BECKY'S BACKYARD

1. To remove wrinkles from plastic flannel type tablecloth, put the tablecloth in the dryer (on a low-heat setting) with a couple of damp towels. Check the tablecloth frequently until all the wrinkles are gone. Let the tablecloth lie flat to cool to avoid more wrinkles. You can also remove wrinkles by ironing (on a warm setting) with a steam iron on the flannel side - do not iron the vinyl side!

2. Ladies, do you have difficulty remembering the color makeup you buy! Remove the sticker from the bottle or tube that includes the brand and color and stick it to a mirror in your cosmetics bag; or put the stickers on an index card and put it in your wallet.

3. When the metal spout on the dishwasher-detergent box is hard to open, place a small bobby pin over the spout as a handle to pull the spout open.

4. To clean up broken glass! After picking up the big pieces, vacuum the area and then take wide, silver tape and pat the whole area. Press hard on the tape. After picking up all you can, if you see something sparkle, use the tape procedure again. Very soon you will have a glass free carpet or area where the glass was broken.

5. To remove odor from a refrigerator, place a bowl of cat-box filler in it and close the door for a couple of days. This also works in a musty clothes closet.

6. Keep copies of wallet contents. Make copies of everything in your wallet to make it easier to replace all items if the wallet is lost or stolen. When traveling put them in the bottom of your suitcase, or somewhere other than your purse. You have a record of what papers are to be replaced, plane tickets, credit cards, etc.

The Way to a Happy New Year

To leave the old with a burst of song;
To recall the right and forgive the wrong;
To forget the things that bind you fast
To the vain regrets of the year that's past;
To have the strength to let go your hold
Of the not worth while of the days grown old;
To dare go forth with a purpose true,
To the unknown task of the year that's new;
To help your brother along the road,
To do his work and lift his load;
To add your gift to the world's good cheer,
Is to have and to give a Happy New Year.

A NEW MILLENNIUM

Out with the old and in with the new — The PA Jurisdictional Arthritis Committee continues to find ways to help those with arthritis.

We'll be looking for volunteers to help at Arthritis Foundation sponsored events all through the year. Can we count on YOU?

Let's make 2000, the new millennium, a year of Odd Fellow and Rebekah support for those with arthritis.

The PA Arthritis Committee is making some plans as the year begins. We'll be announcing the new project we will raise funds for over the next year or so. The Eastern Chapter is looking into a "Dance-a-thon" as a fund-raiser and some of us will be helping with the planning and management of the event. We will continue to enter the mini grand prix races around the state. There will be more news on those as Spring approaches. We do have race car magnets available to help us raise money. They say "PA IOOF Racing to Cure Arthritis" and have the three link logo on the side to promote the IOOF-Arthritis Foundation relationship. I do hope you'll purchase one. We participated in three of the races for 1999, Philadelphia, Kingston and Pittsburgh. Harrisburg's race was postponed due to Hurricane Floyd and the members of Team Walker had other plans on the new date.

The Arthritis Foundation Chapters have started to plan the Year 2000 events. We'll try to alert you to the scheduled events in these articles. For now, once the Jingle Bell Runs/Walks are over in mid-December, things will quiet down until Spring and better weather arrives. All Chapters will be glad to tell you about their activities just give them a call.

Remember, the PA Jurisdictional Committee is asking you to become active and support our efforts to make a difference for those with arthritis.

VOLUNTEER! We'll be looking for you!

Have a Happy Holiday Season and Best Wishes for a Prosperous 2000!

For questions or to volunteer, contact the Chapter nearest you directly.

ODD FELLOWS HOME

October was a festive month for the residents of the Odd Fellows Home. The month included activities with the community. The Seven Sorrows third grade children returned to visit residents after their summer vacation. The children and residents read aloud their favorite story. Smiles filled the room!

The Happy Wanderers performed beautifully for the residents. The activity room was filled with happy singing voices as the residents sang along to favorite songs.

Halloween Bingo was enjoyed by all who attended. Volunteers donated prizes which included little plastic pumpkins filled with regular and sugar free snacks.

Residents look forward to next month's activities. They thank the community for their thoughtfulness.

A Communication of The SGL/IARA Membership Committee

OCTOBER 1999

Volume 10 Issue 4

October Is United Nations Pilgrimage For Youth Month

If your Jurisdiction Chairman for this program has not contacted your lodge, YOU contact them. The material for the "SUMMER 2000" program has all been sent to your Chairman. We found at the Educational Seminars last year many lodges never received any information on the tour. Please Chairman contact every Lodge in your Jurisdiction even if they have not participated before. We also found during these meetings in several jurisdictions there were lodges in one area of the state who had students but no money and in another area of the state lodges had money but no students. Let's COMMUNICATE and start "SUMMER 2000" with twice as many students as we had last year. If you need more information please contact Lori M. Witczak, Director, P.O. Box 1778, Palm Harbor, FL 34682-1778, phone 727-942-7392, fax 727-942-7393, Email: LWUMP@aol.com

If your lodge cannot send a student, we still have the UN Stamps if you send a donation to the Sovereign Grand Lodge Office we will send you as many sheets of stamps as you would like.

South Bend Seminar

Those attending the Educational Membership Seminar in South Bend, IN shared lots of information, idea exchanges and good food.

One thing we found by sitting down together and looking up questions in the Code, Ritual and Jurisdictional Constitutions many arguments can be avoided and the out dated idea, "but we have always done it this way" doesn't count anymore. We learned also the lack of COMMUNICATION is one big reason nothing gets accomplished. Newsletters to the individuals in your lodge will easily take care of most of these problems at the local lodge level.

Very few lodges realized they can register with their local Chamber of Commerce and they can also tap into free announcements on local TV and Radio spots.

Only about one half the lodges set goals so they have something to measure their accomplishments throughout the year.

Very few have a prospective membership list to work with.

How does your lodge answer to above and what plans do you have to overcome any of these problems if they exist in your lodge.

Goals 1999-2000

- Stabilize our membership.
- Create Peace and Harmony among all Members and Branches of our Order
- Institute one new unit in each branch of the Order in each jurisdiction.
- Through education and development in the principles and practices of the Order create better communication thereby obtaining a 2.1% net gain in membership.

Special Unit Awards

To any local Unit responsible for the institution of a New Unit.

To each unit with a 2.1% gain.

To each Grand Body with a 2.1% gain

Special Membership Awards

To the Brother or Sister who do the following:

1. Sponsor the most new and re-instated members.
2. Used the most creative effort in bringing in new members.
3. Is the most active member in their lodge and the jurisdiction.

Special Award recommendations should be sent by July 15, 2000 to:

"A PROGRAM OF THE SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE AND INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION

To every Brother and Sister:

We are off to a good start on this Fraternal Year. There are new lodge institutions in process and several lodges have scheduled Degree Days for significant numbers of new members. However, these growth events are only the tip of the iceberg when it comes to our needs. Our losses during the past several years have accumulated to an alarming number and we must take action on a much wider basis to stop the decline and begin a sustained period of growth.

Sister Pat Comer, Co-Chairman for our Membership Region No. 1, stated in an article in the October 1999 issue of the CAMPLEA NEWS: "Remember my Brothers and Sisters, our Order is not declining. Our membership is. The principles upon which we are based are as relevant today as they were a hundred years ago." She hit the nail squarely on the head! So long as we maintain our standards, uphold our principles, and apply our laws, rules and regulations with Friendship, Love and Truth we can guarantee that our great Order will not decline, and we will be free to concentrate our efforts on actions for membership growth. And, my Brothers and Sisters, action is required! All the discussions, the plans, and the programs and incentives are meaningless until we each take the actions required to bring in a new member, or to reinstate one. CARRYING THE TORCH of Odd Fellowship is an action, LIGHTING THE WAY into the next Century is an action, and LET US BEGIN implies that an action is essential. Let us convert MEMBERSHIP GROWTH from a passive need to a positive action.

Our Sovereign Grand Master, Conley Call, and International President, Sherri Robbins, have both been impressed by the past results of the SGL-IARA Information and Education Seminars. They desire to continue these Seminars this year. We are working on a Seminar to be held in Maryland in March, 2000, and need to add others in every area of North America. Any Jurisdiction or Region desiring to host such a Seminar is requested to contact either myself, or Sister Mavis Paull at the headquarters of The Sovereign Grand Lodge in Winston-Salem. We will COMMUNICATE with you and make every effort to make each of these Seminars a resounding success.

Our sincere congratulations to Emma's Angels Theta Rho Girl's Club No. 9, of the Jurisdiction of New York, instituted on October 2, 1999.

Remember, we must never underestimate the power of one. One member can accomplish so very much. One member can be the spark that begins the ACTION in your Unit. Are you that one member? Will you CARRY THE TORCH of Odd Fellowship?

Sincerely in F. L. & T.

Rob Robbins

Holiday Candle Litany

We light the candle of service
That we who have gathered here,
May think of our needy Brothers and Sisters
And help give them comfort and cheer.

May envy and hate and malice
Just wither before it's flame,
And the eternal fires of good light up
Our hearts in the Fathers name.

May all who come to this gathering
With hearts 'oer burdened with care,
Go forth with the burden lightened
And peace find a dwelling there.

And as the light of our candles go out
And the work of the day is 'oer,
May all who go out from this place tonight
Be permitted to meet once more.

MAHANoy LODGE #551 IOOF

The 74th Annual Banquet of the Tri-County Past Grands Association, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, was held October 2, 1999 in the Mahanoy Lodge Hall at Dornsife, PA. A full course turkey dinner was served by Idella Rebekah Lodge #58.

The highlight of the evening program was the presentation of the "Odd Fellow of the Year" award selected by the Odd Fellow of the Year committee of the Association.

The recipient of this year's award is James A. Snyder, a member of Mahanoy Lodge #551 who was born at Herndon, PA on January 24, 1935. He is the son of the late Norman and Margaret Snyder. He has three brothers, Gene, William, Barry, and one sister Martha Feger.

He graduated from Mahanoy Joint High School, which was consolidated with Trevorton High School and is now known as Line Mountain High School at Herndon, PA.

On October 3, 1953 he married Beverly Hepler. They are the parents of three children Ricci, Robyn and Jodi. They have five grandchildren, three boys and two girls. They reside at Herndon, PA.

He was employed by the Mandata Poultry Company as a truck driver. Later on he purchased his own truck which he used to haul steel. A few years later he formed his own trucking company known as the K & S Truck Lines, Inc. His company was also in the steel hauling business. He operated his trucking business for over 30 years until it was sold in 1986. He is now employed by the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation in Upper Dauphin County based in Elizabethville, PA.

Mr. Snyder was initiated into Mahonoy Lodge #551 on April 7,

1977. He has served as Noble Grand and has the most appointed offices in the Lodge. He is a member of Tri-County Past Grands Association, having served as President in 1992. He has served for several years, and is still serving as a member of the Executive Committee. He is the Treasurer of the Past Grands Association.

He has served on numerous committees for the lodge. He and his wife, Beverly, served on the committee to select a bronze plaque for the memorial stone erected on the lodge grounds in memory of all past members of Mahonoy Lodge #551 and Idella Rebekah Lodge

#58. He has been serving as one of the Lodge's representatives on the Board of Trustees of the Dalmatia Ambulance League, Herndon, PA for the past several years.

He has for many years assumed responsibility to order and plan for the lodge's Bi-Annual Chicken Bar-B-Que. He is always ready to assist in any duty concerning lodge work and to participate in general work activities around the lodge hall. His personality and character is a personification of what a true "Odd Fellow" represents. The virtues of our order, friendship, love and truth are practiced by our brother in his daily living.

He is a member of Himmels Lutheran Church, Rebuck, PA where he served on the Church Council. He plans and assists in preparing a breakfast once a year in the Church Grove for the men of the Church. He is a "Life Member" of the Herndon Fire Company, Selinsgrove Moose Lodge, and the American Legion, Mandata, PA.

He sponsored the K & S Softball team for 25 years in the Lower Northumberland County Softball Association League in Herndon, PA where they won numerous trophies and championships.

This year marked the "50th Anniversary of the United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth Program." The Odd Fellows and Rebekah Lodges have sponsored over 35,000 students since the programs inception in 1949. Mr. Rinck gave a very interesting report detailing his daily activities during his 10-day trip. Cole is a grandson of James and Beverly Snyder. His parents are James and Robyn Rinck, Selinsgrove, PA. His mother, Robyn, was in attendance as a guest of the lodge.

Entertainment was provided by Nichole Hicks and Maren Kepler who are Junior classmates at Line Mountain High School. As a school project they are performing their singing talents at various community events. Their excellent musical program was enjoyed by everyone present.

FORMER RESIDENTS RECALL SEMISWEET DAYS AT ODD FELLOWS ORPHANS HOME

Sixty years after he was brought to this building with four of his frightened siblings, Bob Irving walked up the front porch steps again. He got buzzed through the front doors yesterday and spent a few peaceful, memory-drenched hours there, the kind of peace that acknowledges that places like this must always be a part of you.

In 1939, tuberculosis took his parents out of the parenting business, and their considered recourse was to put all but their two oldest children in this ornate old building that is set back from Letort Street in Brighton Heights.

It was then the Odd Fellows Orphans Home.

Sandy Poremski, top left, of Cranberry amuses the former residents of the Odd Fellows Orphans Home in Brighton Heights with an anecdote from her own days at the facility. Seated in front of Poremski are Frank Gruver, left, and his wife, Janet.

"I was nine when I came her," Bob said, "17 when I left to go to the service. You know, it wasn't great. I was a teen-age boy for most of it, but when I think about the possibilities . . . They took good care of us."

The building is now Rooney Middle School, named for the late Art Rooney, Sr. who'd often bring Steelers to the place to visit the orphans. yesterday morning, 15-former residents of the orphanage gathered in its conference room to get reacquainted and prepare to meet some students.

"This was the conference room then too," announced Frank Gruver, who arrived as a ward of the state in the '50s and returned for a stint as a house parent. "And across the hall was the room with the safe. On Sundays you were allowed to go in the safe and take a dime for church and a nickel for Sunday school."

"A dime?" someone said. "That was for the older kids. We go 2 cents."

They laughed easily at the memory, and if the century-old building first meant intense sadness to most of them, they've long since made the management of it seem effortless. Among them were a police officer, an accountant, a prison guard, a singer and a retired letter carrier.

In completing arrangements made by school librarian Mary King, they filed downstairs to the science room to share their memories with 25 students who sat transfixed while the elders brought the building's history to life for them.

"There used to be a room in the back where they kept bicycles," said Larry Sangricco, now, and for 33 years, a police officer. "If you owned a bike, you could keep it there."

"Well, I didn't own one, but I borrowed one and took it for a ride across the McKees Rocks Bridge. That was at the close of school

Former residents of the Odd Fellows Orphans Home in Brighton Heights return to their one-time home, now Rooney Middle School, to relive memories, fond and otherwise. Stowe police officer Larry Sangricco, center, describes how as a boy he broke into his houseparents' car, without knowing how to drive, and promptly backed it into a brand-new Chrysler. With him are former houseparent Janet Gruver and former resident Chuck Miller.

in June. For my punishment, I had to sit on my bed — they called it being on campus — every day until school opened the next year. I could go to meals and do the chores, but otherwise I had to sit on the bed."

"What was the worst thing you ever did?" one girl wanted to know.

"The boys and girls were separated," Larry said, "but if you look up on the roof, if you were careful, there's a way you can get over to their side. We used to walk across the roof to go in the girls' rooms."

"So you've been in law enforcement all your life, Larry," King teased.

The women told of getting on streetcars in their prom dresses and of visiting the Civic Light Opera to see Gordon McRae in "The Student Prince." The men of endless rounds of ball games on Saturday afternoons after the chores were done.

They exposed the odd personal politics of institutions that have largely passed from the culture.

"If you live at home with your parents and you have a brother, and you make your brother mad, then you have no one, but here, you had 90 other kids here. There was always somebody to be with," said one.

"You had to leave when you were 18, and when I did, I lived by myself in an apartment on the North Side. I was so lonely, I joined the Army," said another.

"I came to work here as a house parent but I was still a teen-age girl, and that was hard," said Janet Gruver, Frank's wife.

"I was supposed to act like an adult, but I broke the rules just like the teen-agers on the weekends. It was hard watching the teen-age girls watching Frank. I wanted him for myself. He was my idol then, and he's my idol now."

The middle school girls virtually swooned at this story, and applauded loudly when Irving introduced his wife of 47 years. They met here, too.

They all ordered pizza for lunch, drank some pop and took some pictures, and Frank left the students with some words to live by.

"The world doesn't owe us anything," he said. "Take that with you when you go."

MIDDLETOWN HOME

September was filled with fun and exciting times at the Middletown Home. Residents enjoyed "Harvest Festival Day" and reminisced about farm life and watched staff dance to music such as "The Hokey Pokey" and "The Chicken Dance" while they adorned straw hats or bibbed overalls.

Residents of the home also participated in many special activities such as the monthly Home's Auxiliary Bingo and United Methodist's Sunday School Sing Along. The Home celebrated Ruth Brodnick's 100th Birthday as well and invited residents to wish her well. Happy Birthday Ruth!

We look forward to an October filled with fun!
