FROM THE DESK OF THE GRAND SECRETARY

Well, our Unified Sessions have been over for a month or so, and, we are attempting to get everything back in order.

By the time you get this most all of the vacation time will be over, the Sovereign Grand Lodge Sessions will be over, and it should be a time where we all determine to settle down and get to work in our respective Lodges in preparation for the ensuing year.

The First and most important feature that we as Odd Fellows and Rebekahs should consider seriously is Membership. It seems that quite a number of our members have the attitude that they care less about this, but, if you and I as well as all of the others take this view then we are all going to be history.

However, if and when we do bring in some new members or reinstatements we must determine that our respective Lodge is going to get active both in the Order and in the Community so that the General Public can become aware that we are in existence. It's time that we start practicing our teachings and motto into our daily lives and into those with whom we come in contact daily.

Why not become involved in Degree Rallies and other activities and become aware of the things going on. After all, we will never Elevate the Character of our Fellow Men by sitting on our hands and doing nothing for the good of all.

NOTE OF THANKS

I personally want to thank the brothers and sisters of Pennsylvania for their cards, notes, phone calls, and especially their prayers during my recent illness. I sincerely appreciate everyone's thoughtfulness.

While at your Unified Session in June I surely did enjoy the friendship and love that was shown to me and my wife Julia. Also, a big thank you to the Rebekah Assembly for the use of a wheelchair.

Again, many, many thanks from the bottom of my heart for everything and I love you all.

"SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT"

ARE YOU REALLY FRIENDLY?

From the perspective of most lodge members, their lodge is very friendly, warm, and receptive towards visitors and new members. From the inside view, some members may say, "We are a friendly lodge and we welcome everyone to the meetings."

However, in most cases, the truth is that nearly all lodges have a tendency to welcome some of the visitors and quickly include some members, while failing to give a welcome to others visitors and exclude other new members. The tendency to "welcome" and "include" some while "not welcoming" and "excluding" others is not a conscious but a subconscious action.

All of us find it much easier to be with, accept, and include people we perceive to be most "like us." We also find it much easier to be with our established circle of friends than to meet visitors and new members. Thus, greeting visitors and getting to know newcomers requires conscious effort to be friendly with visitors and show hospitality to new members.

Some lodge members feel that, as long as the lodge as a whole appears warm and friendly, the burden of the responsibility is upon the visitor to "hang around" until someone speaks. They may feel that the new member has the responsibility to become an active part of the lodge on this own as he forms new friendships. However, we are taught to be aware of needs and to stir one another up to love and good works. Members need to include reaching out to newcomers to help them get involved in the fellowship and work of the lodge.

We who are established in our local lodge work, can easily forget what it is like to be a new member or a visitor. We forget the need for acceptance and love which the newcomer feels so strongly.

Every member of our Order needs to be conscious of the need to sincerely welcome visitors and new members. Do YOUR part to help all to feel loved and needed. When this is accomplished, then you may answer when asked, "Yes, we really have a friendly lodge."

We should all want all of our members to know the joy of reaching out to the hearts of others.

ANNUAL HOME DAY AT MIDDLETOWN

The Odd Fellow and Rebekah Home Auxiliary of Eastern Pennsylvania at Middletown had a table on Home Day, July 20, 1997 at which they were selling chance tickets in order to help pay for the new furniture in the Nursing Home Lobby of the Home. The cost of the new furniture was in excess of $13,000.00.

The presentation of a check in the amount of $13,000.00 was made by Kathryn Bush, Treasurer accompanied by Martha Mutch, President, and Jane Reisinger, Secretary. This will leave a balance of $5,000.00 still owing, so please keep your donations coming.

The Home Auxiliary meets on the First Saturday of each month in the Conference Room of the Home and we welcome any and all. The Annual Dues of the Auxiliary are only One Dollar ($1.00), per year.

We also have a Bingo on the Second Wednesday of each month for the residents at 7:00 PM in the Activities room, and we do need help for those residents who cannot play their cards by themselves, and to help take the prizes around to winners, and to help serve Punch and Cookies when the Bingo is over.

The money we receive from the "Mile of Pennies" is used for Prizes and Refreshments at the monthly Bingos.

Jane Reisinger, Sec'y

THE FALLING LEAVES...

Activities are back in full swing for the three Pennsylvania Chapters of the Arthritis Foundation and their local branches. Changes in the weather can aggravate the symptoms one experiences from Arthritis, so as the leaves begin to turn color and fall from their branches, we, as Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, need to focus on what we can do to help the Chapter or branch in our local area, so that they in turn can help a loved one, a fellow lodge member, or even you, yourself. All need to learn about Arthritis and how to cope with it.

The summer fun at Camp JRA is over. Watch for a report from the Camp Director, Maureen Tierney in an upcoming issue. As a preliminary, the Central Chapter area reports that they had 8 children at Camp JRA this summer. The kids, with various forms of Arthritis-related conditions, fished, swam, played Egyptian baseball (maybe they could help the Phillies!), and other games, as well as creating craft pieces from splitting materials. The AJAO Eastern Regional Conference is also a memory of the dog days of August. I'll have some highlights from "Families in Touch" for you also in a later issue.

All Chapters and Branches have Educational Forums on topics of interest to people with Arthritis. The Fall series will highlight Arthritis awareness and educate individuals about ways to cope with Arthritis/Rheumatic diseases. At the end of this article, I have included the Addresses and Telephone numbers of the three PA Chapters and you can get information on topics, dates, times and places from them. Don't be shy!

EASTERN: On Oct. 5th, the 6th Annual Chester County Challenges Bicycle Tour is scheduled. You have your choice of 20, 40 or 60 mile courses through the gorgeous Chester Co. countryside that begin and end at the Greenwood Elementary School. Pre-register by calling the Eastern Chapter office. On Oct. 15th the Community Leader of the Year Award Dinner will be held at the Allentown Hilton. Call 610-776-6632 if interested. Oct. 24th, the 10th Annual Dinner Dance to raise funds for the Berks-Pottstown Unit will be held at the Sheraton Berkshire Inn in Reading. It begins at 6 PM and dancing continues until midnight. There's also a Silent Auction, prizes and some surprises are promised. Call 610-375-0832 or 610-776-6632. An all-day Educational Seminar, "Arthritis in the Prime of Life," for young adults with various forms of Arthritis, their families and health care professionals is scheduled for Oct. 25th at the Woodlands Resort Hotel in Wilkes-Barre. It will be repeated in Nov. in Forth Washington. Call 717-823-2888 for Oct. 25th info.

CENTRAL: The 5th Mini Grand Prix is in Harrisburg on Sept. 20th. Come out and enjoy yourself. Get your Lodge involved. These races bring out the youngest in you and the youngsters in the area. Have them see that Odd Fellows have FUN while helping others and that Odd Fellowship is for the young! SUMMER INTO FALL

The Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and Arthritis Foundation Chapters have enjoyed a working and supportive relationship in Pennsylvania over the years. Our members have collected cans, saved pennies or coupon rebate monies or one of a dozen other projects to raise money for the Arthritis Foundation Chapter in their area. What has developed is a mutually respective and productive relationship for the Organizations. I think the I.O.O.F. Branches have learned a great deal about this disease and the Arthritis Foundation has seen the rewards from our cohesive Odd Fellowship Fraternal activities, both monetarily and personally. The I.O.O.F. members have volunteered countless jobs that take time, time that can be spent recruiting corporate support for backing activities and raising money to help find a cure for this disease. Over the past few months I have highlighted activities being sponsored by the Eastern, Central and Western PA chapters and their branches. I do hope you have been able to see your way clear to go out and participate in at least one of these activities. You will be a richer person for it. Encourage YOUR LODGE to undertake an activity to raise money to support your local chapter of the Arthritis Foundation. Let's see the monthly listing of donations to the Arthritis Foundation in The PA Odd Fellow and Rebekah Magazine grow and include your Lodge's name. What a wonderful way to show the Sovereign Grand Lodge that we are supporting their chosen activities.

Speaking of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, did any of you see the 30 minute TV presentation, "Better Living With Arthritis Today," hosted by John Davidson? It ran on some of our public channels in June. The I.O.O.F. is a segment sponsor and Sovereign Grand Master, Louis Fancher, and International Assembly President, Barbara Corfield, made a commercial for the program at our Winston Salem headquarters. (Hope a local star promoter/agent was watching!) If you missed it, watch your TV schedule and I will try to get the showings enough in advance to alert you in one of these articles.

Chapter Activities: All chapters have been busy preparing for Camp JRA which was held July 20 to 26. I'm sure Maureen will have a report for us on this year's activities. Just as you are receiving this issue, the AJAO Regional Conference is being held in White Haven, PA. These two activities take an extraordinary amount of planning and effort and have been well received by those attending and those participating in the programs. The staff is to be congratulated for their successes. Eastern Chapter: Sept. 6-7 Edgmont Golf Tournament: Fall Forum Series of Educational Programs is being finalized and you can get information by call the Chapter office at 800-355-9040. Central Chapter: The first Lancaster Mini Grand Prix Race was held on June 29th at the Greenfield Corporate Center in Lancaster. There were 20 cars in the race. Some of these cars have raced in previous years at York and/or Harrisburg. My wife and I went up for the Pre-Race party and race and enjoyed ourselves watching the race and meeting the folks from the Central Chapter. It's estimated that the race raised $70,000 for the Chapter and their goal for the 3 races (Lancaster, York & Harrisburg) is $250,000. From our viewpoint and the newspaper articles, the participating companies found the racing a morale

We'll provide more information for each chapter as we receive it. Remember to try to get your Lodge to adopt a fund raising activity to benefit the Arthritis Foundation. The monies spent research and medical development will benefit nearly everyone at some time in their life. If any of you are from the Philadelphia area, you might remember the slogan, "Nearly everyone reads the Bulletin." Today, the Bulletin is gone, but we can say "Nearly everyone will come to know the effects of Arthritis in their life, or the life of a loved one." Help that person, whomever it is. Support the Arthritis Foundation with your time, talents and money. Remember, you can remember the Arthritis Foundation is your will, too!

ANNUAL LADIES TEA AND FASHION SHOW HELD AT ORCHARD MANOR

“And the band played on,” as Residents from Orchard Manor modeled their fashionable ensembles at the Annual Ladies Tea and Fashion Show on June 27th. The event was held in the beautifully decorated dining room. The room was filled with Residents and family members ready to see the models show off their outfits. From outside through the door, staff and visitors got a peek of the grand event. This years program featured Orchard Manor Residents, staff and volunteers modeling a variety of casual attire, evening wear and bridal gowns. The majority of the clothing was donated by the New Castle, Grove City and Sharon Salvation Armies. Beverly Gutowsky, District Manager, graciously allowed Orchard Manor to borrow the clothing. Without support from Beverly and the Salvation Army, we would not be able to put on such a successful event.

The event began at 2:00 p.m. by the Master of Ceremony, Reverend Jack Patterson. He introduced each Resident, gave the descriptions for the outfits and added his own comments and jokes. Each Resident was escorted by Kevin Ewing from the Physical Therapy Department. Kevin and the residents took a stroll around the dining room so that each person at the show could get a good look at their ensemble. This fashion show was incorporated into the Residents daily exercise and restorative programs. This enabled the Residents to add a touch of fun to their therapy programs. The piano music, provided by one of the Residents family members gave the event an elegant touch. Following the fashion show, Residents and their families socialized while indulging in refreshments of Petit-Fors and punch.

The Ladies Tea and Fashion Show at Orchard Manor is a time honored event that gives a sense of pride to the Residents, staff and volunteers. For those that model the outfits it is an event that will never be forgotten. Everyone at the facility is already looking forward to the show next year. This event allows the Rebekahs a chance to shine in the spotlight and feel a sense of accomplishment. Family and friends that attended seem to enjoy watching the Rebekahs shine in their moment in the spotlight.

Mary Furinger, escorted by Kevin Ewing, wows the crowd as she models. Orchard Manor residents modeled a variety of casual and evening wear and bridal gowns during the Ladies Tea and Fashion Show on June 27.

Members of Canton Delaware participated in the floor Canton for the Decoration of Chivalry ceremony Tuesday night. Twelve Ladies and Rebekahs received the Decoration.

AUGUST 1, 1997

On Sunday, July 20, 1997, the Odd Fellows Home of Pennsylvania located in Middletown, held its 50th Annual Home Day.

At 1 P.M., Opening Ceremonies began with a welcome from Master of Ceremonies, Robert Girvin. This was followed by the playing of the National Anthem and the Invocation given by Rev. Thomas Sanagorski.

After the opening ceremony, the children's games began. They rolled golf balls with their noses, passed an apple, and opened a pinata. A table with assorted crafts and face painting were also available for the children.

Entertaining our guests with balloon animals, the Zembo clowns brought a smile to everyone's face as well as the many craft, white elephant, and baked goods offered for sale.

The day continued with introductions of the Home's Administrator, Board of Directors, Grand Lodge and Rebekah Assembly Officers.

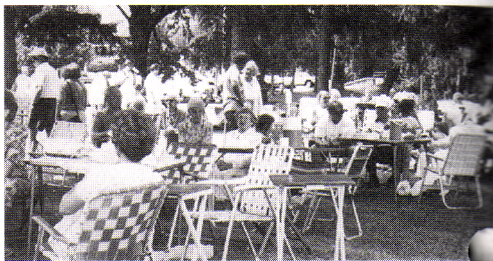

Kathryn Bush, Treasurer of the Home Auxiliary of Eastern PA, presented Administrator David Mills a $5,000 donation in addition to the $2,518 donation given on May 3, 1997 to pay for new furniture in the lobby of the Nursing Department. Thank you for your generous support. The Home was further blessed with a $2,020 check presented by Hazel Mest, Immediate Past President of the Rebekah Assembly, representing collections given by Rebekah Lodges of the Eastern Home District during Ms. Mest's term.

At 3 P.M., dinner was served with a menu consisting of chicken halves grilled by the Middletown Area Baseball Association, baked beans, applesauce, rolls, pickles, and potato chips. In addition to the 672 chicken halves grilled, 50 gallons of soda, and 39 gallons of ice cream were happily consumed.

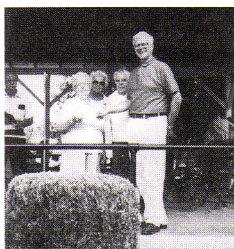

After dinner, the Emigsville Band accompanied the watermelon and cake walks as they have done for the past 39 years. The band continued to play until 6 P.M. filling the air with marches and patriotic tunes bringing another successful Home Day to a close.

The Emigsville Band provided the music for this beautiful day.

Everyone relaxing under the shade of the trees.

DEPARTMENT ASSOCIATION, LAPM

Lady Pat Feldman was installed as President of the Pennsylvania Department Association, Ladies Auxiliaries Patriarchs Militant, at the annual Unified Session in Grantville. Lady Feldman succeeds Lady Mae Haussler.

Other Elected Officers installed with Lady Feldman are: Lady Beverly Bowers, First Vice President; Lady Marcia LaVan, Second Vice President; Lady Jane Dotterer, APP, Association Secretary; and Lady Laura Locke, APP, Association Treasurer.

Lady Dotterer and Lady Hazel Mest, APP, Aunts of Lady Feldman, were the Installing Officer and Adjutant for the ceremony.

Maj. Gen. (R) H. Frank Stanley, Past Department Commander, commanded the Honor Guard of Chevaliers for the ceremony. The Guards were wearing the new Patriarchs Militant B. uniform, the first time this new garb has been worn for a public ceremony.

When Lady Mary Landes, APP, Association Musician, was placed on the floor for Installation, there was no music for the ceremony. This was only temporary. Sister Norma Miller, Vice President of the International Association of Rebekah Assemblies, left her seat on the platform, hurried to the piano, and filled the void until Lady Landes was installed and returned to her station.

Sister Norma displayed unusual musical talent, filling in with martial music without any advanced warning. We wonder if her musical skill can be related to the fact that her husband, Larry, is a retired Bandmaster.

Norma Miller, Vice President of the IARA, filled a musical void during the installation of LAPM officers at the Unified Session by hopping to the piano and providing martial music while the Association Musician was on the floor to be installed.

PNG FLORENCE BOLZE

Lady Landis #303 thanked Florence Bolze for her leadership ability, as Noble Grand and presented her with a flower arrangement. She is a very loving, caring, loyal, dependable and considerate person. Florence is a true FRIEND.

Here is a list of Florence's projects as Noble Grand:

Contributed to heart, arthritis, cancer, visual eye research, school awards, and Special Olympics. Had a Jewel luncheon for Eleanor Gold and her husband; collected aluminum cans and turned in the profit toward the Presidents Project; collected non-perishable food items for the Perry County Food Bank, sent valentine cards to Veterans Hospital; chaired candy fund raiser; held monthly breakfast at Redrock; had picnic for Lady Landis and Mahoney Lodge; presided over visitations and gifts for shut ins. When our Lodge building was sold, Sister Florence found a new building to have Lodge and delegated the moving of our Lodges furnishings. In her spare time, she also made curtains for the new building.

SISTER FLORENCE, LADY LANDIS SALUTES YOU!

*In Friendship, Love and Truth!

Outgoing Noble Grand, Florence Bolze—Lady Landis #303 Thanks You!

PARTNERS BUILDING ODD FELLOWSHIP

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

This letter is being written as we return from participating in one of the most inspiring and humbling ceremonies of our year as your international leaders - the laying of wreaths at the Tomb of the Unknowns in Arlington National Cemetery. Forty-four jurisdictions and the four leaders of this great fraternity shared in the 46th annual pilgrimage to the Tomb and the Canadian Memorial.

We take this time to honor those who made the supreme sacrifice in the defense of freedom of the world. Those unknown individuals, who are known only to God, should never be forgotten by us or by future generations.

While in Washington D.C. for this annual pilgrimage, we also went to Baltimore to tour the Wilmer Eye Institute at Johns Hopkins Medical Center to meet the staff and personnel who administer the Visual Research program sponsored by the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs. This was informative and an impressive presentation to help us understand where and how our donations are being used to promote this outstanding program.

Being able to visit, during this tour, the Wildey Monument, the Ridgley Monument as well as the Green Mount Cemetery where Thomas Wildey is buried helped to remind us where our roots are, the basis of the foundation of our Order. Walking through the Green Mount Cemetery as well as Arlington Cemetery is walking into history, and this is never to be forgotten. But, what of the future? Who will explain to someone what those Three Links signify that are carved on many headstones? What will be said of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in the history books of the world? Will we be listed as an ancient fraternity that died among mystery and secrecy of our teachings and beliefs? We hope not. We still have time, today, to change our image, to write the history that will be read in the future of this great fraternity.

How can we do this? Research our roots, learn who we are, and why we exist. Organize our lodges, materials, and structure to adapt to today's society. Communicate to our members, and to the world what we are doing. Share the Knowledge of our Order with one another, our new members, and to our community. R.O.C.K.

To the Pilgrimage Committee, thanks for another successful ceremony and weekend and for being our Partners in Building on the Solid R.O.C.K. of Odd Fellowship.

PRESS RELEASE — WORK DAY '97

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

Thank you, thank you. Because of your generosity, you have begun to make our State Office something to be proud of. Below is listed a list of all Lodges and individuals who donated towards this project, also a list of the expenses incurred so far. You will notice there is some money left, this will be used for all for some flowers and to plant additional shrubbery that is needed. This was started as a way of relieving Grand Lodge and you of the financial burden, which was accomplished, but we still have a problem. WE NEED HELP!!! Because of the lack of help we were not able to complete all we set out to do. Supplies are waiting to be used. We need shrub pulling, weeding, painting and for those in the vicinity of the office, we could use some evening time watering with the hot summer now upon us. I am hoping that with the proper permission we can schedule another day for fall and make this an annual affair. If you are proud to be an Odd Fellow and Rebekah, you must help show your pride by making our State Office a showplace. To our Rebekahs, our board room is full of cases containing beautiful memorabilia, if you like to wash windows, let us know. To those who did volunteer their time, thank you for your hard work, I'm sure you can agree we accomplished a lot and had fun doing it.

LADY LANDIS REBEKAH LODGE #303 50TH BIRTHDAY BANQUET

Lady Landis #303 celebrated its 50th Birthday with a Luncheon and Party at Benner's Restaurant.

Honored guest was Charter Member Virginia Kling. The other Charter Member, Laura Stees was not present, due to ill health.

Sister Kling spoke of the first years of the Lodge. She related that there were 25 Charter Members and to become a member, either your Husband, Father, Brother or Son had to be member of the Odd Fellow Lodge.

She also told about using the Odd Fellows Hall in Landisburg as their meeting room and how difficult it was to climb a narrow, winding stairway to the third floor, carrying whatever refreshments that were being served. There were no bathroom facilities in the entire building. Many of the members were elderly and climbing those stairs was difficult. Finally after a harrowing experience with the oil space heater that was used to heat the Lodge room, they finally moved their meeting to the local Fire Hall and due to the easy entrance to the new building, the membership more than doubled.

Sister Kling's daughter and granddaughter were present to help her celebrate a memorable occasion by presenting her with a 50-year membership Pin and certificate from Lady Landis. Sister Kling's granddaughter, Joelle Tracy, was one of the Delegates to go on the U.N. Pilgrimage. This was an honor for Virginia and for Lady Landis.

Guests from Mahoney Lodge, New

Bloomfield and State Officers joined in the celebration of 50 years of Lady Landis Rebekah Odd Fellowship. Everyone received a felt flower pertaining to the color of his/her birth month.

Everyone was asked to bring a non perishable food item for the Perry County Food Bank. This was Noble Grand, Florence Bolze's project for the year. We signed the Lodge's scrapbook and signed get well cards for Sister Janet Lyon and Charter Member Laura Stees.

Eva Group read a poem entitled "THE GOLDEN CHAIN OF FRIENDSHIP." She led us in singing the following songs: How Great Thou Art, Amazing Grace and Blest Be the Tie That Binds.

We had a visit from Baby Lady Landis (Earlene Parson). She was cute as a button in her pink p.j.'s and bonnet. She even mimicked a "DUCKY SONG." Baby Lady Landis was honored to have Charter Member, Virginia Kling rock her on her "HORSEY." Eva, Betty, Hulda and Earlene put on their hats and hula skirts and lead us in doing the "HOKEY POKEY." Everyone had a great time doing their thing!

Betty and Hulda presented beautiful flower pot dolls to the State Officers. The dolls were made by Resa Shoop, Earlene's daughter.

Hulda donated white ceramic favors made by Ms. Chatten. The favors were filled with pink and green mints made by Betty and Hulda. They were D-E-L-I-C-I-O-U-S.

Earlene presented the PNG's with a potted sunflower.

with a beautiful flower arrangement in honor of our 50th Birthday.

We thank our Charter members for giving birth to Lady Landis and the PNG's for their guardianship so we can continue to serve. "Happy Birthday" Lady Landis and wish you many, many more!

Earlene thanked her Committee: Eva Group, Hulda Dum and Betty Reisinger for a fantastic job. Without their help this Banquet couldn't have been a success. The committee presented Earlene with a sunflower planter with a potted "Praying Hand" plant. By coincidence, her emblem will be the "Praying Hands" and her flower will be the flower.
