ORCHARD MANOR

Hundred of dollars worth of donated items were on display for the Chinese Auction during Orchard Manor's 14th Annual Picnic. Brother Willis Robinson is checking out the gifts, however, it was Brother Harold McQuiston whose name was drawn more than once, for prizes that included restaurant gift certificates and a massage!

Brother Art Moyer, State College Lodge #1032, poses with Diane Robinson, Administrator, as he presents three new wheelchairs for Orchard Manor. State College Lodge donated two chairs and one chair was donated by Bellefonte Encampment #72. Luckily, Brother Art delivered the chairs during the annual picnic, and he was able to join in the festivities! Almost 400 people attended the picnic, which was once again deemed a huge success!

MIDDLETOWN HOME PICNIC

How many Odd Fellows does it take to change a roll of Paper Towels????

These three took a little while to figure it out: Grand Master Jim Blaney and his assistants: Grand Warden Stu Brenne-man and District Deputy Ralph Quay!!!

Past Grand Master, Bob Morningstar, giving Grand Chaplain Wally Shakley instructions of some matter. Looking on and listening are Brothers: Charlie Danahiel, Grand Master Jim Blaney, and Ken Lupold.

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

ROGER CALHOON

Roger was recently spotlighted for his efforts in raising money for the Area M Special Olympics. Roger, his wife Yvonne and daughter Melissa participated in the Area M Walk-a-thon. This event was a fundraiser for Area M. Athletes. His daughter Melissa participates in Special Olympics through Lower Dauphin High School.

Roger and his family participated in the recent Special Olympic Walk on May 7, 2005. They walked the full five miles from City Island by the river and back. He raised $128 and his wife raised $105 for this special event. Overall the Walkathon brought in $17,633.50 and 1/0 of the money was raised by five people! The Calhoon family helped make the Special Olympics Walkathon a huge success. Last year this fundraiser helped two athletes go to the Special Olympic Event in Japan. Roger also wanted to thank the Mechanical Ops Department for their support for this event.

FROM THE DESK OF THE GRAND SECRETARY

Dear Readers,

Everyone talks membership saying we need to get in new members. When I was Grand Master that was what I pushed. Everyone complains about the dues being too much. I tied the two together and pointed out if you doubled your membership you could cut your dues in half. We all know these facts and when we talk about it, it is like the preacher preaching to the choir. There is only one way to get members – “ask someone to join.” Do you know if everyone got a new member we would double in membership? No one can do it for you. Not the Grand Lodge or the Membership Committee – you must do it yourself or it will not get done. If everyone that reads this would get someone to join, that would be a start. So it is all up to you.

Fraternally,
William L. Locke, Grand Secretary

NOTES FROM THE DESK OF THE P.R.A. AND TRAVELS ON THE “REBEKAH TRAIL”

Several weeks have passed since the President of the Rebekah Assembly was installed at the Holiday Inn in Grantville. The impressive ceremony was conducted by Past Presidents Mary C. Leitzel and Carolyn Barger.

Since that time, travels along the “Rebekah Trail” have strengthened my belief that the quality of Rebekah-Odd Fellowship strongly exists in the Jurisdiction of Pennsylvania. As stated when installed on the evening of June 29, 2005, there is quality in our endeavors to serve others. However, there is a definite disappointment about the decrease in membership numbers. QUALITY and QUANTITY. Quoting from a recent pamphlet received, the writer states, “We would love to have a larger group involved, but at this time we don’t. So, our focus is on providing the very best quality program we can offer.” There is, indeed, merit in that viewpoint. A trite expression comes to mind and it is that “the glass is half full not half empty.”

At this time your P.R.A. wishes to emphasize a key word, Communication. To promote an awareness in our communities of the Order’s objectives and specific goals, a 2006 calendar has been designed with thanks to volunteer photographers and involvement of the Membership Committee. Soon the calendars will be ready for distribution and sale. Let’s get these pictures and important words out to businesses, offices, and other organizations. Pictures can speak loudly!

Travels on the “Rebekah Trail” brought to mind my motto, “Serving to Serve Others,” when in attendance at Orchard Manor Picnic, Middletown Home Day, Thalia R.L. #116 involved at Camp JRA, and the United Nations Pilgrimage Committee, “Mom” and “Pop” serving our youth (53). Also, we are family fraternity – Knoebels Fun Day and the Tri-County Picnic as well as community participation at food stands during Parade Day in Montrose.

Your P.R.A. is looking forward to meeting many at our Jurisdictional events and lodge Official Visits, District Meetings and Schools of Instruction. Continue to commit time and effort to strengthen Rebekah-Odd Fellowship.

Doris M. Goerlitz

ODD FELLOWS ADVANCE TO LEAGUE PLAYOFF SEMI-FINALS

by Bruce Morgan

Record Express Sports Editor

LANCASTER—Skylar Gingrich and Andy Thompson delivered key RBI base hits and lefty Mike Freeman took care of the rest.

As a result, the Lititz Odd Fellows are headed to the Lancaster County Midget Baseball School League playoff semi-finals.

After a convincing opening-round 12-2 win over Columbia, the Odd Fellows (12-6) broke a 1-1 tie with a four-run sixth inning against host St. Leo last Friday night and held on to win 5-1 in the playoff quarterfinals.

Jordan Weaver got the sixth-inning rally started off of St. Leo pitcher Mike Giurlando with a flare single to left, Freeman beat out a highhop infield single, and Jason Griffith worked a one-out walk to load the bases. Then Gingrich followed with a sharply-hit RBI single to left to plate the go-ahead run, and Thompson smoked a three-run triple into the left-center field gap to put Lititz up 5-1.

From there, Freeman retired St. Leo in order in the sixth and seventh innings to nail down the victory. The Lititz southpaw K'd five, walked four, scattered three hits, and allowed no earned runs in the complete-game victory.

Plus, Freeman went 2-for-4 at the plate in the No. 2 hole to help his own cause. Griffith also had a big day by going 2-for-2 with a walk and two runs scored.

The Odd Fellows took a 1-0 lead in the top of the second inning, as Griffith stroked a one-out double and scored when Thompson reached base on an error.

St. Leo tied it in the fourth, as Tommy Eck reached on a fielder's choice and later scored on an error. The hosts appeared to be back in business when Nate Schmalhofer roped a leadoff shot to center leading off the fifth. But Lititz center fielder Zacy Snyder quickly tracked the ball down and nailed Schmalhofer at second base with a perfect throw.

It turned out to be St. Leo's final base runner of the night.

Last Wednesday, July 13, Justin King went 3-for-4 to lead the Odd Fellows' 13-hit attack off of two Columbia pitchers in Lititz's 12-2 first-round drubbing.

Freeman, Gingrich, and Thompson all added two hits apiece, and Freeman and Thompson combined to drive in five runs.

Freeman's RBI triple in the first highlighted a five-run first inning. The Odd Fellows also scored five times in the fifth inning to invoke the 10-run mercy rule.

Griffith was the beneficiary of Lititz's offensive onslaught, as he struck out eight, walked three, and yielded just four hits and one earned run to pick up the win.

P.O.F. DAYS GONE BY

75 YEARS AGO(September 1930)*MONONGAHELA CITY

Nucleus Lodge No. 377 of this city has joined the Grand Master in his work of arousing the members of this state from their sleep. It is still early morning in the campaign, and the early bird catches the worm; so let's go. At the meeting of September 25th, The Noble Grand-elect had slips of paper numbered from one up to as many as were in attendance, one and two marked C, and each brother drew a number from the hat and the even numbers were to be opposed by the odds; all late comers to be added as they attend. We hope by this plan to have each brother do something to boost his side. The lodge is also arranging to hold a midnight celebration on New Year's Eve with a midnight banquet and entertainment, and using this as an added inducement to prospects. William Rooney and Joseph W. Evans are captains of the teams.

PHILADELPHIA

The membership club of Kenderton Lodge No. 266, held its annual outing on Saturday, September 20th, at Schwenksville, with a large attendance of members who engaged in the various sports and games provided by the committee in charge of arrangements. The principal event was a baseball game between teams captained by Past Grands Walter S. Snyder and James W. Edwards, which proved very exciting and resulted in a victory for the Snyder team by the close score of 11 to 10. A feature of the game was the home run by Past Grand George H. Lohr, who swatted the ball in a manner that would have done credit to Babe Ruth, while the running and diving to bases of Brother Charles Wilson, of Miners Lodge No. 20, was a reminder of Ty Cobb in his palmy days. Others engaged in Quoit pitching and only gave up the sport when darkness prevented their seeing the hob, while those not so strenuously inclined sought the card tables for a quite game of pinochle. At the close of the day a bountiful dinner was served at the Spring Mountain House, to which all did full justice and then returned to their homes in the early evening with pleasant memories of a most enjoyable outing.

THANK YOU

Mr. Dorchester and other members -

Hello! I would like to take a moment to thank you again for your generous scholarship. Recently I have been accepted to an internship program in Washington, D.C. for the fall 2005 semester. I hope to be working among the nation's best men and women in Congress. I am very excited and nervous all at once!

Then I will return to Clark University in Worcester, Mass. to continue my studies in American government and law.

I wish all you and your families a wonderful summer! And thank you from the bottom of my heart.

Sincerely,
Bethany S. Williard

Now that the vacation days are ended the members are resuming their activities in the lodge. The degree team is undergoing reorganization, quite a number of the younger members having accepted parts in the several degrees. Candidates are being proposed for initiation and the outlook is promising for the ensuing term.

WILKES-BARRE

Sons of Liberty Lodge No. 1103, has inaugurated a series of local events in their hall on the hill. They have selected the 2nd and 4th Tuesday evenings of each month for the affair. The members, their wives, daughters, and friends, all attend. The evenings are spent in the playing of games, cards, etc.; refreshments are served; a program of entertainment is also arranged. The events are becoming popular. They are intended to increase interest in the lodge and stimulate attendance.

25 YEARS AGO(September 1980)*CAROLINE TROXELL REBEKAH LODGE NO. 576

The Caroline Troxell Rebekah Lodge No. 576 of Glasgow initiated two members and elected officers at its regular meeting on Friday evening, September 19, at the Allemans I.O.O.F. Lodge No. 900 Hall in Glasgow.

Mrs. Leota Kelly and Mrs. Mildred McClinskey, both of Fallentimber, were inducted in ritualistic form by Noble Grand Connie Fishel, along with other lodge members.

They were assisted at the impressive ceremony by Noble Grand Lottie Greenawalt, Coalport, and her co-officers of the Ellen Wilson Rebekah Lodge No. 566 of Coalport.

Re-elected to their posts were Mrs. Connie Fishel, Blandburg, Noble Grand; Mrs. Nine Garman, Glasgow, Secretary; and Mrs. Anna Binnix, Frugality, Treasurer. Mrs. Joan Dotts, Irvona, was elected Vice Grand (succeeding Mrs. Dora Estep), and Mrs. Madge Fishel, Blandburg, Trustee.

In addition to Noble Grand Connie Fishel, Lodge No. 576 had these other participants in the initiation ceremony: Mrs. Marguerite Boeman and Mrs. Genevieve Hommer, both of Glasgow; Mrs. Joan Dotts, Irvona; Mrs. Iva Lovell, Mrs. Madge Fishel, and Mrs. Marguerite Thomas, all of Blandburg.

Noble Grand Lottie Greenawalt and these co-officers of Lodge No. 566 assisted with the initiation: Mrs. Twila Oshall and Mrs. Dessie Good, both of Flinton; Mrs. Alma, Glassport, R.D., and Mrs. Jane F. Smith, Coalport.

Fred R. Korman, Fallentimber, R.D., also participated in the initiation and commended the two lodges on their teamwork. Mr. Korman is a Past Grand Master and Past Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania I.O.O.F.

Among the guests was Rebekah Lodge No. 566 Vice Grand Ruth S. Beals, Coalport.

A reception in the form of a covered dish luncheon in honor of the new members was presented by the host lodge in its social rooms.

Lodge No. 576 has its regular meetings the first and third Friday of each month. The next regular meeting is October 3, 7:30 P.M. at the Allemans I.O.O.F. Lodge No. 900 Hall in Glasgow.

Thelma's Birthday

Boy, was she surprised, I mean 80 is a great number to reach, but the look on her face was a real memory to save for a long time. Friends and relatives from all over were there to greet and hug Thelma and wish her the best.

She is still talking about it and will be for some time to come. Thelma Gingery, long time Lady Emily Rebekah. Happy Birthday!!

UN Tour Bus

It is that time of the year again. Time to feed some hungry teenagers that were finishing their trip and on their way home. They hit town on July 18 and arrived at Windmere Hall an hour early for dinner. What do you do with a bus load of teenagers that are hungry and have to wait an hour to eat. It wasn't bad, they found a ball and entertained themselves until supper was ready. As luck would have it the ball ended broken. So on the way to the hotel after dinner they found someplace open and bought another one.

They autographed it and presented it to us Tuesday morning after breakfast. One of our visiting dignitaries, Wally Shakely and his wife presented the "Mom" and "Pop" with our fearless leaders pins. A good crowd of helpers were on hand to make the work easy. Ellie and Don Trulick, Edith Stine, Linda Confer, Laura and Bob Homan, Art Moyer, Phyllis and Wally Shakley, Andy Lower, Mae Judy, Mackie Levine and Diane and Ken Kulp. Thanks everyone it was a blast as always.

Blood Drive

July 11 we did another drive for ARC. It was not as good as others, but, as one of the nurses said its 14 pints we didn't have.

End of Time

We lost two Brothers in the last few weeks. Their time with us ended, Garth Homan on June 22 and Everett Cox on July 17. Garth was a member of our Lodge for many years. Everett was better known among Odd Fellow circles for his work with Cal Conklin when Cal was Grand Master of Pennsylvania. Everett was an Odd Fellow for more than 65 years and did every job in the Lodge. He also served as Grand Marshall when he worked with Cal. He was a member of Lady Emily Rebekah Lodge 452 and an associate member of Port Matilda Lodge 733. Needless to say a lot of people will miss him and his generosity. He loved everyone.

Quit planning how you are going to use what you know, learn, or possess. God's gifts just are; be grateful and their purpose will be clear.

Count your blessings, one at a time and slowly.

THANK YOU

Camp JRA is but a memory for the campers. I hear they had a wonderful time with the sundaes on Sunday. Look for an article and some pictures from the Thalia & Thistle Lodge members that have made this a much requested tradition on Camp JRA Opening Day. Those smiling faces really make the day.

The Arthritis Committee Project has been focused on helping the Western Chapter with its PACE Programs and providing "camperships" for children in their area to enable them to attend Camp JRA and have some of those "once-in-a-lifetime" experiences we've been telling you about for the last few years. Here's some excerpts from a letter from the Western Chapter President to update you on their PACE Program activities.

"On behalf of the Arthritis Foundation, Western Pennsylv-nia Chapter, I want to thank you again for the generous gift of $2000 your organization provided our Chapter to implement PACE (People with Arthritis Can Exercise) classes in underserved areas including Butler and Armstrong Counties We were unable to locate a hospital or assisted living facility that was interested in offering a PACE Program We moved to focusing our efforts in Butler County and found a Slippery Rock Student who is currently studying Exercise Science at the University She was sent to a PACE leadership training course to become fully certified. The class was scheduled to run from May 10, 2005 to June 28, 2005 at the Aebersold Student Recreation Center at Slippery Rock University 12 participants registered They were provided with "Exercise and Your Arthritis" brochures and PACE Basic Participant Manuals that provide the class members with PACE exercises they can do in the comfort of their home at their leisure Class members enjoyed the instructor and the class helped most of them to mitigate their arthritis pain Post class comments included: the instructor was knowledgeable and I enjoyed the interaction with other classmates; The class helped me to exercise with less pain. . . ."

Knowing that you have helped someone should give you a great feeling of satisfaction. Please continue your monetary donations to help the people in Pennsylvania suffering from arthritis. Also, when you hear of an opportunity to volunteer your services to help your local chapter or branch with one of their programs, please make that extra effort to give of your time and talents. The PA Grand Master will be sending letters to Lodges in areas where we know of Arthritis Foundation activities—a golf outing, a Jingle Bell Run/Walk—where you can help. Please -- VOLUNTEER!

Ongoing Odd Fellow and Rebekah support of Arthritis Foundation Programs and Camp JRA is essential. Please help. Send your donations to help with the PACE or Camp JRA projects to Nevin Adams, Treasurer, 951 Shoemakersville Road, Shoemakersville, PA 19555-9010.
