THALIA REBEKAH #116 HOLDS BACK TO SCHOOL PROJECT

The members of Thalia Rebekah Lodge #116 in Pittston, recently held a project for underprivileged children in the community. With the financial support of Odd Fellows Lodges Askam #899 and Thistle #512, the Rebekahs purchased back packs and school supplies for elementary and middle school students in their region.

80 backpacks were purchased and "filled to the flap" with pencils, pens, 3 subject notebooks, glue, scissors, crayons, binders, folders, rulers and more. The backpacks were then distributed to the children before the first day of school.

This is the third year that Thalia Rebekah has held this worthwhile project.

MIDDLETOWN HOME

The Middletown Home's Activities are spectacular. On Labor Day, residents went to downtown Harrisburg to watch the Fireworks at the Annual Kipona Festival. Since we have gotten the bus, many trips such as this and including mall trips, farms, supermarkets, and even a trip to one of the local elementary schools to see the children dressed in Halloween costumes is on the agenda to have fun. Some residents are participating local dinner theatres to socialize and have a good time! Autumn brings our annual Harvest Day which includes hay rides, pumpkin painting, and a yummy bake sale. Many residents, families, and employees and their families look forward to this event!

Our annual employee picnic was held and many employees and their families were involved. They enjoyed the different foods that employees made, kid's games, and Sumo wrestling. Lot's of laughing going on there!

Residents enjoyed their annual clam bake and beer festival (root beer available). Activities worked hard at this event. Many residents wanted us to keep those clams coming. They couldn't get enough!

One resident at The Home celebrates her 100th birthday and we're going all out! Her favorite music, favorite cake, decorations, and photos to remember. As her daughter says, "We want this to be a blow out party!" We are hoping Willard Scott will celebrate with her by announcing her birthday as well!

The home is also starting a scholarship and career program for a local school. The fourth grade class will be participating this year. Managers are preparing to make fun presentations regarding their careers in healthcare. Throughout the year, the children will come to the Home and visit different departments to get a feel for all the careers available in healthcare. We're hoping the children enjoy their involvement and will want to be set on a healthcare career in their future.

And lastly, the Residents Council will be sponsoring a Magician's show on Halloween Day for their party! We all hope your Autumn is filled with magic!

Encampment news

Dinner to begin the festivities. GP Emily Cupp will be in attendance. It will be a busy evening with election of officers and installation of officers for Bellefonte and our guests Genesis Encampment from Cassville. And to top off everything two candidates will be voted on for membership.

Sad News

This is one of the toughest letters I have ever written and probably ever will write. Our Lodge is diminishing in size at a rapid rate. We have lost two more brothers. One in June and one just last week. So far we have only taken in two new members to help offset the decline.

Toward the end of July I got a letter from the daughter of Al Lopez. One of our members who lived in Maine. He was one of the members many years ago that was instrumental in convincing me to join the Odd Fellows. Another fellow back (Glenn Musser) then who has passed on many years ago were working at HRB at the same time I was and ganged up on me and several other fellows and convinced us that we couldn't refuse to join the Order.

It didn't take me long to agree with them. The Odd Fellows stand for every thing that is right with our slogan Friendship, Love and Truth to prove it. Al was a big fellow and was like a cuddly bear. He had ideas that scared some people and fascinated others. I am one of those who was fascinated. We had many long talks about UFO's and visiting aliens from other worlds. I'll never forget one discussion with another fellow who said we were crazy to believe in people from other planets. I knew he was a "Christian" and I looked at him and asked "You believe in God and that he created this world we live on?" He immediately said yes. My answer to him was "Your God is too small, my God created the whole universe and all that is in it". Big Al Lopez grinned and I knew he was suppressing a chuckle. Al believed strongly in education. He did a lot of teaching after he retired.

Russell Makepeace died about a week ago after a long fight with cancer. He spent a major portion of his working life keeping the plumbing at Penn State in proper order. As a matter of fact when he retired he was head plumber for the University. He enjoyed an unusual hobby for a man, but I can relate to it. He enjoyed doing embroidery and making pillows and such. When I was recovering from injuries in the service, another fellow and I made hook rugs on a grand scale.

These two will be missed along with the two, Art Erb and Cal Conklin who died last May. Odd Fellowship is a state of mind and it only works well when it is working with others. Look at the good we have done in just the last few years. Major contributions to State College Meals on Wheels, Centre Volunteers in Medicine, the Salvation Army and others. Look at the educational impact on the youth we have sent on the UN Tours. These things help to shape the future. Can we stop now, or even slow down? See you in church.

Yesterday is history
 Tomorrow is a mystery
 Today is a gift from God
 That's why it's called the present
 Let's live it like we mean it
 Because it's not a dress rehearsal

Dear Bill:

Thank you from the Planning Board & me for the successful rally that was held at Sandy Lake Lodge #573 on Saturday, Sept. 22, 2007. I wish to thank James Donley for preparing the evening meal & the Rebekah's for the light lunch at noon.

I wish to thank Cusseswago Lodge# 108 & Fallowfield #1128 Lodge for doing the First Degree, Sandy Lake Lodge #573 for the Second Degree, Old Monongahela Lodge #209 for the Third Degree & the Grand Lodge officers for the opening & closing of the Grand Lodge Degree. I also wish to thank all the Odd Fellow's, Rebekah's & the new candidates for traveling to Sandy Lake to make this rally a success.

We need to find a larger Lodge Hall that can accommodate this large of a crowd for future rallies in the western part of PA. If any one knows of a larger hall please let the Planning Board know.

I believe we had 22 new Odd Fellow's, 1 Rebekah, 5 that took the Grand Lodge Degree & 1 that took the Rebekah Assembly Degree.

Thank all you in FLT, The Planning Board
Committee Chairman, Arthur R Moyer

COMPUTER LIFE KEYS

Sometimes we need to use computer keys in our lives.

Like when things go wrong or we get upset at someone, we need to use the DELETE key to rid ourselves of that.

We need to -

SHIFT our thinking and
SPACE ourselves,
INSERT some love, think of an
ALTERNATE route.
BACKSPACE and
ENTER into God's presence so that we can go

CAMP JRA

Dear Mr. Locke:

On behalf of the Arthritis Foundation and all of Camp JRA's campers and volunteers, I would like to thank you for the Independent Order of OddFellow's ongoing support of Camp JRA.

The Independent Order of OddFellow's donations help Camp JRA continue to grow and provide rewarding experiences to children with arthritis and rheumatic diseases. This year, we were able to purchase medical equipment, mobility devices and activity supplies with some of the OddFellow's support. Additionally, we were able to provide many more scholarships to campers. Over 50 percent of the campers' families requested full or partial scholarships to Camp this year. Many of the families have extensive out of pocket medical expenses, and would otherwise be unable to afford the Camp registration fee.

Each year children tell us how much they love and appreciate having a camp that provides them with an opportunity to meet children with similar conditions, learn about their diseases, and most of all have a week of fun. The 2007 Camp JRA session was no different. A record 119 children from ages 8 to 18 enjoyed a week of activities, education and social interaction that they will remember for a very long time.

We are thankful for the Independent Order of OddFellows and all of its members and lodges. Thank you for making Camp JRA possible!

Sincerely,

Cathy Benson

(75 Years Ago, November – 1932)*PAST GRANDS' ASSOCIATION
JEFFERSON COUNTY

The Past Grand's Association, I.O.O.F., of Jefferson county, held a regular meeting with Reynoldsville lodge, No. 824, November 16. The Rebekahs and Odd Fellows' wives were our honored guests. Six of the Rebekah ladies gave a play that represented the George Washington bicentennial. The male quartet of Reynoldsville Lodge sang several selections. Brother A. G. Eichholtz, superintendent of Wayside Inn, Grove City, PA, gave one of his wonderful talks on the Home. Mrs. Eichholtz also spoke on the Home. The December meeting will be held with Brookville Lodge.

Lunch was served to two hundred persons.

CANTON HOLLIDAYSBURG, NO. 26

Monday evening, November 28th, was a great event in the history of Canton Hollidaysburg, No. 26, Patriarchs Militant, I.O.O.F. This being the occasion of their annual inspection, various Cantons were invited, and the response was wonderful. The following Cantons were represented: No. 5, of Johnstown, five Chevaliers; No. 24, of Altoona, seven Chevaliers; No. 42 of Bellefonte, four Chevaliers; No. 56 of Clearfield, seven Chevaliers; Canton Allegany, No. 4, from Cumberland, MD, seven Chevaliers.

The Patriarch Militant Degree was conferred on a candidate in a very efficient manner without rituals, and many favorable comments were expressed by the visitors present. Following the degree work the Canton was inspected by Major Charles C. Sivits, of Johnstown, accompanied by Col. J. Blaine Mank, commanding the 3rd Regiment, Lt. Col. R. C. Odgen, Col. H. W. Hinds ®, Lt. Col. W. H. Heverly ®, and Capt. Dyche of Cumberland, MD. Out of twenty-five uniformed Chevaliers on the roster, twenty turned out for inspection.

Short talks by different members of the various cantons, followed by refreshments, brought the evening's program to a close. This was one of the best attended and most interesting meetings ever held by Canton Hollidaysburg, No. 26.

OXFORD LODGE

Oxford Lodge No. 14, held Past Grand night on Wednesday, November 30, 1932, there being present two hundred members and visitors. Senior Past Grand William Waimman, Sr., conducted the services.

Oxford Lodge Greatly appreciated the presence of Grand Master Reed and staff, from the sister jurisdiction of New Jersey. We were especially gratified in having the presence of Grand Master Grant, and Grand Marshal Sims, of Pennsylvania. The speeches of these distinguished guests were interesting and constructive and no doubt will have a good effect in putting more vigor into the membership of our Order.

Oxford Lodge in October passed its 38th anniversary and of the charter members there are four still living. Two, Past Grand Samuel D. Knorr and senior Past Grand William Waimman, Sr., being present. Delegations from the following lodges were greatly welcomed: Tacony, No. 238; Mystic, No 270; Henry Disston, No. 8; Fox Chase, No. 135; Bustleton, No. 1193; and Bridsburg, No. 37.

After the speeches an enjoyable entertainment was presented, followed by refreshments.

(25 Years Ago, November – 1982)*SOUTHWEST DEGREE RALLY

The Annual Degree Rally sponsored by the Southwest Rally Committee was held Saturday, November 6, 1982 at the Holiday Inn, Greentree, PA.

The Odd Fellow program was opened and closed by Nathan Lewis - Fort Necessity Lodge No. 254. The First Degree was given by Leesport Lodge No. 141, the Second Degree was by Old Monongahela Lodge No. 209, and the Third Degree was given by District Deputy Grand Masters and Past Grand's.

The Rebekah Program was opened and closed by Lady United Rebekah Lodge No. 3. The Degree Team was comprised of members from Mary Sheraden Rebekah Lodge No. 360 and Mary Magdalene Rebekah Lodge No. 365.

The evening's program at the banquet was the seating of the officers. Words of welcome were given by Sister Nelma Stanier, followed by pledging of allegiance and singing the national anthem which was followed by the invocation.

The introductions were made by Sister Mary Yost and Brother Donald Buchanan. The entertainment was presented by a comedian.

The very successful activities of the Rally concluded with the benediction and drawing of door prizes. The TV drawing was won by Sister Martha Russler of Centre county.

The Banquet room was beautifully decorated with inflated balloons of many colors anchored in the center of each table and waving overhead.

IDELLA REBEKAH LODGE No.58

Idella Rebekah Lodge No. 58 met Wednesday, November 10th with 67 members and 12 visitors in attendance. The following were initiated into our lodge: Roxie Wetzel, Marline Motter, Kathy Fetter, Sarah Wetzel, Clyde Adams, and Joan Snyder bringing our total membership to 143. The visitors included Dorothy Brown, Past President, Rebekah Assembly and Sara Bonson, Rebekah Magazine Coordinator from Lady Butler # 316 in Milroy, Jean Woods from Lady Emily # 452, Centre County, Mr. and Mrs. George Heath from Regina # 230 in Shamokin, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Tripp from Salome # 30 in York and five sisters from Susannah # 247 in Harrisburg. After the meeting, all the sisters and brothers retired downstairs for refreshments and fellowship. Refreshments were served by the November Birthday Girls. A good time was had by all and we thank all our visitors for attending.

INSPIRED

I, Mary Greider, was inspired by the program at the Treadway Inn, as well as Thursday at Middletown, PA, and jotted down this poem: Susannah Rebekah is our name;

Odd Fellowship is our aim,

Truthfully speaking it's not a game,

For Love and Friendship are our aim.

- SMILE

HARRIET HUMMEL TURNS 100

Mrs. Harriet Hummel of 958 Tharp Street, Coal Township celebrated her 100th Birthday in April. Harriet is an 80-year member of Regina Rebekah Lodge #230 of Shamokin, Pa. joining one day after her 20th birthday 4/28/27.

Harriet is a life long resident of Tharptown and lives in her present home for the past 67 years. Her husband passed away 16 years ago. She has 4 children.

Harriet is a very independent lady who does most of her own cooking, laundry and as much housekeeping as possible. However, her family and neighbors are always willing to help. Even though her family would like her to move to assisted living, she doesn't want to move to a nursing home. Her comment on living alone is because of good neighbors who include her as family, grandmother and great-grandmother. She does feel reaching 100 years old is remarkable and commented "When you are 100 there is a lot to talk about, to think about and to remember."

The sisters of Regina #230 visited Harriet and presented her with flowers.

WYSOX REBEKAH LODGE HONORS LONGTIME MEMBERS

Each year Wysox Rebekah Lodge #443 holds a Spring Banquet at which time we honor any of our members with 50 or more years of membership. This year we had 2 members; 1 with 60 years and 1 with 50 years. The one with the 50- year honor had recently moved from our area to Lambertsville, NJ to be near her children. We were in a quandary as to how to get this pin to her than mail it. Our Noble Grand Peggy Walters is from Sellersville, Pa and her home town is about 20 minutes drive to Lambertsville. Peggy is also the mother of Judy Lodwig, Assembly soloist. Imagine our Sister Kathryn Ordille's surprise when they showed up at her apartment with her pin, and Judy brought along her guitar. They visited for quite sometime and Judy played and sang to her.

Sincerely

Margaret Montgomery Secretary

Port Matilda Lodge #733 teams up with Lady Emily Rebekah Lodge #452

On July 21, 2007, Port Matilda Lodge #733, with a lot of help from Lady Emily Rebekah Lodge # 452, entered a float in the Port Matilda Fireman's Parade. It was created from a utility trailer, a lot of red, white and blue decorations, some signs, a few American Flags and about five hours of precision labor. Port Matilda Lodge Grand Noble, Robert Krebs, and Lady Emily Rebekah Lodge Noble Grand, Linda Confer, rode back to back in the seats of honor on the float. Sisters of Lady Emily, dressed in white with pink parasols, added to its beauty as they rode on the float.

With over one thousand parade attendees, and hundreds of children, the Brothers and Sisters tossed about 100 pounds of candy into the crowd. The Brothers of Port Matilda Lodge walked along the parade route in special Lodge Shirts and gave away over 200 American Flags to the crowd.

It was a good day of Odd Fellowship, and everyone that participated has a good time. The float won first prize in the parade, and the prize money was split between the Lodges. Both Lodges; however, donated the prize money back to the Port Matilda Fire Company.

American Flag Facts

- Only the President and State Governors can order flags on government buildings to be flown at half-staff.
- When a flag is no longer serviceable or repairable, it should be destroyed by burning in a dignified manner.
- The flag should be lighted at all times, either by sunlight or by an appropriate light source.
- You do not have to destroy a flag that has touched the ground. It is acceptable to wash or dry clean an American flag when it is soiled or dirty.
- The Flag Code does not prohibit the flag from being draped across a coffin. The deceased does not have to be a veteran to have the flag draped on his or her coffin.

You can learn more about flag etiquette and other interesting facts about our flag by visiting the American flag website: www.usa-flag-site.org.

LODGE IS BACK IN BUSINESS

Independent Order of Odd Fellows renews its Lewistown charter at a ceremony Monday

Lewistown—The Independent Order of Odd Fellows may be lesser known to the population, however, the IOOF Lewistown Lodge 97 was reinstated Monday evening, bringing the organization back into the community.

The lodge—located at 17 S. Wayne St., closed its doors in March 2006, said former Grand Master John Cupp. After meeting with Lee Mackneer, financial secretary of the Lewistown lodge, the two began a recruitment process the following May.

Mackneer, who has been a member since 1965, is one of six members who now comprise Lodge 97.

"We found younger members and brought it back to life. That's the reason most organizations go under, they can't attract enough younger members," Cupp said.

"We at the Grand Lodge level feel this is an area where Odd Fellowship will help people out," said William Ramsey Jr., deputy grand master of Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, IOOF, and member of the Mount Hor Lodge 736, Cassville.

Monday evening's ceremony awarded Lewistown lodge its charter. Like any Odd Fellow meeting, the details were not secret, but private business was.

Odd Fellows are nothing new. Cupp said the organization made its way to the United States, by way of England, in 1819. It started as a mutual benefit society during the Industrial Revolution. Pennsylvania's order was created around 1823, he said.

"Lodge 97...was founded somewhere in the late 1830s," Cupp said.

"I'm going to guess that it's an old lodge," he joked.

Lewistown Lodge's diminishing membership is a common problem among the Odd Fellows. In 1913, there were more than 210,000 statewide members.

"We have retreated greatly to 3,200 current members, statewide," Cupp said. Some of the lodges in the United States have the minimal amount of five members to retain a charter, others have three or four lodges in one area, he added.

"We are having people die faster than we are taking people in. We are trying to turn it around," said William Locke, grand secretary of Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania.

"The idea is once a lodge is started, members go out in the community and recruit," Cupp explained.

He said regular meetings of Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges—the latter is for women—are open only to members of the order. "Two meetings a month are held, for an hour each. Ramsey said officers of the Grand Lodges, "are never in the same location" and travel thousands of miles each year.

At the meeting, among other things, members discuss community projects that they might support with labor or money, and lodge fundraising activities, according to the Odd Fellow Web site, www.glpaioof.org.

Cupp said Odd Fellows sponsor Boy and Girl Scouts of America, baseball teams, grand prix racers and help in soup kitchens.

"No way that I could generalize what we do. (We) can adopt any civil activity that we want...gives the local organizations freedom," he said.

Thank you, on behalf of the Fulton County Library staff, board members and patrons, for conducting a used movie and book drive for the benefit of the library. ## THANKSGIVING

Each year at this time we start to prepare for the "holiday season" and our thoughts turn first to Thanksgiving. We all have many things we are thankful for – good health, our families, our jobs, friends .....and the list goes on. For those with arthritis, they might add a day with less pain and discomfort than the day before, the scientists and pharmacists that are working to find a cure or the key to preventing the suffering or a new drug that promises relief. The IOOF helps support the three PA Chapters with their activities and fundraising work. We are always looking for new ideas and your help. November and December bring the Jingle Bell Runs/Walks and children's Holiday Parties to an area near you. Each Chapter and Branch plans them and can use your help. The main contact numbers for each Chapter are listed below. Make the call and enlist your Lodge members to help.

Remember - 100% of your donations sent through the PA IOOF Arthritis Committee goes to the three PA Arthritis Foundation Chapters to help the kids with arthritis that go to Camp JRA each summer or the adults with arthritis who participate in the programs offered by the PA Arthritis Chapters.

Send ALL donations to Nevin Adams, Treasurer, 951 Shoemakersville Road, Shoemakersville, PA 19555-9010. Note how you want your contribution designated (Camp JRA, or general fund). Donations received are noted in the Odd Fellow and Rebekah Magazine.

UNITED NATION PILGRIMAGE FOR YOUTH - 2007

The 2007 United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth tour was a great success. It was a great Group of young people and all were very appreciative of the opportunity to participate in the tour.

One of the highlights in New York City was the speech contest. The delegate from Asken Lodge #899, Hanover Township, Ashley Daubert was the winner of the contest for the week. Following is the letter to Ashlie from Charles Benson, Executive Director, United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth: "I wish to congratulate you on a very professional presentation during the second Tour of the 2007 United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth Program. As was announced on the evening of the speeches you are eligible for a $1,000 scholarship from the IOOF Educational Foundation..... Congratulations Ashlie."

A thank you from Korinda Corrigan, sponsored by Lady Emily Rebekah Lodge #452, as follows: "I would like to take this opportunity to express my heart felt gratitude for giving me the life changing experience. Not only was it a very educational experience, but I made some very good friends. It helped me grow as a person."

Jaime Wiest, sponsored by The Philadelphia Orphans Home for IOOF & Rebekahs wrote a note of thanks: "Thank you so much for presenting me with the opportunity of the United Nations Pilgrimage. The trip was both enlightening and fun. My favorite part being the trip to see "Hairspray" on Broadway! I've made some great friends who I'm sure I'll keep in touch with for a long time. Again, thanks for providing teenagers with such a unique, rewarding experience."

Another very appreciative delegate was Lauren Waltman sponsored by Mount Zion Lodge #74 IOOF, York. Following are her comments: "I wanted to personally take the time to thank you for the amazing trip I was given. This trip was not only a learning experience but it was also a life changing experience. I will admit that the first day, I wanted to turn around and walk out, but since I didn't, I had the most memorable experience of my life."

The cities I traveled to - Gettysburg, Philadelphia, New York, Boston, Salem, Toronto and Niagara Falls - were unbelievable and breathtaking. Not only did I learn the history of these cities, but I met so many people who have knowledge in these cities. The sights I saw - the Empire State Building, the Boston Harbor, and the Parliament of Canada to name a few were amazing to see.

My favorite city I visited without a doubt would be New York. Not only the gorgeous hotel, but the sights and sounds of the city were unforgettable... We visited Liberty Island, Ellis Island, Ground Zero, Times Square, and last but not least the United Nations. The United Nations was by far my favorite place to visit. We had two days to visit the UN and sitting in the same chairs as ambassadors of all countries was an unbelievable experience.

The part that amazed me most about the trip was the Oddfellow lodges. The delicious food and wonderful personalities of all Oddfellows and Rebekahs made me so happy to be on the trip. The service we were given was amazing and will never be forgotten.

The last thing I will say is that beyond all the traveling and sights, the people I traveled with changed my life. Since I did not know one person before I went on the trip I had to break out of my shell and meet new people - fifty new people to be exact. Again, I thank you with all my heart for giving me this wonderful opportunity. This was by far the best ten days of my life - I met fifty amazing people and loved every minute of the trip."

With all the above notes of appreciation from the delegates, I believe this is a great service to the youth and I hope more lodges will take an active part in the program.

Plans for the 59th United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth tour in 2008 are underway. I hope we will have as many delegates in 2008 as we have had the last several years.

Think positive and help give the youth this experience.

PA STUDENT WINS UN PILGRIMAGE SPEECH CONTEST & $1000 SCHOLARSHIP

Ashley Daubert from Wilkes-Barre, PA was the winner of the United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth Speech Contest held in New York City as part of this year's bus tour. She was awarded a $1000 college scholarship.

Held at the Affina Hotel

in downtown Manhattan, each student on the UN Trip is required to write a speech on the topic selected by the committee.. This year's topic was on international child slavery.

Preliminary rounds were judged with 12-15 students in each group. Winners from the six groups were then entered into the finals. According to the "Pop" on the trip, PGM Tom McHugh: "As soon as I heard Ashley's speech, I knew she would be the winner." "I've never seen a high school student with such poise and self-confidence give such a moving speech as Ashley did that night," PGM McHugh stated.

Ashley is seen in the photo with the IARA Grand Warden and UNP Executive Director Charles Benson.
