FROM THE DESK OF THE GRAND SECRETARY

Dear Readers,

This month I would like to talk to you about your magazine. If you notice, on the front cover there is only December under "PLACES TO GO - PEOPLE TO SEE." If you want your dates listed you have to send them in. And don't forget to let the Secretary of the Planning Board know about your activities. Also you will see on the front cover the new web site for the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania.

I would like to point out we are always in need of articles to put in the magazine. This month it was a little slow. When you send your articles in, remember they need to be in before the 5th of the month before the month you want them in. Also remember things for in the magazine are not too old; it might be too old for you, but for others it could be interesting. Also pictures are always welcome with your articles.

Fraternally,
William L. Locke, Grand Secretary

FOUR SVHS STUDENTS CHOSEN FOR UNITED NATIONS YOUTH PILGRIMAGE

Each summer for 50 years, the Independent Order of Odd Fellows (I.O.O.F.) and Rebekahs have sponsored all-expense paid, educational, two-week trips that bring together high school students from around the world to study and learn about the United Nations. High school students 16 to 17 years of age with at least one year of high school remaining are invited to apply for the trip by submitting an essay on a topic related to the United Nations. Applicants are judged on leadership, character, interest in world affairs, concern for community welfare, and general fitness.

Through fundraising efforts and donations, local lodges of I.O.O.F. and Rebekahs fund the entire cost of the trip, including bus transportation, meals, lodging, and sightseeing and provide each student with spending money. This year, the bus departed from Middletown, PA., for a two-week tour that included Ontario, Canada, with excursions to Canadian Parliament buildings and Niagara Falls, and to New York City with a behind-the-scenes tour of the United Nations and visits to the Empire State Building, Rockefeller Center, St. Patrick's Cathedral, the Statue of Liberty, Ground Zero, and a Broadway play. The trip culminated in Philadelphia, PA, with visits to Independence Hall, the Liberty Bell, the Betsy Ross' house, and other historical buildings. During each pilgrimage, students compete for a $1,000 cash scholarship by giving speeches on a question affecting the world.

SV students Annie Cieniewicz, Wendi Eaton, Lindsey Minguez, and Katie Scheidt participated in this year's trip July 9-20. They extend their appreciation to Mr. Nevin W. Adams, local chairperson for the United Nations pilgrimage, and to the members of the local I.O.O.F. and Rebekahs for providing this wonderful opportunity to establish new friendships with teens from other communities and to gain a different insight and perspective into America's place in the global community.

Harvest Festival Day was celebrated on September 22nd. A great time was had by all! Staff dressing in farm attire; some even dressed as farm animals! Staff and residents danced to the Bunny Hop, the Chicken Dance, and the Hokey Pokey.

Dietary and Housekeeping staff take a proud picture after dancing for residents. Great Job!

Residents look forward to a Fall Foliage van trip scheduled on October 11th, as well as Fall Craft activities. Halloween is approaching and another special event day is scheduled for October 28th.

Happy Autumn!

I.O.O.F. BUILDING RESTORED – HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF

The Sterling, Wayne County, PA I.O.O.F. Hall was built in 1887 to provide a permanent home for Sterling Lodge No. 959. The Lodge was instituted in September 187 and for several years the meetings were held on the second floor of the village store, until the building was completed.

The first Noble Grand was a Methodist minister by name Daniel Bortree, an ancestor of the current Rebekah Assembly President, Doris M. Bortree Goerlitz. In February 1925, Alfred D. Bortree, father of Doris, was initiated into Sterling Lodge No. 959 and remained a member until his death in 1962. He served as Noble Grand and was on the installing team for the various I.O.O.F. Lodges through Wayne County.

In 1972, in the above pictured building, Doris M. Bortree Goerlitz was initiated as a member of Lady Hamlin, which in 1980 consolidated with Ladies of Paupack No. 559 in Newfoundland.

Unfortunately, the I.O.O.F. Lodge No. 959 became defunct and the building fell into disrepair as shown above. Through a long, traumatic process, significant items were removed – a portion of our village history lost, however not totally.

History is repeating itself! The building has been restored through the efforts of many, who themselves were part of the Rebekah-Oddfellowship or whose parents were active members of the Order.

The Historians of Sterling Township became owners of the building through negotiations with Grand Lodge. During the approximately ten years of transition, restoration has become a "labor of love," with amazing results – a stable building, exterior restored, interior refurbished, and memorabilia, including donated pictures, articles, etc. of I.O.O.F., for display on second and first floors. The first open house was held in June 2005 with about 100 attendees; and your current Rebekah Assembly President, on September 24, 2005, sold raffle tickets to H.O.S.T. members for the support of her projects – Camp JRA and the United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth.

In the village of Sterling Rebekah-Oddfellowship is remembered and in another manner being promoted. HISTORY DOES REPEAT ITSELF!

UNCERTAINTY, UNEXPECTED MAKE STEAMBOATING EXCITING

By Maj. Gen. (R) John A. Kunkleman, Past Department Commander

Do you remember that old TV commercial that said "It's not nice to fool Mother Nature."

Well Mother Nature, using the name Katrina, blew into the Gulf Coast and changed the steamboating plans of Brig. Gen. Leon S. Stamm, Department Commander, and Sister Laudine; and Lady Reta and I.

We were scheduled to cruise on the Steamboat Delta Queen for eight nights from Nashville, TN to Mobile, AL, starting September 3.

At first, we were told the trip was a go. Then we were told we would go by boat to Demopolis, AL. And the day before our departure we were informed we would be going from Nashville to Cincinnati, OH. Of course, we had flight reservations to return home from Mobile but we were assured all changes would be handled by the Steamboat company.

So we flew to Nashville on Sept. 3, were greeted at the airport and escorted to the bus for the trip to the boat. The bus headed for Nashville, and then went around Nashville, and pretty soon Nashville was far behind us. We got to the board at Clarksville, TN, which was to be our first stop. We spent a night there and then got back on schedule the second day. Construction at Nashville prevented the boat from getting to the port there.

We are happy to report that crew members who live in New Orleans told us their families had all been evacuated and were safe. They of course had no idea of the fate of their homes.

From the dining room staff, Lionel (Choo Choo) Palmer was scheduled to be married the weekend the storm hit, with Lord Byron Lambert as best man. The ceremony was postponed.

And speaking of the dining room, old friend Lloyd Camel is back as maitre'd, after several years' absence.

Sister Avalion Bossler's favorite caliope player, Jazzou Jones, was on board as the steamboating director.

And a very attractive addition to the crew is one of the pilots, Capt. Lisa Streckfus. Her family has been in the riverboat business for more than a century and she is a graduate of King's Point academy with a marine engineering degree.

We hasten to add that all of the other lady crew members are also very attractive. They include Hotel Manager Amy Wilkinson, Chief Purser Teresa Ebeling, Second Mate Angela Shackelford, Riverlorian "Toots" Maloy and entertainer Annie Lebeaux.

Incidentally, Annie tells me that due to a switch in the boat schedule she was unable to produce the shows at Hershey Park this summer but she will be back doing her thing in Pennsylvania on her weeks off from the boat next year.

By Thursday of our cruise, all of our air travel for the return home had been scheduled by the boat company without our having to lift a finger.

Then on Friday Capt. Mike Williams announced that we were ahead of schedule so he decided to make an unplanned stop in Louisville, KY. And that was the start of my most unusual experience in 23 steamboat trips.

I walked out on the wharf, ahead of the boat, to get a shot of the boat and the city's skyline. The sun was in my lens. Over there was a pillar which I could use to shade the lens.

As I approached the pillar I stepped in something slick on the wharf and went flying into the Ohio River. I didn't even touch the wharf on my way in.

When I surfaced I was at least ten feet off the wharf so I swam over but was unable to life myself and my sodden clothing up onto the wharf. Reta ran over to the boat calling for help.

First Mate Buford Wilkinson and a couple of deck hands pulled me up onto the wharf and determined that I was unhurt. Then they had a good laugh.

Flying into the river, going to the bottom, coming up and swimming to the wharf was all accomplished without losing my cap, or glasses, or money in my money clip and change purse or my card case including several family photos. My camera was also still around my neck. However, that has been replaced.

And of course, that evening at dinner I get a lecture from Capt. Mike about swimming being prohibited at that point.

Sorry to report - no one got a photo of my special show.

Next month we will tell you about our Odd Fellow moments in Madison, Ind.

Capt. Lisa Streckfus, pilot on the Steamboat Delta Queen, welcomes Leon S. Stamm, left, Department Commander, and John A. Kunkleman, past department commander.

VETERANS DAY NOVEMBER 11

P.O.F. DAYS GONE BY

75 YEARS AGO

(November 1930)

DISTRICT MEETING AT POINT MARION

The seventh annual district meeting of the Rebekah Lodges on Fayette County was held on Monday, November 3, in the hall of Magdalene Lodge No. 535, Point Marion, under the direction of the District Deputy Presidents of the Northern and Southern Districts and Mary E. Brown, President of the Rebekah Assembly. The various lodges of the district creditably exemplified the various items of Rebekah work and questions were answered by the Assembly President, who also conducted a Special Session of Assembly for the admission of Past Grands. A dinner was served at 6 in the evening and during the exercises a collection was taken for the Rebekah Homes.

SCHUYLKILL AT MINERSVILLE

The November meeting of the Schuylkill County Past Grands' Association was held at Social Lodge No. 56 at Minersville, on Saturday, November 22. There was again a large attendance and a very good program, with doughnuts and cider for a fitting climax to this Thanksgiving time meeting. Arrangements were made for the Christmas tree to be placed in the Sunbury Home Christmas morning. Good talks were given by Brothers Romberger, Girardville; Hass, of Port Carbon, and Grand Guardian Stevenson.

NEW LODGE INSTITUTED AT ANSONVILLE

With State President Mary E. Brown in charge, assisted by Martha R. Parry, Treasurer, as Secretary, Lady Stone Rebekah Lodge, No. 498, was instituted at Ansonville on Saturday, November 22.

The afternoon session was taken up in institution work and in receiving twenty-five members in the new lodge. After adjournment a chicken and noodle supper was served to some seventy-five members and friends. In the evening the degree work was in charge

FROM THE MOUTHS OF BABES

One Sunday morning, the pastor noticed little Alex standing in the foyer of the church, staring up at a large plaque. It was covered with names and had small American flags mounted on either side. The seven year old had been staring at the plaque for some time, so the pastor walked up to Alex, stood beside the little boy, and said quietly, "Good morning, Alex."

"Good morning, Pastor," he replied, still focused on the plaque. "Pastor, what is this?" little Alex asked.

The pastor said, "Well, son, it's a memorial to all the young men and women who died in the service." Soberly, they just stood together, staring at the large plaque.

Finally, little Alex's voice, barely audible and trembling with fear, asked, "Which service was it, the 9:45 or the 11:15?"

A Sunday school teacher asked her children, as they were on the way to church service, "And why is it necessary to be quiet in church?" One bright little girl replied, "Because people are sleeping."

of Mrs. Leola Roach, of Houtzdale, District Deputy of Clearfield County, and her staff, who thoroughly understood their part of the work.

Members of the Rebekah Branch from Akron, Ohio., Pittsburgh, Blairsville, Clearfield, and Coalport were present to witness and take part in the occasion. After adjournment, a lunch was served by the members of Ansonville Lodge No. 1005.

25 YEARS AGO

(November 1980)

18 NEW MEMBERS

In the history of Jordan Lodge #192, Schnecksville, PA, never did we think this would be possible. Every year we take in 1, 2 maybe 3 new members. This year we are proud to say, we took in 18 new members, most of whom have all 3 Degrees. Of these new members, we took 11 candidates to the Rally in Grantville at the Treadway Inn in April. It was disappointing when they did not put on the third degree, so Jordan Lodge #192 decided to put on the Third Degree themselves. It took a little extra effort to get it done. Now we say, who said it couldn't be done.

Sorry to say, we lost six Odd Fellows by death this year. May God bless their souls.

September was a little slow unless you count the Official Visit of Doris Goelitz, President of the Rebekah Assembly and her staff. It was tricky getting pictures but with a little imagination I was able to put together a couple of shots that almost show the Court of Honor that Lady Emily setup for her entrance.

Her program is good and well worth our support. One of her projects is support for Camp JRA. And what a great one, Camp JRA has come a long way since its beginnings and will continue to grow with our support.

What is a month without a birthday celebration. Three carloads of Rebekahs and Odd Fellows motored to the Steak Buffet at Duncansville on the 24th to celebrate the Birthdays of Helen Spackman and Art Moyer. Helen got many cards and flowers. Art was presented with balloons and cards. Good food and good fellowship was in abundance. No pictures this time; I couldn't make it. Darn it, missed all that good steak.

Work continues around our Hall. The retaining walls in the back are finished and look great. We still have a little to do with paint and handrails. The next time you visit check it out. Also talked to the sign man last week and am looking forward to some sketches for a big facelift.

It is that time of the year, installation, the Men will do it on Oct 3 and the Ladies on Oct 10. This will be a cooperative thing with several other Lodges participating.

1032 will put on the initiatory degree for a new member on Oct 17, again several other lodges will assist in the process.

Most of you have seen or heard about the GOD billboards. I think they are great and will be using them from time to time to wake us up. Heaven knows we need waking up.

Let's meet at my house Sunday
 Before the game.
