FROM THE DESK OF THE GRAND SECRETARY

Dear Readers:

This will be appearing in the February Magazine. This is the month to put Education in the front of the line. All of the Education programs need help. Educating our youth is for the future of our Country and our Order

This month has Valentine's Day, so do not forget your Sweetheart. This month is also the time to start getting ready for spring, plan your garden, start your seeds to get your plants to put out when the time is right.

This month is also like any other month where you should be thinking about making your Lodge grow. I know there are Lodges out there that are taking in members, so it can be done, all you need to do is ask someone to join with you in the good work of the Order. Have you ask all your friends, and family? If not why not?

Fraternally,
William L. Locke
Grand Secretary

Breakfast at the Hall

Our monthly breakfasts are back for a rerun. We discovered that some people thought that the breakfast was only for Odd Fellows. Not true, it is for everyone to enjoy and so we can raise the maximum to support the organizations in our area. If you live close enough join us I guarantee you won't go away hungry. The breakfast proceeds go toward funding for organizations we support. Mackie Levine, Noble Grand of our Lodge is shown here with Captain Chuck Neidenmyer, SA and Chief of Police Tom King presenting a special donation for the Salvation Army's Christmas fund. Some of the others that are supported are Meals on Wheels, Centre Volunteers in Medicine, Centre Life Link, our ambulance and EMT crew. All volunteer organizations that work to help those less fortunate in our town.

Christmas Party

Our party was as usual on the second Saturday in December. It is amazing how many requests we had for the Hall that night. Bob Homan did the whole thing himself with the help of his wife Laura. The decorations were great, the tables looked wonderful. And, best of all, the dinner was fantastic. It was so good that the leftovers provided another dinner Monday for lady Emily. And would you believe; the following Monday the brothers of 1032 feasted again. Laura did double duty, when the entertainment got ready; guess who was there with bells in her hands, Laura. She arranged for the Bell Choir from their church to play for us. Everyone enjoyed the Christmas Party.

Our work towards fighting Cystic Fibrosis is moving along, but slowly. Too many things to do and not enough time in the day to do them. The letter explaining what we are trying to set up will be in the mail soon. We hope that all of you will be interested.

It is that time of year again, time to send in your deposit for the youngin' your Lodge is sending on the UN Tour. We are _ of the way through our Lodge year. Is your Lodge on schedule with the projects you have scheduled for this year? One of our jobs is done. We managed to get a new floor in the Lodge Hall. It's beautiful and gives us a bigger look. We took away the carpet that surrounded the floor, now have hardwood, wall to wall. Also we are halfway through the Session year. Have you done what you promised the Brothers you would do?

To you and yours a Happy New Year

MIDDLETOWN HOME

Residents at the Home rang in the New Year of 2008! The year of 2007 went by very fast for many.

The Kunkel children and the Seven Sorrows children will be visiting again to have fun with the residents. The children will be reading to and conversing with the residents this month. The next visit will be in a couple of months.

The lobby in The Home now has a large flat screen television donated by Amphenol Intercon Systems, a local company. The television is on the brick wall of the lobby and the residents can all see it, hear it, and enjoy it. February 3 is Super bowl Party and the company plans to come enjoy the Super bowl with the residents, staff, and family. The company also wants to sponsor movie nights with popcorn and fun!

WYSOX REBEKAH LODGE #443

Wysox Rebekah Lodge recently held their annual HoBo Dinner. This is an activity we have each year as a fun night. Dinner is soup, made by one of our Sisters, and rolls, also made by one our Sisters. Other Sisters bring other items to round out the meal. Everyone comes dressed as HoBos and we all have a very fun evening. The table is covered with newspaper and corn cobs are the candlesticks set in tin cans. A bouquet of wildflowers graces the center of the table.

The soup is served and eaten in aluminum pie plates. The attached pictures show evidence of the table and Rebekahs attending.

A Recipe for a Good Odd Fellow

I have a classmate from high school that has a stand at some flea markets. I asked her to look out for some odd fellow items.

She found this post card at a flea market in Vermont. I thought it was unique. Have you seen this recipe in your lodge activities?

WALKER LODGE NO. 306 CELEBRATES THE CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS

On Monday December 17th 2007, Walker Lodge held their annual Christmas dinner at Walker Lodge. There were approximately 75 members and guests in attendance. As customary, there was a "Happy Hour" with condiments from 5:30 to 6:30 PM before the dinner. All proceeds from the Happy Hour were donated to the Visual Eye Research with a matching donation from the Mary I. Clay Charitable Trust Fund. Entertainment included Holiday music spun by a guest disc jockey, videos of this years Children's Christmas Party held on the previous Saturday at Walker Lodge and videos of some previous Christmas dinners held at Walker Lodge (my how some of us have aged). A special thanks goes to Brother Charles Balmer and his wife Judy (pictured) who perform their happy hour hosting duties for the event. The dinner was followed by the 8:PM membership meeting. During the meeting, Brother Rick Meagher gave a report on Walker's custom of presenting a box of chocolate candy to all widows of deceased members which were distributed by committee members. During "Good of the Order," a group picture of the membership in attendance was taken with our present Noble Grand Sister Trish Franklin at the center of the portrait with a rather large Christmas card sent by Brother Bob Gruber. The card states: "May all the seasons of your life be filled with Peace and Happiness." Recognition also

In F.L. & T., hope we can all do this again next year and with an increase in lodge membership on the rolls. Best wishes go out to all those associated with Odd Fellowship everywhere for a Happy, Healthy and Safe year 2008.

P.O.F. DAYS GONE BYP.O.F. DAYS GONE BY
(75 Years Ago, February – 1933)*HUGHESVILLE*Members Added to Rebekah Lodge

Lady Hughes Rebekah Lodge No. 215, of Hughesville, held an interesting meeting Thursday night, February 16, when four candidates were added to the lodge membership. Following the business session, a Valentine social and birthday party were held. Valentine favors were presented, and refreshments were served. Seated at the birthday table were: Mrs. Ivah Houseknecht, Mrs. Lucetta Egley, Mrs. Florence Sherwood, Belva Cahn, Mrs. Effie Bardo, and Mrs. Nettie Fiester. There were 69 present.

NEW CASTLELawrence Encampment, No. 86

Regular Semi-monthly meeting of Lawrence Encampment, No. 86, I.O.O.F., was held on Friday evening, February 17, in the I.O.O.F. hall on East Washington street, with Chief Patriarch Fred Reeher presiding over a large attendance of the members.

After the regular business session the Veteran Past Chief Patriarch's degree team took charge of the Encampment. In a very impressive manner they conferred the Royal Purple Degree on a class of candidates. Past Grand Patriarch William Curtiss, of Braddock, PA was present and gave a very interesting address.

At the conclusion of the regular business an excellent lunch was provided by the social committee. The remainder of the evening was spent in the adjoining club rooms, where several interesting talks were given by veterans of Odd Fellowship.

Mr. Hill was the able accompanist of the evening on the piano. The success of the evening was due to the efforts of Chief Patriarch Fred Reeher.

MEADVILLECussewago Lodge has Initiation Ceremony

Cussewago Lodge, No. 108, I. O. O. F., held their regular meeting Monday evening, February 6th, and the proceedings were of more than ordinary interest. The Degree Team of Crawford Lodge, No. 734, was present to confer the Third Degree upon a class of candidates, including two from New Richmond Lodge, and several members of that lodge accompanied the candidates. Saegertown, Cochran and other lodges were represented in the crowd and when lodge opened, the number of "Three-linkers" assembled was fully a hundred.

The degree team of Crawford Lodge performed the work of conferring the degree in a superb manner, winning much well-deserved praise for the dramatic presentation of the ceremonies. The "good of the Order" period was, as usual, pleasant to all.

Last on the program was the serving of a spaghetti supper in the dining room, and the menu proved acceptable to all.

PITTSBURGH

A consolidation of Schenley Park and Angerona Lodge was effected February 14th at Pittsburgh, and the new lodge chartered as Oakland Lodge, No. 13. The new lodge starts out well by selecting one of the best known and biggest Odd Fellows in Allegheny County as its first N. G., Eugene L. Crow. It also demonstrated its wisdom in enlisting its most earnest workers as officers. With a net capital of $22,551.33 and a total membership of 403, it bids fair to becoming one of the most active lodges in our jurisdiction. We wish it all success.

(25 Years Ago, February – 1983)CHARLEROI LODGE NO. 1030

In commemoration of important anniversaries in the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, members of Charleroi Lodge No. 1030, with their wives or a relative, had a dinner at Clineman's Restaurant at Charleroi R.D., Maple Creek Road, on February 17, 1983.

The anniversaries observed were: January 14th, Anniversary of the Charleroi Lodge which was instituted in 1892; January 15th, anniversary of the birthday of Thomas Wildey, founder of the fraternity; April 26th, the 164th Anniversary of the founding of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in North America in 1819.

SALOME REBEKAH LODGE NO. 30

Spring is almost here and now we open our doors and windows to let in the fresh air and sunlight. Salome Rebekah Lodge No. 30 has opened their doors to five new members. On February 23, 1983 we initiated four members of one family and the husband of one of our members. We are proud to welcome into our Order the following new members: Alfred Lassley and his wife Esther and their two daughters, Cindy and Jill Harris, also Carlton Bailey, husband of our Warden Edna Bailey. We are all happy and proud to have these new members.

SWEETHEART NIGHT

Sweethearts come in all shapes, sizes, and ages. So on February 16th, Lady United Rebekah Lodge No. 3 honored our Sweetheart for the evening. Size, Small; Heart, Big; Name, Mary Rose.

Mary is our Financial Secretary and wears many hats. One of these this year is Color Bearer of the Rebekah Assembly of Pennsylvania.

Betty Kalish, our Conductor, escorted Mary to the center of the floor, and our Inside Guardian, Hazel Jones, delivered the Valentine Cards from the members. A gift of an Owl Wind Chime was presented from the Lodge by Esther Faulkland. We know that Valentine's Day and Flowers always go together, so Cathy Mitchell (she makes our beautiful music) delivered a Crystal Perfume Bottle with Pink and white Carnations. And a book of Poems and verse. Pictures of the event were taken by our Warden, Grace Greenawald.

Special Visitors for the evening were Mildred Birch (Mary Rose's Sister) and Mildred Bartsch both of Mary Sheridan Rebekah Lodge No. 360.

Also on this memorable evening the lodge was presented with the gift of a very beautiful Bible from our Vice Grand, Myrtle Milligan.

Whereas, the Pennsylvania Odd Fellow - Rebekah Education Fund, established in 1993, has made it possible for 282 students to receive $141,000.00 in scholarships, and

Whereas, the need for loans and scholarships is ever increasing to meet high costs of helping men and women find their place in life, and

Whereas, one of our commands of to "educate".

Now therefore, I Stewart L. Brenneman, by virtue of the authority duly vested in me as Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, do hereby proclaim,

The month of February as EDUCATIONAL MONTH throughout the Jurisdiction of Pennsylvania.

Further, request all Lodges to support this project by holding a money-raising event or a treasury donation and send to the Grand Lodge Office.

HOME FOR ORPHANS OF ODD FELLOWS

Meeting Dec. 8, 2007

At this meeting we have as many UN Students and parents, as possible come to have lunch with us and give us a report on this years UN Trip. This year we had five young ladies and one young man (the other four students were involved in school activities) give us a report on their trip. Each year the reports are better then the year before, or so it seems to us. Each year we hear one thing that is the same each year from each student, all the great new friends that they have made and the wonderful things they got to see and what a great learning experience they had and can they go again. I always tell them yes they can go again, all they need to do is join the Odd Fellows or Rebekahs and then be asked to be the Mom or Pop for the trip. Each student received his or her Certificate of Participation, group picture and UN Tour pin. I am also mailing to each student the Odd Fellow DVD and three applications (one for the student and one for each parent).

At this meeting we also hold elections for the coming year, this year we will be electing officers and board member using the new By-Law changes. Craig Reinhart was elected to a three-year term as president, Mary Landes was elected as vice president and Mae Haussler as secretary for two-year terms, and Nevin W. Adams was elected treasurer for a one-year term. The following people were elected to the Board of Directors for three-year terms, Myra F. Adams, Mary D. Delong, Elizabeth Krout & David Cliggett, two year terms, Clifford Snyder, Robert Smedley & William Hartman, one year term, Alton R. Schmoyer, Robert Vaughan & Charlotte Fritz. As these terms end, their successors will be elected to three-year terms. Charles Shorten was elected to a five-year term as a Trustee.

We have four meetings per year where all the representative and directors meet to make our plans and make donations to various causes. We usually have about thirty people come to these meetings.

KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK.

WANT TO CELEBRATE WITH US?

On Saturday evening March 15th, 2008, Walker Lodge will be celebrating their 160th anniversary at "The Brookside Manor" located at 50 Bustleton Pike, Feasterville Trevose, PA - just outside NE Philadelphia on Bustleton Pike.
