TOP LEADERS OF OUR ORDER

GRAND MASTER'S COLUMN

Greetings. You will be reading this column after my installation and inaugural address. I am writing this before I deliver that speech. I may have changed some of my plans and ideas at session, but publishing deadlines force me to write this well in advance. Keep this in mind when reading future columns. I will probably be writing about Valentine's Day white eating my Christmas leftovers. I will be writing two columns each month. Look toward the back of every issue of this magazine for my recipe column. As a hobby, I do a little cooking and baking. I spent five years going to school part-time to earn associate degrees in culinary arts and baking and pastries. I did a split internship, partly in a catering department and partly in a restaurant. I will try to "spice" up the Order in more ways than one.

Like most folks, I get attracted to catchy phrases and buzz words. I will probably use some of these each month as I talk to you about our great Order and what we can do to preserve and protect it. I want to focus part of my column today on chain reactions. At its most elementary level, a chain reaction occurs when one event causes another to happen.

At some time soon you will or have noticed a fireworks display for the Fourth of July. This is a chain reaction in the electrons of a chemical substance. It is an explosion with beautiful visual effects. The chain reaction I want to start with is enthusiasm for our Order. The person I want to start with, dear reader, is you. I want you to explode with enthusiasm for our Order and light up those around you.

Some time within the next few months, either one of my District Deputy Grand Masters or I will visit your lodge. I hope you will be there. At that lodge meeting, those present will be given a DVD on Odd Fellowship, an invitation and an application. I want you to watch the DVD yourself, first. Then I want you to give the DVD, invitation and application to someone you believe would make a good Odd Fellow. After about a week, I want you to check to see if you caught that person's interest and were able to get him to join. If possible, the DVD should travel around, catching the interest of as many as possible. Ask the Grand Secretary or me for more invitations or applications, the supply will never end as long as I own a photocopier.

In the coming months, I will try to talk you through the process of recruiting a new member. It's easy to find the kind of person to ask, just look in the mirror and find someone like the person looking back at you. If we keep working, we will get new members. Don't get discouraged. If you have to ask three people to get one bite, that is a wonderful average. Think of baseball. A player who gets a hit one out of every three times at bat is a superstar, making millions of dollars and getting in the line for an all-star game. If you have to make a number of attempts before you get a hit, you are still a great player. You are on my team. I am your new coach. I will not let you fail.

Comments and questions are always welcomed by the Grand Master. You can email him at jcupp@verizon.net or mail him at 2 West Main Street, Suite 517, Uniontown, PA 15401-3403.

FROM THE DESK OF THE GRAND SECRETARY

Dear Readers,

As I write this, we are into June, and busy getting ready for Session. By the time you receive this magazine, Session will be over and the decisions will have been made. Some will like what happened, others will not. If you lodge had a representative at session, you were involved in the decisions. If you did not have a representative, it is too late now to have a voice in the decision making process.

Now is the time to get started in building up your lodge membership, sign up new members. Find out why lost members, and do everything you can to get them signed up.

Now that summer is here, have some work parties to clean and repair your lodge. Make it someplace the members will want to come on, and bring other people to.

*Fraternally,
William L. Locke, Grand Secretary*

ODD FELLOWS – MIDDLETOWN HOME

Glad Tidings Church Clowns present humorous skits for the residents.

BECKY'S BACKYARD MOCK PIE USES CRACKERS INSTEAD OF APPLES

1. It's easy to make. You will need:
Pastry for a double-crust 9-inch pie
2 cups water
1-1/4 cups sugar
2 teaspoons cream of tartar
20 single-stack, square soda (saltine) crackers (regular, salted)
Butter 1/4 to 1/2 stick (for dotting)
Ground cinnamon or cinnamon sugar (for sprinkling)
Preheat the oven to 375 F. Line the bottom of a 9-inch pie pan with pastry. In a pot, boil water, sugar and cream of tartar, stirring until all of the sugar is dissolved. Add the whole crackers (do not break up) and boil ONLY 1 minute. Spoon the mixture gently into the pie shell, dot the top with butter and sprinkle on the cinnamon to taste. Now, cover the pie with the top crust and cut several vents. Bake in the preheated oven for 35 minutes. Let the pie cook completely so that it becomes firm before cutting the first slice.
(It can be made without a top crust and it looks and tastes like apple pie.)
2. Coat a flat potato masher with cooking spray, and you can press crispy rice cereal treats into a pan with no mess. Spray the pan, too!
3. When taking a dish to a dinner, remove the hot/cold pad from the casserole carrier and place it under the dish to serve. It keeps the casserole hotter or the salad colder during serving time.
4. Dipping ice cream at a party is always so messy and time-consuming. Therefore, before a party place single dips of ice cream in paper cupcake liners and pop them back in to the freezer until they're ready to serve.

On May 15-19, National Nursing Home Week was celebrated at The Middletown Home. Employees were recognized for jobs well done and residents enjoyed many special events throughout the week. Special Events included Country Line Dancing, County Fair Day, Relaxation Night, and an "Iron Scoop" Contest. The residents and staff enjoyed cotton candy, popcorn, and hot dogs. Some residents enjoyed face painting and caricaturing. There was endless chatter in the lobby of The Home.

Shane Schillaci from Channel 21 came to the home prior to Nursing Home Week. He gave a weather presentation and interacted with residents and staff. Shane gave out "Channel 21" mugs and thermometers. He was very interesting and good looking too!

Residents look forward to next month's activities!

MEN HAVE FOND MEMORIES OF ORPHANAGE

They star in documentary about site

By Karen Blackledge, The Daily Item

DEWART – Bob Betzer remembers baking bread and desserts and eating his share of cookies.

He and Bob Jacobs worked in the bakery of the International Order of Odd Fellows Orphanage, near Sunbury. Mr. Jacobs spent 10 years there and Mr. Betzer lived there eight years.

The two were filmed in a documentary touring the grounds recently. Dewart postmaster Dave Brown made the approximately two-hour documentary because he's afraid the property, owned by Youth Challenge, may end up being developed. He filmed the men reminiscing as they walked through the buildings.

Mr. Betzer, of East Buffalo Township, near Lewisburg, and Mr. Jacobs, a Watsonstown area resident, have fond memories of ice skating, sledding and skiing on the grounds and setting traps for skunks, muskrat, opossums and weasels on the complex as well as on nearby farmland. They earned spending money by sending the hides to Sears.

"The mailman didn't want to haul hides in a package that smelled, so we put perfume on the package," Mr. Betzer said.

They recalled being initiated as little boys going into the big boys area. "The older boys who were bullies put us in the dryer," Mr. Betzer said of spinning around in the institution dryer.

When they lived there, about 100 kids were in the orphanage.

Mr. Jacobs ended up there at age 8 after his dad died. "Back in the Depression, it was hard for women to make a living," he said of his mother. He and his youngest brother, Dalphon, were sent to the orphanage. Mr. Jacobs lived there from 1936-46.

Mr. Betzer arrived at age 10 after his dad died in 1935. "We didn't have Social Security and all the stuff we have today. My father was an Odd Fellow and I was eligible to go," he said.

Both men's mothers visited them. They went home for a two-week vacation every summer.

While the two lived in different dorms, they worked together on the complex.

"The orphanage taught us Christian principles. We had church every Sunday afternoon when preachers came there," Mr. Jacobs said. Mr. Betzer remembers the Gospel Four group singing the song, "The Jerico Road," which became a favorite of his.

They said the superintendent, matrons and house mothers were good to them.

When they were disciplined, they said they deserved it. "There were too many kids not to have discipline," Mr. Jacobs said. They recalled a punishment where they had to sit on a bench.

One time older bullies told Mr. Betzer and another boy to pick cherries. "The superintendent told us not to pick them from that particular tree, and the superintendent caught us. As we were coming down, we saw him break off a switch from the tree, and when we got down, we got switched. You couldn't win on that deal," he said.

They worked on the truck patch, whitewashed trees and used a reel-push mower.

In the bakery, they mixed up dough and kneaded it for bread and rolls. "On Saturday after the oven cooled down, we made cakes and cookies. Boy, I ate the cookies," Mr. Betzer said.

After the bakery closed, Mr. Jacobs went to work on the farm. "We had milk machines by that time," said Mr. Jacobs, who did his share of "shovel and fork work" to clean up after the cows.

Besides chores, kids were responsible for keeping their areas clean. They had to make their beds and mop the stairways, hallways and playrooms.

On weekends, they went to town to see westerns such as those starring Tom Mix. "We got to go to football games and sporting events. We had some good football players from the orphanage who played for the Sunbury Owls," Mr. Jacobs said.

The two men, who have remained friends for 60+ years, have visited the orphanage in past years. "It's really changed. Everything has changed," Mr. Jacobs said.

They recently got permission to walk the trails they had known so well. "We tried to find the Lonesome Pine Trail, but we couldn't because it was all grown up," Mr. Betzer said. "We walked about four hours that day. I slept good that night."

After graduating from Sunbury High School, the two ended up in the Army during World War II – Mr. Betzer in Europe and Mr. Jacobs during the occupation of Japan.

Mr. Jacobs said living in an orphanage got them used to Army barracks life. "We could hear guys crying because they were homesick. To me, it was like being in the orphanage," he said.

After the Army, Mr. Jacobs, 77, farmed, worked at a steel plant, for a trucking company and retired in 1990 from the Warrior Run School District, where he worked in maintenance and as a bus driver.

Mr. Betzer, 80, worked for Pennsylvania House and then Young Door Co. as night supervisor, retiring in 1986.

Mr. Jacobs jokes he started his own orphanage with six sons and three daughters, 24 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. His wife, Lorraine, died in December 2003. "That's 56 years of marriage. It's still hard to say," his voice cracking.

Mr. Betzer and his wife, Janet, have two daughters and a son, nine grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

During the filming of the documentary, Mr. Brown learned a lot about the history of the orphanage buildings. "The Odd Fellows would donate money to help kids, even in the worst of times, so they could eat and have a place to live. I thought that was very heartwarming," he said.

He plans to show the documentary at the orphanage reunion at 1 p.m. Sept. 4 in the Hotel Edison.

P.O.F. DAYS GONE BY75 YEARS AGO*(July 1931)*PICNIC AT PERKASIE

On Saturday, July 11th, Odd Fellows, their families, and friends turned out in large number at Manlo Park, Perkasio, to hold the seventh annual picnic of the Third District of Montgomery County. After a week of almost incessant rain the day proved an ideal one with 100% of sunshine, tempered with cooling breezes.

The residents of the Philadelphia Home Orphans were the guests of the outing, arriving by buses in the morning and returning in the evening, tired but happy.

The afternoon was given over to various games and sports, terminating with a twilight baseball game. Guests of honor were G. Will Henry, of Harrisburg, and Riley Shope, Past President of the Past Grands' Association of Southern Dauphin County, both of whom spoke to an interested audience. J.Y. Loux and Samuel S. Bowen, P.G.P., were present and invited the group to the Willow Grove Outing.

Music for the occasion was furnished by the Boys' Band of the Souderton High School.

HOW TO GET A GOOD ATTENDANCE ON A WARM NIGHT

Celestia Rebekah Lodge No. 80, of Montoursville, held their July birthday party on Tuesday afternoon, July 28th, in the form of a picnic on the lawn at the home of Mrs. John A. Turk. Tables were set under the trees and a fine picnic supper was served at 6 o'clock, which everyone enjoyed. Later the members attended lodge session in a body, and needless to say, there was a fine turnout for a very warm evening. About forty guests were present.

YOUNGSVILLE

The members of Youngsville Lodge No. 500, felt distinctly honored at the regular meeting of the lodge on Friday, July 17th, when there were present three veteran Brothers who were initiated into the lodge in the following order: M.D. Whitney, P.G., June 4, 1870; W.Ed. Marst, P.G.M. July 13, 1872; M.C. Gray, P.G. May 5, 1877. The combined years of membership of these three Brothers in Odd Fellowship is 174.

Each of the veterans gave an interesting talk on the changes they have seen since they were initiated into the Order so many years ago. There were also present at this meeting, three other members with 117 years of membership, Brothers C.K. Hanyen, P.G.; C.W. Schmell, P.G.; and J. E. Whitmore, P.G., who were all admitted into the lodge in 1892.

BRISTOL

Hopkins Lodge No. 87 continues to win fame in the field of sports, especially baseball. During the past month a number of local twilight games have been played with Hopkins coming out victorious.

On Saturday afternoon, July 18th, the Brothers of Mystic Lodge No. 270 came to Bristol to play Hopkins. Reamer and Cook pitched for Mystic and Heiser was catcher, and for Hopkins Paul pitched and Bruce was catcher. The score was Hopkins, 8; Mystic, 1. A return game is to be played at Holmesburg but the date has not yet been fixed.

25 YEARS AGO(July 1981)*THIRD GENERATION INITIATED

Lady of the Springs Rebekah Lodge No. 295, of Cambridge Springs conferred the Rebekah Degree on a class of candidates recently. One of the new sisters was Carolyn Glenn, whose mother, Beverly Hunter and grandmother, Josephine Leonhart are both loyal members and Past Noble Grands of the Lodge.

On July 14th, I visited Lebanon Lodge #121 and was happy to see my good friend PGM Ray Himmelberger out of the Hospital and looking fine. After the meeting we had a couple games of dart baseball.

July 10th, Lititz Lodge #1050 had their annual family picnic and everyone had a good time and plenty to eat. About 40 members and their families were there.

July 19th, my wife Marjorie and I attended home coming day at the Odd Fellows Home at Middletown. The weather was fine and we had a very good time.

July 24th, I visited Brady Lodge #116 in Muncy and was glad to see old friends again.

WHO IS TO BLAME?By Angelo D. Molandra

We read in the papers and hear on the aid of killing and stealing and crime everywhere. We sigh and say, as we notice the trend, "This young generation . . . Where will it all end? But can we be sure that it's their fault alone? Are we less guilty, who place in their way too many things that lead them astray: Too much money, Too much idle time, Too many movies to passion and crime. Too many books not fit to read, Too much evil in what they hear said. Too many children encouraged to roam, Too many parents who won't stay at home. Kid's don't make the movies, they don't write the books; They don't paint gay pictures of gangsters and crooks. They don't make the liquor, they don't run the bars; They don't make the laws, and they don't make the cars. They don't peddle the drugs that muddle the brain; That's done by older folks – greedy for gain. Delinquent teenagers – oh, how we condemn For the sins of the nation, and blame it on them. By the laws of the blameless, the Saviour made known; Who is there among us to cast a first stone? For in so many cases – it's said but it's true – The title "Delinquent" fits older folks, too.

Memorial day

This day as no other is special to each one of us. Not in the same way probably but still special. Almost everybody has someone who has served in some capacity to make our country a better place. Granted the most significant and thought of most at this time, are those who have served our country. In recent times this service has become much more noticeable because of the involvement of so many of our National Guard and Reserves. But let us stop and think a minute about all the others who have made an impact on our lives as well as our country. I am referring to teachers, pastors, aunts and uncles as well as parents, brothers and sisters, grandparents, and how about the old man or woman who is always at church, or the lady down the street who you see at the store that stops you and says "how are you doing?" They listen and offer encouragement to help you along the way. Don't you feel good when someone is interested enough to care about you and don't you feel like you should do just a little better so that what you say is the best it can be, to paraphrase the Army. Isn't it great to think of Memorial Day as a time to reflect on what has made this country great. Of course those who have given that last full measure of devotion, (President Lincoln), are the reason that our nation is what it is. A free nation. But stop a minute, how about men like my father who never wanted to be anything more than a country preacher, to help his people in their daily lives, or my uncle who tried so hard to grow the best peaches in Bald Eagle valley, or my wife who has been at my side for so many years to make sure that we are what we should be. So on this Memorial Day let's stop and remember and be grateful for all those who have served in various ways to make this "Nation under God" the best place on earth.

GRAND MASTER'S RECIPE COLUMN

July 2006

I have one icing I use for most cakes. It can be tinted easily using Wilton food coloring, available at most Wal-Mart's. It can be flavored with almond, peppermint or some other flavor then vanilla. You can turn it into chocolate using cocoa to add color and flavor and Karo to thin it back down. Here's the recipe:

Buttercream 2

1/4 pound margarine (1 stick)
3/8 cup hot milk
1 2-lb bag of powdered sugar
1-1/2 cups shortening

Sift powdered sugar. Heat milk, do not boil. Add butter (or margarine) to milk, melt slightly. Add milk to powdered sugar and mix 1-1/2 minutes or until mixture comes together. Add shortening and mix with paddle to smooth consistency. Add flavoring (1 tbsp. vanilla). Remove paddle and whip on high with wire whip for 10 minutes.

My favorite cake is Red Devil's food, the above icing works quite well on it.

Waldorf (Red Devil's Food) Cake

Action	8" or 9" rounds (2)	10" rounds (2)
Cream:	1/2 cup Crisco 1-1/2 cups white sugar	3/4 cup Crisco 2-1/4 cups white sugar
Add:	2 eggs and white from a third egg and beat on medium	4 eggs and beat on medium
Make a paste from	2 oz red food coloring 2 tblsp cocoa	3 oz red food coloring 3 tblsp cocoa

Mix well and add to the above mixture:

8" or 9" rounds (2)	10" rounds (2)
---------------------	----------------

Sift together:	1-1/2 cups cake flour	3-3/4 cups cake flour
	1 tsp baking soda	1-1/2 tsp baking soda
	1 tsp salt	1-1/2 tsp salt
	1 cup buttermilk	1-1/2 cup buttermilk
	1 tsp vanilla	1-1/2 tsp vanilla
	1 tblsp vinegar	1-1/2 tblsp vinegar
	1 tblsp vegetable oil	1-1/2 tblsp vegetable oil

Bake in pans that are greased and floured for 35 minutes at 350°, more or less. The cake should be springy to the touch when done. If you use a toothpick, the cake may be overdone when the toothpick comes out dry. This cake is easy to overbake.

FROM GRANDMA'S KITCHEN

Coney Island Sauce (for hot dogs)

1 lb ground beef
1 clove garlic, minced
1 cup water
2 8-oz cans tomato sauce
1 tsp. chili powder
1/2 cup chopped onion
1 tsp. salt

Brown ground beef slowly but thoroughly, breaking with a fork till fine. Add remaining ingredients; simmer uncovered 10 minutes. Makes enough for 24 Coneys. If using a crock pot, decrease water.

Philly Cheese Spread

16 ounces cream cheese
8 ounces crushed pineapple, drained
1/4 cup green pepper, chopped
8 ounces pepperoni
1-1/2 tsp. seasoned salt
2 tbls. onion, chopped

Mix together. Shape into a ball. Chill overnight. Serve with crackers. (This recipe is courtesy of Donna Anthony of Phoebe R.L. #123)

Chewy Date Bars

1 pkg (18-1/4 ounces) yellow cake mix
3/4 cup butter melted
2 cups chopped dates
3/4 cup brown sugar, packed
2 eggs
2 cups chopped walnuts

In a mixing bowl, combine cake mix and brown sugar. Add butter and eggs; beat on medium speed for 2 minutes. Combine dates and walnuts; stir into batter (the batter will be stiff). Spread in greased 13 in. x 9 in. x 2 in. baking pan. Bake at 350 degree oven for 35-45 minutes or until edges are golden brown. Cool on a wire rack for 10 minutes. Run a knife around sides of pan to loosen; cool completely before cutting. Yield: 3 dozen.
