THANK YOU

I wish to thank all my Brothers and Sisters and Lodges who send cards to me and my family during our time of sorrow on the loss of my one twin son, Charles Saylor. It is a great feeling to know that your friends still think of you even when you cannot get around much anymore. God bless you all. I love you all.

Esther Kershner

NOT "WHO" BUT "WHAT"

Much has been written and said in the past about "Who" makes the Lodge. But the biggest and most vital factor is not "Who" but "What."

WHAT Is the reason for lack of attendance at your meetings?

WHAT Is your lodge doing to offset the attractions or distractions of the movies, radio, television, and the many other forms of outside diversions of today?

WHAT Is the attitude of the older members of your Lodge, w hen it comes to selecting younger members to offices, committees, and degree teams?

WHAT Is your Lodge doing to attract the young as new members? Who must be added to the membership, if the lodge is to live and prosper into the future?

WHAT Does your Lodge consider a successful lodge? Is it the accumulation of money in the treasury, or is it the carrying on and carrying out of the principals for which your Lodge was instituted?

WHAT Type of men and women does your lodge seek in securing new members?

WHAT Attitude do you have in your heart toward your Brothers and Sisters in the Order?

WHAT Do you expect from your Lodge? The service you may receive or the opportunity to serve?

Excerpts from: Fraternal handbook; thoughts to consider for assessment of yourself and Lodge.

FROM THE DESK OF THE GRAND SECRETARY

Here is another month gone. Where does the time go? Well, it looks like Spring is just around the corner – the flowers are coming out, the grass is getting green, and the robins have come back. Another sign April 15 is not far off.

By this time, the voting for Grand Lodge Officers is over, and the count is not far away. The Lodges that install in April have a new slate of officers ready. I wish for them much success.

I am still in need of articles for the Magazine every month. We also need subscriptions and roster ads. Does your Lodge have an ad? If not – why not? Are you getting the Magazine? Same question – why not?

I would like to thank every one who has sent in things for the Magazine. Also, I would like to thank all who have been of assistance and have been patient with me since I have been in the office. I really appreciate it.

In F.H. & C.
William L. Locke, Grand Secretary

THANK YOU

The family of William (Bill) Bower wishes to express their appreciation to our Brothers and Sisters for their love and concern during his illness and for the many expressions of sympathy at his death. Unless you have "been there" you cannot realize how much your support means.

Thank you. Lady Beverly.

NICKEL PLATE LODGE #1125

SARAH GLISAN, MUSICIAN FOR ELLEN REBEKAH LODGE NO. 233 HONORED

On October 14, 2002, we at Ellen Rebekah Lodge No. 233, Waltersburg, honored our musician, Sara Glisan. She is very special to all her Lodge Sisters, for who she is and also for her wonderful talent as our piano player. We appreciate her very much. Sarah has been our musician for many years. She is always at the meetings to play our beautiful Lodge songs. She never refuses to play for others. We at Ellen Rebekah Lodge really miss her when she is not at the meeting. Without her our meetings are so cut and dry as music makes our meetings. We feel sorry for Lodges that don't have the honor to have a musician. If you do have the honor to have a musician, show her in some way how much you appreciate her and her talent.

Sarah was very surprised. She was escorted to the center of the floor by our Warden, Bevelry Sabatula and presented a corsage and a flower centerpiece of red roses. A poem was read, and all the Sisters formed a circle and sang "Bless Be The Tie."

CHARLEROI

The new 60,000 Lodge home of Charleroi Lodge No. 1030 was used as a meeting place by the lodge for the first time on April 5, with a suitable observance of the occasion and the ceremony of installation, members and visitors numbering 150 being in attendance, among them being John Crawford, the oldest member of the lodge present. Following installation, speeches were made by the District Deputy Grand Master and members of his staff and others.

The lodge is planning a big demonstration when the hall is dedicated, which is expected to be some time in May, although at time of writing the date has not been set. Among the features for this occasion will be a parade and gala events.

Work on the new building was begun on September 28, 1927, and was completed last month. The building is a three story business block, containing eight apartments, the lodge rooms, social rooms and ante-rooms.

Institute on January 14, 1892, with 34 members, Charleroi Lodge now boasts of 355 members and is proud to own its own meeting place.

ODD FELLOWS – MIDDLETOWN HOME

The month of March went by so quickly! Residents enjoyed visits by many special groups as well as a visit from "Lace" a registered Therapy Canine. The Therapy dogs that visit create amazing responses from residents here at The Home.

"Spring Fling" is our next big "to do" at The Home. Many residents will wear Spring hats, enjoy banjo music by a special volunteer, and savor a Spring snack.

Spring has finally Sprung!

the Rebekah Session, and Susannah Rebekah Lodge conferred the Rebekah Degree.

Bowmansdale Lodge performed the opening and closing of the Odd Fellows Lodge, with Degree Teams from the Five County Rally area conferring the First Degree, Leesport Lodge conferring the Second Degree, and Alma Lodge conferring the Third Degree.

There were 184 in attendance for the Banquet later in the evening.

The entertainment was something a little different this time as it consisted of four Drill Teams who put on a wonderful exhibition of some fine drill work.

All in all it was a wonderful day as the weather was fine, the attendance was fine, and the fellowship with the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs was fine. Who could ask for anything more?

MAY IS NATIONAL ARTHRITIS MONTH

The three Pennsylvania Arthritis Foundation Chapters are celebrating National Arthritis month with many planned activities. The warming weather also signals the start of special events, such as golf outings and Joints In Motion walks, and educational sessions in the various chapters. I'm sure you can find something of interest at the Chapter or Branch location nearest you. The Chapter numbers are listed at the end of this article and you can make a quick call and they'll be able to give you the highlights about the upcoming events.

The 32nd Unified Session is fast approaching. The Arthritis Committee members will greet you and have a Lobby tree to decorate with the "Christmas in June" bells. In advance of Session, the bells are $1.00 each or 6 for $5.00 and they will be mailed to you. Be Creative – help those with arthritis when you purchase the bells and make an interesting display with the bells. Send your representative to Session with the display and enter the contest. Judging will be at Fun Night on Saturday, June 14th. Your entry MUST be at the Arthritis table by 4 PM on Saturday. Your Lodge will be receiving a flyer in the Grand Lodge and Rebekah mailing with an order section to complete and remember – when you purchase the "Christmas in June" bells, you are helping to fight arthritis with every dollar you spend. Be Involved!

The "Christmas in June" bells will be available at the table in the Lobby for $1.00 or 5 for $5.00 and you'll receive a "gold dollar coin. We look forward to your support. Our major project is focused in the Central Chapter region this year and we will be helping to bring the P.A.C.E. program to even more people.

Camp JRA is July 13th through 19th this year. They are expecting about 95 campers to enjoy the experience of a lifetime this year. This is the special project of the Grand Master this year as well as other Branch Leaders in our organization. Support your leaders AND help the campers, kids with Arthritis. Many of the Committee members visited Camp last year to help with our 2002 Camp kickoff program. The camp theme was "Holidays" and the kids loved the New Year's Eve party with hats, tiaras, noisemakers and a visit from Father Time and Baby New Year. Thistle Lodge and Thalia Rebekah Lodge came with a freezer full of ice cream and every topping imaginable to make ice cream sundaes that were a real treat on a warm day. The 2003 theme is "Fantasy Island" and we're beginning to make plans for our opening day visit. It is a real heart-warming day to see these children and the progress some are making with the new drugs made available by the research that goes on with the donations. Look for a poster "Kids Have Arthritis Too" that will be mailed to the Lodges. The IOOF is recognized as a sponsor – right beside the United Way. Pretty impressive!

Send your orders for bells or donations to help with the PACE project to Nevin Adams, Treasurer, 951 Shoemakersville Road, Shoemakersville, PA 19555-9010.

ELVIS IS ALIVE!

OH Yes, Elvis is alive and doing his thing. On Friday night March 21, 2003, forty-five members and guests of Earl R. Leiby Encampment #106 got together for their annual St. Patricks Day dinner at the Blue Mountain restaurant in Shartlesville, PA. A family style dinner of roast beef and turkey was enjoyed by all (some enjoyed it too much). After the dinner, all dignitaries were introduced and then came the entertainment and as I said before, OH YES, ELVIS IS ALIVE and boy did he entertain us as you can see by the picture. Everyone enjoyed the show (some more than others). For those of you that were there and have now read this article and saw the picture, don't think that you are safe now – I have about 20 more pictures that I could have printed.

DELWARE VALLEY DEGREE TEAM

On Saturday, March 22, 2003, twenty-four members of the Delaware Valley Degree Team rented a bus and traveled to Huntingdon, PA to confer all four degrees for six members from Mt. Hor #736 plus one new member from Harmony Lodge #86. For most members of Mt. Hor Lodge, this was the first time that they had seen the degrees conferred. This is what Odd Fellowship is all about, getting out and helping each other, making new friends and seeing old friends that you may not have seen for some time. In all there were about 60 brothers in attendance on this day – there were brothers from most of the Lodges surrounding Mt. Hor Lodge.

The members from the Delaware Valley Degree Team were made up from eight different lodges – Mt. Zion Lodge #74, Harmony Lodge #86, Leesport Lodge #141, Walker Lodge #306, Neversink Lodge #514, Boyertown Lodge #708, Shillington #1175 and Bowmansdale #1179. I would like to thank the brothers from Mt. Hor Lodge #736, Port Matilda Lodge #733 and Centre Lodge #153 that helped with the degree work. This is what makes the Odd Fellows so great – here we had members from 11 different Lodges become one unit to keep this great order going. Come join us – we are having a great time.

On behalf of Mt. Hor Lodge #736 and the Delaware Valley Degree Team, I would like to thank the Elks Lodge in Huntingdon for making their Lodge Hall available to us for the purpose of conferring these degrees. After you read this article and you think you would like to help the Delaware Valley Degree Team do their work or maybe you would like to form a degree team in your area, please give me a call and I will do everything I can to help you get started.
