NEWS FROM SUSANNAH REBEKAH LODGE #247

May 10, 2003 the Central Division of the Arthritis Foundation sponsored a Walk-A-Thon in Camp Hill, PA. There were 26 persons, who walked 2-1/4 miles. One of them was our own member, Mary Greider. She is, at the present time, our Noble Grand for the third time. She collected a total of $100.00 and turned it over to the Chapter. We are very proud of our Noble Grand.

SILENT CRIES

It saddens me as I call and talk to the Secretaries of our Lodges, trying to arrange for a visit. They tell me how weak the membership is and of all the illness of their members. This is why my Sisters, we need to get new members. It is very important at this point in time that we work harder than ever to increase our membership.

I met with some of our Sisters – unfortunately at the time they were surrendering their charter. It was heart breaking to see the sadness on their faces. This is not the way I want to meet my Sisters.

I feel for each and every one of them. I, myself, can only guide you on how to get new members, but this you must do yourselves as a Lodge. Think of an incentive to get people interested. Advertise in your community with flyers what Odd Fellows and Rebekahs do and have to offer. Invite them to an open house at your Lodge and talk to them. If you have any ideas for other Lodges, give them a call and share your ideas.

My Sisters, I'm telling you this because it is becoming very concerning to me. I told you in my message at my installation that I want to be a hands-on President. I know I'm not going to have all the answers, but I'm going to do my best to help. But in order for me to do this, I need your help too.

Let's pull together now and try to increase our membership.

Yours in friendship, love and truth
Tamara R. Schlott, President

CENTENARIAN

Brother George Hostetter made the century mark in April – his family hosted a surprise party for him at the Community Building in Clark. There were well over 100 friends, relatives and Lodge brothers in attendance. Heinie, as he is affectionately known, thought his family was taking him out to a fish dinner. He currently lives in Clepper Manor, E. State Street, Sharon, PA. He drove his red car until he was well into his nineties and maintained his own home in Mercer. He has a remarkable memory and can recall many happenings in the Shenango Valley. He has many pictures of things as they were in the valley in the early 1900's. He joined Sharon Lodge #347 April 5, 1924 and has maintained his membership in the Lodge since that time.

OUT OF THE PENNSYLVANIA ODD FELLOW

Quiet at Middletown

Dear Editor:

Everything is quiet along the pike just now. The thing out of the ordinary this month was the Welsh Choir thirty voices which accompanied the members of Silurian Lodge No. 763, of Scranton, on their visit to the Home on Sunday, September 9th. Am feel pretty good myself.

A Resident

Notes from the Wayside Inn

On Thursday, September 25th, one of the jolliest lot of "Three Linkers" to be found in Western Pennsylvania from the "chic" town of Chicora, with Prof Winks String Band and company of melodious songsters rolled into the Wayside Inn in the evening and brought us one of the most enjoyable entertainment's of the season.

They carried us back to boyhood days when we too used to go to barn dances, quilting parties, and "see sweet Nelly home."

ODD FELLOWS – MIDDLETOWN HOME

Residents and Lodge members gathered in July for The Middletown Home's Annual Home Day Celebration. They enjoyed a beautiful summer day and kept busy with the many activities going on in The Home's Orchard. The Emigsville Band played throughout the day and chicken dinners were barbecued by the Middletown Baseball Association. There were children's games, cake and watermelon walks, and many raffle prizes donated by local businesses.

This year each department at The Home donated a theme basket to raffle off during the day. People who attended could also shop at The White Elephant Table for many bargains. The day couldn't have been better and we all look forward to next year!

CAMP JRA 2003

Members of Thalia Lodge visited Camp JRA on opening Day, July 13th. The theme for this year was Fantasy Island. They took leis up for the Campers and Counselors and other "island" decorations. The campers enjoyed their visit and especially enjoyed the after-dinner treat they took . . . ice cream sundaes with more toppings than you can imagine. What a delicious way to end "move-in" day. This was a much requested return visit from 2002 and I'm sure they'll be looking for a return visit again next summer. The camp was well attended this year and the campers really had a great time. Some pictures are included and tell it all. The Arthritis Committee is grateful for the Lodge's support and help again this year.

Enjoy the rest of your summer, but don't forget we need to continue your commitment to those with arthritis. LADY BUTLER REBEKAH LODGE NO. 316 CONSOLIDATED WITH LADY GREENWOOD REBEKAH LODGE NO. 308

After much planning and completing all necessary procedures for the consolidation of Lady Butler Rebekah Lodge No. 316, and the consent of Lady Greenwood Rebekah Lodge No. 308 to accept us, the consolidation was completed May 14, 2003.

There were nine members of Lady Butler to become members of Lady Greenwood.

The consolidation ceremony was conducted by the D.D.P., Sister Sara V. Bonson. As hard as it is to give up one's Home Lodge, it was nice to receive the "welcome sisters" from Lady Greenwood. It was pleasing to know that Lady Greenwood requested the "cancelled" charter of Lady Butler be retained and placed next to Lady Greenwood's charter. Our working relations and friendship has always been superb.

STEAMBOATING CAPTAIN LOOKING FOR ODD FELLOWS

By Maj. Gen. (Ret) John A. Kunkleman, Past Department Commander

In July we continued our search for Odd Fellow buildings as we explore towns and cities (especially river towns) on our travels.

On our last "tramping cruise" aboard the Steamboat Delta Queen, we toured (on foot) Owensboro, Kentucky; Clifton, Tennessee; and Guntersville, Alabama.

In Clifton, a city of about 1,200, we were told there is no Odd Fellows Lodge in the community.

Walking all over downtown Guntersville, we were unable to find an I.O.O.F. sign anywhere and a search through the local telephone book failed to turn up any Odd Fellow numbers or locations.

However, in Owensboro, the Odd Fellows building is of impressive size and is located on the intersection of two downtown streets. It is in the middle of the area which includes the Davies County Court House, the county judicial building and a federal court building.

The exterior of the building seems to be in good condition, but the woodwork (window frames, etc.) could use some paint. The first floor includes a restaurant, which has a sidewalk cafe, and an attorney's office.

When we went to a side entrance, used for reaching the upper floors, we discovered a directory listing a Lodge and a Rebekah Lodge on the third floor, and attorney's offices, an oil company, and a court reporter service on the second floor.

While we were checking the directory, a young lady entered the vestibule and asked if she could help us. We (Grand Scribe Leon and Sister Laudine Stamm and Lady Reta and I) told her we were Odd Fellows and Rebekahs and would like to leave our names and addresses for the Odd Fellows. She took the information and promised to give it to the Odd Fellow who manages the building.

She said the building is ideally located for her court reporting business. In the middle of the judicial buildings and with attorney's offices all over the neighborhood.

However, she said she wishes the management would pay more attention to keep the place clean. She said the people in her office keep their corner of the building clean, but the landlords could do more.

Why is this happening to so many Odd Fellow buildings? Magnificent structures are allowed to become dirty and unsightly due to the lack of proper maintenance.

The Stamms played prominent roles in the entertainment aboard the Delta Queen on this cruise.

Cindy Unrein, wife of Capt. Gabe Chengery, presented a program of "Moonlight Melodies" and she picked Leon, from all of the men in the Orleans Room, to sing up to close and personal.

Laudine, not wishing to be outdone by her spouse, answered the call from Steamboatin' Director Bob Schad and was the leader of the "Hardware Band" at "The Huck Finn Party and Fabulous Floozie Parade."

DA President Lady Myra Adams participated in the Floozie Parade on one of her cruises and she can tell you all about it.

TUNKHANNOCK LODGE NO. 669, IOOF

The Odd Fellows of District #11 and Rebekahs of District #16 sponsored a Chicken BBQ at the Green Gables pavilion in New Milford, PA. The menu: 1/2 BBQ chicken, baked potato, baked beans, macaroni salad, fresh fruit and cake. Beverage - coffee and soda. There were 70 Odd Fellows and Rebekahs with friends in attendance.

After the dinner, M.C. Robert Colwell from Canawacta Lodge #207 introduced Rebekah Assembly Warden Doris Goerlitz, who gave a nice talk on good of the order. Next Brother Colwell introduced D.G.M. Tom acknowledge D.D.G.M. George Wood from District #10.

District Deputy President Shirley Severcool then introduced President Tamra Schlott, Tamra spoke on her projects; Guide Dogs for the blind and Special Olympics. She then introduced her left Herald Shirley Severcool, and extended the Greetings of the Rebekah Assembly and her personal greetings.

LEAGUE CHAMPS!!!

Thompson throws 4-hitter in Odd Fellows' clinching game vs. Ephrata

Bruce Morgan, Record Express Sports Editor

EPHRATA – When Lititz finished off its 8-1 win over the Ephrata Pride last Wednesday, July 16, clinching the Lancaster County Midget League's Section One best-of-three championship series two games to none, the Odd Fellows gave coach Frank Camera the customary ice water shower.

"At least it wasn't the sticky stuff," Lititz's skipper said.

The Pride, though, found themselves in a sticky situation with Lititz ace Bobby Thompson on the hill. The lefty struck out 14 and tossed a complete-game four-hitter while improving to 6-0. In the process, Thompson ran a lot of deep counts and finished with 123 pitches, a total which may have contributed to a pair of seventh-inning free passes.

But a timely double play brought two quick outs, and then Thompson fanned Ephrata leadoff batter Derek Sipe to end it, as the Odd Fellows hoisted the league trophy for the first time since 1999.

"I wish he wouldn't be so darn dominant and work that pitch count so high," Camera said, smiling. "I talked to him last week and he said, 'Don't worry so much about the strikeouts. Use that defense.' We've got seven guys who were named to the All-Star team, and I'd like to see him use the defense a little more. But (Bobby) was 'on' tonight . . . Bobby's been stellar all year. My whole staff has been stellar. They've come up big."

Camera will hope for a few more stellar outings, with the New Era Tournament . . . The No. 1-seeded Odd Fellows (15-2) met Section Two runner-up Mt. Joy.

Recently, Thompson and Pride southpaw Jeff Oberholtzer dueling through two scoreless frames before the Odd Fellows scored all they would need in the top of the third. After Steve Sellner worked a leadoff walk, Alex Hart smashed a single to center, and both runners advanced on a wild pitch.

Kent Gerdes followed with an RBI ground out, then Evan Scheffey stroked an RBI double through a drawn-in infield, Sam Grube stroked an RBI double down the right field line, and Grube scored on an error, stretching the lead to 4-0.

"It was a total team effort," Camera said. "We needed everybody to step up. We started out a little slow, and like I said before, it takes us one time to get through that lineup to see the pitcher. Then we started jumping on him with our 7-8 hitters again. Alex Hart has been smoking the ball all over the place the past three nights."

The Pride scored their only run in the home third, as Sipe doubled home Abahay Nayak, who worked one of Thompson's four walks.

But Hart and Grube, who each went 2-for-3 off Oberholtzer, were in the middle of things again in the fifth. Hart legged out an infield single and moved to second on an error. After Gerdes sacrificed, Scheffey walked, Grube hit an RBI single to right, and Scheffey scored on a wild pitch, making it 6-1.

Oberholtzer, who struck out six and walked three, scattered just six hits, but the Odd Fellows made the most of them. Lititz added an insurance run in the sixth, as Branson Kline reached on Ephrata's third error and scored on Sellner's fielder's choice. Then in the top of the seventh, Rich Berkey, playing on a broken left foot, stroked a one-out single, and pinch-runner Grube crossed the plate on Thompson's RBI ground out to complete the scoring.

"It's a lot of life for (Rich) to show up in uniform and tell the boys he was going to play," Camera said. "He wanted to DH and play every at-bat."

With the Section One North Division and League championships under their belt, the Odd Fellows will go into the New Era Tourney with a lot of life.

"I think I've said in years past that I really put a lot into winning our League," Camera said. "They've redone the New Era Tournament to make it a little tougher. It's not spread out over three weeks. But to win our League . . . it's a chore."

SCHOLARSHIP THANK YOUS

To all Odd Fellows and Rebekahs

The following are excerpts from the thank yous of recipients of scholarships presented by the scholarship committee. Space does not permit the full message from some of them.

"It is truly an honor to receive a scholarship from your distinguished group. I would like to thank you for your support and this scholarship."
Lindsay Bottorf

"I wish to express my sincere appreciation for receiving the scholarship from the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs. College is costly, therefore I appreciate the financial support. This scholarship gives me faith and motivation that I continue to have a beneficial experience. It is an honor to receive this scholarship."
Hannah Loper

"Thank you all so very much for awarding me the scholarship. This is a wonderful honor and I am so appreciative to all of you. You are helping people like myself to make dreams come true."
Jennifer Behanna

"To all Pennsylvania Odd Fellows and Rebekahs. Thank you so much for the scholarship. I appreciate it so much."
Ashley Zigmant

"I am a recipient of one of the scholarships. I wish to convey my utmost gratification for receiving this award. I feel honored to be recognized by such a distinguished group such as the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs. Your organization is one of honor and integrity, and for that I am grateful."

BECKY'S BACKYARD

1. Don't buy white shelf paper any more. Instead, line shelves with heavy freezer wrap, with the waxed side up. It can be wiped off with a damp cloth and outwears regular shelf paper.
2. To separate two glasses that are stuck together, put the bottom glass in warm water and pour cold water in the top glass. The two will pull apart easily without breaking.
3. You can sharpen a dull pair of scissors, easily, by cutting through several thicknesses of aluminum foil.
4. If your machine oil has run dry, try vegetable oil instead – it works on anything that squeaks! If you need a lubricant that won't drip, use petroleum jelly.
5. To seal cracks in china, ceramics, etc., place the damaged piece in a pan of milk and boil for 45 minutes. The milk not only forms a tight seal, it covers the crack, making your broken dish as good as new.
6. To keep kitchen chair pads from sliding, buy a yard of rubber carpet padding at a carpet store, cut out small squares and put them under the chair pads.

ORCHARD MANOR

Christmas in July

Orchard Manor Residents had a great time at the July 25th Christmas in July Party. The event was filled with Christmas Cheery. The Activity Department provided little Christmas boxes, played games, sang Christmas Carols and provided a Summertime Santa Claus. The Director of Nursing dressed up as an elf for the occasion and many of the Staff and Residents donned their Christmas Colors and Christmas Shirts for the day. What Christmas celebration would be complete without some delicious Christmas Cookies? The Dietary Department created several dozen Christmas Cookies for everyone to enjoy. It was decided by all that the cookies taste even better in July! The Residents and Staff agree that this should be an Annual tradition and will be looking forward to next year's celebration.

12th Annual Family Picnic

On Saturday, July 12th, the Residents, family members, staff, Orchard Manor's Board of Directors and the Auxiliary turned out for the wonderful Family Picnic at Orchard Manor. The grill was smoking and sending a delicious aroma of barbecue chicken, hot dogs, and hamburgers to make everybody's mouth water. The Dietary Department lined the tables with green bean casserole, corn, potato salad, macaroni salad, coleslaw, deviled eggs, relish trays, baked beans, taco salad, watermelon and fruit salad. As if that were not enough, the family members provided an array of home-made desserts. The facility also made cotton candy and popcorn, which added to the picnic fun. Entertainment was provided by accordionist, Johnny Oakes, who was followed by a country music band led by Jack Kendall. The Annual Orchard Manor Picnic is always a memorable event that provides an afternoon of great food, fun, music and fellowship. Each year it seems to get a little bigger and better. We can't wait to see what is in store to Orchard Manor's 13th Annual Picnic, which will be held on Saturday, July 10, 2004.

JIGSAW PUZZLE

Everything I ever needed to know about life, I learned from a jigsaw puzzle.

1. Don't force a fit. If something is meant to be, it will come together naturally.
2. When things aren't going so well, take a break. Everything will look different when you return.
3. Be sure to look at the big picture. Getting hung up on the little pieces only leads to frustration.
4. Perseverance pays off. Every important puzzle went together bit by bit, piece by piece.
5. When one spot stops working, move to another. But be sure to come back later. (See number 4).
6. The creator of the puzzle gave you the picture as a guidebook. Refer to the Creator's guidebook often.
7. Variety is the spice of life. It's the different colors and patterns that make the puzzle interesting.
8. Working together with family and friends makes any task fun.
9. Establish the border first. Boundaries give a sense of security and order.
10. Don't be afraid to try different combinations. Some matches are surprising.
11. Take time often to celebrate your successes, even little ones.
12. Anything work doing takes times and effort. A great puzzle can't be rushed.
