A HEARTFELT THANK YOU

My husband, Ronald, and I would like to express our gratitude to all those who remembered us with condolences of any sort during our time of loss of Ron's mother, Katherine.

Izetta McGill, Warden

From the Desk of the Grand Secretary

Dear Readers,

This is an entirely new experience for me; therefore I am requesting your patients, indulgence, cooperation and HELP!

I pledge to you to perform to the best of my ability.

By this time the new Officers have probably been installed. I wish for all of you a harmonious, productive term.

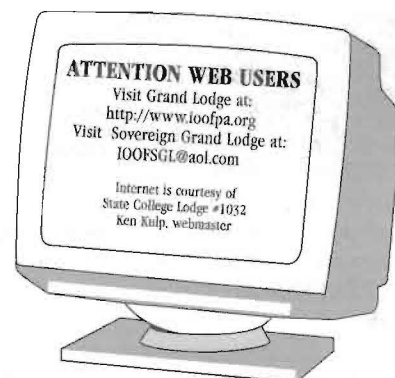

Now I am switching hats to Editor of the Odd Fellow and Rebekah Magazine. The success of the magazine depends mainly on YOU! If you do not send news items, articles, various announcements, helpful hints, humorous items, recipes, births, deaths, marriages, anything "newy," we do not have anything to publish. Please try to help us make our magazine one of the best!

Fraternally,
William L. Locke
Grand Secretary

THANKS!

A heartfelt "THANK YOU" to all the Brothers, Sisters, and Lodges, who were kind enough to remember me with Get Well cards and Condolences during my recent illness and bereavement. Your kindness and concern are greatly appreciated.

Grand Secretary

SOME THINGS FOR US ALL TO THINK ABOUT

An Attorney wrote the following:

The next time you order checks have only your initials (instead of first name) and last name put on them. If someone takes your checkbook they will not know if you sign your checks with just your initials or your first name, but your bank will know how you sign your check. Put your work phone number on your checks (if you have one) instead of your home phone. If you have a PO Box use that instead of your home address. If you do not have a PO Box use your work address (again if you have one). Never have your SS number printed on your checks. You can add it if it is necessary, but if you have it printed, then anyone can get it. Place the contents of your wallet on a photocopy machine, do both sides of each license, credit card, etc. You will know what you had in your wallet and all of the account numbers and phone numbers to call and cancel if your wallet is stolen. Keep the photocopy in a safe place.

A corporate attorney sent this out to the employees in his company. I pass it along, for your information. We've all heard horror stories about fraud that is committed us in stealing a name, address, Social Security, credit cards, etc. Unfortunately I, an attorney, have firsthand knowledge because my wallet was stolen last month. Within a week, the thief(s) ordered an expensive monthly cell phone package, applied for a VISA credit card, had a credit line approved to buy a Gateway computer, received a PIN number from DVM to change my driving record information online, and more. But here's some critical information to limit the damage in case this happens to you or someone you know. We have been told we should cancel your credit cards immediately. But the key is having the toll free numbers and your card numbers handy so you know whom to call. Keep those were you can find them easily. File a police report immediately in the jurisdiction where it was stolen, this proves to credit providers you were diligent, and is a first step toward an investigation (if there every is one).

But here's what is perhaps most important: (I never thought to do this). Call the three national credit-reporting organizations immediately to place a fraud alert on your name and Social Security number. I had never heard of doing that until advised by a bank that called to tell me an application for credit was made over the Internet in my name. The alert means any company that checks your credit knows your information was stolen and they have to contact you by phone to authorize new credit. By the time I was advised to do this, almost two weeks after the theft, all the damage has been done.

There are records of all the credit checks initiated by the thieves' purchases, none of which I knew about before placing the alert. Since then, no additional damage has been done, and the thieves threw my wallet away this weekend (someone turned it in). It seems to have stopped them in their tracks.

YEARS GONE BY

This picture was taken prior to the Installation, at Ronald Sterns home in New Holland. Yes, we did have a Staff Car, and it belonged to Bob Girvin. It was a large Van, which carried the GRAND MASTER sign, and our larger STAFF CAR sign as well.

Many miles were traveled – traveling in the name of ODD FELLOWSHIP, in promoting our beloved ORDER. The year when it all started was June 1971-1976. Looking back at the many VISITS we made then, and all the Lodges that were there then, and what Lodges are active now, makes my heart sad, because we had about 331 Lodges with about 36,000 members. I still believe in my heart that we can turn today around, and bring back things as they were then, but I don't have the answer – perhaps you do. I have Prayed many times to our GOD, to give us the tools to turn things around, and put us on the right track, in restoring our ORDER, like it was in the years gone by.

*May God Bless us All in Friendship, Love and Truth
Robert L. Derr, Past Grand Master*

ARTHRITIS CAMP JRA

For the last three years the Grand Masters special project was Arthritis Camp JRA. Here is a picture of Jr. PGM Cook handing a check to Lyn Boocock Taylor from the Eastern Chapter for Arthritis. Also pictured is Charles Danihel, Chairperson for the Arthritis Committee. The check that Jr. PGM Cook is giving to Lyn is in the amount of $15,520.55 from his special project. The total amount that Jr. PGM Cooke, PPRa Leitzel and PGM Adams have donated to Arthritis Camp JRA is $46,968.93. That is a great job and we would like to thank everyone who gave donations and help to this cause – THANK YOU.

I especially want to thank those who provided transportation for Lady Reta and I during those more than nine weeks in which I was unable to drive.

Our gratitude to Dept. Commander Nevin and Assn. President Lady Myra Adams, not only for providing "wheels" but also including Myra's good home cooking.

Two other drivers we are especially thankful to are Sovereign Grand Musician Paul L. Miller and our next door neighbor, Mrs. Ruth Fegley, sister of the late PGM Russell H. Kistler.

Chivalrously & Fraternaly,

SCOUTS HELP BEAUTIFY NEW ROAD

Jim Lewis couldn't wait to get his hands dirty. Almost a year ago, he initiated a plan to cover the barren hillside near the newly constructed Route 43 near the Ringgold High School.

With a truckload of topsoil, 2,200 trees and 302 Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts his vision became reality.

"I wanted to be part of something that the youths could learn about community service by being involved and seeing the end result," Lewis said.

As part of this year's spring Bob Scout Camp-A-Ree in Mingo Park, the boys scouts and girls scouts spent a weekend camping outdoors and performing community service while learning valuable lessons and having fun. The Spring Camp-A-Ree was hosted by Monongahela Boy Scout Troop 1448 and was one of the largest in more than 25 years where both girl and boy scouts participated.

Each year at the spring and fall Camp-A-Ree's scouts learn while having fun in a camping atmosphere.

At past Camp-A-Rees, scouts have learned about cold weather survival and emergency safety techniques. But, this year's event was a community issue in many of the scouts backyard.

Scouts from Beth Center, California, Monessen Yough, Ringgold, Belle Vernon and Charleroi school districts joined together to

ODD FELLOWS – MIDDLETOWN HOME

Special visitors love to come back to the Middletown Home. Music groups, school, church, as well as day care groups continue to visit the residents on a monthly basis. This allows residents to remain part of the community.

The residents especially seem to enjoy their cuddly visitors; registered, certified therapy canines. The canines come several times a month and bring many smiles to the residents' faces.

Bertie Steele never wants "Sky" to leave.

Thelma Mabel May gets a boost of self esteem while having her fingernails painted by activity staffer, Bonnie Duncan.

make a success, aid Lewis. Scouts were bused from Mingo Park to Route 136 and Route 43 on Saturday, May 4 to do their part.

On a chilly spring morning, the hillside was dotted with youths and adults carrying shovels and buckets to plant seedlings of white pine, Norwegian pine, blue spruce, crabapple and Japanese larch.

Trudging up the steep hill, digging holes, carrying dirt and planting trees weren't the only skills the youths learned. Members of the Pennsylvania Game Commission presented a talk on the importance of planting trees to help prevent erosion. With the construction of the road, wildlife was disrupted but the planting of the threes would help to preserve many of the state's animals.

Kim Botsko, leader of girl scout troop 4041 of Donora said her girls were very excited about the project.

"The whole experience was special for them. They have never camped together with the boy scouts and the whole weekend was a fun experience form the," she said.

Dennis Fisher, assistant scoutmaster for troop 1434 said the planting taught responsibility, community involvement and the ability to take action.

The planting, though a fun learning experience, also helped many of the scouts earn merit badges.

Kristie Richie of Bentworth Girl Scout Troop 3150, said she thinks it is wonderful to give back to the community and she lives for stuff such as these types of activities.

Lewis, chairperson of the planting said the success wouldn't have been possible without all of the help from many organizations.

"It was a true community event. Members and community organizations joined together to help the youths achieve their goal," he said.

Lewis said he wanted to give a special thanks to Joe Carone, owner of the Charleroi McDonald's and his donation of the lunch for the planters, and the attendance and support of State Rep. Pete Daley, State Rep. Tim Soloby and Washington County Commissioners Diane Irey, John Bevec and Bracken Burns.

In addition to receiving dirty hands and an appreciation for community service, the scouts received citations from Governor Mark Schweiker and the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission. Each scout received a Pennsylvania beautification patch as well as the Spring Camp-A-Ree patch. They also received accreditation from the Arbor Foundation a sign will be placed by the turnpike commission on the beautification project.

Lewis said it was wonderful to see the community come together for the event and support the youths in their endeavor. His wife Susan Lewis helped to cook the hot dogs for the scouts and the Valley Inn Volunteer Fire Department brought one of their vehicles on the road and volunteered their time for traffic control.

Kim Botsko said the tree planting will be something the youths will remember and be able to see in years to come.

"These youths are making history. Ten years from now as the trees mature, they will drive past this hillside and say look I was part of that," she said.

As of my last report from Sovereign Grand Lodge, the jurisdiction of PA has reported a total of 30 new Odd Fellows and one new Rebekah as of 8/31/02. This only tells me one thing, some of you secretaries are not reporting your new members to the Grand Lodge or the Sovereign Grand Lodge. By way of the grape vine I have heard that we have taken in six new female members into the Odd Fellows Lodge. The Grand Lodge knows about three or four of those and the Sovereign Grand Lodge doesn't know about any. You must report your new members to the Grand Lodge as well as the Sovereign Grand Lodge. If you need help in reporting your new members please contact me.

Since my last report we have had a seminar at Mt. Hor Lodge #736, on 8/23/02. We had 29 Odd Fellows and Rebekahs present. Of those 29, 11 were Rebekahs and 18 Odd Fellows – seven different Lodges. Good Show from the Rebekahs – way to go. This was a very good seminar – great participation by everyone present.

On September 30, 2002 we had a seminar at Askam Lodge #899. What a seminar – nine Rebekahs, 29 Odd Fellows and 14 perspective new members for a total of 54 people. I believe we discussed everything that could be discussed. There were that many people that I had to take two pictures to get everyone in. The Secretaries that were there, please let me know how many of those perspective members were signed up to become Odd Fellows or Rebekahs.

By the time you read this report, we will have completed a seminar at Hebron Lodge #437 in Cochranville, 11/11/02. Possible seminar at York Springs #211, York Springs, PA and Newburg Lodge #562 in Newburg, PA (Dec. & Jan.) Keep up the good work. Lodges are now calling for seminars. If the Rebekahs Lodges would like to sponsor a seminar, give me a call.
