FROM THE DESK OF THE GRAND SECRETARY

Greetings to my Fraternal Family. Most of you are used to me from 1996-97 as Grand Master, now I am back in a new capacity as your Grand Secretary. To me it seems to be more of a challenge than when I was installed four years ago. Aside from the dealings with the Grand Lodge, by virtue of the office I am told I am now Editor of the Magazine. This has been one of the most controversial items before the Grand Lodge for years. I remind you according to Webster, an editor is someone preparing for publication or altering. I mention this to show there is a difference between a "Editor" and "Writer" or "Reporter". You by being Brothers and Sisters are the "Writers" and "Reporters", without you, I will have nothing to "edit". So if we are going to make this magazine work, we must work together. I will be trying to correct some of the biggest complaints I have heard over the year. The main one, is the time of delivery. The magazines are arriving at the end of the month for that month. I will try to have your next month by the end of the previous month.

Also, facing this challenge was the computer problem, two weeks prior to our annual convention. The antiquated system being used for the P.O.F. (Penna. Odd Fellow & Rebekah) was being converted to a new system. The person from the company brought in to handle this accidentally deleted our file. So we are aware there will be some address problems and subscription problems. Please help us to correct this.

Our Sessions are over, we are in a new year with new leaders, and I personally think now we must concentrate more than ever to start re-building our order. The one thing that scared me the most, in updating our file systems. I began to remove defunct or consolidated Odd Fellow and Rebekah Lodges from our active files. You would not believe the stack I had to remove. It really made me realize we are in big danger.

BUT, IT'S NOT TOO LATE. So many have contacted me because they see the way my home Lodges are growing in Tamaqua and want to know how. I think most are sorry because they don't like to hear the answer they get. The very few older members, including myself sit back and let the new ones do what they want. We (the older members) are just there to guide them and help if they need it. We do not use the quotes, "we did that and it didn't work before", "you can't do that", "that will never work". The biggest one I have heard since I have been in this office is, "we never did it that way before". I repeat my thought from my first letter to the Lodges, my reply, if the way we did it before worked, we would not be down in membership and Lodges the way we are. It goes to show what we are doing isn't working.

For now in closing, I want to say again I look forward to working with you to help promote Odd Fellowship and Rebekah Odd Fellowship throughout our Jurisdiction.

Again on behalf of the Board of Grand Lodge Officers, please accept our apologies on the delay in receiving your issue.

*Charles H. Bailey
Grand Secretary*

ODD FELLOWS PRESENT SCHOLARSHIPS

Cussewago Lodge #108 Meadville has established two scholarships for students in the Crawford Central Schools. The criteria, besides being a student of one of the two schools, are academic achievement, community and school activities that serve and emulating the principals of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. These principles are Friendship, Truth and Brotherly Love.

The recipient of the scholarship in Meadville was Elizabeth Niebauer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Niebauer. It was presented on Award Night by Leland E. Dorchester, secretary of the Lodge.

The recipient in Cochranton was Tessa Hunter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Todd Hunter. The scholarship was presented at the Awards Assembly by Robert Martin, Noble Grand of Cussewago Lodge.

ODD FELLOWS & REBEKAHS SUPPORT M.S. BIKE RIDE!

Once again Robert Martin, Cochranton, and Noble Grand of Cussewago #108 rode the 150 miles from Pittsburgh to Conneaut, Ohio.

Brothers and Sisters contributed $655.00 of the $735.00 raised. Brother George Wilson of Sandy Lake Lodge #573 carved a plaque of an Elk on which chances were sold. The winner was Donald McCartney of Titusville #304.

Various lodges and individuals contributed the rest. Names on the shirt are names of friends who have M.S. Their names were listed for a contribution of $10.00 each.

Brother Martin has participated in the ride for six years. His contribution has resulted in approximately $3500.00 during these years.

The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of Northwestern Pa. are proud to support him in his efforts and to keep the Order before the public. Because of the information on his shirt, the M.S. Society is now suggesting that other riders sponsor a person on their shirts, also.

5. Lori Thiele
6. Julia Francis
7. Allis Schreck
8. Jodi Haynes
9. Christopher Ashworth
10. Catherine Corey

The following is acknowledgments from additional recipients.

To all Odd Fellows and Rebekahs:

I wish to express my thanks for the scholarship. It means a great deal to me to be chosen. I will use this money to purchase books for the fall and spring terms. Thank you for honoring me.

Cathy Hogue, Mercer, PA

To the Odd Fellow-Rebekah Committee

Thank you for granting me this gracious scholarship. I will be using it to buy books. My dream is to become a pharmacist. God Bless all of you.

Jennifer Behanna, Monongahela, PA

Thank you for selecting me as a recipient for the Odd Fellow-Rebekah Scholarship. It has dampened the cost of tuition and allowed me to attend the college of my choice. I am pleased to have my name added to the list of scholarship recipients.

Kyle J. Curtis, Preston Park, PA

Members of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs

I would just like to say thank you for the scholarship! It will be a great help in furthering my education. Once again, thank you!

Lisa Balaban, Connellsville, PA

Thank you very much

Elizabeth Maplesden, Yardley, PA

To the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs

Thank you for selecting me as a recipient of the Odd Fellow and Rebekah Scholarship. It will be of great assistance in helping me at the University of Pittsburgh. I will continue to keep in touch with you and share my accomplishments with you.

Dayna Da Lauro, Strasburg, PA

Just wanted to write a quick thank you for selecting me as a recipient of the Odd Fellow-Rebekah Scholarship. It is both an honor and a privilege for me to accept this scholarship. My family and I are extremely appreciative. My grandfather, Eugene Wakefield of Lodge #74 nominated me. Thank you deeply.

Jason Zinn, East Stroudsburg, PA

END OF SUMMER PLANS

Summer has come with its heat and humidity. All of us have been feeling the effects. Members of the Arthritis Committee were at the 29th Unified Session in Grantville and enjoyed seeing you as they sold and displayed the Christmas in June - Giving Hope and Help to Those with Arthritis bells. The money raised is being used to help us fulfill our commitment for the project, People with Arthritis Can Exercise. The Western PA Chapter tells us that it has been able to bring this program to three locales with the grant the PA arthritis Committee awarded. Please continue to send your donations for this project to the Committee Treasurer, Nevin Adams, 1083 Shoemakersville Rd., Shoemakersville, PA 19555. Make your checks payable to the PA IOOF Jurisdictional Arthritis Committee and specify PACE Project on your check. We need your help to reach our goal.

The "PA Odd Fellows and Rebekahs Racing to Cure Arthritis" magnets continue to promote the Arthritis Foundation - I.O.O.F. relationship. The races are a great place to spread the word about Odd Fellowship. Show your support for the growing number of IOOF Grand Prix racecars. The Philadelphia race was postponed and we'll let you know the new date as soon as it is finalized. Another way we try to spread the word about Odd Fellowship and our commitment to help those with arthritis is to put the racecars in local parades. Team Walker had the cars in the Somerton Memorial Day Parade over near is Lodge hall and in the Malvern Memorial Day Parade the following Sunday. We had a great time. Come out and join us to show the meaning of the three links to all!

We'll have some information about Camp JRA in a future issue.

Other activities: Eastern PA Chapter: August 28 - Grotto Pizza Golf Tournament at Mill Race Golf Club; Central PA Chapter: Sept. 9 - Mini Grand Prix Race at City Island South Parking Lot, Harrisburg; Western PA Chapter: August 26 - Pittsburgh Mini Grand Prix. Malvern Memorial Day Parade, June 4, 2000

Residents at the Middletown Home kept busy with all sorts of activities. From piano playing, playing bingo, cooking, and listening to inspirational voices of young people, residents had a wonderful time.

The community was involved as they are every month. Garden Chapel Youth Group divinely influenced the residents.

Residents look forward to activities next month. Many groups are volunteering their time to conduct bingos, dance, and conduct sing alongs.

Garden Chapel Youth Group gives inspiration with their wonderful voices.

Residents all get involved with cooking and of course, tasting!

THANK YOU THANK YOU THANK YOU

Sometime the word thank you just doesn't seem like enough. With my Wife and I we know this is not the case. This last year we have had a lot of troubles and we know that the cards and get well wishes were well received, but we know that the many thoughts and prayers we had from all the Brothers and Sisters all over Pennsylvania were what helped and healed. These were for Irene with pneumonia in November, apparent gall bladder attack in December, and again in March this year which the Dr. treated as an ulcer. Her mini stroke in February which she came through with no side effects, and we know that the prayers are what did the good work. We also want to thank you for the cards and prayers when my brother passed away in March, the prayers for our Grand-daughter when she nearly lost her son at birth. He is fine now. And for my mother when she fell and broke her hip. Through her operation, her rehabilitation, both in Harmerville and now at home with my sister taking care of her. We know that this is all possible, and helped with the many prayers from all of you. Also in June of 1999 our fifteen year old grandson was diagnosed with cancer in his right knee. He had to go through chemo treatments then they removed his whole knee. Now he is going through chemo treatments again and will be for several months yet. In June he spent his sixteenth birthday in Shadyside Hospital and we were with him. He is still not out of the woods, so we still ask for prayers for him. Thanks again.

Charles B. and Irene Kelly

Sisters:

I want to thank every one who has given me gifts and encouragement this whole past year. It is almost impossible to write to everyone.

Thank you one and all.

Irene Kelly Warden

Summer was in full swing at the Middletown Home. As a pre-summer salute, residents attended a Memorial Service in the home's cemetery. Service men and women were remembered for their faithfulness for the dear red, white, and blue.

Residents enjoyed their routine activities but also had a chance to make-believe as "Island Day" allowed for an enchanting escape for a day. Leis were given to each resident as they entered a beautifully decorated dining room. Island apparel was adorned by staff and residents and island foot was enjoyed by all!

Residents look forward to more summer treats!

Welcome to the Island!

Memorial Day Salute!

LITTLE THINGS

Did I forget to thank Thee, Lord, for things that may seem small:
A flower by the wayside,
A songbird's lovely call:
For all the daily happenings
that we call commonplace;
For summer and for sunsets,
and a neighbor's smiling face?

For life is made of little things
So let me not forget,
To count my smallest blessings,
and before the sun is set,
To thank Thee, Lord, for every one that add a note of cheer, and our blessings will be multiplied before another year.

BECKY'S BACKYARD

1. Undo bandage glue: Use baby oil! It smells good, and usually loosens the adhesive and softens up the glue that's left behind. Just rub some on the bandage or leftover "stuff" and give it a little time to work. S-L-O-W-L-Y and gently lift off the bandage or tape.
2. Elastic makes trash bag fit: If the bags are too large they tend to pull down. Cut a piece of 1/4 inch elastic to a length that would fit tightly around the outside rim of the container. Let the extra length of the trash bag hang over the outside. Stretch the elastic over the "hang over". What a difference that has made.
3. Dish Towels have lost absorbency: To bring towels back to life wash them and rinse them by adding 1 cup of white household vinegar to the rinse water. You may need to repeat this several times, but you'll be surprised at how soft and absorbent your towels will become.
4. Airtight bag saves soap scouring pad: After you use a soap-filled scouring pad, rinse it off and put it in a resealable, airtight bag. When you use it again it won't be rusty.
5. Pierce the end of an egg with a pin, and it will not break when placed in boiling water.
6. A few drops of vinegar will keep poached eggs from running all over the pan.
7. To keep egg whites from disintegrating while poaching, put 1 tsp. vinegar in water.
8. Lettuce and celery storage: They keep longer if you store them in the refrigerator in paper bags instead of cellophane ones. Do not remove the outside leaves of either until ready to use.
9. Lettuce will not rust as quickly if you place a paper towel or napkin in the storage container.

MAHONEY REBEKAH LODGE 428

PLANT AZALEAS AT PERRY VILLAGE

Members of the Rebekah Lodge donated and planted two white Azaleas, one on each side of the sidewalk to the main entrance of Perry Village.

Mahoney Rebekah Lodge and Auxiliary of the Odd Fellow Lodge has been part of the New Bloomfield community for 53 years. The lodge members represent part of 47 women of the Bible. They are to serve all who are in need, and are available to all, what ever their persuasion. Thus hopefully to adhere to our code of "Friendship-Love-Truth".

Members who attended the planting were:

Dorothy Billett, Patricia Jones, Ella Durham, Sara Jones, Glenna Nulton, Margaurite Brunner, Marilyn Foose, Anna Jean Rhoades, Mary Weldon and Bonnie Lyons.

Bonnie Lyons a resident of Perry Village has been a member of the Rebekah Lodge for many years.

COMMUNICATION — MORE THAN WORDS

Mhen we think of communicating, we think of a verbal exchange. In most settings we most often meet face-to-face. The words we speak or hear, are a small part of communication. Experts believe that at least 70% of what is communicated is done without words.

Nonverbal communication includes body language, facial expressions and gestures. These are many times more powerful and more revealing than the words spoken. What do you "say" nonverbally? Here are a few tips to help improve on nonverbal communications.

- How close you stand to someone when you are talking to them is important. Typically, a distance of 18 - 24" is comfortable.
- Making eye contact with a customer acknowledges that you see and are paying attention.
- Remaining silent while the customer is talking is basic courtesy.
- Open gestures, smiling, and widening your arms, tell the customer you are comfortable.
- The rule of thumb for touching is "less is best" in most work situations.
- You have to look your part. Regardless of what you wear, cleanliness and neatness are vital. These traits communicate competence, as well as self-respect. Avoid strong perfumes and colognes since some people are sensitive or allergic to them.

So good to see Sister Alice of Letitia Penn out enjoying herself. This was taken from a July 4th parade in Clifton Heights, Delaware County. Sister Alice has been a faithful reporter for the magazine for many years.

HOME DAY 2000

Despite a threatening forecast, Home Day 2000 turned out to be a great success at the Odd Fellows Home in Middletown. Everyone present enjoyed the annual music of the Emigsville Band, topped off by the fine chicken BBQ prepared by the staff of the Home. The children enjoyed games in the early part of the afternoon. Everyone present enjoyed the annual cake and watermelon walk. Greetings were extended from the various state branches and those accompanying officers present were introduced.

I hope Sister Dotty is not teaching the new Grand Secretary's children to gamble.

Look at these serious groups!

Grand Master Adams bringing greeting to all at the annual Home Day 2000.

FUN DAY 2000

Over 300 Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and families enjoyed the annual Fun Day 2000 held at Knoebels Grove, Elysburg on July 22nd. If you missed out this year, keep the fourth Saturday of July 2001 open and plan to spend the day with your Fraternal Family of Pennsylvania. A heartfelt thanks goes out to the Jurisdictional Planning Board for their efforts in making this day a great success.

Could this be the Grand Master insisting the Grand Warden not go on the Roller Coaster?

One of Knoebels main attractions, however, Maynard E. & Bob D., there are still some disappointed kids that you chickened out this year.

STATE COLLEGE 1032 & LADY EMILY REBEKAH LODGES CAPTURE FIRST PLACE

State College and Lady Emily Rebekah Lodge paraded this summer in a Fireman's Parade in Port Matilda. They captured first place for their efforts. They did a repeat performance two weeks later in Pleasant Gap. This is the type of message and advertising we need to get across to the public. Let them know we are alive and what we stand for.

BUSY SUMMER FOR TAMAQUA ODD FELLOWS & REBEKAHS

Tamaqua Odd Fellowship and Rebekah Odd Fellowship is growing by leaps and bounds in Tamaqua, if you don't believe me watch the turnout at the upcoming Four County Rall. How is this possible? KEEP BUSY!

Aside from finishing up a sub sale of over 700 subs the members started the summer with a food stand at the communities annual Summerfest. Next for a break of the summer heat, the Brothers hosted the Sister Lodge for a Strawberry Social at the Community Park. Now the Sisters are going to try and outdo the Brothers for a Peach Social at the same park. They recently held a family picnic at West Penn Park, where a good time was had by all. So much food, nobody was hungry at supper from the delicious covered dish lunch we had. Games were held for the kiddies and just about everyone enjoyed Bingo and cards. Here are some pictures from the picnic and the lodge invites you to visit our photo album on our web site: <http://www.expage.com/page/ioofharmony lodge> to see more of the picnic. However there will be no explanations on the garbage can no matter what the instructions say!

The summer was not all fun, there was hard work involved. We started by sponsoring the local Blood Bank, members served as ushers, canteen duty, runners, etc. Unfortunately we don't have a picture of Noble Grand Laura Bailey giving blood for her first time, maybe we will try for the Halloween issue.

The Subordinate Lodges are not the only ones growing. Four new members traveled to Warren, PA this past June to receive their Encampment Degree. And many more are scheduled for Aluta. So many times I hear its so far to travel. The new members of Scott look forward to going back next June. What a fine opportunity to grow in Friendship, Love and Truth then to spend a weekend together promoting this great fraternity.

With summer almost spent, plans are underway for fall. September 13th, the Lodge will be conferring the initiatory degree at their hall for several more members. Shillington & Leesport Lodges are planning to bring candidates to this for which should prove to be a very "CLOSE" night. Your editor is quite proud to say, "my son, Justin will receive his degree that night". Also rehearsals are being held for our first performance of the First Degree at the Four County Rally.

Noble Grand's respectively, Charlie & Laura Bailey bring greetings to the Joint Picnic.

Members enjoying the fine feast.

ODD FELLOWS HOME

ODD FELLOWS HALL

Location: 9 S. Main St., Shrewsbury.

Originally: Home of the Mount Vernon Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, chartered in Shrewsbury in 1846.

Built: in 1853 by the lodge.

History: The lodge hall, a three story, gable-roofed, white-painted brick building in the Greek Revival style, was the largest in town and was an example of the strength and stability of the lodge, which had 42 members by 1886. The lodge was very philanthropic and paid large amounts in benefits to its members.

Members met weekly in the hall and following the meeting members spent time socializing. The lodge continued into the 1930s when it was dissolved due to declining membership.

The third floor of the building was used for several years by the Order of the Eastern Star, and organization for women and relatives of Masons. Other groups such as the Struggler's Club, the Eight Invincible Eagles and even the Klu Klux Klan met in the hall at one time.

The building also housed a number of small businesses, including a confectionery and cigar store and a restaurant. Eventually, it was turned into apartments.

Revival: The hall was restored in 1990 by the Keller-Brown Odd Fellows Group and is now professional offices for Keller-Brown Insurance Services. It is on the National Register of Historic Places as the finest example of Greek Revival architecture in south-central Pennsylvania.
