Central PA*Breakfast

Our last Breakfast was less than we had hoped for in attendance. The May Breakfast is scheduled and will come off as they have been. But we are going to take a hard look at our fund raising activities next meeting night. We have already talked about Spaghetti Dinners which would be easier to do and might have more appeal to our public.

Square Dancing

This activity has been going on at Windmere Hall for years. The Nittany Squares have been meeting on Sunday afternoons for a long time. Also during the Summer we have the Centre Squares at our facility on some Friday nights. I am sure that either group would be interested in you, If you would like to learn square dancing.

Blood Drive

March 31 was ARC Blood Drive time.

We had a good time and did get ten good pints. And as you know that may help as many as 30 people. There were several others willing but were turned down for low iron or something else. Let us hope that as time goes by we can attract more people to these blood drives in order to make a more serious addition to the supply.

Arthritis Walk

The walk was held last Saturday at the Boalsburg Shrine. Lady Emily, assisted by State College lodge 1032 and others, had a team walking and raised over $700. The whole event collected over $12,000. This old man even managed once around the loop. And a lot of dogs took part. Some of them beat me.

Office Space

Know anybody who might need office space. Our second floor at Windmere Hall has been vacant for sometime and we would like to get it rented again.

The measure of a persons real character is what he will do if he thinks he'll never be found out.

IDELLA REBEKAH LODGE #58

Saturday evening, April 12th 2008 Idella Rebekah Lodge celebrated its 50th anniversary with a banquet at Masser's Banquet Hall in Paxinos, Pa.

Prior to the banquet a group picture was taken with 56 sisters and 2 Brothers in the photo.

Noble Grand Dawn Snyder welcomed everyone and the invocation was given by Chaplain Arlene Brown.

We enjoyed a dinner of country fried chicken, baked ham and all the trimmings, anniversary cake and ice cream was served for dessert.

We were honored to have the Rebekah Assembly President A. Elaine Weekley and Vice President of the Assembly Patricia Newman joining us for the celebration.

After dinner they were introduced by Noble Grand Dawn Snyder.

Noble Grand presented everyone with a gold rimed glass mug with 50 years and the Lodge Emblem engraved on it.

A collection was taken for the Assembly President's project; the amount presented to the Assembly President was $111.00.

Unified Session is just around the corner!

Shortly after you receive this magazine in the mail, the 37th PA Unified Session will begin. Will we see you there? I sure hope so. The PA IOOF Arthritis Committee will be there to greet you in the Lobby and we'll have our "Christmas in June" bells for sale to decorate the tree to help those with arthritis.

Try Your Luck

The IOOF Arthritis Committee is holding a raffle. First prize is this American made miniature Batesville tandem tractor trailer. It's a great replica and a collector's item. Wouldn't your son, grandson or great grandson love owning this?

The second prize is a Pennsylvania 5 IOOF Throw. Imagine having it next fall when there is a chill in the air and you want to sit and read a great novel, mystery or biography. Help us help those with arthritis and purchase raffle tickets.

The chances are 3 tickets for $2.00.

They are available from members of the Arthritis Committee or you can mail a check made out to Pennsylvania IOOF Arthritis Committee for the number you want with your name and address to: Robert Raffensberger, 316 S. Main Street, Sellersville, PA 18960.

The three Chapters are looking for volunteers to assist with their upcoming Walks and other activities.

Can your lodge members help? The Eastern Chapter has a Walk scheduled for June 8th in Lehigh County and also on June 8th, they have a Children's Arthritis Walk at the Lehigh Valley Zoo at Trexler Nature Preserve in Schnecksville. The BIG Eastern Chapter event on June 19th is the Third Annual Jimmy Rollins Celebrity BaseBOWL Tournament benefiting The Arthritis Foundation of Eastern Pennsylvania at the Center City Philadelphia Lucky Strike Lanes. You can join other Phillies fans as Jimmy trades in his baseball glove for a bowling ball.

The Western Chapter has a Family Day scheduled for June 14th at the Pittsburgh Zoo and PPG Aquarium. There is also a Walk scheduled for June 21st at Butler County Community College. Please call the Chapters at the number below and volunteer to help out at one of the activities for Arthritis. If one of the activities listed isn't near you, there will be more.

Your time is appreciated and remember - 100% of your donations sent through the PA IOOF Arthritis Committee go to the three PA Arthritis Foundation Chapters to help the kids with arthritis that go to Camp JRA each summer or the adults with arthritis who participate in the programs offered by the PA Arthritis Chapters.

Send ALL donations to Nevin Adams, Treasurer, 951 Shoemakersville Road, Shoemakersville, PA 19555-9010. Note how you want your contribution designated (Camp JRA, or general fund). We'd love to have some of the Odd Fellow and Rebekah Lodges assist the Chapters with their programs and send the information about their activities to the Odd Fellow and Rebekah Magazine. Call the Chapter nearest you and find out what you can do. The contact addresses and telephone numbers are:

VOLUNTEER!

Charles E. Danihel, Chair, PA IOOF Jurisdictional Arthritis Committee

Dear Readers:

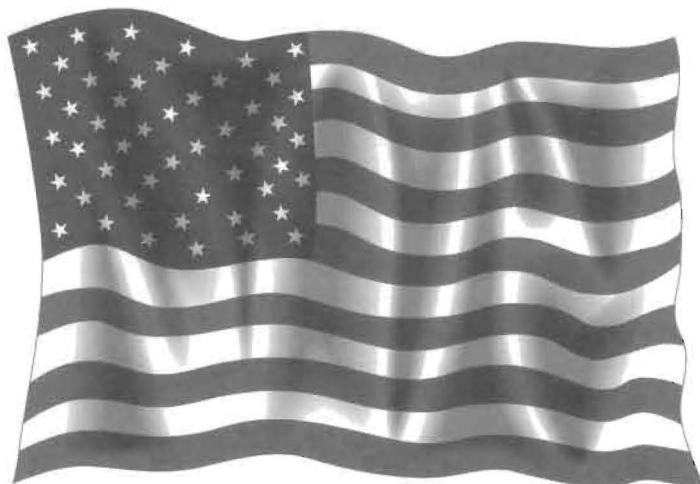

When you receive this your Lodge should have received the advanced report. Your Lodge should discuss this report with your representative. He should have your instructions on how to represent your lodge. That way the Grand lodge knows what the wishes of your lodge are. If you do not send a representative you have no reason to complain. I hope every lodge would send a representative. It is sad when only half the lodge are interested enough to send a representative.

It is getting to the time of year where everyone will be thinking vacations. I wish for all a great vacation of their choice even if it is only in your own back yard.

Fraternally,
William L. Locke
Grand Secretary

A LIVE DISTRICT

We are doing fine in my district in spite of hard times. We just finished up degree work on one candidate in Reynoldsville Lodge. Brookville is putting a class of three through now, our Degree Team conferred the second last week for them, and we are going out to Worthville this week to confer the third.

We held a very impressive Memorial Service at Reynoldsville last Sunday. Rev. W.O. Calhoun made the principal address.

Past Grand's Association met Worthville Friday night, June 23rd, and a picked team put on the Third Degree.

Harvey S. Deter, D.D.G.M.

At the close of Session when but 350 of the 626 Representatives remained, legislation was effected to discontinue the publication.

P.O.F. DAYS GONE BY (25 Years Ago, June – 1983)*FALLS CREEK LODGE HALL BURNS

On Wednesday evening, June 1, 1983, the Falls Creek Lodge building in Falls Creek, PA was destroyed by fire. Plans are being made for another meeting place temporarily until they can get things planned out. The Lodge lost practically all of their records and possessions in the fire, and they may be in need of some help and material. Notice of anything further will be forthcoming a little on.

"57TH ANNIVERSARY" AND PAST GRAND NIGHT
HELD AT RED ROSE REBEKAH LODGE NO. 586

What a grand night it was, June 2nd. The evening started at 6:30 with baked ham, which was provided by the Lodge, and made by our Sister Louise Longenecker. The menu had just about anything a big appetite could consume. The covered dishes included baked beans, macaroni salad, baked macaroni and cheese, candied sweet potatoes, mixed vegetables, scalloped potatoes, rhubarb sauce, apple sauce, rolls, etc. Desserts were, pineapple upside down cake, "Anniversary Cake", strawberries with dip, strawberry cream pie, Watergate salad, rhubarb pie, apple jell-o with dream whip, mints, and caramel popcorn.

The committee in charge of the decorations did a great job. They had the tables each decorated with a white table cloth and a bouquet of roses.

There were nine Past Noble Grand's in attendance. The oldest Past Noble Grand, Marguerite Hipple, who is 91 years young, and still has her own apartment, received a gift from the Lodge. The youngest Past noble Grand in attendance was Cordia Bechtel; she was given a gift from the Lodge also. All Past noble Grand's received a change purse from the Lodge members who were very appreciative for the job that they had done over the years to make the Lodge "The Place to go."

Other Past Noble Grand's attending were: Anna Haupt, Edith Morrow, Hanna Rider, Nellie Bamberger, Catherine Folk, Ruth Messinger, and Ethel Sauder.

There were thirty members and their guests in attendance. Jane Reisinger, D.D.P. of Dauphin County, also attended.

After the great covered dish meal the Lodge was entertained by Lawrence Hawkins, trombonist. Larry is a Senior Music Major at Millersville State College.

The evening was enjoyed by all who attended. We say thank you all who made the evening great.

Catherine Wright, News Coordinator

MIDDLETOWN HOME

The time has come to start thinking about celebrating Summer! Everyone celebrates Summer differently, and here at The Middletown Home we'd like each of our residents to enjoy Summer to the best of their liking. The Activity Department has scheduled outings for fishing trips, ice cream outings, and evening Fire Hall Bingos.

Another interest is gardening. Residents have planted many flowers from seeds and we are planting them on The Middletown Home's grounds. Residents can sit outdoors or they can look out their windows and enjoy the beauty they have made possible. Families especially like taking their loved ones for a stroll around the grounds to enjoy the flowers, trees, and beautiful grounds.

Father's Day is also celebrated in June and that means The Home is preparing for the 3rd Annual Antique Car Show. Residents love to stroll around the antique and customized vehicles which remind them of the past, and the car's owners are very willing to socialize, particularly about their prized "beauties."

The next big event at The Home is our annual Home Day event. This takes place in July and all staff will be planning this special day for the residents and their families. We typically have a band, delicious picnic foods, and fun for all under brightly striped tents which have been set up on the grounds.

Stay cool, keep hydrated, and enjoy your Summer, everyone!

HISTORIAN TO EXAMINE WWI TIME CAPSULE

Meeting to take place in Borough's oldest brick building
By Al Zagofsky

The White Haven Historian Society meets Sunday evening in the historic Odd Fellows Building to examine what the Society's vice president, Jack Crosley, calls a "World War I time capsule."

The meeting, which is planned for tomorrow evening, April 20 at 6:30 p.m. at the Odd Fellows Building, 238 Main St. in White Haven will examine a chest, dating to the Great War, and gift it to Jesse Teitelbaum, executive director of Luzerne County Historical Society in Wilkes-Barre.

The International Order of Odd Fellows founded White Haven Lodge #457 in 1857. In 1874, they constructed a three story brick meeting building the first brick building in the White Haven area. Lodge #457 has been in continuous existence since its inception. There will be a presentation about the Lodge, its building and a tour of the building.

The feature presentation is an examination of a chest dating from World War I that contains letters, photographs and memorabilia related to the family of Ed Dugan of Wilkes-Barre-circa 1918. During the First World War, Dugan was "Over There." He served in the Navy, and was stationed in France for six months as communications clerk. His letters and other family material were ensconced in what appears to be a military trunk.

The trunk, approximately two feet long by 1-1/2 feet wide and a foot high, half filled with materials, weighs about 30 pounds. Its construction is of a wooden box frame, lined on the inside with fabric. On the outside, it is covered with dark green sheet metal, with metal latches, wooden bumpers, and leather belting to secure it. There are vestiges of metal travel stickers. The case was tagged: E. J Dugan, 323 Bowman St. Wilkes-Barre, Penna.

"One Friday evening last July the chest was dropped off at my home by a Miss Kate O'Donnell," said Crosley. "It had been donated to sell at a church flea market in town."

Although the chest was ascribed to Dugan, with the contents suggesting his first name was "Ed", the chest may have begun with Ed's material and then supplemented with other family materials. There are references to what may be two brothers: Hugh and Patrick; There are also materials where the last name is spelled "Dugan."

There are even some letters from Suzanne from Coeur de Alsace Lorraine in France, in which she refers to Ed as "her special friend."

The collection contains postcards, maps, and railroad timetables. There are photographs of French buildings, a biplane, and friends. There is a large photograph taken by a Wilmington studio-a portrait of about 30 Navel men with their dates at a formal gathering. "There was also a poem. 'They talk about sunny France,' he wrote. 'Where the hell is the sun?'" said Crosley.

Although the materials may be more valuable if separated, Crosley opted to keep the collection together and donate to its home city of Wilkes-Barre. "To break it up would be wrong," Crosley said.

"I was amazed to find that type of information just thrown in an old trunk and discarded," he noted. "I thought it was a shame and realized it was a time capsule."

THANK YOU FROM BLIND & VISION REHABILITATION

Dear Mr. Locke and Members of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania:

Please accept my gratitude for your donation of $1,308.82 that we received in late March. I am sorry that this letter had taken so long to get to you, however, I left on vacation the week the donation arrived and have not gotten a chance to write you until this time.

As you know, people come to our organization who have lost or are losing their visions so that they can continue to lead independent and successful lives. We are serving people not only from all of Pennsylvania, but many other states as well as they are able to stay in our dormitories while they receive training.

We depend on approximately one-fourth of our annual budget through charitable contributions, so every dollar we receive is very important to us. With the cost of serving clients going up each year and the decrease in state and federal funding, every donation is vital to serving our visually impaired clients.

Although you are far way, we welcome you to come visit if you are in the Pittsburgh area. We would love to have you come on a tour to see how your donations are being used.

Thank you again for your efforts and support.

Sincerely,

Constance Schwartz-Bedo
Director of Development
