FROM THE DESK OF THE GRAND SECRETARY

Dear Readers:

We are fast approaching the Holiday Season, and I would like to take this opportunity to wish everyone a VERY HAPPY, HEALTHY HOLIDAY and a PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR.

As we approach the coming New Year may we all renew our obligation to this Order and to ourselves to do all within our power to rebuild our Lodges. It can be done there are Lodges that are doing it, or should I say the members in these lodges are doing it. If it is to get done each member has to get the job done, no one else can do it for you. You come in contact with people every day that you can ask to join you in the good work of this great Order. Let your friends, neighbors, and people you contact what we do, and ask them to help in this good work.

I would, at this time, like to THANK everyone for all the help and support I have received during the past year, keep the articles for the magazine coming.

Fraternally,
William L. Locke
Grand Secretary

Installation of Officers

October is always a busy month for all units of the Order. The 8th was the night for the Ladies. Dectict Deputy President Diane Kulp with able assistance from Mae Judy, did a wonderful job of installing the members of Lady Emily who were elected for the coming year. A number of the old-timers complimented her on how weill the evening went. Excellent refreshments topped off the evening.

October 10th was the night for the Encampment. This was an edgy one also because GP Emily Cupp was on hand to see that everything was done according to Hoyle. Don Trulick and Art Moyer were as busy as beavers keeping everything on an even keel. I have a conflict on Wednesday nights so I am not at many meetings. But this one was different, so I was there. I discovered that I have been an officer and didn't know it. So for the installation I was that officer again. Everything went well in spite of a few mishaps. So well in fact that GP Cupp congratulated us on the whole evening. It was nice to have the guys from Genesis with us for the evening. I got my reward for showing up. DGM Ramsey cornered me and asked for help with the Session in 2009. Glad to help when I can and not have to do all the traveling.

Change of scene. Port Matilda #733 for the installation of officers for Port Matilda and Bellefonte Centre Lodge #153 and State College Lodge #1032. Bill Ramsey was in attendance again, this time with Grand Master Brennehan and several other Grand Lodge officers. they were here in Port Matilda for an official visit. Supper started things off at 6:30. Our contingent from State College came over the mountain the wrong way. It took us twice the normal time because of traffic. The fellows were kind and saved enough food for us. The official business got started about 7:40 p.m., only about ten minutes later than usual. Art Moyer and Don Trulick again ran the show along with Gene Bennett. Gene gets the kudos for a wonderful performance. I don't know how he manages to remember all the parts of every thing. This time I had to stand up twice. Two jobs for the coming year. State College is combining the Treasurer and Financial Secretary jobs for this year. That's it for installation, Centre County is all set to go.

MIDDLETOWN HOME

Two residents celebrated birthdays during the month, Pauline Shetron turned 100 years old and Ruth Raynor turned 102 years old. The two residents enjoyed their day with friends and family. And...Elvis was in the building for one party! The Middletown Home is trying to increase involvement with the community. During the month the Management Team conducted a "Career Day" with the local Kunkel Elementary 4th grade class. Each department set up stations with pictures and props and explained to the children, what each department does. The different departments included Activities, Administration, Social Services, Environmental Services, Marketing, Medical Records, Technology, Human Resources, Nursing, Food Services, Business Office, and Therapy/Restorative Services. The goals of the program are that the children may become interested in choosing a career in Long Term Care. They might consider working at our Home, and they become close to the residents that live at The Home and continue to return as volunteers. The day also included time spent with the residents at The Home. The children were very outgoing, as were the residents. We played trivia together, got to know one another, and shared hugs when it was time to go. The children will return every nine weeks to spend time in their favorite departments as well as time with the residents.

After the children visited The Middletown Home, we in turn visited them in our new bus. Kunkel had their annual Halloween parade and many residents traveled to see their creative costumes.

The Church of God sent some volunteers our way to assist Activities with providing a Breakfast Parfait on a Sunday morning. The volunteers were especially interested in socializing with the residents and making new friends in the community.

The Historical Society visited and did some story telling regarding "The Ghosts of Middletown". They came in costume and told stories that gave the "willies".

The residents celebrated their Halloween Party with decorative cookies, punch, and a extraordinary magician. Staff and residents dressed in creative costumes and fun was had by all! Mickey and Minney Mouse even visited from Florida.....

GRAND PATRIARCH, EMILIE J. CUPP VISITS #135

On October 12, 2007, Grand Patriarch, Emilie J. Cupp, and several of the Grand Encampment officers attended the special meeting of Perseverance Encampment # 135. Dinner preceded the meeting and allowed for the members and their guests to have some time to enjoy moments of Odd Fellowship prior to the official meeting. Those officers of Perseverance Encampment who were not present at the prior meeting were installed into their stations. The next day quite a few of those present attended the Encampment Degree Rally in Aluta.

William L. Locke, Grand Secretary

Dear Mr. Locke:

Thank you very much for your assistance in our research efforts in endothelial keratoplasty. Your check for $2,000.00 was very welcomed and will allow us to further improve our instrumentation to perform this revolutionary new technique. The technique allows us to do a corneal transplant without making a full thickness hole through the center of the cornea and, therefore, substantially increases the safety of the procedure as well as reduces the recovery time to approximately 1/10 of what it used to be. Your efforts in this area are greatly appreciated. I know that Mary Greider, who helped to facilitate the grant, is appreciative as well.

Thank you very much once again.

Canton Pittsburgh, No 18, was inspected by Col. George B. McDowell on December 2nd. This was a wonderful meeting, held jointly with Pittsburgh Fortress, No. 7, in the Century Building, Pittsburgh. After the inspection, Major Gen. Roger W. Haas, Department Commander, Addressed the Meeting, as did Lady Eva Haas, President of the Ladies' Auxiliary. Brig. Gen. William Heiston made a report of the Department Council session at Clearfield and the S. G. L. legislation relative to the P. M. Branch. Other distinguished visitors were Col. Stanford, Commanding the 4th Regiment, and Col George W. Morton, Department Chaplain. No. 18 had 47 officers and chevaliers in full dress uniform, a delegation from Greensburg, Mt. Pleasant, and Connellsville about 30 strong. The Ladies Militant made a fine display. Col A. N. Dick drilled the Canton in a very efficient manner, after which a dance followed and lunch was served. All spent a most enjoyable evening, long to be remembered. Canton Pittsburgh is a real live Canton; if you don't believe it, just drop around on the first Friday of each month.

U N Delegate Recognition Night

Walker Lodge # 306 hosted the 2007 U N Delegate Recognition Night on Saturday evening, October 20th. Walker Lodge # 306, Perseverance Encampment # 135 and Mystic Lodge # 270 sponsored a total of 11 delegates for the 2007 trip. This was the 58th tour year. PA again sponsored a complete bus of 53 students. It is rewarding for all the Lodge members to hear the delegates relate their experiences from this once-in-a-lifetime educational (and fun) tour. This year the delegates echoed what has been said in the past about how they arrived at the starting point (Mechanicsburg this year) with some trepidation and fear of the unknown and arrived back there 11 days later with friends for a lifetime. The modern technology of computers and e-mails makes it a lot easier for the students to keep in touch, even with the delegates they met from Europe and Canada. The "educational" part of the tour – time at the UN with delegates and assistants – and the sightseeing/tour part got rave reviews, but interestingly, each one spoke about the personal growth and interpersonal relationship development he or she experienced as another important factor of the trip.

If you have a 16 or 17-year old child/grandchild/neighbor/friend, recommend this trip to them. They will enjoy it! Beginning with the 2008 tour, the PA Bus will add a visit to Washington, DC to its itinerary.

Degree Rally at Walker Lodge

The Annual Degree Rally was held at Walker Lodge on Saturday, October 6, 2007. The Initiatory, First, Second and Third Degrees were offered as well as the Grand Lodge Degree. Thirty-five candidates from Pennsylvania and Maryland received the Initiatory Degree and/or the Degrees of Friendship, Love and Truth. The Walker Degree Staff performed these degrees. The Grand Master of PA, Stewart L. Breneman, and several of his Staff did the Grand Lodge degree for those who were eligible. The Grand Master of Maryland, Shirley Sell, was also present and assisted with the presentation of the candidates from Maryland. All present enjoyed a lunch prepared and served by a few of the wives of Walker Lodge members. There was also a dinner for those who wished to stay. All in attendance had an enjoyable day of Odd Fellowship.

We need to continue to grow our membership. Have you asked a friend (or relative) to join lately? Spread the word about the wonderful things our Order does. Show your enthusiasm and it will attract others. The DVD prepared by Past Grand Master Cupp can be used so they can see what our Order does. There is an application for membership attached to each DVD.

FALL NEWSLETTER

INDEPENDENT ORDER OF ODD FELLOWS FALLS CREEK LODGE 957

Throughout most the past century, as one traveled through the small towns and cities of this country, the familiar IOOF sign was prominent in most of these communities. Before the social fabric in this country changed, and before our local state and federal governments developed and funded social programs, the poor, the destitute, the orphaned and widowed had few places to turn, and the once familiar IOOF sign was one of these places. Instilled as their basic principles, and a basis for their existence, the Independent Order of Odd Fellows vowed to "visit the sick, relieve the distressed, bury the dead and educate the orphan." And in doing so, over the years built a network of orphanages, cemeteries, old age homes and hospitals through out the country.

The Welfare State and the National Health Service took over the major part of the role of Friendly Societies, and since 1948 the role of the Odd Fellows has evolved in other directions, with a continuing focus on social involvement, care & support and financial benefits. So no longer are the need for orphanages, cemeteries and hospitals, as our tax dollars and other gov't subsidized & large private agencies take now take care of these. There is however, a small but loyal group of Odd Fellows who still think there's a lot of good to be done, and these folks meet regularly in small lodges throughout this country.

Although group numbers and lodges have been declining steadily for the past 40 or so years, there is some encouraging news here in Pennsylvania:

- Locally our Falls Creek Lodge has initiated 2 new members in September, and each member has also completed their degree work receiving their first 3 degrees.
- At the recent degree rally held at Sandy Lake, PA on Sept 22nd, there were 24 candidates from our half of the state receiving their 1st, 2nd & 3rd degrees.
- The lodge in Ambridge announced it will be holding degree work on a regular basis throughout the next year.
- The Lewistown Lodge 97 which closed its doors in March of 2006 found some younger members. There doors are once again open, and the grand lodge of Pennsylvania reinstated their charter in September 2007.

UN Reports

Last Monday after the regular meeting of Lady Emily #452 we had a report from two of the young people who were on the tour this past Summer. You would think that after so many years of hearing these reports, we would get a little jaundiced by hearing essentially the same news and stories. The difference is in the effect the trip has on each young one. Their response to the activities is always different and rarely the same as you heard the last time. It is gratifying to know that all these years of tours is helping to shape the lives and thinking of so many of our youth.

Cystic Fibrosis

At a recent meeting at Windmere Hall State College Lodge received oral permission from the Grand Master to circulate a letter to all the Lodges in the jurisdiction of Pennsylvania. It will be coming soon once we have all the details worked out. The essence of the letter is the establishment of a trust fund that will outlive us and provide funds for the parents of children with CF to purchase the equipment necessary to keep their child alive. We think you will like the idea.

The secret of a good sermon is to have a good beginning and a good ending; and to have the two as close together as possible. --- George Burns

FROM GRANDMA'S KITCHEN

CARAMEL SWIRLS

1 cup butter (no substitutes) softened
 4 oz. cream cheese, softened
 1 cup brown sugar
 1 egg yolk
 1 tsp. maple flavoring
 2 & 3/4 cups all purpose flour
 Filling:
 30 caramels
 2 pkgs (3oz. each)
 cream cheese, softened

In a mixing bowl, cream butter, cream cheese, and brown sugar. Add egg yolk and maple flavoring; mix well, gradually add flour. Cover and refrigerate for 2 hours or until easy to handle. Meanwhile, in a saucepan or microwave, melt caramels. Stir in cream cheese until blended; set aside. Divide dough in half. Roll each portion between waxed paper to 1/4 in. thickness. Spread caramel mixture over dough to within 1/2 in. of edges. Refrigerate for 4 hours or until firm. Unwrap and cut into 1/4 in. slices. Place 1 in. apart on greased baking sheets. Bake at 350 degrees for 12-14 minutes or until golden brown. Remove to wire racks to cool. Yield: 6 1/2 dozen.

CANDIED APPLES

8 cooking apples (Rome are good)
 1 3/4 cups sugar
 3/4 cup water
 9 oz. pkg. small red cinnamon candies

Peel and cut apples into eights (remove seeds). In a Dutch oven, combine sugar, water, and candies. Stirring constantly, cook over medium heat about 10 minutes or until candies dissolve. Add apples and bring to a boil. Cook about 7 minutes until apples are tender. Cool; cover and store in refrigerator. Serve chilled. Yield: 6 1/2 cups.

CHOCOLATE COVERED CHERRIES

16 oz. pkg. powdered sugar
 1 Tbsp. evaporated milk
 1/2 cup butter, softened
 2 tsp. vanilla extract
 2 - 10 oz. jars maraschino cherries, with or without stems, drained
 12 oz. chocolate flavored candy coating
 6 oz. semi-sweet chocolate chips

Blend together sugar, butter, evaporated milk, and vanilla. Wrap each cherry in about 1 teaspoon sugar mixture. Arrange on waxed paper in a baking pan and chill overnight. Melt together candy coating & chocolate chips in a double boiler. Stir until melted and blended. Use a candy dipper to dip cherries in chocolate, tapping off excess. Place on waxed paper to cool. Yield: about 4 1/2 dozen.
