COUPLE CELEBRATE
GOLDEN
ANNIVERSARY*Mr. & Mrs. Frank Matinchek

Frank and Margaret "Peggy" Fullerton Matinchek of Middletown recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. The couple were married on August 18, 1956 at Seven Sorrows of the Blessed Virgin Mary Church of Middletown by the late Msgr. George V. Lentocha.

Frank and Peggy are the owners of the Matinchek & Daughter Funeral Home and Cremation Services, Inc. of Middletown.

A celebration was held in honor of Frank and Margaret at The Hotel Hershey on July 23. The Reverend Louis P. Ogden of Seven Sorrows BVM Church officiated in a renewal of vows during an intimate ceremony and blessing in the church chapel prior to the dinner.

Present at the celebration were their children, Paula Matinchek of Middletown; Keith Matinchek of Middletown; Corinne, wife of Michael Stefanic of Boiling Springs; and Henry, husband of Susan Matinchek of Batesville, Ark. They also have eight grandchildren. Stephen Little, brother of Margaret, and his wife Judi of Middletown, and their two daughters also attended the celebration.

GRAND MASTER'S COLUMN

A Halloween Fable

Barney Wells had attended a testimonial for his friend, Joe, the retiring Noble Grand. It was a Sunday, October evening in Northern New Jersey and Barney was in no hurry to get home. His wife had gone to visit some of her Rebekah sisters in Pennsylvania. The children were away at school. Barney enjoyed the small farm that had been in his family for several generations. After serving in Europe during World War I, Barney came home and became a high school English teacher.

Barney had been an Odd Fellow since before the War. He had gone through the chairs, been a District Deputy in the Lodge and Encampment, seen the lodge peak and seen it decline in the great depression. It was 1938 and the economy looked like it might be getting better, but he feared another war might start in Europe. Tomorrow would be Halloween, and he knew his tenth grade English classes would be full of pranksters.

As Barney turned the corner to his small farm, he noticed that all his neighbors were in bed or away, their lights were out. Before he turned in, to park by the barn, he noticed a fair number of his pumpkins were missing. He figured the kids had taken them to play a trick on old Mr. Wells. Since he smelled trouble, he thought he should turn in early and be well rested for the challenge of tomorrow.

Barney went in the back door, hung his coat in the kitchen and fixed an ample meal for his faithful dogs, Warden and Conductor. They were getting left-over chicken tonight. He went to a banquet but he couldn't bear to see the leftovers his wife put in the refrigerator go to waste.

Barney got ready for bed and turned in at about 10:00 pm. Soon after falling asleep, he heard a loud noise outside. Warden and Conductor started to bark without ceasing. He looked off in the woods Grovers Mill and saw a light. Since the light seemed to be coming from a spot in the woods that was on his property, he thought he needed to investigate. If some prankster had started a fire, it might catch the dry corn and pumpkin vines, burn across the field and set his barn or house ablaze. It was almost 11:00 pm, so he thought he should take his shotgun with him. He threw on some clothes, put on the coat he had worn to the testimonial that night and headed toward the woods. Warden and Conductor stopped barking and watched as Barney walked toward the woods, shotgun in hand.

If the light in woods and the noise startled the poor dogs, what they saw next must have amazed them. Barney went into the wood for about ten minutes and then emerged with a very tall, shadowy figure. They went into Barney's field and carried all the pumpkins down into the woods for about fifteen minutes. Barney walked out of the woods and the dogs heard a loud whir followed by a flash of light, just as Barney passed the dog houses.

Barney went into the house, put away his shotgun and hung up his coat. It was just midnight and Barney was too excited to go back to sleep. He poured himself a cup of cold coffee and turned on the radio to listen to the late night news. When he heard the announcer explain that the War of the Worlds broadcast was fiction and there was no invasion from outer space, he laughed so hard, he awakened Warden and Conductor out in the backyard. After turning off the radio Barney went back to bed with a smug smile on his face.

Now, dear reader, I must regress. When he entered the woods, Barney saw a pile of pumpkins, sitting next to a glowing machine that looked a little like a still. As Barney approached the machine, a creature over seven feet tall came out from the shadows with what looked like a rifle in its hands. As they trained their guns on each other, the creature spied something about Barney that caused him to pause, Barney was just dumbfounded. Slowly the creature took his right hand from the trigger guard, grasped the right lapel of his space suit, with a long, green thumb pointing to the creature's oversize, green head. In halting, but intelligible English, the creature uttered the phrase, "Are you looking for me?" In an almost automatic response, Barney grasped his left lapel, stared at his three-link pin, and replied "For you."

The spaceman was none other than Brother Zin Fin, from the planet Mu Arae. He was as Past Grand of Boltsogg Lodge 321 in the spaceport city of Gaxom. He had been scouting the universe for intelligent life form when he ran low on fuel and landed in the woods. His space ship was powered by a fuel that was made from atomically altered pumpkins. After he gave Barney his explanation, Barney hastened to help a brother in distress. Barney told him Earth was populated with some intelligent life forms but few had the understanding that was prevalent in the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. He advised Brother Zin that he should wait at least 60 or 70 years before coming back to Earth, for fear hysteric reactions would cause the human population to harm the visitors. Barney told him to take all the pumpkins and he would help him load them into the atomizer. After all the pumpkins were carried into the woods, Brother Zin told Barney he would be able to leave in five minutes and he would have Barney's name placed on the membership roster of Boltsogg Lodge 321 as an honorary member. And now you know the rest of the story.

Next month – Barney gives thanks.

ODD FELLOWS – MIDDLETOWN HOME

Residents at The Middletown Home got their hands busy shucking corn to use for chicken corn soup. They reminisced about shucking corn for their families and harvesting corn on their farms. The chicken corn soup that is made will be sold as a fundraiser to family, staff, and residents.

PENNSYLVANIA ODD FELLOW-REBEKAH EDUCATION AWARD COMMITTEE

Operating under the authority of the Grand Lodge and Rebekah Assembly of Pennsylvania, Independent Order of Odd Fellows

Leland E. Dorchester, Chairman
Box 411
Cochrannton, PA 16314

Dear Brother and Sisters,

Time is rapidly approaching for the nominations for the Education Awards for the year 2007-2008. I have been asked to site the rules for the OF&R Magazine.

First the Odd Fellows or Rebekah may nominate a son, daughter, step son or daughter, grandchild, or step grandchild. They may nominate more than one. They may use the form as printed in the magazine. A nomination form will be mailed to each lodge. Copies may be made from this, or use the one in the magazine. It is to be filled out by the nominator.

This will be mailed to me at the above address by March 5, 2007. Upon receipt of the nomination, an application will be mailed to the nominee. This will be by the following day, except on the weekend.

The application must be returned to me at the above address, post marked no later than March 15, 2007. Postmarks will be checked to ensure they are eligible.

Each nomination and application is numbered and dated. This permits us (the committee) to determine the promptness of the individual, as this is one of the criteria for selection.

The committee meets in April to select the Award recipients. This may seem a long time from the time they are received. They must all be copied for the other members of the committee and mailed so the members of the committee may have at least two weeks to examine them before we meet.

The number of recipients is determined by the funds in the Endowment available to be used and the donations by Lodges and individuals. This is determined by the Grand Lodge after the end of the fiscal year.

After the recipients are determined, generally five alternates are selected, based upon the same criteria. If more funding is available, it is awarded in the order of selection.

The criteria consists of completeness of the application, neatness, essay, apparent need, grades & SAT score, activities (school, community and church) and promptness. Each has a value assigned and a total of 25 points total is possible.

After the recipients have been selected, they are notified by the first of the week following the selection. Along with the letter is a Confirmation form. This is a guarantee that they are enrolled in the school of their choice for the fall semester. After the confirmation form is returned, the check will be sent. The checks become available after July 1, generally the chairman receives them at Grand Lodge Sessions.

Just as a last thought, after we read and evaluate the application, we refer to each by its number, not by name. If there is a question, we return to the application. With 50-60 plus applications we do not remember names, so numbers are easier to work with.

SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE SESSION WINSTON-SALEM, NORTH CAROLINA

I departed my home on Friday morning at around 6 AM and drove to Lititz to pick up Bob Derr. We departed Lititz at about 7:30 AM and started our drive to Winston-Salem, NC 432 miles away. After stopping three or four times to stretch our legs and eat, we arrived at the Marriott Hotel in Winston-Salem, NC. After checking into the hotel Bob and I started to check for old friends and make some new ones. Being very tired we checked into bed early.

Saturday morning we went and registered and then checked out everything. In the afternoon we attended the Home Association lunch and annual meeting, Bill and Laura Locke were also in attendance. There were about 40 people at the meeting and some very interesting reports were given about homes throughout the country.

Sunday morning is the first day for all the representatives to check in and attend an orientation and get to meet your committee chairperson for the weeklong session. I was again appointed to the Patriarchal Degrees Committee, our committee is presently redoing all the rituals of the Grand Encampment and we must check all Bills, Resolution or anything to do with the Encampment Branch. Sometimes this requires us to get together with other committees to discuss whatever the content of the Bill or Resolution may be. In order for you to do your job as a representative to SGL properly, it requires you to get to the floor of session early in the morning (about 7 AM) so that you have a chance to go over and read everything from the Daily Journal of the day before. The daily session ends about 11:00-11:30 AM. You normally have enough time to complete whatever your committee is doing. You get out of your committee meetings somewhere around 4:30-5:00 PM or later.

Sunday evening is the Grand opening and presentation of flags. Brother Chris Haussler again presented our flag along with Izetta McGill PPRA. The opening was attended by 900 people. After the opening and all speeches were given then the presentation of awards took place. The following is a list of awards received by the Jurisdiction of PA (some of these awards were given out during the week).

A Dinner will be held at 5:00 P.M. in the Lodge Hall. The menu will be fruit cup, ham, chicken, scalloped potatoes, baked corn, green beans, and dessert. Reservations are to be sent to Lady Beverly Bowers, 1228 Edison Street, York, PA. 17403 no later than October 31st. A donation is being asked for the dinner as well.

Hello Brothers and Sisters,

I would like to tell you how much I enjoyed being a chaperon (Pop) on the Pennsylvania Bus for the U.N. Tour; however, I must first give credit to all the people in our state who make this trip possible.

The chairmen and co-chairmen of our state are Miss Mae Judy and Mr. Don Trulick, also Mrs. Jane Danihel and Mr. Charles Danihel. In Philadelphia, the man is Mr. Charles Shorten. He, along with a host of other volunteers, meets all the U.N. busses as well as all the planes that bring the delegates from around the world. Without these people and many others, the trip would not be possible.

I had the pleasure of working with two of the finest Rebekah's in the state – Mrs. Tammy Schlott and Mrs. Candy Walters-Bowser. Last year I was Tammy's assistant and she showed me what to do. This year they told me that is was my year and I was in charge. This turned out to be like the rest of my life (my wife tells me that I'm in charge but we all know how that works). Candy is smart and well prepared – without her I would have been lost. She had this bag with her, and whatever we needed seemed to come out of that bag, like magic. I don't know how but God I wish I had a bag like that.

Maybe it had something to do with how comfortable she was while we visited Salem, Mass. Some things I just don't want to know. The kids were great and it was a pleasure to be with them. This year my son was on the trip and the time spent on the trip with him I will never forget. For this opportunity, I thank the Grand Lodge for allowing me to be a part of this trip.

Again, I would like to thank all those responsible for making this trip possible. The U.N. Committee Chairman Mr. Charles Benson and his New York staff do a great job. This trip restored my belief in the next generation; maybe they will change the world for the better.

The kids or should I say young adults I met these last two weeks were outstanding. All their sponsors can be very proud of them. If there is any Brother or Sister out there thinking about being a chaperon on the trip, I would like you to know that it's hard. You walk a lot and you're the first one up in the morning and the last to go to sleep at night, but it's an experience that you will never forget.

Thanks, Yours in Friendship, Love and Truth
Richard "Pop" Meagher

THINGS YOU CAN DO TO SHOW LOVE TO OTHERS

Mend an argument that you have had and if necessary take the blame for it.

Search out a forgotten friend and rekindle that relationship.

Dismiss a suspicion in your mind that you hold for someone and ask the Spirit of God to give you love and trust.

Let an old bitterness die.

Write a letter to someone who loves you.

Encourage someone you know is discouraged.

Keep a promise.

Forget a wrong that was done to you.

Reduce your demands on others from that unrealistic level from which you aren't willing to live.

Say thanks to all people all the time.

Tell someone you love him or her, someone who will be surprised to hear it.

Pray for an enemy.

Send a check to someone who has a need with a little note of love.

Send a check to someone who has a need with a little note of love.

Ask God to help you love the way Jesus loved.

"FIRE: WHAT TO DO"

During a recent ecumenical gathering, a secretary rushed in shouting, "The building is on fire!"

The METHODISTS gathered in the corner and prayed.

The BAPTISTS cried, "Where is the water?"

The QUAKERS quietly praised God for the blessings that fire brings.

The LUTHERANS posted a notice on the door declaring the fire was evil.

The ROMAN CATHOLICS passed the plate to cover the damage.

The JEWS posted symbols on the doors hoping the fire would pass.

The CONGREGATIONALISTS shouted, "Every man for himself!"

The FUNDAMENTALISTS proclaimed, "It's the vengeance of God!"

The EPISCOPALIANS formed a procession and marched out. The CHRISTIAN SCIENTISTS concluded that there was no fire.

The PRESBYTERIANS appointed a chairperson who was to appoint a committee to look into the matter and submit a written report.

The secretary grabbed the fire extinguisher and put the fire out.

GATHERING TIN FOIL FOR THE HOME

The Mercer County Past Grands' Association had a very enthusiastic meeting in the lodge room of Lowango Lodge No. 1022 at New Hamburg, when 108 were present. Prior to the meeting of the Association the officers of Lowango Lodge were instilled by District Deputy Grand Master Reichard and his staff, who were commended on the fine and impressive manner in which they conducted the ceremony.

Many balls of tin foil were received at this meeting, and many brothers are gathering at the rate of a pound a month. This material is to be sold and the proceeds will go to the endowment fund of the Wayside Inn. Who would not stoop to give a lift to the Home? The November meeting was scheduled to be held in the lodge room at Grove City.

JOINT INSTALLATION AT CONNELLSVILLE

Before and audience of 250 people in the Elks' Home, Conneltsville, beautifully decorated with ferns and fall flowers, the joint installation of General Worth Lodge and Edna Rebekah Lodge took place Thursday, October 8.

Mrs. Martha Charlesworth, Past District Deputy President of Fayette County, in a few well chosen remarks, introduced Mrs. Mary L. McVay, President of the Assembly who spoke on Rebekah Odd Fellowship. At the close of her talk she was presented with a bouquet of yellow roses by Mrs. Charlesworth, a gift from the lodge.

John H. Craig, D.D.G.M., and Mrs. Constance Culler, Deputy President, took charge of the Installation. The ceremony was beautiful and impressive.

Charles F. Hirst, of Scottdale, was general chairman, and the address of welcome was given by John G. Haines. A fine musical program was given and the Rebekahs served lunch at the close.

NEW FLORENCE

Visitors from four lodges were present at the installation of officers of New Florence Lodge No. 558, Thursday evening, October 22, in the local I.O.O.F. building. The newly-elected officers were installed by District Deputy Grand Master J.C. Caldwell and staff from New Alexandria Lodge No. 127. A special entertainment program, followed by refreshments, climaxed the evening.

HOLSOPPLE

R.A. Frease, D.D.G.M., of Somerset, and his staff, paid an official visit to this place Tuesday night, October 13, to install the new officers of Holsopple Lodge No. 583, in Odd Fellows' Hall, which was crowded for the exercises.

Members of the Order were present from Myrddale, Boswell, Central City, Stoyestown, Windber, Shanksville, Somerset, Greensburg, Cumberland, Moxham, Johnstown and Conemaugh Lodge, also of Johnstown.

This masthead is just for this month. It shows our new sign at the entrance to Windmere Hall. This month's issue is again a two page effort so that we can show some more highlights of the Summer of 2006. The best thing that happened to State College Lodge 1032 was the completion of our new signage. You may remember from the last letter, Jeremy helped put the sign on the building. Well this time he was responsible for the Bobcat that dug the hole for the posts and lifting the sign into place. Art Moyer also happened along and helped to guide the sign into the hole, as well as finish up when the sign was in place. The sign also has a prominent place for MidStep's sign. They are now our only tenant in the building. They took over the space upstairs when Merry Maids left. The new sign really stands out and will give us better identification for people looking for the place.

Lodge Picnic

A picnic is a picnic is a picnic. This one had a highlight. Colleen McDonald was one of our UN Tour kids sponsored by Lodge 1032. We always ask them to tell us about the trip. Well Colleen did a remarkable job and kept all our pinickers enthralled. Her presentation was excellent, complete and done like a tour guide. And to show their thanks, the whole McDonald family helped with the cleanup after the program. Dad, Bob was at the sink and washed everything in sight.

Deadline for next month's issue - 20th of this month Ken Kulp, Editor, 454 Rolling Ridge Drive, State College PA 16801

Police Defibrillators

Some time back we heard that the units in the patrol cars were obsolete and needed replaced. We asked the department to send one of the officers who works with these units to come to a meeting and give us a demonstration. After his visit and many questions answered we decided to help in the replacement project. The department has 10 units and all need replaced. At our meeting following the demonstration we decided to pay for half of a unit. Chief King was happy about our decision and invited us to a public presentation ceremony. We heard from one of the EMT men that these are valuable tools. Police arrive before the EMS in almost all cases. The time they can save has already saved lives. This contribution falls right in with our plan of helping wherever we can in our own area.

Dinner Theater

Again this year we treated ourselves to a dinner at Kelly's steak and seafood house in Boalsburg followed by a visit to the Boal Barn for a beautiful presentation of Carousel. The cast had a couple of professionals but the majority were local talent, some as young as elementary school. The dancing was great and some of those voices are or soon will be of professional quality. We had our regular seats and everyone was very happy with the evening.

Baseball

Every Summer we do the baseball thing. Well this Summer we did it twice. Last Friday was our last event for the Summer for this year. We went to the new Baseball Field in State College to see the Spikes and have a picnic supper. Photos show some of our crowd waiting for the gate to open. Below that two of our tables where everybody is full and trying to find room for another cookie. The new ball park is sensational and should provide many days of fun for Penn State baseball fans as well as the "new to us" professional baseball team. This date was not too good, a lot of our regulars were at Grange Fair. Next year we will do better on picking dates.

Next month starts a new year of Odd Fellowship work for both men and women. Let's get the year off to a good start with work on membership.

The next big event on the calendar is the Christmas party in December.

"Prayer is a powerful thing, for God has bound and tied himself thereto. None can believe how powerful prayer is, and what it is able to effect, but those who have learned it by experience." Martin Luther

This picture shows those members of the Schenley class who earned the right to make the flight to France and the field trip from June 26 to July 6, 2006. Left to right, they are: Airin Dalton, Lori Wertheimer, Keelynn Young, and Magy DeLaurier. Lori received some financial aid from Unified Lodge to help defray the expenses.

The girls flew from New York City to Nice, France on June 26, toured Morocco, Monte Carlo, Avignon, and Biarritz. They visited Paris, Versailles, and several little French towns, guided by their French teacher, Mrs. Linda Brendlinger of Schenley High School.

Dear Odd Fellows and Rebekahs,

I really want to thank you for giving me such a generous scholarship. I can't begin to tell you how much I appreciate what you do for the community. I think it is so important that people give back to the community and youth so we can do the same as we grow and mature. The money you awarded me sure went to good use! It helped to cover the expense of my first semester books and I still have some left to help pay for my first year tuition. I am so grateful for what you have given me, and what you give to others on a continuous basis. I hope to get involved with the Odd Fellows program in the near future. Thank you again and I'll be sure to keep in touch as I pursue my Biology education at John Carroll this fall! Thanks! Caroline Dartnell

Caramel Egg Custard

First make a caramel syrup. Take 1/3 cup sugar, burn or caramelize it in a sauce pan, add 1/3 cup hot water (boiling, if possible); watch for splattering. Boil the syrup until it becomes smooth, pour in a glass and set aside.

Mix with wire whip or whip attachment on mixer:

- 5 eggs
- 5/7 cup (about 5-3/4 ounces) granulated sugar
- dash of salt
- 1 cup cold milk
- 1-1/2 teaspoons vanilla

Scald

1 quart of milk, as it approaches the boiling point, stir in the caramel syrup.

Temper the cold mixture by adding the hot mixture to it, 1/2 cup at a time. After about 1/2 of the hot mixture has been mixed with the cold mixture, pour all the mixture into one bowl or pot, stir.

Pour the contents into a baking dish. The baking dish should be in a roaster or hotel pan and surrounded by water. For taste you can sprinkle a very small amount of nutmeg on the top of the mixture. Bake at 325°F till done. If you are using individual serving cups, this will take 40-45 minutes. If you are using a large dish, this may take as long as 1 hour 20 minutes.
