FROM THE DESK OF THE GRAND SECRETARY

Dear Readers,

Session is finished and everyone has returned home to their Lodges. Now is the time to start getting a plan ready for your next term. Also, while the weather is still great, you could be getting your Lodge cleaned up so it is a place you are content to have someone visit. It should be inviting so people would want to join you. If you want your lodge to continue, you need to get new members.

Fraternally,

William L. Locke, Grand Secretary

BIRD WATCHING TIPS

February is National Bird Feeding Month, so what better time to grab a pair of binoculars and take a gander at the birds in your yard? While bird watching may seem like a no-brainer, there are some things you can do to maximize your enjoyment of the experience.

1. Dress to blend in with your surroundings.
2. Find a good hiding spot.
3. Use a good pair of binoculars.
4. Take along a pencil and a checklist of the names of species found in your region.
5. Keep a bird guide book handy. Study it ahead-of-time.
6. When you look at a bird, note the following characteristics:
 - color
 - size
 - shape
 - wing and head markings
7. Always observe a bird first and then refer to your notes, as the bird may be gone when you look again.
8. Be prepared to wait a spell. Bird watching is not for the impatient.

A RECIPE FOR THE BIRDS

1. Cut a long length of yarn or ribbon and tie it around the top of a pine cone.
2. Mix 1/2 cup vegetable shortening (or lard) with 2-1/2 cups cornmeal (or oats) until well blended. Optional: add small pieces of dried fruit or chopped nuts.
3. Using a craft stick, apply the mixture to the pine cone. Make sure to press it in to all the little nooks and crannies!
4. Roll the pinecone in birdseed.
5. Hang the bird feeder on a tree and enjoy bird watching!

I AM a REBEKAH
I BELIEVE in the WATCHWORDS of OUR ORDER
FRIENDSHIP, LOVE AND TRUTH
I AM a REBEKAH

My motto for 2005-2006 is Serving to Serve Others

I respectfully remember the past and now recall the following:
 Founder of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows (1819)
 Thomas Wildey

From the Old Testament – Rebekah

Writer of the Rebekah Degree (1851) Schuyler Colfax

My parents the late Alfred and Edna Bortree and my late husband Arthur – all devoting many, many years carrying out the principles of our Order, starting with my father, an Odd Fellow in 1925.

Then in 2000, it was the President of the Rebekah Assembly Mary Leitzel who inspired and encouraged me to serve the Assembly of Pennsylvania.

It is with gratitude that I remember the past.

The present is for serving to serve others. There is a time for all things – a time for sorrow and a time for joy. Sorrow/disappointment about the decline in membership and number of active lodges but the joy of being here to move forward by providing the very best in quality of service. I stress the word quality. Traveling throughout the State, I have witnessed quality in action. May this value and objective continue. In accordance with my theme, Harmony in Nature, Music, and Rebekah Oddfellowship, I extend the hand of friendship, as symbolized by the pink rose of friendship, to grand Patriarch Craig Reinhart and to the Grand Master for the 2005-2006 James Blaney. Hymns "This Is My Father's World" and "In the Garden" echo the harmony in nature as does the songbird cardinal, my emblem. The cardinal can sing a variation of melodious songs.

The past, the present, and now for the future – projects which will have a positive impact on others for years to come are:

Financial support for Camp JRA located at Millville – a camp for children with arthritic diseases

Financial support for the United Nations Pilgrimage for youth of Pennsylvania, endeavoring to enhance their understanding and appreciation of our American heritage and to encourage youth to assume leadership roles in the spirit of truth and justice.

Monetary assistance to the Middletown and Orchard Manor Homes.

Tradition and harmony build unity. This thought will be heard in the song "Rebekah Love" to be sung by Sister Judy Lodwig, to be escorted by one of my officers, Ambassador of Good Will, Ellie Trulick, and by Brother Don Trulick of the Odd Fellows, Grand Encampment, and Rebekahs.

Fraternally,

Doris M. Goerlitz

Incoming President Rebekah Assembly of PA

ODD FELLOWS – MIDDLETOWN HOME

Residents at The Middletown Home celebrated "National Nursing Home Week." Farm Day, Gone Camping Day, Smile Day, Beach Part Day, and Music Appreciation Day were theme days for the week. Residents took a hands on approach, including posing for pictures and snacking no theme foods. Each year residents and staff will enjoy this celebration!

"For the Birds" was another event that was new to the residents. One of the birds was 63 years old! Residents held the birds, baby talked to them, and each received a picture posing with the birds sitting on their head and shoulders.

Residents look forward to next month's activities.

Fritz Gross adores a bird from the "For the Birds" bird show.

Kathy Flanigan warms herself by the fire!

MEETINGS ON DELTA QUEEN RECALL THE PAST

By Maj. Gen. (R) John A. Kunkleman, Past Department Commander

It's a SMALL, SMALL WORLD!

In June, Lady Reta and I took our 22nd cruise on the legendary Paddlewheel Steamboat DELTA QUEEN.

On this trip from New Orleans to Pensacola, FL, we had some very unusual meetings with people we had never met before.

One day at lunch a couple joined us and introduced themselves as the McCurleys from New Castle, PA.

I told them that a long time ago, in October 1939, I was a member of the Pennsylvania Future Farmers of America Band which was the official band for the National FFA Convention in Kansas City, MO. And, I said, our chaperone was Eli Wiggins from New Castle.

Raymond McCurley replied: "Eli Wiggins was a neighbor of ours and he was one of my high school teachers. And," he added, "my brother Willis played trombone in that band."

How do you top a meeting like that?

At the Steamboatin' Society party I mentioned we were from Fleetwood, PA. Mrs. Frank Collins Jr. of Manville, NJ, came over to us and said her husband was born in Hamburg, PA, but left there before high school. Frank then joined us.

He asked whether we knew any of the Freemans from Hamburg and Reta said "My mother was a Freeman."

"Did you know James and Annetta Freeman?" he said.

When Reta told him they were her uncle and aunt, Frank said: "They were my God parents."

But story doesn't end there. Frank said the couple they shared a table with for dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fetherolf, of California, but Ralph was born in Kempton, PA, and lived there prior to World War II. We met Ralph and he said he rode the Berksy Railroad to Slatinton to go to school and played in the Ringgold Band before leaving Berks County.

When I asked where he lives in California, he said a small town. Do you know where San Bernardino is?

Of course we do. Reta and I were married on an Army base just outside of San Bernardino.

Then Ralph mentioned San Pedro, CA, and I said I spent four weeks at Fort McArthur, at San Pedro, waiting for an assignment. He said he played in the Army band at Fort MacArthur. He said that was at the start of the war.

So I asked him whether he knew Floyd Cooper.

He gave me a shocked look and asked "You mean a clarinet player?" And when I said yes, he said he was our supply sergeant. Well Floyd Cooper was transferred from that band to the 768th AAF Band at Spokane, WA, where he served as first sergeant and I was the band clerk for 18 months.

Now that was enough eerie meetings to get the ghost of Capt. Mary Greene rattling her chains in the Betty Blake Lounge on the Delta Queen.

Many of you steamboaters may remember Maurice (Big Mo) Hardy of the dining room staff. You will be happy to know he had a knee replacement and is back on duty and doing well.

It's five years since that group of 42 from the Odd Fellows cruise from St. Louis to St. Paul. I think it is time to organize another such cruise.

On a recent steamboat cruise Lady Reta Kunkleman met Frank Collins of Manville, NJ. It turned out Frank, a native of Hamburg, PA, is a Godson of Reta's uncle and aunt, James and Annetta Freeman.

On a steam cruise Maj. Gen. (R) John Kunkleman, right, met Ralph Fetherolf of Hesperia, CA, a native of Kampton, PA. During World War II Ralph played in an Army band at Fort MacArthur, CA, with a Sgt. Floyd Cooper. Later Cooper was assigned to the 768th AAF Band in Spokane, WA, and served 18 months with Kunkleman.

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Lady Emily Rebekah Lodge #452 has been attempting to raise dollars for our United Nations Pilgrimage Fund for many years. We have held dinners with our brothers at State College Lodge #1032. We have held car washes, bake sales, Bingo games, candy sales, served lunches at Public Auctions. We have had booths at Nittany Mall for Bazaar Days selling crafts, baked goods, homemade fudge, etc. We have had a booth at the SADD fund raiser at Bald Eagle Area Joint High School selling baked goods and homemade candy, etc. All these fund raisers have helped us to send many students in the past.

BUT the problem is, the same people donate their time and money. Lady Emily is asking ALL members to send monetary donations. The money will be put into our UN Fund. The cost to send a student is now $995 basically $1000.

The Lodge has voted to request funds in this manner rather than the burden of dinners and baked goods being on the same people.

The UN Project is an excellent opportunity for any student 16 years or older with one year of high school left. Any members child, grandchild, niece or nephew that needs more information may contact Don Trulick at 814 383-4476 or Mae Judy at 814 383-2879. Please give generously.

Curve Baseball

Another good time was had by all that were there. To bad you didn't make it. We had a full bus and the food was good as usual. Best of all the Curve won the game in the last inning on a beautiful play at the plate. Runner scored from third on a fly ball to right field. Catcher got the throw but was blocking the plate. The runner went right into him and he couldn't hold the ball, Curve wins.

Counseling, Health promotion and education, plus many others. One of their neatest ventures is the Smile Mobile, dental service on the road. Their creed, "May we have eyes to see those who are rendered invisible and excluded, open arms and hearts to reach out and include them, healing hands to touch their lives with love, and in the process, heal ourselves."

UN Bus

Once again this year State College Lodge is hosting a dinner and breakfast for one of the UN Tour buses on its way home. The bus holds 55 people and we are opening an invitation to all who read this newsletter to join us. We would like to have 100 at this party. If you have never seen these kids on their way home you are in for a treat. They tell stories that will make you feel like a kid again wishing you could go on the tour. The date is July 18th. Dinner will be at approximately 6:00 PM. If you would like to come please call 814 237-1575, Lodge office or 814 237-3993, my home number and give us your name and how many are coming. Dinner will be a home style meal served in a buffet line. If a machine answers just leave the information on the recorder. Breakfast the next morning for the students (we are not expecting you from afar to stay overnight just to get breakfast) will be to keep them satisfied for the last leg of their trip home. From State College they head for Niagara Falls and the crossing into Canada.

Centre County Picnic

The picnic will held at Windmere Hall on July 27th. All Centre County Odd Fellow and Rebekah Lodges are invited. The meat and beverage are provided the rest is potluck, so bring something good.

Dinner Theater

Our next annual event will be our own type of dinner theater. We will have dinner at the newly renovated Kelly's Steak and Seafood in Boalsburg. We will then journey the mile or so to the Boal Barn for a performance of Kiss Me Kate. This takes place on Tuesday August 16. We have a few tickets left if you are interested. Call the same numbers for the bus tour dinner if you are interested. Tickets are $10.00 which includes dinner and the theater. Choices for dinner are pork, chicken, steak, or fetticini alfredo.

Living Legacy

Every year the "Head shed" comes out with the Living Legacy program. You have all heard about it. At State College Lodge we have done something about it and are very thankful that we have the location that allows us to do our part for the program. When we built our present Hall we put in some parking lot trees that we hoped would grow into a "Legacy". Boy have they grown.

Several years ago some of the native trees had aged to the point that they had to be taken down. So we negotiated with our neighbor behind the Hall to go together and plant Douglas Fir trees on our property line. They are also growing beautifully. We are good friends with our neighbors so we added a sidewalk and steps between us. On occasion they use our parking lot and on occasion we will do a luncheon for one of their clients. A beautiful scratch my back and I'll scratch yours situation..

To laugh often and love much; to win the respect of intelligent persons and the affection of children, to earn the approbation of honest critics; to appreciate beauty; to give of one's self, to leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition; to have played and laughed with enthusiasm and sung with exultation; to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived — that is to have succeeded. P.O.F. DAYS GONE BY75 YEARS AGO*(August 1930)*AMERICAN STAR LODGE, NO. 405

The Belmont Section of Fairmount Park was again the scene of one of those annual reunion of the members, their families, and friends of American Star Lodge No. 405, I.O.O.F., of Philadelphia, on Saturday, August 9th. It was the Annual Family Picnic at which the big market basket full of good eats was brought along. The Committee in charge provided the coffee, milk, and ice cream, with a full program of sports with a plentiful supply of prizes as the inducement.

The occasion was one full of enjoyment for all who were privileged to participate therein, especially the kiddies.

MERCER COUNTY ROUNDUP

The Mercer County Odd Fellows' Roundup at Greenville, on August 14th, was a grand success. More than 400 Odd Fellows from the various lodges of the county marched in a parade, led by the Boys Band of the Meadville Orphans' Home. The Shenango Valley Band, recently organized, were also in the parade and were highly complemented on their ability in handling their new instruments.

The Butler County boys were there and full of pep. They brought with them on a truck their famous "holstein Bull," which they use in their side degree. The Mercer County boys also had a real live Holstein bull, a camel, and a goat in the parade.

There were several floats, one from the Wayside Inn at Grove City, which was a grand representation of what the Odd Fellows are doing for the Brothers and Sisters in the eventime of life.

Several auto loads of 50-year veterans were in the front ranks.

After the parade all that could find seats (some as low as the floor), assembled in Alhambar Lodge Room, where a session of lodge was held and the monthly session of the Mercer County Past Grands' Association was held, and last but not least, the conferring of the Holstein Bull Degree by the Butler County degree team upon 139 candidates. There were visitors present from quite a few different counties. Grand Patriarch Mullen was there, staying over in Greenville for the Encampment meeting the following night. About $200 was realized, which was divided equally between the Wayside Inn at Grove City and the Orphans' Home at Meadville.

SERVICES AT MIDDLETOWN HOME

The Schuylkill County Past Grands' Association were sponsors for Divine Service held at the home for the Aged at Middletown on Sunday, August 31st.

Mineral Lodge, No. 285, of Saint Clair, had charge of the program. The Rev. Thomas D. Morris of the First Bethlehem Baptist Church, preached the sermon and Brother Grif Jones and family provided the special vocal numbers of the program. These famous singers are renowned in England, Wales and through Pennsylvania.

The Service was especially appropriate and was enjoyed by the large number privileged to be present.

25 YEARS AGO(August 1980)*EAST BRUNSWICK LODGE #802

Any of you brothers and families who missed the annual Family Picnic sponsored by East Brunswick Lodge #802 on Sunday, August 3rd, really missed a very enjoyable day and lots of good food, as well as the fun and fellowship.

Quite a number of the brothers of the lodge as well as some from the neighboring lodges in the area really worked hard all day to make sure that there was enough food for all. The menu consisted of barbecued chicken, corn on the cob, tossed salad, sausage, chicken corn noodle soup, ice cream covered with fresh sliced peaches, watermelon, cantaloupe, peanuts, and all of the soft drinks that you desired. Anyone that went away hungry had no one to blame but themselves.

For entertainment a number of folks played Volleyball, Tennis, as well as pitching horseshoes and quoits.

Please keep in mind that this is an annual affair which is held on the first Sunday in August, so, if you missed it this year, plan to attend next year. You'll be glad that you did, and the brothers of East Brunswick Lodge will be very happy to have you.

IN MEMORIAMJOHN C. SMITH*Alert Lodge No. 936*June 2, 2005

Brother John C. Smith, 94, of Punxsutawney, was initiated into Laurel Lodge No. 672 on April 7, 1947, where he was a Past Grand. He received the Grand Lodge Degree November 2, 1989; he was also a P.D.D.G.M. Brother Smith became a member of Alert Lodge No. 936 on February 4, 1988, by consolidation, where he was a member at the time of his passing.

Brother Smith was also a member of the United Commercial Travelers Groundhog Council #612. He was a Member of the Grace United Methodist Church, having served on the administrative council and the pastor/parish relations committee.

He is the last surviving member of his family – the only survivors were a step-daughter and two step-sons.

Interment was in the Calvary cemetery, Punxsutawney.

75TH ANNIVERSARY

Elsie Rebekah Lodge #304 celebrated their 75th Anniversary at the Heritage Village, Springfield, PA. They were instituted April 26, 1905. Sixty-five members attended this function.

To surprise our 60-year member, we presented Laura Waltz with a cymbidium corsage.

We were entertained by the Delco Chapter of the Barber Shop Quartet Assn. To the delight of our ladies, our brothers brought enough yellow and red roses for all lady guests.

The original minutes of the very first meeting were read and placed in the front of our minute book.

Mabel May, PDDP, was the Mistress of Ceremonies, and Marion Johnson, N.G. gave the Address of Welcome.

It was a lovely affair and received many compliments. The centerpieces were beautiful geranium plants. All the brother members were present and one 60-year Sister, Lola Copple, was unable to attend and was missed by all. Our District Deputy, Susan McKeown, was also present.

ODD FELLOW – REBEKAH EDUCATION FUND

The Odd Fellow-Rebekah Education Fund provides educational awards to descendants of members of our Order. The number varies each year, due to income from interests and contributions from lodges and individuals.

The Education Fund is a joint effort, started in 1993. It was a project of Past Grand Master Edward Binkley. It has grown and prospered through the years. This year, 2005, twenty-six awards of $500.00 were given.

The rules have basically remained the same as proposed by PGM Binkley and committee. The original rules may be found in the Session Journal of 1993.

The eligibility is limited to the families of Odd Fellow and Rebekahs. Those who are eligible are: the sons and daughters, grandsons and granddaughters, step children, step grand children, and of course members of the Order. Nieces and nephews are not eligible.

Odd Fellows and Rebekahs may nominate more than one child or grandchild. They may nominate in more than one year. The recipient of the award may apply more than one year.

The only exception to being nominated by a family member is this: if a member of the Order becomes deceased and has children of school age, his/her lodge may, as a lodge, nominate the child or children. (It may be considered as an obligation.)

Those eligible are nominated on a form provided by Grand Lodge in the November mailing from that office. After the committee receives the form, an application is sent to the nominee in the following mail. From there the student then has the responsibility to see that the application is completed and mailed by the deadline.

The day for the nomination form to be received is March 5 of the year in which the award is given. The applications must be postmarked on or before March 15.

After the applications are received, they are copied and mailed to the committee members. The committee reads and rates the application according to selected areas and scale. They then meet in April. The date varies according to the date of Easter. The committee compares and selects a number of awardees. The number is determined by the amount of finances available. A number of "alternates" is selected to receive awards if by June 30 money is available. They are rated numerically in the order they may receive an award.

The applications are rated on completeness and neatness of the answers. Apparent financial need is considered. As a part of the application, an essay is required. The subject of the essay is given in the application. Most applicants exceed the length and content minimum. The essay is required to be typed.

Scores on the ACT and SAT as well as grades from the past semester are considered and evaluated. The SAT scores will be on a new scale for 2006, as the test has been revised. Students who took the test prior to 2005 will have a different score. The committee will note it.

Community, school, and other activities such as work record are considered to insure the student is a well rounded individual. Also considered is the time between the application is mailed to the student and the time it is received by the committee.

As in all times when choices have to be made, individuals on the committee may differ. It is difficult to make the selections. We have a large number of applicants each year, most are excellent. The selections are based on our honest opinions.

The committee consists of three people: two Odd Fellow, appointed for two years, alternately and one Rebekah.

The funds come from investments set aside for that purpose. Also, contributions from the Homes, Lodges, and individuals may be made for the current years funds. The more received from all sources, the more students can be given help.

Notes received from recipients as of June 19, 2005

They have been edited where necessary for brevity. As some as addressed to me, as chairman, some to the committee, and some to Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, I have left off the salutations.

Zachariah Wilkerson:

Thank you for selecting me as a recipient of the IOOF Scholarship. I am honored to be one of those selected. The money received will aid me immensely. I wish to thank all of you and the rest of the Order for providing me with this opportunity.

Summer Hammoudeh:

I want to thank you for the scholarship you have granted for my college tuition. The scholarship has helped in giving me one of the best possible gifts I could receive, a college education. I have learned that every single penny helps, and such a large scholarship means more to me than most people will ever know. So I wish to thank you again for such a great opportunity and share in my future.

Kelly Kindig:

I wish to express my sincere gratitude for this scholarship. The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs are an incredible group of people. My Grandfather, Roy Kindig, has been an active member in Boyerstown Lodge, so the Odd Fellows have been a steady influence in my life. I truly appreciate the assistance that you and your fellow Odd Fellows and Rebekahs have been so gracious to grant me. Thank you again.

Amy Reneer:

Thank You for choosing me as a recipient for your award. I have just finished my Junior year and am ready to begin my internship at a hospital near my school in NC. I will be finishing my schooling and go for my masters degree in speech therapy.

Shelby Harrison:

I am honored to have been selected to receive the Penna. Odd Fellow-Rebekah Scholarship for 2005. The award will help me pay for my education at Albright College. Thank you again for this opportunity to receive the scholarship.

Lee Blaney:

I would like to start by thanking you for your immense generosity in arranging opportunities by which students can receive awards toward the furthering of their knowledge and careers. More specifically, I would like to thank you for recognizing me as one worthy of your scholarship. I am humbled by your generosity. One more thank you for your generosity (greatly edited).

ODD FELLOWS TEMPLE

Sisters, Brothers, Honored Guests, Ladies and Gentleman:

I would like to open this gathering with the Invocation. God of the Universe, each of our own faith, each in our own way. Let us bow our heads and pray (moment of silence). God Bless America and the World. Amen.

It is a pleasure to see you all here, on this Festive occasion. Remembering this building that was dedicated May 21, 1895, 120 years to the day as of last Saturday as the "GRAND LODGE TEMPLE" of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Pennsylvania.

Bob Gruber, PDDGM (Chairman).

nia. Hopefully soon to be listed as a Historical Building in the City of Philadelphia.

As we all know, "Odd Fellowship" started in America in 1819 in Baltimore, Maryland by Grand Sire Thomas Widley (1782-1861). Meeting to socialize, members also pooled their resources to help each other in times of need and for Burial fees. That such a varied assortment of men would organize for benevolent purposes was considered "ODD" for the times, and from that our name originated.

At this time it gives me pleasure to introduce Mr. Mike Berman, a friend and maybe a Brother, he has a few words to say. Mr. Berman, the owner of this building spoke on the possible "Historical" outcome of the building. Mr. Berman donated the Plaque that He and Bob Gruber unveiled. There was much joy and photographs taken.

The Dignitaries were then introduced. I hope this is a new trend. Beside (not behind) every man stands a women, my wife Eleanor.

Houssler, P.G. Brother Rich Meager, N.G. of Walker Lodge 306,

P.G. Fin. Sect. of Walker Lodge, Brother Russ Lurwick who on June 19th, 17 days from now will be 94. He has 12 family members from daughter Jane Danahill down to granddaughters and grandsons in Odd Fellowship, also 75 years an Odd Fellow (he missed the dedication of this building by only 26 years). Past Grand Master Mr. Odd Fellow Gil Rand, Jim Blackwell, Rich Asspiall, Chuck Devlin and Joe O'Rouch, Commander of Crestlawn American Legion Post 832 color guard, my personal friend Charles Nebel and his wife Betty, Dieter Andrea.

Dave Hart, sect., P.G. Fred Roth, P.G. Charles Shorten, and P.G. Bob Smedley.

If all the women, yes the men too, want to see something nice today, look in a mirror.

At this time Grand Master Tom McHugh gave a beautiful enlightenment on "ODD FELLOWSHIP."

The Benediction,

God of the Universe, Each in our own faith, Each in our own Way, Let us Bow our head and pray (moment of silence). God Bless our Women and Men in the Service and God Bless America. Amen.
