FROM THE DESK OF THE GRAND SECRETARY

Well, by this time practically all Installations are over, and our new Officers are well into promoting their plans and ideas for the ensuing year.

I would highly recommend that the meetings of the Lodge be made interesting so as to create some sort of activity in which most of your members can become involved. Try to get involved in some of your Community activities so that your Lodge and your members become known in the Community. You would actually be surprised at just how much good that you can do.

Another good idea is to have some refreshments after your Lodge meeting where you can have an hour or so of good old fashioned fellowship. This is a time when everyone can really get to know each other.

The Noble Grand should really control the meeting of the Lodge by stopping idle gossip and rumors, and by controlling those who may be very outspoken. Encourage the members sitting on the sidelines to enter into the discussions on the floor. Nothing is gained by just sitting there and not expressing your views and opinions on the subject. If you never express yourself, then you have no right to complain after the meeting is over.

We can have good Lodges and a very good Order if we will all devote our efforts and speak our opinion for the good of the Lodge, of the Order and each individual member.

Offer your time, talents, and efforts to help out.

WILLIAM L. LOCKE TESTIMONIAL DINNER

On September 26, 1998, near the quiet little town of New Castle, Pennsylvania, at a facility called "Troggios," a dinner was held honoring the Past Grand Patriarch of The Grand Encampment of Pennsylvania, William L. Locke.

People gathered early; Odd Fellows and Rebekahs and family and friends; from all over the state. Some planned to stay the night, and some just came for the evening's festivities. It was a beautiful Fall night and the weather was extremely pleasant. At 6:30 p.m. a prayer was said and dinner was served. Although it became somewhat warm in the Hall, the dinner was good and enjoyed by all. In attendance were many friends of Bill Locke, Locke family members, Grand Master Alton G. Arnold, Rebekah Assembly President Dorothy Struchen, Grand Patriarch Robert Hunsinger, Department Commander Brig. Gen. Joseph M. Strausser, and Department Association President Beverly Bowers.

Officers who served with the Past Grand Patriarch and were there to honor him, and extend their greetings and congratulations were as follows: Past Grand Master Ellwood L. McCorkle, Past Rebekah Assembly President Marcia La Van. Representing the Past Department Commander, Maj. Gen. Maynard J. Ernst, was our new Department Commander, Brig. Gen. Joseph M. Strausser. Representing the Past Department Association President, Lady Pat Feldman, was the Second Vice President of The Department Association, Lady Nancy Strausser.

Odd Fellowship was the topic of the day, and all in attendance received a gift of a leaded crystal "Friendship" plate.

HAPPY HOLIDAYS

The Pa Arthritis Committee has been busy and we could sure use your help and support to further our efforts to help those with arthritis and those who are looking for a cure for this disease. The Hope and Help for Arthritis Jingle Bells are still available through the committee and we will continue to sell them in 1999 to display at the 1999 Unified Session in June. Do your part to help! Listen for a notice to be read at your lodge meeting and send in a donation. Donations will be recognized in the Arthritis Committee Treasurer's report.

The Committee will again assist with efforts to support the Camp JRA program and I have included the preliminary 1999 Wish List that will make camp a bit more fun for the children. The Wish List includes production costs of camp T-shirts, 20 kites, 50 squirt guns, 2 to 4 fishing poles, arts & crafts supplies, bottled water, packaged snacks, flashlights, Polaroid film, sun screen and bug repellent and adaptive sports equipment. If you can suggest any sources to obtain those items, please call the Eastern Chapter Office and leave a message for Maureen Tierney. Volunteers to assist the staff during the Camp session are also needed. Watch these articles for information.

The Eastern, Central and Western Chapters and their Branches and Units have had a busy December with the Jingle Bell Runs/Walks in many places throughout PA. They are getting ready to begin the New Year with educational sessions for those with arthritis and their care givers. Contact the Chapter near you to see how you can help.

The PA Arthritis Committee is looking for your help and support for the projects and events they are involved with in 1999. Make a commitment to help in whatever way you can as an individual or as a Lodge.

There Were Shepherds

The shepherds heard the angels sing,
That night so long ago;
And suddenly a great light shone
And warmed them with its glow.

"Fear not, for unto you is born
In Bethlehem this day,
A Saviour, which is Christ the Lord,"
They heard the angels say.

"Oh, glory in the highest now!"
The heavens seemed to ring;

"Now go ye unto Bethlehem
And see this wondrous thing."

The shepherds left their quiet flocks
To seek the stable place
And marvel at the Holy Child,
The mother's radiant face.

They did not understand the things
They heard and saw that night;
They only knew that love had filled
Their hearts with hope and light.

Season's Greetings

BECKY'S BACKYARD

1. Remembering your "Pin" number. Write it out as a fictitious telephone number using your own area code as the first three digits of your own number and then your PIN number. No one else will know and you will have it with you. Don't write your pin on the cards.
2. Extra car key: To save the inconvenience of being locked out of your vehicle, consider this. Put an extra key on a loose-leaf binder ring and attach the ring to -- (for a man) your trouser belt keeper, (for a lady) to your bra strap.
3. A recycle use of window shades is to line kitchen cabinet drawers and shelves with them as they are durable and scrubbable.
4. Bay leaves keep weevils away. Put several bay leaves in a small cheese-cloth bag. Tape them to the inside of the flour container. No weevils in the flour! However, this will not get rid of existing weevils.
5. Hub Caps: Put your name, address and telephone number on each hub cap. When the tires are rotated or new tires are bought, it would prevent the hub caps being lost and saving the big expense of replacing them.
6. Recycle packing pellets. Many mailing places will accept the pellets and so will stores that sell fine china and crystal.

United Nations Pilgrimage For Youth 50th Anniversary

RETHINK our ATTITUDES and RECHARGE our ENTHUSIASM, watch words for the year ahead. What better way to start planning for the 50th Anniversary of the United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth Program, an Odd Fellow and Rebekah program only!

What better way for a lodge to get involved with the schools in their community. Offer students opportunities they have only dreamed could be. This Pilgrimage will be the greatest educational experience of their young lives and you, the members, through your fund raising can make it all happen. Give a student the opportunity of experiencing world leaders of today making profound decisions as they meet together and study global problems.

There will be special programs and special speakers acknowledging this 50th anniversary. Are you aware the 1998 UNP Delegates themselves made a donation to UNICEF in the amount of $821.58. The money will be directed to UNICEF's efforts in "Water and Sanitation" and the "Elimination of Land Mines."

Give a student in your area the opportunity to participate in this special 50th year anniversary tour!

Rethink your Attitudes, participate in the UNP Program this year even if you haven't before!

Recharge your Enthusiasm, send an extra student this special year!

Address Change

Please note; Lori Witzak, UNP Director will have a change of area code on January 1, 1999. Phone 727-942-7392 and Fax 727-942-7393.

NOTICE

Calling all former delegates, leaders and participants in the UNP program. Lori is trying to get a UNP Alumni Association formed. Fax or mail your current name and address and when you participated to Lori Witzak, P.O. Box 1778, Pal Harbor, FL 34682-1778.

UNP Delegate Selected By World Vision

Manda Roddick, a 1998 UNP Delegate from Wyoming, Ontario is one often students selected from over 350 applicants across Canada to participate in a World Vision Study tour. Manda will travel to Malawi, Africa in December 1998 to benefit underprivileged children and to see first hand, how World Vision is helping to alleviate suffering around the world.

Manda collected over $100 in pledges, and participated in the World Vision 30-Hour Famine project sponsored by her local high school. Inspired by the essay she wrote for the "Odd Fellows and Rebekahs UNP for Youth" competition, Manda submitted a 200-250 word essay on "How I Can Make A Difference In This World".

As a semi-finalist, Manda was faced with a series of tests, essay questions and panel interviews and she tells us, "Boy, was I ever happy that I learned so many things in New York this summer. The questions related to disease because of the poor water supply, I had heard many speakers discuss these issues at the United Nations and was very glad".

Education And Information Seminars A Success

The Region 1 seminar held in Lowell, MA over the weekend of September 19th was a great success. 78 members shared the exchange of ideas and learning experience.

The Region 4 and 7 seminar was held in Lethbridge, AB over the weekend of September 26th with 98 members present.

Both seminars gave the members present the opportunity to ask questions of their International leaders, learn more about the programs of the Order and share ideas on how to create better more interesting lodges and how to get new members.

The warmth and fellowship shared was an inspiration.

Watch for a seminar in your area or ask for one of your own.

Gerri's Corner

When thinking of officers' gifts and holiday gifts, remember the items of supply that are available.

Don't forget the banners

The emblematic bolo ties are very nice. Also the travel alarm clocks are in and always a good gift and the inexpensive past appointed officers' pins. Don't forget the emblematic belt buckles.

The emblematic red, white and blue winter hats are in stock now.

Does your Grand lodge own a 2nd Degree Video that the Lodges can use?

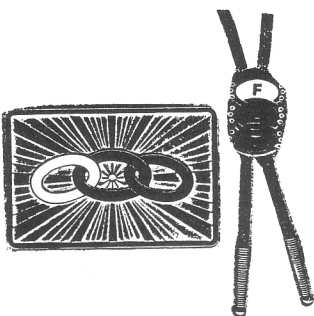

Have you told your membership about the emblematic mouse pads and license plate brackets that are now available.

Be sure and keep plenty of the blank emblematic certificates on hand so you can create your own script of thanks to those special members of your lodge.

Maybe it is time to remember your veterans with Veteran Buttons. They come in increments of 5 beginning with 5 years and up to 75 years. They are very attractive to wear on your suit or jacket in public.

Is your Lodge changing officers soon? Do you have your PNG and PG pins on hand for the retiring officers?

Any of the above can be ordered through your Jurisdictional Secretarial Officers.

Fall Tree Planting

In many areas fall is the time to plant trees. Remember your Living Legacy Program and your environment as you consider a planting. With the many storms recently there is a great need in areas for new trees. Check with your city officials and schools where they might be needed.

Arthritis Bells

If you wanted Bells to sell for Arthritis and have not ordered them, call Kim at 404-872-7100 ext. 6554 or FAX her at 404-872-5678. These make an excellent fund raiser and are furnished for your use.

Needing Our Cards and Prayers

Gen. Retired, William Miller, Jr. of Texas has suffered a stroke and is very ill. His address is 8520 Eustis St., Dallas, TX 75218.

Milton Furner of West Virginia who many remember for his work with the youth and UN fell and broke his hip recently. Cards can be sent to Rt. 1, Box 155, Wolf Summit, WV 26462.

Sister Laverne Indermuhl of Nevada is reported recuperating following more surgery.

DSGM Conley Call is recuperating at home following 4-by pass surgery.

Jan Says

She has the small green and gold gummed Rebekah Seals in stock.

Does your Lodge have the 3 books of ceremonies your Good of the Order Chairman can use to create programs for your meetings to make them more interesting? They are available!

This is the month to order your 1998 Queen Esther Christmas Ornaments for your holiday gift giving. They are $8.00

Secretaries do you have a supply of President Yvonne's sun catchers, angel pins and wheel pins? Please make them available to all members. Remember, the funds from the sale of these items goes to support the projects of our Order.

INDEPENDENT ORDER OF ODD FELLOWS

Membership 2001 Committee

"A PROGRAM OF THE SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE AND INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REBEKAH ASSEMBLIES TO OBTAIN MEMBERSHIP GAINS IN ALL UNITS OF ALL BRANCHES OF THE FAMILY OF ODD FELLOWSHIP"

To Every Grass Roots Member of the Family of Odd Fellowship

Now that the 1998 Sessions of the SGL, IARA, GMC and IALAPM are over and the awards and certificates for the 1997 segment of the Membership Program have been presented to the Representatives to bring back to your Jurisdictions, we must not drop the ball, but instead concentrate even more intensely of making the 1998 segment the first one in recent history that we show a membership GAIN!

Motivation is a difficult task for our Committee to instill, but motivate we must. It is for that reason we appeal to each and every one of you Grass Roots Members to invite someone you know to become a member of your lodge! After you have invited that person, offer yourself as a mentor to your selection until that person knows as much about your lodge and the Order as you do. Please help the Family by "GETTING A REPLACEMENT IN PLACE IN '98."

Our new SGM Mac Riley and International President Yvonne Isenor are asking for a 2% gain in membership during their term, so if we aim at breaking even this year, we should be able to give them a 2% gain during their term.

Remember we could do more, but we can do no less....

Fraternally,

Wayne N. Reynolds

ODD FELLOWS HOME-MIDDLETOWN

September was filled with fun and exciting times at the Odd Fellows Home. Residents kept busy making some of the many decorations for the Home's first "Harvest Festival Day." The Home was decorated with a "farm" theme. Clotheslines, farm animal statues, scarecrows and many staff dressed for Residents creating western sand art during Craft Activity.

Residents enjoy a hymn sing given by Mt. Calvary Church.

Staff perform various dances. (Chicken Dance, Hokey Pokey, and Bunny Hop.)

the occasion as well. Residents were greeted at the Dining Room entrance and given a vandanna and a happy "howdy."

After the exciting day was over the Residents participated in many activities throughout the month including the enlightening performance of hymn sing by the Mt. Calvary Church.

The Residents are looking forward to next month's activities at the Odd Fellows Home.

Residents enjoy and applaude staff as they dance to various songs for the Home's "Harvest Festival Day."

WITNESSES

On that first Christmas night of old,
When stars were hanging low,
As shepherds watched their sheep at night
With campfires all aglow,

Appeared the angels suddenly
To sing of Jesus' birth;
They told the shepherds God's own son
Had come that night to earth!

So the shepherds went to Bethlehem,
By holy messengers led,
And found our Savior nestled warm
In a humble manger bed.

They searched; they found; they witnessed;
And now around the earth
We celebrate the wonder
All find in Jesus' birth.

ORCHARD MANOR MEMORIAL SERVICE

The Annual Memorial Service for all Branches of our Order was held at Orchard Manor on Sunday, October 4, 1998 at 2:00 p.m.

We are happy to report that all Branches of our Order were represented. The overall attendance was lower than in past years, but those attending heard a very good message. The speaker for the day was a retired Methodist Minister, the Reverend Jack Patterson, who is our Home Chaplain. The Reverend Patterson has been at the Home since the Spring of 1998 and holds weekly Bible study and Song Services with an attendance of about 30 every week. Although he is not an Odd Fellow, he is familiar with our Order. He spoke on Odd Fellowship and urged everyone to visit the Residents as many do not have family and need visitors.

Due to weather conditions the Ceremony for the Placing of the Wreath at the Monument was held indoors with the Reverend Patterson speaking briefly. Those who were able then proceeded outdoors.

The Dietary Staff and friends prepared a lovely buffet featuring a beautiful ice sculpture of the three links and letters IOOF, (see picture). All those present enjoyed the food as well as a social time.

Our Grand Master, Alton Arnold and his wife Catherine and Grand Marshall Tom Severcool and his wife Shirley, honored us by their attendance. They toured the Home and visited with several Residents including our Brothers and Sisters who reside at Orchard Manor under the Odd Fellow Program. This was their first visit to our Home.

We were honored to have other members of our State Officers also present.

I would like to close with a quote from our Administrator, Diane Robinson: "In this age of instability and changing times, I am proud to say that Orchard Manor still carried out the foundation that was set forth by the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs. Our #1 goal has always been and will continue to be to give our Residents the best quality care possible. Orchard Manor is a result of the dedication and perseverance of our Brothers and Sisters of the Order."

*Because we care,
J. Wallace Shakley
Grand Lodge Representative
To Orchard Manor*

FERN REBEKAH LODGE AWARDS SCHOLARSHIP

Fern Rebekah Lodge No. 234 of Lake City, Pennsylvania awarded the Annual Scholarship Award on July 14, 1998 to Christine Sivik, a 1998 graduate of Northwestern High School in Albion, Pennsylvania.

This makes the sixth annual scholarship that Fern Lodge No. 234 has awarded. Three awards were given to Girard High School graduates, two awards were given to Fairview High School Seniors and one to Northwestern High School graduates. Of the six awards given five went to girls and one to a boy.

We have a committee in the Lodge that gets the application to the local high schools. After the applications have been returned, the Committee studies each one before a choice is made.

The following requirements are:

1. To have a high average
2. Be active in their community affairs
3. Have a good moral character
4. Be active in their church in attendance and service.

Of the six awards given, Christine Sivik is the only one that is affiliated with Odd Fellowship in any way. Her grandmother, Eloise Tau, is an active member of Fern Lodge. The check was presented to Christine by the Lodge, Noble Grand, Arlene Getz.

After the check was given, Christine had a nice talk and thanked the Lodge for the award before cookies and punch were served to the guests and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sivik of Albion, Pa. and the Lodge members present.
