70TH IOOF PILGRIMAGE TO THE TOMB OF THE UNKNOWN

On Sunday, May 4, 2003 four bus loads of Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and friends, from Pennsylvania made the annual pilgrimage to Arlington National Cemetery to participate in the Memorial Service and Wreath Laying ceremonies. This year the honor of laying a wreath for the Jurisdiction of PA was Grand Master of the Grand Lodge Joseph Strausser, President of the Rebekah Assembly Ruth Good, Grand Patriarch of the Grand Encampment Art Moyer and President of the Department Association Lady Myra Fay Adams. All members of the Patriarchs Militant from Pennsylvania that were in uniform had the honor of being in the Honor Guard for the Wreath Laying ceremonies. If you have never been part of this pilgrimage, you are missing something very special. Please put this on your calendar for next year and help to keep this pilgrimage alive. It is always the first Sunday in May.

Thank You

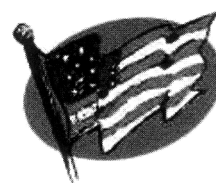

I would like to thank all members and friends who sent me cards, called on the phone or came to my home and helped when I fell down the cellar steps. It's nice to know you have friends who care.

MEMORIAL SERVICEHOLY FAMILY ADULT DAY CARE

Each year members of Canton Leesport #2 and LAPM Leesport #2 get together with Sister Laura Bailey from Hester Rebekah Lodge #29 and do a Memorial Service at the Holy Family Adult Day Care, in Orwigsburg, PA. Sister Laura puts the service together each year to honor members of the Day Care Center who have passed on since the previous year. Laura does a beautiful job of putting together all the information about the members that have passed on. She then prepares a small booklet about each one with pictures and memories, then she presents the booklet to a member of the family attending the service. Laura works at the center but, I believe that this is going beyond her duties and I think that she deserves a big hand and thank you. This is what Odd Fellowship is all about, going above and beyond in our everyday lives. Thank you so very much Sister Laura Bailey for making this a special day in the lives of those families on this special day.

The following is a list of the Chevaliers and Ladies that helped this year. Lady Myra Adams, PDA; Lady Rita Kunkleman PP, LAPM #2; Maj. Gen. Ret. John Kunkleman, PDC; Maj. Gen. Ret. Maynard J. Ernst, PDC; Brig. Gen. Nevin W. Adams, DC; Col. Leon S. Stamm, VPDC; Col. Harold Reiss, EO and Lt. Clifford Snyder. Thank you all for helping.

Thank You

I and the Saylor Family wish to thank all the Sisters and Brothers for the cards of sympathy that were sent to us during our time of sorrow at the passing of my son, Charles Saylor. Also, thanks to all the Lodges that sent cards with all their members signed.

It really makes me feel good to know people think of me even if I don't get around anymore.

Thanks a Million!*

FROM THE DESK OF THE GRAND SECRETARY

This being the month of July we now have a new group of State Officers. I know they would appreciate all the help you can give them. With your help in getting new members, this could be the year we turn things around and start increasing our membership.

Hopefully it will warm up so we can join in the outdoor activities. One activity I would remind you about is "Fun Day at Knoebels Park." Also, I know a lot of Lodges have Summer activities. This makes a great time to introduce your friends to Odd Fellowship.

The work on the Grand Lodge Office is progressing nicely. We could still use donations to help with the cost.

Also, please keep in your prayers our Youth who are touring on the United Nations Pilgrimage this month. We wish them a safe and enjoyable experience.

*Fraternally,
William L. Locke, Grand Secretary*

THANK YOU

Hope you had the opportunity to stop by the Arthritis Table in the Lobby at the 32nd Unified Session. Members of the Arthritis Committee members were on hand to greet you. The Lobby tree was decorated with the "Christmas in June" bells and looked quite festive. The purchase of the "Christmas in June" bells lets you help fight arthritis with every dollar you spend. Be involved!

Our major project is focused in the Central Chapter region this year and we will be helping to bring the P.A.C.E. program to even more people. We'll have more information about their planned programs in a future article.

Camp JRA is July 13th through 19th this year. About 95 campers are expected to enjoy the experience of a lifetime this summer. Help the campers, kids with arthritis with your donations. The 2003 theme is "Fantasy Island" and we'll be telling you about our opening day visit in a later issue. Don't forget to look for the poster "Kids Have Arthritis Too." It has been mailed to the Lodges. The IOOF is recognized as a sponsor – right beside the United Way. Pretty impressive! Send your donations to help with Camp JRA, the PACE project, or general fund to Nevin Adams, Treasurer, 951 Shoemakersville Road, Shoemakersville, PA 19555-9010.

OAKLAND CEMETERY OPERATED BY ORDER OF ODDFELLOWS FOR 140 YEARS

Part of the history of Warren County is Oakland Cemetery, founded by the Odd Fellows Association, Lodge 339, for the borough of Warren, with the intent of giving direction and impulse to the universal wish to have a cemetery.

The Odd Fellows Association, Lodge 339 continues maintaining the operation of the cemetery, which is celebrating its 140th year.

The cemetery was dedicated in 1863, to benefit the community by serving as a final resting place for its residents. The opening of Oakland that year, and building of the suspension bridge across the Allegheny were milestones in the progression of a city marching toward the turn of the century.

With so much interest in family descent, we have many people stopping, or writing, to inquire about past members of their families; dates of internment, and location of the graves. There is so much history connected to the cemetery, and many curiosities. Come visit and experience the serenity, the beauty and serendipity of Oakland Cemetery.

MT. HOR GOES INTO "SOUP BUSINESS"

After a long cold winter, the brothers at Mt. Hor #736 decided to raise some money for local and Grand Lodge charities. It was decided to have a hoagie and soup sale for March 1st. A committee was formed in January to start preparing for the event. Two hundred and twenty-five (225) hoagies were ordered in advance, and an old fashioned kettle of chicken corn soup was prepared. A local butcher shop was contacted and they had everything ready for us the night before the event. They sliced all the meat, diced the veggies and even gave us gloves to wear. The chicken for the soup was cooked during our meeting night with only one small fire to liven up the evening. The next morning the brothers came out in full force to make the event a great success. The soup was started at around 8:30 a.m. with brother Tom Cresswell in control. His rowing ability is surpassed by none when it comes to stirring soup. We have an oar for Tom to use when we are making soup. There is talk that we will someday get him a personalized oar so there is no confusion when it comes to sharing oars. Seriously though, Tom always does a great job when it comes to making soup.

With the majority of the brothers arriving around 9:30 a.m., we immediately got five guys to start packaging veggies. Monty Parks, Doug Sheeder, Nelson Nead, Chris Bowser and Christ Whitsel soon became professionals at measuring tomatoes, lettuce and onions. Brothers Joe Giebel and Bill Rhodenizer began slicing rolls at the beginning of the assembly line. They were then handed to me for a layer of meat. Next was Mike Hamilton for another layer of meat. Cheese was added by Butch Lemin and Gordy Stauffer. Jeff Ruby then placed them into bags. Finally, Charlie Definbaugh threw in some dressing and sealed them for delivery. William Ramsey Jr. arrived in time to start delivery so people could have them for lunch.

The soup sold out in about one hour, with a few people coming back to ask for more. Next time, we'll have to make two kettles! It was a good day at Mt. Hor. Everyone that participated had a great time and we had great reviews of our hoagies. We will, no doubt, do this fund raiser again. Best of all, Odd Fellowship was spread throughout the community. I personally spent three hours visiting while I delivered just a few hoagies. Mr. Ramsey said he spent a lot of time visiting while he delivered his hoagies. More and more people are realizing that there is an IOOF Lodge in the Trough Creek Valley, Huntingdon County.

FLAGS NEEDED

Summer is here and the Odd Fellows and Rebekah flags which fly in front of your state office has seen its day. In the past Brother, Sisters or Lodges have been generous in donating flags to someone's honor or memory. We do recognize those donors with a sign at the Grand Lodge Office designating the donor and honoree, also we list it in the magazine. Perhaps you or your Lodge would consider sponsoring a flag. If you interested, send a check to Grand Lodge for $63.39 (Odd Fellow) or $79.50 (Rebekah) along with the name or names of those who wish to honor or memorialize.

DEGREE RALLY HELD AT CASSVILLE

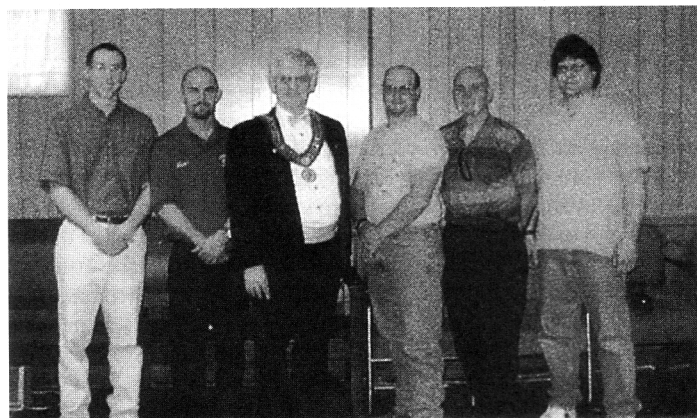

Ever since I joined the Odd Fellows in May of 2001, Mt. Hor Lodge has talked about getting a degree rally together so we could see the degree work done with props and from memory. Finally, on March 22, 2003 it became a reality. The ball started rolling last August when Past Grand Nevin Adams held a membership rally at Mt. Hor. We happened to be having a pig roast the next day, so Past Grand Adams stayed over for the event. A bug was put in his ear that we would like to see the degrees done in full dress so the brothers could get a better understanding of the stories being told. When he departed for home, Past Grand Adams promised that he would get a degree team together to come to rural Huntingdon County.

Some months passed, with my phone ringing in late December of 2002, and Past Grand Adams saying that he was preparing a rally for February 22. Immediately, plans began for the rally. All the lodges in the district were invited and were planning to attend. Two weeks before our big event, Past Grand Adams called to inform me that he had to cancel. He said this in one call he didn't want to make, since we waited so long to see a degree rally. He promised to rescheduled for March 22 or April 12. So, with a minor setback, we started to prepare again. The Elks Lodge in Huntingdon was chosen for the rally, since our lodge is too small for a degree rally. Mt. Hor decided to buy lunch for everyone that attended. The meal was prepared by the Elks.

On March 22, 2003 the degree team arrived at the Huntingdon Elks lodge at 9:30 a.m. to begin the set up for the rally. The rally started at 10:30 a.m. with sixty-one (61) brothers present. Fourteen difference Odd Fellow lodges were represented. The initiatory degree was performed on one brother. Lunch was served at noon. At 12:30 p.m. the first degree was performed on six brothers. Between degrees, Grand Master Joseph Strausser challenged Mt. Hor to take advantage of this event with some publicity. He also encouraged an article to be written for our magazine by a brother from Mt. Hor. The second and third degrees were then performed. The honors of the order was then performed on the Grand Master, Past Grand Masters, and Past District Deputies. Grand Master Strausser then spoke briefly on getting brothers interested in the order and the charities. He also encouraged us to make this an annual event for the central part of the state.

Mt. Hor would like to thank everyone from the Degree Team for doing a wonderful job. Seeing the degrees performed like that helps us to better understand them when we bring new members into our lodge. We would also like to thank the lodges in our district for participating, and all the other lodges that came. A special thanks goes to Letterkenney Lodge #663 for donating the extra props and robes to us, so we can begin using them in degree work. I want to thank Past Grand Adams for sticking to his promise, because I know he is very busy, and getting 30 people together to come to Central Pennsylvania is not the easiest thing in the world to do. Our lodge would also like to thank Grand Master Joseph Strausser for attending. We have not seen a Grand Lodge Officer for a long time in Huntingdon County. Finally, Mt. Hor would like to thank our secretary, William Ramsey, Jr. for all the phone calls, time and dedication he put into making this rally a success. Brother Ramsey enjoys Odd Fellowship greatly, but organizing these events can get quite nerve wracking.

So, after years of talking and planning, the Degree Rally was a huge success for Mt. Hor. Five of our brothers got their degrees. Two of our brothers got to participate as soldiers. I am not one to back down from a challenge, and therefore I am writing this article for our magazine and am going to write one for our local newspaper.

I enjoyed the rally very much. Rallies give you a chance to talk to many different brothers from all over the state. Mt. Hor would like to encourage other lodges to visit us or call us up and we'll try to come visit your lodge.

STATE COLLEGE BUSY SHOWING THEIR COLORS

State College Lodge #1032 recently installed a new flag pole. PGM Cal Conklin said he would supply the flag. This pole is lighted at night. Pictured is PGM Conklin and DDGM Carl Bennett presenting the flag to Noble Grand Ken Kulp. The flag was flown over the Capital on April 22, 2003. The flag was flown for a month and will be displayed in a case in the Lodge. Thanks Brother Cal, you really outdid yourself this time.

Art Moyer, Don Trulick and Harry Pepperman took part in a Patriot Day Celebration recently in Boalsburg. These Brothers were assigned to post the colors dressed in their Patriarchs Militant uniforms. They looked sharp to the near 3,000 in attendance. State College High School band played "Amazing Grace." The Lodge got additional publicity as you can see by PGM Calvin Conklins newspaper picture.

ODD FELLOWS – MIDDLETOWN HOME

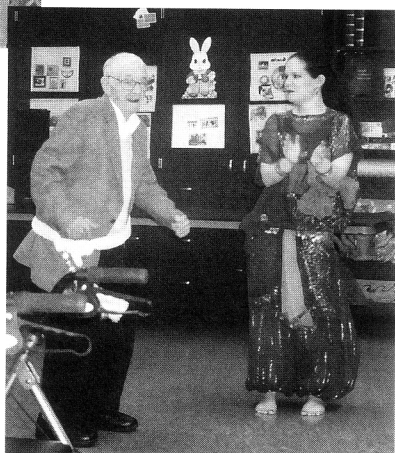

Residents at The Middletown Home were ready to meet and greet the many Odd Fellows & Rebekahs who attended the Annual Representatives Day on Saturday, April 12th.

Professional Wrestler, J-Money with resident, Ruth Lawson.

While the meeting took place, residents enjoyed a performance from Troupe Kismet Middle Eastern Belly Dancers. This year the Belly Dancers really put the residents in the spotlight. George Calhoon (Triune Lodge #307) learned from new dance moves from "Akilah" – Denise Sowers. He's always volunteering to make people smile.

STEAMBOATING CAPTAIN LOOKING FOR ODD FELLOWS

By Maj. Gen (Ret) John A. Kunkleman, Past Department Commander

On May 6 Lady Reta and I boarded the legendary Steamboat Delta Queen in Cincinnati for a six-night cruise to Pittsburgh. It was our 18th steamboating cruise.

At the captain's reception on the second night, when we reached Capt. Mike Williams in the receiving line, he greeted us by asking:

"Did you bring us any Odd Fellows this time?"

Capt. Mike was master of the Delta Queen back in September 2000 when 42 Odd Fellows and friends, headed by the then Grand Master Nevin W. Adams, spent seven nights steaming from St. Louis to St. Paul. The captain also remembers the Department Association President, Lady Myra Adams, who shares her first name with the captain's wife.

The 76-year-old boat is looking great. She is all freshly painted, new custom-built benches are being installed on the Texas and Cabin Decks. The forward cabin lounge has been rearranged.

I think its time for Brother Adams to begin planning a cruise for 2004. Next year's schedule should soon be available. I know we would be welcomed back.

A few of those 42 people have been back steamboating since that 2000 trip. Several of the crew members remember some of the Odd Fellow group.

Jazzou Jones, sometime cruise director and a top notch ragtime piano player, still remembers Sister Avalon Bossler and thinks her first name is a very pretty name and wonders why more people do not give the name to their daughters.

Dennis Bruce, cabin attendant, remembers his early morning deck conversations with PDDGM Robert Rahn.

And of course a number of crew members remember Grand Scribe Leon Stamm and Sister Laudine, who in July will become "five-timers" in the Paddlewheel Steamboatin' Society of America.

Entertainer Annie Lebeaux was not on board on this cruise. She was in Hershey directing a musical show.

Riverlorian Karen "Toots" Maloy, left the boat on leave when we did. She is scheduled to make appearances as a guest educational lecturer at the Smithsonian Institute in Washington, D.C.

When the boat made stops on this cruise, Reta and I skipped the guided tours and spent our time walking around the towns or cities.

In Maysville, KY, we would a tall building with Odd Fellow emblems on the front. The first floor contained a recreation center.

On the door to the stairwell was the name "Ringgold Lodge." There were several mail boxes, including one for Ringgold Lodge and it had mail in it. I left our card and the name and number of our home lodges in the box.

In Huntingdon, WVA, there was a three-story building on which was painted a sign "IOOF Meets Tuesday at 7:30." The upper two floors appeared abandoned and there was a Chinese restaurant in part of the first floor. We were there early in the day before the restaurant opened and could not check on whether there is a lodge there.

At the outset of this story we said we were heading for Pittsburgh. We didn't make it.

Heavy rains raised the river (11 feet in one 24-hour period), and we were unable to pass under a suspension bridge at Wheeling, WVA. And the riverfront park and landing area in Wheeling were under water so we tied up to the bank on Wheeling Island. We spent the last night tied up there and were then taken by bus to the Pittsburgh Airport.

Steamboating is still as good as ever. If you have never tried it, you should. And if you have done it – do it again.

If you have any interest in another Odd Fellow Delta Queen trip, let Brother Adams know and perhaps he will put together another package. I am sure Cindy Leibensperger, manager of Bieber Tours, Inc., Kutztown, will be happy to work with us if we want to make another cruise.

Let me leave you with this toast:

Here's to you all and I want you to know

My sentiments are honest and real.

May your days be as bright and your hearts be as light

As the spray from the old PADDLEWHEEL!

"Did you bring us any Odd Fellows this time?" Capt. Mike Williams asked as he greeted John and Reta Kunkleman aboard the Steamboat Delta Queen on a river cruise in May.

FROM BIBLE BEARER TO SOLDIER

JUSTIN C. BAILEY "A FATHER'S PRIDE"

I thought I would run picture by picture. So many remember that little boy who walked in front of me and Laura at Butler in June 1996. I felt for those who weren't aware of what became of that boy – he is now a man defending our Country in the quest for freedom. He is stationed in Mosul, Iraq.

From day one, the I.O.O.F. has been a part of Justin's life. So many times when a young couple mixes a child with an older generation, they lose their tolerance for them. That was never the case with our children. I always felt if you keep them with you instead of sending them away every time you go to a lodge function they would resent the Odd Fellows. We decided to try it and found out that our children, Justin and Ashley, were welcomed and grew to love Odd Fellowship.

The day of his 16th birthday, he signed his application and was initiated soon into Harmony Lodge #86, Tamaqua and it wasn't long until he followed my footsteps by becoming their Secretary. A position he held until he left for the Army.

Justin graduated last year in June and left for his basic training in the U.S. Army in August. He graduated from Basic training in October from Fort Benning, Georgia. Many knew it was his desire to follow with the Army band, however with his computer grades in school and the salary difference, he was persuaded to pursue a career in the computer field. He graduated from his Advance Training as a Signal Support Systems Specialist from Fort Gordon, Georgia in March, 2003. From there he was assigned to the 101st Airborne "Screaming Eagles" at Fort Campbell, Kentucky. Justin will however, following his schooling in the music field.

On May 20th, he left Fort Campbell for Mosul, Iraq. Although the calls are few, he manages to make contact. The weather most of the time is 130 degrees. It has been an eye opening experience for him. And I am sure he will be glad to share with his brothers and sisters some of those experiences.

For now I want to say thank you to those who have contacted us with concerns on his well being. I want to thank you for the spirit of "Odd Fellowship" shown to him the past 19 years and let you know we feel that it is what helped mold him onto the fine young man he has become.

I must mention, times have changed since the stories of Odd Fellowship from the wars of past. So many seemed to find a lot of brothers that they could bind with. So far within three military bases Justin hasn't found a "Brother," but he keeps looking and encouraging those he meets to seek out the Odd Fellows in their home town.

Justin will turn 19 on July 25th – this will be his first birthday away from home and alone. Perhaps you could add some cheer by remembering him with a card.

My Brothers and Sisters, thank you for letting me share this with you and thank you for the cards, calls and prayers I have received the past few months. Every day brings new challenges but I thank God every day I can get out of bed.

CASSVILLE BROTHERS HOLD ANNUAL EGG HUNT

On Saturday, April 19, the brothers of Mt. Hor Lodge held their second annual Easter egg hunt. Plans were started weeks before with candy, eggs and other supplies being donated or purchased in anticipation for the event. On April 11 the brothers came to lodge about two hours before our regular meeting and began to stuff eleven hundred Easter eggs. Each egg was filled with chocolates, gum or some other savory candy. The morning of the event began about 8:00 A.M. with the preparing of a kettle of homemade vegetable soup. Then we began to hide all the eggs. There were eggs everywhere around the lodge. There were blue, green, purple, orange, yellow, red and pink specks all through the little town of Cassville. It took about an hour to hide all the eggs. As a side note on this process, some of the brothers decided to wear cat in the hat hats so as to recognize the Odd Fellows from our lodge. So try to imagine grown men walking around our lodge, hiding eggs and proudly displaying these huge hats on our heads. It got us lots of attention.

The local sheriff's office was contacted and asked to provide a deputy for parking control. The deputy arrived around 11:30 and began to park cars. The grill was fired at around 11:30 also with anticipation of people coming early for lunch. At 11:35 people started arriving by the car loads. Egg hunters, parents, and grandparents stormed Mt. Hor with great excitement. The look in the kids eyes as they scanned the yards around the lodge filled with all those eggs made the whole event worth while right then. The grills were soon overcome with orders as the brothers worked feverishly to keep up with demands for hot dogs and hamburgers. All food was free to the kids as was everything else we did that day. We sold raffle tickets to the parents for twelve Easter baskets that we prepared. They were filled with stuffed animals, small toys and candy. We sold them for a dollar a piece or three tickets for five dollars. It was pointed out to me toward the end of the drawing that three for five was a terrible deal but nobody seemed to mind. I must admit that I (the writer) set the price and was really putting my accounting degree to good use. Shippensburg University would be real proud of this graduate.

The hunt was scheduled to start at 12:30 and this is when organized chaos began. It just so happens that one of our brothers has the name of Joe. Well, for some reason someone yelled, HEY JOE!! Joe did not respond to this call so someone yelled "HEY JOE" again. Some of the parents took this as GO! All of a sudden, kids were running everywhere trying to get eggs. In about ten minutes all the eggs were gathered. It all turned out great in the end. There were kids sharing eggs with others who did not get any. I explained to everyone what had happened and the parents just laughed. It turned out that we had around one hundred forty kids and over one hundred parents. We had a really nice attendance with about forty more kids than last year. All the kids received a homemade chocolate egg made by some of the lodge members wives and mothers. We cooked over two hundred hot dogs, one hundred fifty hamburgers, a kettle of soup and twelve cases of soda. The Easter Bunny made a special appearance for the kids as he handed out more goodies.

I had parents come up to me and thanked the IOOF Lodge for having this event and hoped we would do it again. We had a lot of people come from nearby cabins visiting Raystown Lake for the weekend. They also thanked us for the hunt because it gave their kids something fun to do. Many questions were asked about the IOOF and we gave our three petitions. The deputy was so impressed with our turnout that he started asking questions and we gave him a petition.

This was another great day at Mt. Hor. It was all about Odd Fellowship. The brothers at Mt. Hor always enjoy community activities and we always have a great time. Mt. Hor has scheduled a pig roast for August 9, 2003 at 3:00 PM. We would like to invite any other lodge in PA to attend. It's a good time, just ask Past Grand Master Nevin Adams who attended last year. Just call our lodge secretary William Ramsey Jr. so we know how many to prepare for. His number is (814) 448-3505. As for the egg hunt, we will hold this every for many more years to come.

NEWS FROM MAHONEY REBEKAH LODGE #428

New Bloomfield, PA

The lodge has been active with various programs.

Anna Jean Rhoades was installed as Noble Grand at the October Meeting and she has kept us involved with interesting meetings and projects.

Our November meeting we celebrated our 56th Birthday with entertainment, and of course a beautifully decorated cake served with ice cream and other goodies. We were honored to have our Rebekah Assembly President, Sister Ruth Good, along with several of her staff, visit with us and help us celebrate our Birthday.

It was a delightful and rewarding afternoon of Rebekah Odd-Fellowship.

Our December meeting was interesting with games and readings, and rather than exchange Christmas gifts, each member gave a monetary gift to the Children and Youth Services to purchase gifts for the needy children of Perry County. We also enjoyed a Christmas Dinner at Benners Restaurant, with lots of food, entertainment, and fellowship. Noble Grand, Anna Jean, presented each one present with an adorable snowman made from baby food jars, stating that she had to eat some baby food to get enough snowmen for everyone.

Following our January meeting, our Noble Grand kept us busy making a huge stack of valentines to send to the Veterans Hospital to cheer our disabled veterans.

Our February meeting was topped off with our Noble Grand surprising us with a valentine treat – a beautiful decorated table with red roses as a centerpiece. A cake topped with red cherries and red candies and lots of red items to make an attractive table.

Again in March, we were treated with a beautiful "Green Table" for St. Patrick's Day. Green plates, green napkins, green cups, and a really delicious "Green" cake.

We are now looking forward to our APRIL meeting. Will we have an Eastern Bunny hopping around? Or perhaps an Easter Bunny Cake? We are all looking forward to our Easter celebration. Stay tuned!

To all my Friends, Sisters and Brothers in Rebekah Odd Fellowship. The following poem expresses my feelings better than I could.

THANKS FOR THE MEMORIES

*Thanks for all the memories
In which you've played a part,
For they are always nearest
And dearest to my heart...
Thanks for all the memories
That are yours and mine alone,
For they recall so many
Special moments I have known...
Thanks for all the memories
That time can never dime...
I never could repay you
For the joy I've found in them!*

Mary Dawson Hughes

I will always remember the year I served as your President. Thanks for all my memories.

May the Bluebird of Happiness be with you always.

In F.L. & T.
