A GENTLE CREATURE

O deliver not the soul of thy turtle dove unto the multitude of the wicked; forget not the congregation of thy poor forever. Psalm 74:19

The dove is the mildest and softest of God's birds. It is gentle and harmless and because of this gentleness it is easily captured, harmed or taken as prey by other animals. However; God has used the dove to signify various aspects of his grace and wisdom.

The dove was God's messenger to tell Noah when the flood waters had receded. The dove first returned with nothing; and then with an olive branch; to signify the status of the earth, alive and hospitable.

The dove was God's instrument used to represent His Spirit when he spoke from the heavens.

Jesus used the dove to represent the innocence and purity that his disciples should possess.

We, like the dove, must maintain the qualities of purity and gentleness and become God's instrument in the communication of the truth. As we go about our daily tasks and relationships with others, we should be grooming ourselves to be like the dove, keeping in mind, "birds of a feather flock together," and doves have no business flying with the hawks, who are fierce, with sharp talons that pierce and cut, as well as being without feeling for those who are gentle. The contrast in disposition between the dove and the hawk do not make for affinity.

Our Order is in need of more doves, won't you be a DOVE and spread gentleness and peace in our Lodges and reach out a hand of friendship and kindness to all.

Leola J. Madigan, PPRA
Chaplain, K

FROM THE DESK OF THE GRAND SECRETARY

FRIENDSHIP LOVE TRUTH

What a wonderful teaching and obligation these words constitute for every one of us who are members of this great Order. And, if everyone of us would take these words seriously, and if we all took them to heart what a wonderful Order we would have. To many they do not really consider and deeply think just what they have obligated themselves to when they become members of this Fraternity.

Friendship is a very leading factor in our everyday lives. Ir-regardless as to what has happened in the past, how many try to forget what has happened previously, and try to restore old friendships. Why not be friends again instead of carrying a chip on your shoulder. We all need friends and to have a friend you must be a friend.

Love is a very important factor in our everyday lives. We must show our heartfelt love to our parents, all of those in our family and to those with whom we some in contact with everyday. Life without Love is a lost cause, so let your Love so shine that all can see it in you.

Truth is the imperial virtue, and a person of truth is the best and stronger person. Be truthful in all you say and do everyday, and you will the reap the benefits for your own personal satisfaction.

If we all practice Friendship, Love and Truth, what a wonderful world this would be.

THANK YOU

Many thanks to the Brothers and Sisters who assisted me at the time of my hospitalization, also for the many get well cards, prayers, phone calls, and words of encouragement. At this time I am still recovering and hope to attend my Lodge Meetings soon.

In Friendship With Love,
Sara Eyerly & Family

A SECRET SOCIETY'S BENEFIT TO THE PUBLIC

The Odd Fellows, started for mutual aid, offered venues for entertainment and education.

By Joseph S. Kennedy
Inquirer Coorespondent

By the turn of the 19th century, the Independent Order of Odd Fellows played a leading role in the social development of the region. The benevolent group had overcome decades of public feeling against secret societies to provide a platform for private education and entertainment for residents.

According to a local historian of the time, Theodore Bean, the Odd Fellows Society in the United States traced its heritage to the beginning of the 19th century, when the Manchester (England) Unity of Odd Fellows was organized to provide funeral benefits and to render aid to its members during stressful times. The practice was not common, so the members dubbed themselves "Odd Fellows."

In his 1884 History of Montgomery County, Bean wrote that the Manchester Unity of Odd Fellows granted a charter to establish a lodge in Philadelphia in 1819. In 1837, Morton Kelsey, a member of the Philadelphia Lodge, moved to Norristown and organized the first lodge in Montgomery County – Lodge #57.

In the first half of the 19th century, there was a strong prejudice nationwide against any type of secret organization. Because the Odd Fellows had some secret rites, the society shared in the public animosity, followed by religious beliefs of the day.

That bias became a political issue during the 1820s, when the Anti-Masonic Party was formed and for a brief time had an impact on local politics.

In the years just before the Civil War, public feeling against secret societies began to diminish. But as late as the 1880s, in rural areas of the county, many ministers of churches with German traditions still condemned societies such as the Odd Fellows. Many of those German ministers pointed out that the lodge held their meetings at night in secret and served liquor when "respectable citizens (ought) to be home in their beds."

Still, in the 1840s and 1850s lodges were established in such communities as Flourtown, Pottstown, Conshohocken, Gulp Mills, North Wales and Upper Dublin.

In 1851, an Odd Fellows lodge for blacks was established. After being barred from the county's white lodges, a group of African Americans traveled to Manchester, England, for a charter for Good Will Lodge 1025. It was headed by the First Noble Father, Joseph Mans.

By the 1880s, there were 23 lodges in the county with a membership of about 2,250 that paid out thousands in annual benefits for funerals and charities.

What made the Odd Fellows important, particularly in rural areas, was the development of the hall associate program. In the years after the Civil War, each lodge was encouraged to build or buy a building in which to hold its meetings, as well as to provide space for public gatherings.

The halls were rented out for public meetings, musical performances or lecture series. Thus, they became a part of the social life of the community, which added to the popularity of the Odd Fellows organization.

But with the coming of the automobile, which provided other options for amusement and recreation, the use of the Odd Fellows halls declined during the 20th century.

(The Black Odd Fellows are the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows)

"Here is a boy with five small barley loaves and two small fish, but how far will they go among so many?"

– John 6:9

I believe that everything we say and do matters. Nothing we give is too small for God to use — a boy's lunch of loaves and fishes, a thoughtful word, a tiny act of kindess. The next time you are tempted to think that your small deed is of little consequence, remember: In God's hands it is like the proverbial pebble tossed into the pond. Its ripples may travel much farther than you might ever expect. — Sue Monk Kidd

ODD FELLOWS/REBEKAHS/ARTHRITIS COMMITTEE ACTIVITIES

Support of the Arthritis Foundation's work has been designated by the Sovereign Grand Lodge as a major effort for the IOOF. We in Pennsylvania, have been recognized in the past as one of the top Jurisdictions supporting the Sovereign Grand Lodge's Arthritis Program at their Annual Session. The Committee would like to see this recognition continued. To accomplish this, we must have the ongoing support of all Branches of our Fraternal Order and have a centralized accounting of our efforts through the PA Jurisdictional Committee.

The PA Jurisdictional Arthritis Committee supports the work of all three independent Arthritis Foundation Chapters and their Branches/Units in PA. In the past, the IOOF Fraternity was able to support the Telethon that was the Arthritis Foundation one major fund-raising event each year. That has been eliminated so we MUST support the regional fund-raising events such as the Mini Grand Prix races, Joint Parades, Jingle Bell, Runs/Walks and Golf Tournaments. The entrance fees for the participating teams go to support the Arthritis Foundation. Individual, Lodge, Encampment and Canton donations may be sent to the Committee Treasurer and designated for a special project (such as the Microscope Fund), a specific chapter or one of its branches/units, Camp JRA or other special project of the Arthritis Foundation or the Mini Grand Prix fund. Please make all checks payable to IOOF PA Arthritis Committee and mail to: Nevin Adams, Treasurer, 1083 Shoemakersville Road, Shoemakersville, PA 19555. Please be sure to include instructions on the use of the contribution. Enjoy the rest of our Fall and stay tuned for more activities. We look forward to your support!

LITITZ ODD FELLOWS ENJOY SOLID SEASON

The Odd Fellows finished the year with an impressive 16-7-1 record.

Some highlights from the year included excellent tournament showings at the Hempfield and Manheim Tournaments. Lititz advanced to the finals in the Hempfield Tournament, where they fell to a tough Manheim team.

Three weeks later in the Manheim Tournament, the Odd Fellows won their bracket, then defeated a strong Solanco team 6-2 in the semi-finals. They gain faced Manheim in the title game, and this time, they were not denied, bringing home the championship trophy with a 5-3 win.

The Odd Fellows also ended up second in their division with a 8-5-1 record.

As a team, Lititz ended up batting .313 for the year, banging out 208 hits and scoring 151 runs.

The Odd Fellows were represented in the LANCO League All Star game by Peifer at shortstop, Conlin at catcher, and Kreider at pitcher. Peifer was named the MVP for the Gray All-Stars, going 1 for 2 at the plate with one stolen base and some stellar defensive plays.

Conlin started the game at catcher and did a great defensive job, and Kreider pitched the fifth and sixth innings and turned in a solid performance.

The coaching staff, consisting of Jeff Peifer as head coach, Don Saracen as outfield and base coach, and Todd Kreider as pitching coach, would like to thank the players for giving them a great season and the parents for their loyalty and support of their sons and the team.

They would also like to thank the Odd Fellows Organization for their sponsorship and support.

WALKER LODGE NO. 306

Independent Order Odd Fellows
September 1, 1998

TO THE BROTHERS AND SISTERS OF ALL ODD FELLOW AND REBEKAH LODGES IN THE JURISDICTION OF PENNSYLVANIA

Greetings:

Walker Lodge #306 of Philadelphia is moving from their old Lodge Hall at 5619 Germantown Avenue to a new building at 1290 Southampton Road, Philadelphia.

A public dedication of the new building is scheduled for Saturday, November 7, 1998. Members of all branches of the order and an escort are invited to attend this dedication which will start at approximately 1:00 P.M. with refreshments and fellowship to follow. Due to the space and the number of persons expected, please no children.

Besides Walker Lodge moving this will also mean that Lettita Penn Rebekah Lodge #173, Perseverance Encampment #135, Canton and Auxiliary #1 will also be relocating into the new building.

To get to the new location if you are coming from outside of Philadelphia you would take the Turnpike to Philadelphia Exit 28. Go south toward Philadelphia on Route 1 onto the Roosevelt Blvd. Staying in the right hand lanes of the outer drive to Southampton Road (approx. 3 traffic signals) At Southampton Road turn right and go approximately 1/2 mile and the Lodge Hall is on the left. If coming from within Philadelphia you would go north on Route I-95 to Woodhaven Road and west to the Roosevelt Blvd. (North) or come north on the Roosevelt Blvd. To Southampton Road where you would turn left.

If you plan to come to this event please R.S.V.P. before November 1, 1998 to Joe Sweeney at 215-822-8784 so that we can have an idea of how many will attend.

We hope to see many of our Brothers and Sisters from other Lodges come to help us celebrate the dedication of our new Lodge Hall.

Fraternally,
The Dedication Committee
Quince Hunt Jr., Chairman

BECKY'S BACKYARD

In the August issue, there was an error in #1 concerning potatoes that sprout before you use them. The correction is:

1. Do your potatoes sprout before you use them? Peel, slice and boil them until partially cooked. Remove from the water and freeze in small quantities. Later, when you want mashed potatoes, pop the frozen potatoes into boiling water to finish cooking and they're soon ready to mash.

* * * * *

1. Epsom salt works well as a plant perk-up. Sprinkle 2 tablespoonfuls of Epsom salts (magnesium sulfate) around the base of each plant for garden plants and shrubbery. They say the salts help to prevent weak stalks and yellow leaves and help strengthen the root system.
2. Use of overripe bananas. Peel them and wrap them in aluminum foil, at least three in a package, and use to make banana cake or bread. Or, remove at least two from the freezer, cut them while still frozen and blend in a mixer on slow, adding 1 or 2 cups of milk. This makes a delicious banana milkshake. Additional suggestion is peel the bananas and mash them, add a dash of lemon juice and put them in an airtight freezer-safe container and then put them into the freezer.
3. Recycle dehumidifier water. Instead of running the hose into a drain, catch the water in jugs and use the water for plants.
4. If and when it is necessary to stand on a chair and the chair is on tile floor and the chair has a tendency to slide, place the chair on a nonslip tub mat to prevent slipping.
5. Household items help to clean drains. To keep clean the sink drain and keep it free-flowing, pour 1/2 to 1 cup of baking soda in, then add 1 cup of cheap household vinegar. When the stuff bubbles up, let it work for a minute or so, then run plenty of hot water. It's important to let the water run for a good minute or two. And you will have a clean fresh-smelling drain.

JUNE 28, 1998

100 YEARS AGO

The Upland Lodge of Odd Fellows celebrated its 51st anniversary at its lodge rooms at Third and Market Streets, Chester. After ice cream and lemonade, cigars were passed around to members.

I'm a Senior Citizen

I'm the life of the party, even when it lasts until 8:00 p.m.
I'm very good at opening child proof caps with a hammer.
I'm usually interested in going home before I get where I'm going.
I'm good on a trip for at least an hour without my aspirin, beano, antacid----
I'm the first one to find the bathroom wherever I go.
I'm awake many hours before my body allows me to get up.
I'm smiling all the time because I can't hear a word you're saying.
I'm very good at telling stories ---- over and over and over.
I'm aware that other peoples grandchildren are not as bright as mine.
I'm so cared for: long-term care, eye care, private care, dental care, ----
I'm not grouchy, I just don't like traffic, waiting, crowds, children, politicians,-----
I'm positive I did housework correctly before my mate retired.
I'm sure everything I can't find is in a secure place.
I'm wrinkled, saggy and lumpy, and that's just my left leg.
I'm having trouble remembering simple words like ------
I'm now spending more time with my pillows than my mate.
I'm realizing that aging is not for sissies.
I'm anti everything now: anti-fat, anti-smoke, anti-noise, anti-inflammatory -----
I'm walking more (to the bathroom) and enjoying it less.
I'm going to reveal what goes on behind closed doors --- absolutely nothing.
I'm sure they are making adults much younger these days.
I'm in the initial stage of the golden years: SS, CD's, IRA's, AARP ----
I'm wondering ---- if you're only as old as you feel, how can I be alive at 150?
I'm supporting all movements now ---- by eating bran, prunes, and raisins.
I'm a walking storeroom of facts ---- I've just lost the storeroom.
I'm a Senior Citizen and I think I'm having the time of my life.
I'm typing big and bold so we can all read it.

That Ragged Old Flag

(author unknown)

Source: The American Timberman & Truck

In this month of the birth of our Nation, please take time to read this simple, beautiful tribute.

I walked through a County Court House Square.
On a park bench an old man was sitting there.
I said, "Your old Court House is kinda run down."
He said, "No, it will do for our little town."
I said, "Your old flag pole is leaning a little bit
And that's a ragged old Flag you've got hanging on it."
He said, "Have a seat," and I sat down.
"Is this the first time you've been to our town?"
I said, "I think it is."
"Well," he said, "I don't like to brag.
But we're kinda proud of that ragged old Flag.
You see, we got a little hole in that Flag there,
When Washington took it across the Delaware.
And, it got powder burns, the night Francis Scott Key
Sat watching it, writing 'Oh Say Can you see.'
And it got a bad rip at New Orleans
When Packingham and Jackson took it on the scene.
And, it almost fell at the Alamo beside the Texas Flag
But she waved on through.
She got cut with a sword at Chancellorsville,
And she got cut again at Shiloh Hill.
There was Robert E. Lee, Bouregard and Bragg.
The South wind blew hard on the ragged old Flag.
On Flander's Field in World War One
She got a big hole from a Bertha gun.
She turned blood red in World War Two
And she hung limp and low a time or two.
She was in Korea and Vietnam,
She went where she was sent by her Uncle Sam.
She waved from our ships upon the briny foam
Now they've quit waving her back here at home.
In our good land here she's been abused.
She's been burned, dishonored, denied, refused.
And the government for which it stands
Is scandalized throughout the land.
She's getting threadbare and she's wearing thin
But, she's in good shape for the shape she's in.
Because she's been through the fire before.
I believe she can take a whole lot more.
So we raise her up every morning, and we take her down every night.
We don't let her touch the ground, and we fold her up right.
On second thought, I do like to brag
Because I'm proud of That Ragged Old Flag."

ORCHARD MANOR

SEVENTH ANNUAL FAMILY PICNIC

Hundreds of people shared a "thousand and one smiles" at Orchard Manor's Family Picnic on Saturday, July 11, 1998. Each year the Resident's of Orchard Manor gather with family, friends and staff to enjoy a day of good food, fun, music and fellowship. At this year's event, hundreds of people congregated under the colorful pavilion tents. The smell of BBQ chicken, hot dogs and hamburgers drifting through the air from a giant charcoal grill. The popcorn, cotton candy and sno-cones were also available to tempt the tastebuds. Family and friends brought a variety of covered dishes, desserts, and relish trays that were delicious. While enjoying a satisfying meal, everyone was treated to musical entertainment that kept toes tapping and hands clapping. In addition, the Auxiliary held a bake sale, craft sale and a 50/50 raffle. It was a grand day and all are looking forward to next years' big event.

CONCERTS AT THE MANOR

Orchard Manor recently hosted a series of outdoor concerts. The concerts are held each Wednesday evening for five weeks. The Residents of Orchard Manor, family, friends and community members are invited to come out onto the lawn to enjoy a warm summer night of music and fellowship. The concerts began at 6:30 pm. Each Concert has been well attended. The trail of visitor's starts arriving, with lawn chairs in hand, by 5:45 pm, eager to reserve a comfortable spot in the shade. The attendance may vary, but generally we have seen at least a crowd of 110 people at each concert. The Concerts at the Manor highlight groups that primarily sing old time favorites, country western and gospel tunes familiar to the older generation. Orchard Manor is proud to host such an event for its Residents, their families and friends in the community.

Orchard Manor has received many favorable comments on our new welcome mats, which are at the front and back doors. The mats, which bear the three links in red, white and blue, the Home's tree and logo, 'Because We Care,' are a nice addition to both porch areas. They were purchased through the Fund Raising Account, and many thanks are extended to the Lodges and individuals that have so generously contributed to our Home. Residents, Staff and Visitors have all noticed and complimented the personalized welcome mats.

ORCHARD MANOR

Orchard Manor residents and staff went "Back to the 50's" on August 18 and 19. The facility celebrated the fabulous Fifties with a car show, 50's comedians, a dress-up day, special meals and trivia contests. The Activity Department arranged the 50's car show. The residents, staff, and visitors enjoyed seeing the 57 Chevy Bel Air, Classic Corvette, 57 Chevy pick-up truck and several others. The combination of a warm sunny day and the brightly shining classic cars was a huge success (Brother Glenn Boosel posed for a picture next to the 57 Chevy Bel Air.)

Chuckles and outright belly-laughs were plentiful when the residents watched videos of some of the favorite comedians from the fifties. They especially enjoyed the old routines of Burns & Allen and the humor of Red Skelton.

The 50's days were made complete with the special meals by Orchard Manor dining services. On Tuesday, the dining room was filled with the aroma of hot dogs, hamburgers and grilled onions being cooked to order. The meals were served in cardboard carriers that were replicas of 50's hot rods.

Most of the residents kept these souvenirs to later give them to their grandchildren.

All in all the 50's days were a success. So what's next at Orchard Manor? The residents will be busy with the "Wild West" days in September, a trip to a Civil War Encampment, the "Great" Pumpkin Contest in October and the Best Bread Bake-Off in November.

Respectfully submitted,

Everything Cometh

Everything cometh to him who waiteth . . . so long as he who waiteth worketh like heck while he waiteth.

THE ACTIONS of men are like the index of a book; they point out what is most remarkable in them.

—Heine

Life is a web, time is a shuttle, and man is a weaver. The principle of action is a thread in the web of life. Of that web, two things are true, that which enters therein will reappear, and nothing will reappear which was not put therein.
