ODD FELLOWS ORPHANS HOME FUND HOSTS EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF FOUNDATION AIMED AT PREVENTING SUDDEN DEATH IN YOUNG PEOPLE

No doubt many of us have read in the news about the sudden deaths of young people, sometimes while engaged in sports activities. Although many times the causes are not clear, evidence indicates that some young people are succumbing to a heart arrhythmia known as Long or Prolonged QT Syndrome. A recent resolution passed by the Pennsylvania House designates the last week of January as Long QT Awareness Week.

The Sudden Arrhythmia Death Syndromes (SADS) Foundation, in Salt Lake City, Utah, has as its mission to increase general awareness, family support, education, and advocacy for research regarding Long QT. The group is making a difference in the general awareness of and prevention of deaths due to Long QT. Last year Brother Byron Goldstein of Variety 37 Lodge brought the SADS Foundation's good work to the attention of Odd Fellows Orphans Home Fund and the fund made a donation to help support the Foundation's work. During Pennsylvania Long QT Awareness Week, SADS Foundation Executive Director Alice Lara visited Pennsylvania to work with Abington School District in a pilot program to increase awareness among parents, teachers, and school nurses. This program may become a model for other school districts across the country. While she was in Pennsylvania, she met with representatives of the Orphans Home to let them know how appreciative the Foundation is of their support.

Long QT affects more children than childhood leukemia; it has been estimated that 250 to 600 young people die each month in the US due to Long QT. The diagnosis is made from an ECG (also known as an EKG) that has been read by a physician. Usually a series of ECGs will enable a doctor to diagnose LQTS in individuals where the condition is suspect. Treatment can be very effective in the vast majority of those affected. Medications called beta-blockers are effective in about 90% of patients.

More information can be found at the SADS website, www.sads.org.

FROM THE DESK OF THE GRAND SECRETARY

Dear Readers,

I received a letter the other day asking why I had not put an obituary in for a Brother. The short reason is nobody let me know about it. Where I get them to put in is from Brothers that send in an obituary from their paper when one of their Brothers dies. I do not get them from the annual reports. To get the information I need the obituary. I try to put any news from Lodges that I get.

I would rather have good news. Anything that is happening to the Brothers and Sisters or Lodges that would be of interest can help to make the magazine more interesting.

By now the Lodges that meet every week should have new Officers. I hope all of them have a plan to make their Lodge better and have a program in place for the term. Let everyone get behind their Officers and help all you can. Don't sit back and say that won't work, because it just might, so give it a chance.

All the new officers out there in the Lodges, I wish for you the very best for your term.

Fraternally,

William L. Locke, Grand Secretary

This will be our 82nd annual tournament to be held on May 5th, 6th, and 7th of 2006. We are respectfully asking for any help in sponsorship for our event as we are a non-profit organization. Sponsorships can come in the form of a small prize or a monetary donation, with checks made out to IOOF bowling tournament. For a $50.00 donation you will receive a 1/2 page ad in our booklet that everyone participating in the tournament will receive. A full page ad can be purchased for $75.00. The tournament draws people from all parts of the country, but mostly from the mid-west and the tri-state area. Thank you for your kind attention to my request.

I.O.O.F. Lodge #348

Dear Brother and Sisters,

Time is upon us once again for the bowling tournament. This year it will be hosted by Clover Lodge #348 in Ambridge, Pennsylvania. The dates for the tournament are May 6th and 7th, 2006. On the following page you will find the tournament application and times that we are bowling. There is only one session for Saturday at 1 PM; this will be the team event with the annual meeting to immediately follow. There are two sessions on Sunday; these will be used for Doubles and Singles events. Please specify which session you would like to participate, the first session is at 10 AM and the second is at 2 PM. The tournament will be held at Baden Bowl in Baden, Pennsylvania. The address is 346 Ohio River Blvd., Baden, PA 15005. The phone number is 724-869-2122. We have secured lodging at a great rate at the Comfort Inn in Cranberry, PA which is about 10 miles from where we are bowling. They have also sponsored us for this event and as this is a better rate than others are offering. I hope that you will participate and help one of our sponsors. A brochure will be in your packet with all the information you will need. They have a block of rooms set aside for the tournament, but those rooms are only guaranteed until April 6th – at that time they will be offered to the general public. If you decide to stay at the Comfort Inn (724-772-2700), just let them know that you are with the tournament. Your rate should be $69.99 per night plus tax. Please have all completed applications back to me by April 7th, 2006. My address is:

Troy R. Gaona
709 Maplewood Avenue
Ambridge, PA 15003
Attn: Bowling Tournament

We also have a dinner and golf tournament planned – let me know with your application if you plan to attend dinner, which will be Friday at 7 PM at our lodge in Ambridge. There will be no charge for the dinner. If you plan to participate in the golf outing, please email me at trg22@comcast.net with how many golfers you will have and an email I can contact you with. The outing will be held Friday around 11 AM depending upon the number of foursomes we will have. Once I have an idea of who is golfing, I will email you with directions and tee times. We will leave directions at the Comfort Inn for those who are staying there to get to the lodge and the golf course. Anyone who decides not to stay there, please call me at 724-266-4843 and I will give you directions from where you are staying. ODD FELLOWS – MIDDLETOWN HOME

Residents at The Middletown Home enjoyed participating in many activities including a Tailgating/Super Bowl Party. They enjoyed typical superbowl snacks as well as a football field cake with a large chocolate football sitting on the 50-yard line. Many rooted for their team until the end.

Residents look forward to special events in each upcoming month. The St. Valentine's Ball will be very special with five married couples having a blessing said upon them by two pastors. See you at the Ball!

THANK YOU

My Dear Brothers & Sisters:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank each and every one of you for your many, many "Get Well" and "Thinking of You" cards that you sent to me and my husband Jack during his long illness. And at the time of his death, you were so kind in sending "Cards of Sympathy" to me and my family. The phone calls, prayers and to those who were able to attend the viewing and funeral, I thank you from the bottom of my heart.

Jack lost his long battle with his disease and its side effects. However before he passed, he made the courageous decision to not take any more Chemo Therapy and a couple of weeks later after having been told that he was not making any blood cells of his own, it was his decision to not take any more transfusions as well. He died a very brave man! He wasn't afraid to die, he made his peace with HIS GOD and was ready for HIM to take him by the hand. His passing has left a very large void in all our lives, but we know that he is in a far better place and without pain. Once again, thank you all for your cards, prayers and kind words. Your thoughtfulness will always be remembered.

Barbara J. McClellan*

STILL SERVING – AFTER ALL THESE YEARS

by Glenn L. Campbell

Alma Lodge #523 has many veterans among its members. These veterans proudly served in our Nation's Armed Forces and many served during war times, including WWII, Korea, and Viet Nam. But would you believe we have two Members that served during WWII that are still serving today?

Brothers Walter J. (Petie) McClelland and Benjamin P. (Benny) Arellano served in the U.S. Army and the U.S. Marine Corps, respectively, during WWII (Benny got in just at the end of the war but stayed in the Marine Reserve and was called to active duty again during the Korean War), and, yes, today, at age 87 and 77, also respectively, still serve our Country and their fellow veterans and their families.

Petie McClelland was born in 1918 in the Johnstown area. In 1934 his town of Hastings formed what they called the Juvenile Band. Times were tough and there was no high school band and most of the kids couldn't afford to buy an instrument anyhow. Local business people from the community donated money to equip the Juvenile Band and a local musician taught interested kids how to play individually and in a band. Petie started on alto horn and switched to trumpet a couple years later.

"Petie" McClelland (L) and "Benny" Arellano rehearse "Taps" before a funeral.

During this time Petie continued to play in local bands and orchestras, and formed his own group with his late wife, Dorothy, who was excellent on the keyboard. Dorothy passed away in 1996.

Benny Arellano was born in 1928 in Johnstown and was just old enough to enlist in the Marines when he graduated high school in 1946, which he promptly did. They didn't need Ben overseas in 1946 but he had learned to play the trumpet in junior high and played in the Johnstown High School marching band. Although officially a Marine Rifleman, his musical talents were put to use and Ben was used in various Marine Corps bands.

Benny remained in the Marine Corps Reserve after completing his enlistment, so, when the Korean War broke out, he was once again called to active duty. He stayed stateside during his war and was used mainly as a musician. When hostilities ceased he was again discharged from active duty with the rank of sergeant.

Ben then continued his education by attending Indiana State Teachers College (now Indiana University of Pennsylvania) under the G.I. Bill and majoring in music education. He earned his bachelor's degree at IUP then a master's degree at Duquesne University. Ben became a music teacher at various schools and continued his teaching career until his retirement in 1982.

During Bennie's teaching career he also played in local groups. Sometimes he was called upon to play in bands backing up celebrities performing in the area. Between his Marine Corps band experiences and his local work, Ben has played for Bob Hope, Englebert Humperdink, Tiny Tim, Phyllis Diller, Myron Floren, Georgie Jessel, Cab Calloway, Bobby Vinton, The Ice Capades, and others.

Now, Petie and Ben serve once more, in uniform and as musicians. They both belong to VFW Post 155 and both are on the Post Ritual Team. They play Taps at the funerals of brother veterans who are passing away at ever increasing numbers. Petie said that between July of 2004 and July of 2005 he played Taps at 150 funerals. Sometimes they do two a day.

Walter J. "Petie" McClelland in position to play the "Echoing Taps" for the graveside service of a fallen veteran.

Often Ben and Petie work together, playing the enchanting Echoing Taps to honor a fallen veteran. Ben, who lost his right leg just below the knee in 2002 due to diabetes, and who is still perfecting the use of his artificial leg, will select a position he can get to the proper distance from the gravesite and from Petie, who often plays near the tent. On cue they play Taps, with the echo effect provided by the one farther from the grave, producing a sound, and a feeling in the family of the deceased – like nothing else on Earth.

Petie and Ben do this in all kinds of weather and never turn down a request to play Taps at a funeral unless they already are committed to another funeral at the same time.

They wear a VFW blazer and cap and play in 95-degree heat or on a zero degree-day with the wind howling. Playing in the rain or snow is common for these two dedicated musicians. Petie also plays Taps at other official functions, such as a Memorial Day service, whenever he's requested.

Walter J. (Petie) McClelland (L) and Benjamin P. (Benny) Arellano, in uniform and ready to perform Taps at another veteran's funeral.

Benjamin P. "Benny" Arellano, in his helper chair due to the missing right leg, plays the "Echoing Taps" for a veteran's funeral.

NOTES FROM THE DESK OF THE P.R.A. AND TRAVELS ON THE "REBEKAH TRAIL"

Continuing with thoughts on leadership as suggested in the previous issue, the "bottom line" is always YOU. You strength of a Rebekah Lodge depends on YOU as you attend/lead in a specific capacity or "wearing various hats" e.g. faithful attendee, elected officer, appointed officer, trustee, committee chairperson, committee member, representative or delegate. Your presence and participation/work can strengthen the "grass roots"/individual lodge as well as the entire Order. The individual lodges should provide for a firm foundation. Your financial contributions and fund-raising projects provide for services to communities, and projects undertaken statewide and nationwide. YOU are the individual that can help make Rebekah-Oddfellowship a stronger and more purposeful organization. Serving to Serve Others.

Strada; Doris M. Goerlitz, extending "Rebekah Love" to all #559 Sisters for your dedicated work during my year as Rebekah Assembly President. Also to Margaret Fowler (absent) Our thoughts of sympathy were with her.

This is why YOU are so important. Being an example in your lodge, Rebekah Assembly, community is a role that you can exercise in a positive manner on a daily basis.

Have you ever noticed how one example – good or bad – can prompt others to follow? Do exercise the "power of positive thinking" followed by positive actions.

Travels on the "Rebekah Trail" has taken members to Shamokin, the Pocono Mts./Mountainhome, Grove City, Middletown, and Dover, Delaware. When viewing the related pictures, one can see illustrations of strengthening local lodges, participating at one of the Homes, attending a Rebekah Assembly Executive Board Meeting, and interest/support by attending an Annual Session at Dover, Delaware. YOU can be one of the vital keys to strengthening Rebekah-Oddfellowship.

P.O.F. DAYS GONE BY

75 YEARS AGO

(April 1931)

SUCCESSFUL MEETING AT ELLWOOD CITY

The fifth district meeting was held in the hall of Glen Park Lodge, No. 142, on Saturday, April 25, and was the most successful of the series so far. Being just one day away from the anniversary date of the organization of Odd Fellowship in America, that occasion was likewise celebrated. C.W. Vaughn, of New Castle, made a very fitting address.

Great interest centered around the conferring of the Second Degree by the staff of Zeigler Lodge, No. 1039, of Butler, consisting of thirty well trained men. The floor work was quite different from anything ever witnessed here before and was declared unusually good. The lodge orchestra assisted and gave excellent support to the team.

Butler County was represented by these lodges: Zeigler Lodge No. 1039; Zelenople Lodge, No. 1166, of Zelenople; Evens City Lodge, No. 817, Evans City; and Rustic Lodge, No. 882, of Prospect.

Lawrence County was represented by: New Castle Lodge, No. 195, New Castle; Wampum Lodge, No. 865, Wampum; Rock Point Lodge, No. 846, Clinton; Hickory Lodge, No. 1199, Bessemer; Enon Lodge, No. 916, Enon Valley; Plain Grove Lodge, No. 1047, Plain Grove; and Glen Park Lodge, No. 142, Ellwood City. Start Lodge, of Canton, Ohio, was also represented.

Interesting remarks were made by Brothers Swartzlander, of Butler; Martin, Boyer and Degree Master Murray, of Butler; Montgomery, of Bessemer; Kennedy and Lewis, of Zelenople; Best, of Enon Valley; McCoombs, of Plain Grove; Cameron, of Wampum; Blyth, of Rock Point; R.D. Turner, of Glen Park; and several from Ellwood city, as well as Brother Galbreth from Ohio. A Lunch and smoker closed the meeting.

MINSTREL SHOW AT MT. WOLF

Interest in the Past Grands, Association of York is keeping at a high standard and will continue to keep up if the type of programs being furnished are maintained. In recent months this Association has had large numbers at all its meetings and the entertainment provided has been satisfying enough that the members want more. Around 300 persons attended the April meeting with Mt. Wolf Lodge, No. 1196, on Friday, April 24.

The Rev. Paul Kingsport, of Hershey, a member of Mt. Wolf Lodge, gave the address of the evening, and the members of Mt. Wolf Lodge entertained with a minstrel show. It proved a very pleasant occasion for all who attended.

BOYERTOWN

The Installing staff of Merchants Lodge No. 238, of Philadelphia, came all the way from the City of Brotherly Love on Tuesday, April 7, and in a very efficient manner installed the officers of Boyertown Lodge, No. 708. Thirty members of the lodge accompanied the team to this Berks County Lodge and helped make the occasion an outstanding event.

ENTERTAIN WITH SKETCH

Members of Vashti Rebekah Lodge, No. 190, of New Hope, Bucks County, presented a sketch entitled "A Good Girl in the Kitchen," in their lodge room on Tuesday, April 21. Seven persons were included in the cast. A large delegation from Lily Rebekah Lodge, No. 366, of Bristol, attended this meeting and heartily enjoyed the show.

The Valentine Party

First time at this kind of picture show. All of these folk plus some who were in the dark thoroughly enjoyed the party we had on February 11 at the Autoport in State College. We decided to go out for a change of scenery and everyone agreed. The food was excellent and was devoured hastily curious as to what the next course would be. The pineapple sauce on the ham was excellent and the coconut cream pie was very tasty. The only damper on the good time was a phone call towards the end of dinner. Mary E Walker, PP was called to the phone and heard that her husband had died. We pray for Mary and her family. Needless to say the party ended on a sad note. God Bless you, Mary.

Happy 92, Faye

Another of our Grand Ladies of Lady Emily Rebekah #452 celebrated her 92nd birthday on February 19th. There must have been at least 150 people attending. They kept putting out more tables and chairs until the room was full to the corners. The cake was good and was barely enough to feed everyone who was there.

Just up the road from my home is a field with two horses in it. From a distance, each looks like every other horse. But if one stops the car, or is walking by, one will notice something quite amazing. Looking into the eyes of one horse will disclose that he is blind. His owner has chosen not to have him put down, but has made a good home for him. This alone is amazing. Listening, one will hear the sound of a bell. Looking around for the source of the sound, one will see that it comes from the smaller horse in the field. Attached to her bridle is a small bell. It lets her blind friend know where she is, so he can follow her. As one stands and watches these two friends, one sees how she is always checking on him, and that he will listen for her bell and then slowly walk to where she is, trusting that she will not lead him astray. Like the owner of these two horses, God does not throw us away just because we are not perfect or because we have problems or challenges. He watches over us and even brings others into our lives to help us when we are in need. Sometimes we are the blind horse being guided by God and those whom he places in our lives. Other times we are the guide horse, helping others see God. Good friends are like stars...You don't always see them, but you know they are always there.
