7 Days

(Author Unknown)

Monday, Wash Day...Lord, help me wash away all my selfishness and vanity, so I may serve you with perfect humility through the week ahead.

Tuesday, Ironing Day...Dear Lord, help me iron out all the wrinkles of prejudice I have collected through the years so that I may see the beauty in others.

Wednesday, Mending Day...O God, help me mend my ways so I will not set a bad example for others.

Thursday, Cleaning Day...Lord Jesus, help me to dust out all the many faults I have been hiding in the secret corners of my heart.

Friday, Shopping Day...O God, give me the grace to shop wisely so I may purchase eternal happiness for myself and all others in need of love.

Saturday, Cooking Day...Help me, my Savior, to brew a big kettle of brotherly love and serve it with clean, sweet bread of human kindness.

Sunday, The Lord's Day...O God, I have prepared my house for you. Please come into my heart so I may spend the day and the rest of my life in your presence. Jesus is Love.

"Be kinder than necessary, for everyone you meet is fighting some kind of battle."

GRAND MASTER'S COLUMN

The Lodge Picnic

Barney Wells had always looked forward to the family lodge picnic. As a boy he had enjoyed attending with his father. He had seen the changes from the nineteenth to the twentieth century. He had brought his own children and encouraged them to participate in the Odd Fellows.

In 1936 the depression was raging. The depression reduced the number of lodge members but also made those who retained their membership more involved. Barney had teenage children and they were all anxious to go to the lodge picnic. The lodge held its picnic the second Saturday in June. This was after school was out and before the other activities of summer had occupied everyone. As a teacher, Barney liked the picnic in June. He had finished the school year and had a little time to work on the farm before he needed to plan the picnic.

Barney was a farmer and knew that June was too early for corn, but not too early for strawberries. He donated a dozen flats of berries. And his father had left him a large ice cream churn. This was a project that took a committee of several members. Barney donated cream from his cow as well. Other members donated the other ingredients for the ice cream.

After two planning sessions and an entire Friday cooking in the lodge hall, the picnic was set for the town park. The park had been used since the 1880's and Barney was familiar with every aspect of the park. The lodge would reserve the second Saturday in June for five years in advance.

There were numerous games and events. Barney tried to do the things that involved his children. As a teacher and parent, he knew that keeping his children involved in lodge activities was the best way to insure they would become members.

Barney's son wanted to participate in the three-legged race. This meant Barney would have to tie his right leg to his son's left leg. Since Barney was seven inches taller than his son, this was awkward. The race started with a pistol shot. They were doing well until Barney's son slipped and they both fell. Barney hit his left knee on the ground and instant pain shot up his leg.

As Barney saw the other teams leave them in the dust, he looked down at his left knee. There was a large, very dirty, metal medallion, with a pin from the back sticking through his pants into his knee. He pulled the pin out and struggled to his feet. He untied his son's leg and they both hobbled over to a picnic table. After catching his breath and looking at the medallion for a while, Barney took it over to the pump and ran water over it till he could get it clean. After he got it clean, Barney recognized it as a 25-year service jewel. He turned it over and read the inscription on the back, "To Thomas Wells P.G., May 18, 1905, for faithful service."

Tears welled up in Barney's eyes. This was the jewel the lodge had given to Barney's father. It was the same jewel that his father lost when Barney was in a three-leg race with him at a picnic many years ago. It brought back memories of his youth and of his father, who had been dead for ten years.

The following Monday, Barney took the pin to a jeweler who was a member of the lodge. He had it cleaned, polished and the enamel touched up. He had the jeweler mount it in a frame and he presented it to the lodge at the next meeting. He put a slip of paper in the frame, telling the story about the jewel being lost and found. He made a carbon copy of the story and gave it to his son.

Barney felt inspired by finding the jewel and recognized the thread uniting the generations. He became youth chairman for his lodge and began numerous programs aimed to incorporate more family activities into the lodge calendar. He came to realize that the little things we do as a family can create strong memories and unite us.

FROM THE DESK OF THE MANAGER - EDITOR

Dear Readers,

To start off this month, I would like to thank all of you who supported me in this past election for Representative to the Sovereign Grand Lodge. I would like everyone, whether you supported me or not, to know as Representative I will do everything I can to represent the Jurisdiction of Pennsylvania's interests.

We are getting close to our annual Session. Your Lodge needs to make sure to send a Representative to our Grand Lodge Session to represent the views of your lodge. If all lodges would send their representative we could double the attendance, which in turn would give the Grand Lodge many more good ideas. Last but not least it is your duty to help in the work of the Grand Lodge.

Again, I would like to thank all that have contributed articles and pictures to the magazine. Remember it is your magazine.

Fraternally,
William L. Locke
Grand Secretary

MIDDLETOWN HOME NEWS

June is for Father's Day and what a day! Residents enjoyed reminiscing as they walked or wheeled through The Home's parking lot. The lot was full of antique automobiles or all kinds. Many residents talked about the automobile that they used to own and how they loved to drive. The Home has recently purchased an Activity Bus and this will get residents out more often into the community to enjoy the beautiful weather.

Employee of the Month was Michelle Carroll, Occupational Therapist. She was nominated with these words: "Makes therapy pleasant. Makes us laugh. She's warm and friendly to the residents-and she gives all the residents a warm, fuzzy feeling when she is working. She's a very good therapist with a wonderful personality. She makes coming here to do your exercises fun."

Residents are enjoying the beautiful weather, reminiscing, and interacting with all staff, visitors, and family here at The Home. We are truly one, big, happy family!

ODD FELLOWS AND REBEKAHS ASSOCIATION OF WESTERN PA 2007 MUSIC AWARD

The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs Association of Western Pennsylvania will once again be presenting $2,000 music awards to a maximum of three (3) students who fulfill the specified requirements of the award.

This Award is being made to not only defray some of their cost associated with higher education, but also to help increase public awareness of Odd Fellowship and in turn, hopefully receiving petitions for membership to perpetuate our great Order.

The Association's Music Award Chairman, Robert Grant, has announced that the "Rules" and an Award Application was sent to all the lodges representing the Western District around mid-May.

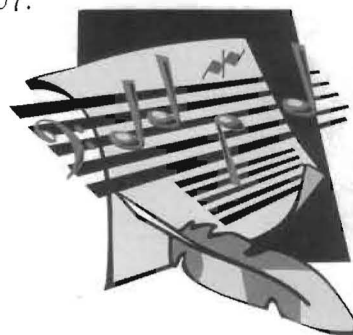

Regarding the requirements necessary to be considered eligible for the 2007 Music Award, Chairman Grant emphasized two in particular:

1. The applicant or a family relative must be a member of the I.O.O.F or Rebekahs of Western PA.

2. The applicant must be a full-time Music Major having completed at least one year of college.

If interested in obtaining a copy of the "Rules" and a 2007 Music Award Application, please contact your lodge secretary or scribe. Requests can also be made by contacting the Music Award Chairman, Brother Robert Grant at the following email address: robag@comcast.net.

Dear Mr. Locke,

Thanks to your generous donation of $ 525.00, over 1 million Central Pennsylvanians with arthritis are being helped. Contributions like yours provide the means to assist with the prevention, control and, hopefully, cure of arthritis.

Research: With the medical advancements that have been made in recent years, much of the pain and crippling effects of arthritis can be controlled. Right now, there are many treatments being used to alleviate the pain and stiffness associated with arthritis. Through on-going research made possible by compassionate donors like you, the cause and cure for the over 100 forms of arthritis will hopefully be found in the near future.

Public Health: Local programming allows the Central PA Chapter of the Arthritis Foundation the opportunity to bring arthritis awareness to community members and organizations. We were able to send 22 children with arthritis to a week-long recreational and educational camp last year. Over 15,000 pieces of information were distributed to help individuals and families learn about this chronic condition. In the 28 counties served, 176 aquatic programs, 58 exercise programs and 8 self-help groups have been made available to persons with arthritis. We continue to encourage community members to embrace a healthy life style that will help to ease some of the pain associated with various forms of arthritis.

Public Policy and Advocacy: Public policy and advocacy concentrates on reminding law makers of the need for continued support of arthritis and health-related legislation. Due to our hard work last year, the State Department of Health designated $83,000 for arthritis education and awareness activities. Additional endeavors include an ongoing effort to identify individuals in the community who will assist us in the advocacy process by contacting their legislators.

If your family members, loved ones, friends or you have any questions or concerns about arthritis or related conditions, please know the Central PA Chapter of the Arthritis Foundation is your community resource. This is thanks to generous continued support from community members like you. All phone calls, emails, and personal visits are welcomed and encouraged.

Thank you for caring!

P.O.F. DAYS GONE BY*(75 Years Ago, June – 1932)*REBEKAH DEGREE BY SEVEN MEMBERS

Demonstrating that the small lodge may successfully confer the Rebekah Degree, a staff of seven members of Salome Rebekah Lodge, No. 30, of York, exemplified the work of the Rebekah Degree. It was the first time, we believe, that a team of so small a number has conferred this degree in Pennsylvania. The positions on the staff included Noble Grand, Vice Grand, Past Noble Grand, Warden, Conductor, Chaplain, and Guardian.

The concluding social feature of the gathering of the two bodies was an entertainment and dance in the large White Rose Arena, which was crowded until a late hour with a merry party of gaily-dressed ladies and their escorts.

CHAMBERSBURG

On Saturday, June 25, the Odd Fellow lodges from Chambersburg and surrounding towns in Franklin County were guests of the Path Valley Lodge, No. 811, I.O.O.F., at a gathering held at Dry Run. Hundreds of folks journeyed to the little town for the outing and enjoyed a full program of entertainment.

The Degree Team of Waynesboro Lodge, No. 219, conferred the Second and Third Degrees on a class of candidates from the Columbus Lodge, No. 75, Chambersburg; the Letterkenny Lodge, No. 603, Upper Strasburg; and the Path Valley, Lodge, No. 811.

District Deputy Grand Master E. H. Spangler, of Waynesboro, and District Deputy Grand Master-elect C. E. Carbaugh, of Upper Strasburg, were in attendance at the ceremonies. Refreshments were served.

MEADVILLE

June 6th was a big night for Odd Fellows in Meadville, when Queen City Lodge of Titusville, journeyed to Meadville and put on the Initiatory Degree of Odd Fellowship on a class of four in the Cussewago Temple. The work of the Degree Team was very commendable and was appreciated by the large crowd that had assembled. Cussewago Degree Team also had some work to do and put on the First Degree on the same candidates; their team being attired in their nice new uniforms made a fine appearance and the dramatization was of the highest quality and received generous applause.

SHARON REBEKAHS HONOR ASSEMBLY PRESIDENT

Adella Rebekah Lodge No. 284, Of Sharon, held a banquet and reception in the I.O.O.F. Temple, Sharon, Friday evening, June 24th, in honor of sister Jennie Budd, President of the Rebekah Assembly of Pennsylvania and a member of Adella Rebekah Lodge

The dining room of the temple was beautifully decorated in pink and green and baskets of summer flowers. Sister Barlett, of Sharpsville Rebekah Lodge No. 110, acted as chairlady for the evening. Sister Ottilla Edwards, D.D.P., of Sharpsville, acted as toastmistress and Sister Jennie Budd responded in a very pleasing manner.

(25 years ago, June – 1982)*SISTER ANNA BRINK HONORED

Maud Rebekah Lodge No. 174 honored Sister Anna Brink, 80 years young, for her years of membership and service on Wednesday, June 2, 1982. She joined Maud Rebekah Lodge No. 175 on October 13, 1920. She served as Noble Grand in 1932; Recording Secretary 1927-29, 33-34; Financial Secretary, 1937-62; a total of 32 dedicated years. Also, Conductor 1927; Right Support-N.G. 1933-37. She also served as District Deputy President. She helped to organize the Rew's Past Noble Grands' Club. She received the Declaration of Chivalry in 1954. She keeps the Maud Rebekah Lodge No. 175 on the right track as she knows what to do and how to do it in the Rebekah work. Sister Anna is a native of Rew, married Clair Brink and had two boys and one girl. She was employed as the School Nurse of Foster Township.

Noble Grand Bea Austin crowned Anna with a glittering crown and a Banner making her "Queen for a Night". A skit about "Anna's Famous Date Bread" was a big hit with lots of laughs. During the celebration a Poem written by Pauline Hauben, Eldred, PA, "A Tribute to Anna Brink", was read. Noble Grand Bea Austin Presented Sister Anna with a dozen red roses from the members after the poem was read.

She has been a very active and faithful member over the years and is still present at our meetings, unless the roads are very bad in the winter. Anna is very much liked and admired by all the members and her friends.

DORCAS REBEKAH LODGE NO. 35

On Monday, June 28, 1982 Dorcas Rebekah Lodge No. 35 held a covered dish supper in Alma Hall, Main street, Johnstown PA. Guests for the evening were Betty Elder, Rebekah Assembly Vice President and Sister Emma Bell, also Brothers of Electra Rebekah Lodge No. 537, Rochester Mills, PA.

LET'S HONOR ALL DADS

Honor all the Dads in your Lodge or honor the founding fathers of Odd Fellowship by making a donation to the PA Arthritis Committee this month. We have set an ambitious goal to raise $50,000 during this reporting year – April 1, 2007 to March 31, 2008. This amount and more has been raised in other jurisdictions, and with your help and support, Pennsylvania can do it. The children with arthritis are counting on us to help them enjoy a week at Camp JRA and the adults look for our help in sponsoring a PACE program in a facility near them. Your volunteer help would be appreciated by your local Chapter or Branch at one of their planned activities as another way of supporting the Odd Fellow commitment to helping the Arthritis Foundation.

At the Unified Session in 2007 we will have a replica of the Liberty Bell for sale as well as our other bells to put on the tree. Look for us at the Arthritis table in the hotel Lobby at Session.

Other happenings in the upcoming months include: June 9 Cambria County Arthritis Walk; June 10 Arthritis Walk in Lehigh Valley and Juvenile Arthritis Day in Allentown; June 18 Swing Against Arthritis Golf Tournament in Wilkes Barre and June 30 Arthritis Walk in Philadelphia. Each Chapter can give you the details of the events they are sponsoring.....so GET INVOLVED!

Remember - 100% of your donations sent through the PA IOOF Arthritis Committee goes to the three PA Arthritis Foundation Chapters to help the kids with arthritis that go to Camp JRA each summer or the adults with arthritis who participate in the programs offered by the PA Arthritis Chapters.

Send ALL donations to Nevin Adams, Treasurer, 951 Shoemakersville Road, Shoemakersville, PA 19555-9010. Note how you want your contribution designated (Camp JRA, or general fund). We'd love to have some of the Odd Fellow and Rebekah Lodges assist the Chapters with their programs and send the information about their activities to the Odd Fellow and Rebekah Magazine. Call the Chapter nearest you and find out what you can do. The contact addresses and telephone numbers are:

BOYERTOWN LODGE #708 HOSTS ANNUAL "WILD GAME DINNER"

Lodge #708 was host for their annual "Wild Game Dinner." It has become a tradition to have the dinner each February. Weather conditions held back on the attendance compared to past years, however, a good night of fellowship and eating was held by those that made it to Boyertown. Members were present from Boyertown #708, Leesport #141, Shillington #1175, Victory #658 (Sellersville), Vincent #762 (Spring City), and Litiz #1050. Approximately 45 brothers attended and enjoyed a family style meal. The menu included: - Simmered Deer Steak, Deer Roast, Bear Meat Loaf, Deer Sausage, Bear Sausage, Deer Scrapple, Deer Summer Sausage, Baked Haddock, Salmon Cakes, Roast Chicken, Filling and Vegetables, Pie and Cake. The chief chef was Brother William Bauer, with his wife Ruth, and daughter Marcia. A good deal of time was spent in preparation of the food. This has become a traditional event at Boyertown, and plans are in motion for next year.

Easter Egg Hunt

Although not quite as big as previous years, we had fun. In the process of chatting with some of the parents we acquired two new Odd Fellows. One for Lady Emily and one for #1032.

They are the parents of two of the 20 children that attended. At this writing they have been interviewed, voted on and are awaiting degree work.

Port Matilda is cooking, they have a bunch of new members to initiate, Bellefonte has some, we have a couple and Mt. Hor is showing up with a couple. That is on Friday, May 4 at Port Matilda. If you would like to come call Don Trulick for all the details.

OFFICIAL VISIT

Yep we had an official visit on the 16th of April. Pretty soon GM Cupp's car will know its way to State College. We had a good time although the crowd was small. John is doing a good thing for Odd Fellowship. The manuals that his team has put together are great. Now if everyone is motivated to use them we should see some positive things begin to happen.

Last Honor

Two charters are draped in our Hall. The Odd Fellows draped our charter early last month. At their last meeting Lady Emily draped their charter. We will all miss PGM Cal Conklin. The Two lovely ladies are my wife, DDP Diane Kulp and PP Mary E Walker.

Coming Events

The special dinner shown in the schedule to occur on the 21st. will be our first attempt at honoring those organizations that we support.

Our baseball trip will be July 13 for a picnic and game at the State College Spikes.

The dinner / theater this year will be on August 14th, Boal Barn. The musical "She loves me" is the attraction.

Lady Emily fundraiser dinner at Hoss's June 11. Don't forget the ticket you need to direct the discount to our treasury.

??? On any of these events. 237-3993

Guidelines from God

2. PUT IT ON THE LIST:

Something needs done or taken care of. Put it on the list. No, not YOUR list. Put it on MY to-do-list. Let ME be the one to take care of the problem. I can't help you until you turn it over to Me. And although My to-do-list is long, I am after all... God. I can take care of anything you put into My hands. In fact, if the truth were ever really known, I take care of a lot of things for you that you never even realize. See you in Church.

FROM GRANDMA'S KITCHEN

JUMBLEBERRY CRUMBLE

3 cups halved strawberries
 1 1/2 cups fresh raspberries
 1 1/2 cups fresh blueberries
 2/3 cup sugar
 3 Tbls. Quick cooking tapioca
 1/2 cup flour
 1/2 cup quick cooking oats
 1/2 cup packed brown sugar
 1 tsp. cinnamon
 1/3 cup butter, melted

In a large bowl, combine the strawberries, raspberries, and blueberries. Combine sugar and tapioca; sprinkle over berries and toss gently. Pour into a greased 11 in. x 7 in. x 2 in. baking dish; let stand for 15 minutes.

Meanwhile, in a small bowl, combine the flour, oats, and brown sugar. Stir in butter; sprinkle over berry mixture. Bake at 350 degrees for 45 to 50 minutes or until filling is bubbly and topping is golden brown. Serve warm. Yield: 6 to 8 servings.

NUTTY BROCCOLI SLAW

1 package (3 oz.) chicken ramen noodles
 1 package (16 oz.) broccoli slaw mix
 1 cup sliced green onions (about 2 bunches)
 1 1/2 cups broccoli florets
 1 can (6 oz.) ripe olives, drained and halved
 1 cup sunflower kernels, toasted
 1/2 cup slivered almonds, toasted
 1/2 cup sugar
 1/2 cup cider vinegar
 1/2 cup olive or vegetable oil

Set aside the noodle seasoning packet; crush the noodles and place in a large bowl. Add the slaw mix, onions, broccoli, olives, sunflower kernels, and almonds. In a jar with a tight-fitting lid, combine sugar, vinegar, oil, and contents of seasoning packet; shake well. Drizzle over salad and toss to coat. Serve immediately. Yield: 16 servings.

GRAND MASTER'S RECIPE COLUMN

CINNAMON ROLLS (this recipe makes a lot of rolls)

3 cups water
 1 1/2 ounces yeast dissolved
 8 3/4 cups flour (bread flour if you have it, all-purpose will do)
 3 3/4 teaspoons salt
 3/4 cup sugar
 2 Tablespoons Dry milk powder
 1/2 stick margarine
 1/2 stick butter

Mix the above ingredients with dough hook at low speed for 10-12 minutes. Place in a lightly greased bowl, covered with cloth; let rise for 1 1/2 hours at 80 degrees or in oven on warm with door open (if your house is warm enough, the counter will be OK). Knead the dough and roll out into rectangles (you are going to make a roll and slice off individual rolls). Brush with melted butter. Sprinkle a cinnamon sugar mixture on the melted butter (the directions call for 2 pounds of sugar and one ounce of ground cinnamon; you can buy cinnamon sugar already prepared but it increases the cost of your cinnamon rolls; I like to add about 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg to the mixture but Emilie doesn't like nutmeg; you can add ground pecans too, if you like; make sure the cinnamon and sugar are well mixed before you sprinkle them on the rolls). Roll the dough into a log, slice off individual rolls and place them in well-greased round cake pans for baking. Brush the tops with melted butter and sprinkle more cinnamon sugar on the rolls prior to baking. Bake at 400 till done.

If you want to put a glaze on these rolls after you are done, (I don't glaze mine) the following glaze works but use it sparingly:

1 cup water
 1 pound Karo (16 ounces)
 1 1/8 cups granulated sugar

Mix in pan and bring to a boil on the stove, stir till sugar is completely dissolved; drizzle from spoon while still hot.
