, has been named honorary grand marshal of the annual Armed Forces Day Parade in Reading, Pa., on Saturday, May 21.

Kunkleman, city editor of the Reading (Pa.) Eagle, was selected for the honor in recognition of his years of service to the Armed Services.

For more than 20 years Kunkleman was military editor of the Reading Eagle and covered all military activities in Eastern Pennsylvania. He also participated in many orientation programs for civilians at military bases throughout the United States.

He served for 20 years on the Armed Forces Advisory Committee of Berks County, including several years as chairman. He also served 20 years as a civilian member of the Reading Armory Board, during which time a new National Guard Armory was built in Reading.

Reading has had a major Armed Forces Day Parade every year since 1950. Units of all branches of the military participate along with high school bands, veterans groups and civic organizations. The parade annually draws an estimated 50,000 persons to downtown Reading.

In addition to being a past department commander, Gen. Kunkleman is a Past Grand Marshal of both the Grand Lodge and the Grand Encampment of Pennsylvania. He also is a Past District Deputy Grand Master.

He is a Past Grand of Leesport Lodge, a Past Chief Patriarch of Hamburg Encampment, a Past Commandant of Canton Reading and a member of Lady Colfax Rebekah Lodge.

BAKED APPLES

Core as many apples as desired and place in shallow baking dish. Fill the cavities in the apples with brown sugar, a few raisins, or nuts, and place a small piece of butter thereon. Add boiling water to about ½ inch depth and bake uncovered at 375 degrees until the apples are tender. Serve warm or cold with cream or milk.
