To the Odd Fellow-Rebekah Scholarship Committee:

It was a great honor to be the recipient of the Odd Fellow Rebekah Scholarship for the academic year of Fall 2003-Spring 2004. The scholarship is greatly appreciated and has helped me to achieve my goals for my first year at Temple University. In the past year, I have become an active member of Sigma Chi Delta, a local service sorority and was inducted into National Society of Collegiate Scholars, NSCS. Spring semester, I was elected co-chair of philanthropy and chairwomen of insignia of Sigma Chi Delta. The philanthropy committee was very successful raising money for organizations such as March of Dimes and Sunshine Foundation. We organized various events for the local orphanage to provide them with positive role models. This past year we volunteered at a local dog show, March of Dimes, and a new event "Dress Me Up For Prom," where prom dresses and accessories were donated and distributed to teens that could not afford the costs of prom. Because of our community involvement we won Organization of the Year at Temple's Annual Awards Banquet.

My GPA and campus involvement aided in my nomination and induction into NSCS. The society provides community and academic services to the local area and its members. It is an honor that will hopefully be of assistance toward my academic goals and provide me with amazing, new experiences.

All of my academic and extracurricular achievements in the past year would not have been possible without your financial assistance. I greatly appreciate the financial assistance of the Odd Fellow Rebekah Scholarship. I hope you are able to assist other students financially in the years to come so that they too will be able to achieve their goals.

Thank you,

Lindsay A. Bottorf

FROM THE DESK OF THE GRAND SECRETARY

Dear Readers,

It is a good chance by the time this is out we will have a new Grand Master along with his new officers. If he is trying to change something for the good of the Order, give him your help. Don't say we never did it that way before. Try it, it might be just the thing we need to turn things around. We all know we have to do something to get the membership to go the other way, we need to be increasing not decreasing. So let us all pull together to bring Odd Fellowship back to being strong. To all the District Deputy Grand Masters, remember you are representing the Grand Master and the Grand Lodge and in doing so, you should be making sure your Lodges are meeting on a regular basis, and following the Laws of the Order.

As always, I am asking for your help. I need anything you can send to put in your Magazine. Keep the articles coming!

*Fraternally,
William L. Locke, Grand Secretary*

BE ODD

Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, Be Odd. Be so strong that nothing can disturb your tranquility, your peace of mind.

Always talk health, happiness and prosperity to every person you meet.

Make all your members feel that there is much good in them and that they are needed.

Look at the bright side of everything.

Think the best, believe the best, work for the best and expect the best.

Be more enthusiastic about the success of your brothers and sisters than you are about your own.

Forget the mistakes of the past and press on to greater achievements.

Wear a cheerful look and give everyone you meet a smile.

Spend so much time improving yourself that you will have no time to criticize others.

Be too big for worry, too noble for anger, too strong for fear.

Avoid trouble by being too happy for it to appear.

Be Odd!

TWO-COUNTY FIELD DAY AT ALLENTOWN

Odd Fellows of Lehigh and Northampton Counties were scheduled to hold a Two-County Field Day and Picnic at the Allentown Fair Grounds on Saturday, July 20.

All Odd Fellows are invited to participate who are in this vicinity at that time. The committee is preparing for a bigger and better picnic, and nice prizes will be awarded to the winners in the various sporting events, which are open to any Odd Fellow who cares to participate in them.

PITTSBURGH

The Lodges of the Second District of Allegheny County, located in the Bot-Ton district of the city of Pittsburgh, have made all plans and preparations for a motor caravan to visit Wayside Inn at Grove City on Sunday morning, September 8th. The assemblage will meet at Washington Boulevard and Frankstown Ave. at 8:30 A.M. Pittsburgh time. This promises to be one of the largest delegations ever leaving the city for a visit to this Old Monument of Odd Fellowship. The Grand Master George B. McDowell and his wife, Grand Guardian Harvey Riley, Grand Herald Harvey Case and many other Grand Lodge Officers are very enthusiastic about making this trip an unparalleled success.

ODD FELLOWS AND REBEKAHS ATTEND HOMECOMING DAY

Ruth Frederick, D.D.P. of Wayne County, contacted her lodges, also lodges of Susquehanna County and arranged for a bus trip to the Middletown Odd Fellows and Rebekah Home of Pennsylvania on July 15th to attend the Homecoming Day and barbecue.

All the Rebekah Lodges, many of the Odd Fellow Lodges of Wayne Co. and some from Susquehanna were represented as 41 members enjoyed the trip, the friendship, the barbecue, and the beautiful home and surroundings. They saw the lovely new office building, talked to some guests at the home, greeted old friends and acquaintances and made new ones. All in all it was a most delightful day.

LIVING LEGACY PROGRAM

Aluta Lodge #488 IOOF and Lady Hall Rebekah Lodge #202 of Nazareth gathered on a beautiful Saturday morning, May 1st, to honor our "Living Legacy" Program. We planted two trees along our property line alongside those from previous years – a dogwood and a Bradford pear. We offer prayer and a brief memorial ceremony for our dear departed brothers and sisters who died during the past year. We had about 17 in attendance.

DO YOU HAVE A.A.A.D.D.?

(Submitted by Anonymous)

Hooray! I've recently been diagnosed with AAADD! (Age Activated Attention Deficit Disorder) This is how it goes: I decide to wash the car. I start toward the garage and I notice the mail on the table. Ok, I'm going to wash the car, but first I'm going to go through the mail. I lay the car keys down on the desk, discard the junk mail and I notice the trash can is full. Ok, I'll just put the bills on my desk and take the trash can out. But since I'm going to be near the mailbox anyway, I'll pay these few bills first. Now, where is my checkbook? Oops. there's only one check left. My extra checks are in my desk. Oh, there's the coke I was drinking. I'm going to look for those checks. But first I need to put my coke further away from the computer. Oh, maybe I'll pop it into the fridge to keep it cold for a while. I head towards the kitchen and my flowers catch my eye; they need some water. I set the coke on the counter and uh oh! There are my glasses. I was looking for them all morning! I'd better put them away first. I fill a container with water and head for the flower pots—Aaaaaagh! The TV remote was left in the kitchen. I'll never think to look in the kitchen tonight when I want to watch television so I'd better put it back where it belongs. I splash some water into the pots and onto the floor, I throw the remote onto a soft cushion on the sofa and I head back down the hall trying to figure out what it was I was going to do. At the end of the day: The car isn't washed, the bills are unpaid, the coke is sitting on the kitchen counter, the flowers are half watered, the checkbook still only has one check in it and I can't seem to find my car keys! When I try to figure out why nothing got done today, I'm baffled because I know I was busy all day long!!!

MAHANOEY LODGE #551 AND IDELLA REBEKAHS #58 HOLD ANNUAL SPRING CHICKEN BAR-B-Q EVENT

The Odd Fellows of Mahanoy Lodge and Rebekahs of Idella hold two chicken bar-b-q's annually for fundraisers. On April 24, 2004, the spring event was held with a very successful outcome. Six hundred halves with all of the trimmings were sold with a net profit of approximately $1,775 to be split between the two organizations. In addition to the fund raised, as can be seen in the following photos, the folks have a good time!

This photo shows that Brother Dan Schock thinks that the pit will become ready all by itself. We would say that he is trying to imitate a Penn Dot worker, but we can't say that because we would offend the two brothers in the Lodge who are or were Penn Dot workers.

Here is one of the Penn Dot workers, Brother Greg Erdman, applying the special juices. We forgot to mention that the other Penn Dot worker (now retired) is Noble Grand Jim Snyder.

ALMA LODGE #523, JOHNSTOWN, VISITS ARLINGTON CEMETERY

On May 2, Alma Lodge sponsored a bus trip from Johnstown to Arlington National Cemetery to observe the placing of the wreaths ceremony at the Tomb of the Unknowns. There were 27 people on the bus including Lodge Members, wives and guests. The other Lodges in District 21 were invited to participate and at least one Member accepted.

The accompanying photos and captions tell the story as well as would a long narrative.

submitted by Glenn L. Campbell

Brother Carl Thomas (center) organized the entire trip from renting the bus to supplying the box lunches. He is flanked by Jake and Bobbi Johnson.

A Solemn Moment. Milford "Jake" Johnson, a WWII vet and a longtime member of Alma Lodge #523, reflects among the tombstones in Arlington National Cemetery.

Brother Kermit Thomas from Highland Lodge #428, Ebensburg, PA and his traveling companion, Lois Morris, made the trip.

Art Moyer from State College Lodge #1032 was there to take part in the wreath placing ceremony.
