THANK YOU

I want to tell you how honored I am to receive your scholarship. My family and I appreciate this award beyond belief. I will use it wisely while I attend PSU.

I have been accepted in the School of Engineering at Penn State. I have been studying Electrical Engineering Technology while at entral Mountain High School through the Pennsylvania School of Technology and have 22 credits completed. I'm not sure all these credits will transfer but I will continue with either electrical or computer engineering. I hope to do something with computers after I graduate.

I would also like to check out the many clubs at PSU and maybe try out for the men's bowling team. I have been bowling for years and think I could possibly be an asset to their team. I also hope there is a motocross club so that I can ride my motorcycle with some new friends I make there. I was a national champion last year and love to spend time on my dirt bike.

Thank you again for giving me this award. I appreciate your help with furthering my education and I will put all of my efforts into my future. I want to make you proud that you have given this opportunity to me.

Thank you,
 Michael T. Fowler

FROM THE DESK OF THE GRAND SECRETARY

Dear Readers:

On Sunday July 20th I attended Annual Home Day Celebration at the Odd Fellows Home at Middletown. It was a nice sunny day and I believe everyone had an enjoyable time. The food was good as was the entertainment.

Before the festivities got started there were three Committee meetings. From what I saw they were not very well attended. I am told that attendance is usually that way. That makes me wonder why the Brothers and Sisters accept appointments on these Committees if they are not willing to take the time to attend and help with their ideas. These Committees need your help if you do not want to do your duty on a Committee tell the Head of your Branch of the Order so they can put someone on the committee that will attend.

Along these same lines we need all the members to become more active. I attended the "FUN DAY" at Knoebels' Park this year there were only about 90 in attendance. The first year this was done there were over 300 in attendance. One of the Rebekah Lodges in years gone by chartered a bus, and it was full. WHAT HAPPENED? This is still one of the better get-togethers. Let us all see what we can do to bring it back up to the 300 mark. Talk it up in your lodge, bring a bus full. It is a very nice park with rides for everyone. Bring your family, the little ones, also your friends and neighbors. Show them Odd Fellows have fun too, maybe you will be able to sign up some new members.

This month you will be electing officers in your Lodge. Give it some thought and put in officers that will take the time to do the job that needs to be done in the office they are elected to. Start making plans as to how you are going to make your lodge grow. Get involved in the things that are happening in the Order, like the one mentioned in the paragraph above. You might find you are still able to be involved and have fun doing it.

Fraternally,
William L. Locke
Grand Secretary

FROM THE DESK OF THE DEPARTMENT COMMANDER

Labor Day Labors

Barney Wells was trying to adjust to civilian life after service in the Great War. He was preparing to return to his job as a high school English teacher after Labor Day. It was 1919 and electricity was coming through the back streets and rural areas. Barney's lodge was going electric and the members decided they would go to the lodge hall on Labor Day and do some cleaning so that they could have an electrician wire the building.

The building was old and had been used as a lodge hall since the 1840's. The oldest member was George Armor, who had joined in 1861. Barney's father, Thomas Wells, joined in 1880 and was still able to attend meetings. A group of the men gathered at the lodge hall, including the Wells's, to discuss the clean before starting to work. Tom made a pot of coffee in the gas stove and looked at the old gas lights. He remembered many degree conferrals by the flickering gas lights and wondered if the degrees would be the same under electric lights.

As seven members sat around the table in the first floor social hall, drinking coffee and planning the work, Joe Ryan came up with a disturbing fact.

"You know," Joe said, "the lodge doesn't have very much money. We need to think of a way to pay for the electrification or we are going to have to assess the members. We only hired the electrician to do the entrance, the porch and the anteroom. I don't know if we can run part of the building gas and part electric without causing a real problem."

Tom Wells agreed, "It just doesn't seem safe to have a bunch of sparks where you might suffer a gas leak."

"Well," said Barney, "we will just have to assess the members. I know it isn't popular but we are the largest and most successful fraternal organization in the world. We can't let our lodge fall behind lesser organizations."

"Where do you think we should start?" asked brother Clancey.

Barney thought for a moment and said, "We should go to the little room above the anteroom where we have all the junk stored. If we are going to illuminate the anteroom, wiring will have to go through there."

The members lit a lantern, grabbed some rags and went up to the storage room. Everything was covered with dust and hadn't seen light for years. The original scene was there. It hadn't been used for over ten years because the sides of the coffin were pulling away. A paper mache scene had been purchased. It was in a lighter weight coffin and was dressed in a tuxedo. This made it much easier to use than the original that had been exhumed from an Indian burial mound prior to the Civil War.

When they dusted off the coffin and opened it, there was dust everywhere. Tom Wells remarked, "I remember using this scene when I was initiated."

Barney was trying to secure the lining of the coffin so that it could be moved without the skeleton catching the lining when he noticed that there was an Indian head penny in the coffin. "I wonder where that came from?" he mused.

Tom replied quickly, "We used to have a custom of asking each new member who was initiated to put a penny on the dead man's eyes, donating two cents to the lodge. It doesn't seem like much now but it was something in 1880 and I imagine it was even more when the lodge opened in 1842."

Barney noticed that the penny was dated 1868 and thought it might be worth something to a collector, since it looked almost new. "I bet some of those old pennies would be worth something today," Barney said.

Tom replied, "I imagine they would. Some of the wealthier members put larger coins in the coffin. When I was initiated the vice president of the railroad joined the same night and he put two $2.50 gold pieces in the coffin."

Joe looked at the penny and said, "Well maybe we can offer it for sale or have brother Rosen sell it for us, he has a jewelry store and sells coins on the side."

"A good thought" said Barney, "now help me move this box under the coffin."

The box wouldn't budge. Barney wiped off the dust and noticed that the box had the lid nailed down and the painting under the dust read "Pennies for a dead man's eyes."

Barney and Joe got a bar and opened the box. In it were bags. Barney opened the first bag and it was full of coins, pennies both large and small, nickels, dimes, quarters, halves, silver dollars and a few gold pieces. Joe opened the second bag and it was full of the same. Brother Clancey looked at the bags in the box and exclaimed, "I guess we are going to have enough money to electrify the whole lodge hall."

Barney responded, "I think we can get an electric ice box too."

"Well," said Tom, "when Odd Fellows work together, there is no telling what they'll be able to do."

"It looks like our labors were met with great success this labor day," said Joe.

The lodge met the following day and counted the money. They decided to have some of the older pieces, especially the large pennies, half dimes and older gold pieces sold by the brother that was a jeweler. There was enough money cleared to pay for the electrician, buy an electric refrigerator and pay a janitor to do a thorough cleaning of the lodge hall.

When the final report on the improvements was made, Brother Clancey reminded the members, "Whenever we meet together we seek assistance from above. We were surely assisted from above when we were cleaning up on labor day."

Next Month, "What about Columbus?"

MIDDLETOWN HOME NEWS

Residents are having a grand time here at The Middletown Home and in the community. "Hollywood Casino", Grantville, PA was a big attraction for residents. Another bus trip had to be scheduled so that all could get a chance at Lady Luck! Some lost, some won, and some broke even. They all want to go again soon.

Soon, the kids will be back to school and visiting at The Home. They certainly light up the resident's faces when they participate in our intergenerational programming. We have been blessed with the help of many youth volunteers over the Summer season. Both, the children and the residents enjoyed the visits. We will miss them and we hope they participate next year as well.

Resident, Rita Maher, tries to win big at a local casino. She broke even, so she's a winner!

Resident, Dot Mesley, enjoys her favorite past time. She's a true animal lover!

Resident, Dottie Knight, helps to make centerpieces for The Home's Annual Home Day Picnic!

CENTRE COUNTY

Picnic

The annual State College Lodge Picnic will be held on the 16th of this month. There will in all probability be significant changes in picnics after this year. The Centre County Lodges picnic was discontinued as of the last meeting on July 23rd of this year. We will be discussing the necessity of two picnics with basically the same people so close together, hence this news. Please let your thoughts be known on this matter. The atmosphere is changing on just what constitutes Centre County Odd Fellowship. We must think about just what is our area and what we can do for the greater good off Odd Fellowship.

UN Bus Tour

Just as in years past we entertained a busload of UN Kids on their way home from the tour. Dinner on July 13 and Bkfst on the 14th. We had a serious screw-up in that our food supplier for Sunday dinner had an emergency out of town and forgot to call us to make other arrangements. Panic time!!! Not to worry, great minds are capable of reacting to any emergency. Call to Pizza Hut for pies and lasagna. Call to Wings place for a pile of wings. Dinner was only 30 to 45 minutes late. An offsetting factor was that the bus was early. The kids had fun on the piano and the computer, singing and playing cards.

This group was a better mix of countries and states represented. The Swiss contingent was larger than any previous year. They presented me with a Swiss Flag coffee mug and a "thank you" card. One of the kids asked the pop of the group to ask me if I had been a sergeant in the Army. My chuckle for the day. Check out our display case, the mug looks great.

Baseball

Our baseball/picnic was great as usual. Our presence must have helped, the Spikes won, something that has been in short supply this year. 25 tickets were sold, we had one no-show. His loss, the food was good as a picnic should be.

Fundraising to resume

Our efforts to raise funds for our contributions to charitable organizations will resume on September 20, 2008 at 5:30 PM. This time around it will be a series of dinners, mostly spaghetti with the trimmings. These have been well received in the past and hopefully will be again.

Tonight, Lady Emily, with help is putting on the Rebekah Degree for a new member. More on this next month.

TUNKHANNOCK LODGE

On Friday, July 18th, the Tunkhannock Lodge provided a pizza party for the Lemon Vacation Bible School students and their teachers, Sister Shirley Severcool and Sister Barbara Lees assisted in serving. It was very well appreciated by all the children and teachers. A good time was had by all.

ORCHARD MANOR PICNIC

Thanks to everyone who helped make our 17th Annual Picnic a success!! The food was delicious, the weather was beautiful and the music played all afternoon. Two of our most popular tables were the Auxiliary Craft and Bake Sale table, with lots of homemade items for sale, and our Chinese Auction table, with prizes donated from our vendors. And everyone loved the 50/50 raffle! There were around 600 people in attendance including the Grandmaster, Rebekah Assembly President, Grand Lodge and Rebekah Assembly Secretaries and other dignitaries!

A MESSAGE FROM THE GRAND PATRIARCH

Brothers and Sisters,

By the time you read this article I will have traveled to Winnipeg, Manitoba for Sovereign Grand Lodge Session with the Department Commander of the Patriarchs Militant. Next month I will let you know more about the trip and session.

I heard from Past Grand Master Tom McHugh on the DVD for the Encampment Degrees. As many of you know, he has been quite busy in July being "Pop" on the UN bus tour. By the time you read this, I will most likely have the DVD in my possession for review. Sovereign Grand Lodge approved the taping of these degrees in 1994-95 when John Cupp was Grand Patriarch. As soon as they are recorded on DVD, I will see that each District Deputy Grand Patriarch receives a DVD.

July and August are warm months here in Pennsylvania and Encampment meetings do not always get a quorum in these months. For this reason I did not schedule any official visits for July or August. Now that September has arrived, I plan to make a number of visitations.

Please remember to seek new members for the Encampments. We did very well in receiving new members in 2007-2008. I would like to top that for the 2008-2009 term.

In Faith Hope & Charity,
Emilie J. Cupp, Grand Patriarch

SANDY LAKE LODGE #573

Sandy Lake Lodge #573 has been busy this summer. We had consolidation with Sharon Lodge #347 in June and with Adoniram #739 in July.

On July 21st, Grand Master William L. Ramsey, Jr. and 5 of his staff were with him, we also had our new DDGM Jim Pfadt and with him members from Edinboro Lodge #510 and Nickel Plate Lodge #1125. We had a good meeting and GM William L. Ramsey spoke to us about what he is trying to do to advertise for the ORDER and suggest some way we could do local advertising. We ended the night with cake and ice cream.

We have our 3rd annual Raffle going on this year, we have $500.00 worth of gas card or cash, 17 H M R w/scope or $100.00 in cash and a Muzzleloader or $100.00 in cash. Drawing OCTOBER 5th, 2008. Price of tickets $5.00 each or three for $10.00. Write to Ray Rodgers, 258 Stock Farm Rd., Jackson Center, Pa 16133 to get your tickets for the drawing, make checks out to Sandy Lake Lodge #573.

We are holding The Fall All State Rally on Sept. 27th, you can also get your tickets for the raffle then.

On July 7th, 2008, the Grand Master, Grand Warden, Grand Marshal and Grand Guardian showed up at a scheduled Official Visit at Macinaw Lodge #380 in New Bloomfield, Pa.

After driving some distance and waiting quite some time in the parking lot, we were very surprised that not one Odd Fellow showed up.

So, we packed up our belongings and made our way back home! And I am sure we were all thinking the same thing during that long drive – "is Odd Fellowship dead in New Bloomfield?" We sure hope not.

Maybe, just maybe, someone from Mackinaw #380 will call the Grand Master and schedule a real "Odd Fellowship" Official visit!

P.O.F. DAYS GONE BYP.O.F. DAYS GONE BY (72 Years Ago, September 1936)*INTEGRITY LODGE, NO. 234

On Saturday evening, September 12th, Integrity Lodge, No. 234, conferred the 2nd degree on a class of four candidates from Osage Lodge, No. 712. There was a fine attendance at the Lodge session.

The Hon. C. Murry Turpin, Member of Kingston Lodge, No. 709, was present and gave a short address, which was enjoyed by all.

Following the Lodge session refreshments were served to the members and also to the members of Lady Marquen Rebekah Lodge, No. 311, which meets on the same evening.

BERKS COUNTY NEWS

Brother Thomas Powell of Fort Pitt Lodge, No. 883, spent his vacation with the Brothers of Berks County and visited Shillington September 1st and 5th.

Grand Warden Robinson paid a visit to Shillington Lodge, No. 1175, on September 5th, and after inspecting the new Hall of Sinking Springs lodge, No. 660, was met at the home of Brother Koller by Brother Powell and after enjoying an old fashioned Berks County dinner, met the various members of different counties. After the First Degree was conferred upon a class of candidates, he gave one of the most outstanding speeches ever heard in Berks. Many invitations to visit other lodges in this section were received. After a good nights sleep Brothers Robinson and Powell were conveyed to Terre Hill where Brother Powell made himself responsible for the safe delivery of Brother Robinson to Pittsburgh.

The dedication of the fine new lodge hall of Sinking Springs Lodge, No. 660, was conducted in a most able manner Saturday evening, September 12th, under the auspices of Grand Master, Harry C. Stephens, and his efficient staff. The town did itself proud as almost every building was decorated with flags, bunting, and Odd Fellow banners.

The Deputy Grand Master, C. P. Wagner, Grand Herald, George Douglass, attended, as did Sister Fannie Walker, P.P., who conveyed greetings from the Rebekah assembly, and General R. K. Patterson, of the Patriarchs Militant. The address was made by the Grand Secretary. Sinking Springs Lodge is to be congratulated upon the result of their efforts, as they now have a fine new home. Refreshments were served by the lodge members and it seemed as if the entire population of Sinking Springs were present. To Sam Koller is due much credit for the success of the affair.

The parade, a most colorful one, tied up traffic in the town for an hour. More than 60 members of the Patriarchs Militant in full uniform, preceded by a band, and followed by a number of members of the Ladies Auxiliary, also in uniform, made a fine showing and were applauded all along the line of march. The Grand officers and members of the Subordinate Lodges followed, (yes, they walked). The Grand Master's staff included Brothers Padbury, Fincham, Loux, Shiman, Leibfried, Collins, Schwenk, and Sister Julia Wetzell Haggan. Special mention is accorded Sister Haggan And Brothers Fincham and Collins for their most excellent rendition of the parts assigned to them.

LITITZ LODGE #1050

You Can't Beat the Odds

Lititz Oddfellows edge St. Leo's to capture New Era midget title

For five innings, the Lititz Oddfellows were knocking at the door.

They sprayed baseballs all over the yard, racking up eight hits — but no runs. Only one runner reached third base, and just two made it to second.

Meanwhile, their New Era Tournament midget title game opponent, St. Leo's, clung tenaciously to its one-run lead.

With their chances windind down, the Oddfellows finally broke through in the bottom of the sixth, scoring twice to take a 2-1 lead. They held on from there to capture their second midget crown in three years.

It was the seventh straight victory of the summer for Lititz (14-5), which defeated Manheim VFW to capture the New Era title in 2006.

St Leo's (12-6) lost in the New Era final for the second straight year.

"We didn't come here for No.2," allowed a disappointed Lions' coach Mike Regan. "But, that's what we came away with this time."

"This is a very...very special win," said Oddfellows coach Frank Camera, whose 2006 NET titlists formed the nucleus of Warwick's 2008 District 3 championship team and are, as we speak, playing deep into the American Legion playoffs.

"The first one was special (to me) because I finally got over the (losing in the NET semi-finals) hump," Camera shared.

"But this time...seeing them be able to celebrate is, to me, more special than anything."

Winning pitcher Jordan Donmoyer set the table for the celebration, holding St. Leo to four hits, walking four and striking out four.

Then he was in the thick of the sixth-inning rally, driving in the tying run and scoring the game-winner to cap a 3-for-3 night at the plate.

Dylan Adams celebrates Lititz's win.

"Jordan goes to another level at the plate when he's pitching," said Camera.

That certainly was true in the New Era Tourney, where Donmoyer was 6-for-6 with two RBIs and a run scored in his two starts and 0-for-3 on his night off.

But St. Leo starter Kevin Regan had parried Lititz's attack all evening, with a little help from the Oddfellows.

Lititz had two hits in the second, third and fifth innings, and two baserunners in the fourth on a hit and run error.

But Justin Nolt, courtesy running for DONmoyer, was thrown out trying to steal second in the third inning.

Then Regan picked off Donmoyer in the fourth and Nate Lawrence for the last out of the fifth.

That stung all the more as Dylan Adams, who had singled, had just tasted the rarefied atmosphere of third base on a Regan wild pitch.

Lititz players pose with the New Era Midget Tournament championship trophy after defeating St. Leo 2-1 to capture the title Tuesday night in Clipper Magazine Stadium.

Undaunted, the Oddfellows returned to the task in the sixth as Kyle Keener reached on a one-out single.

Adam Zipko sacrificed him to second and Donmoyer ripped the first pitch he saw into centerfield.

Travis Jankowski fielded the ball cleanly and launched a strike to home. Keener, just, beat the throw and Donmoyer moved up to second.

That finished Regan's evening as he yielded to reliever Dan Long.

As Long took his warmup throws, Camera called designated hitter Andy Woolley, his next scheduled batter, over for a conference.

"I told him, 'You could be a hero tonight and no one can ever take that away.'"

Thus fortified, Woolley looped a ball behind third base, where it nestled, safely, in the outfield.

"I'm just glad it fell," Woolley said. "I was just going up there trying to make contact, not necessarily trying to kill it."

Well, mission accomplished! "We've been doing it all season," he said. "I mean, something's working."

Donmoyer, running all the way, scored easily. "We knew that we could get runs across," he said. "We just had to find it."

But the game might have gone St. Leo's way if the Lions had just capitalized on their own opportunities.

Playing small ball, moving the runner, the Lions (12-6) advanced four runners to third, but could only cash once.

A double play and strikeout left Dan Long standing at third in the end of the second inning.

Then, in the third, Steve Remley's sac fly scored Erik Schnitzenbaumer, who had one-hopped a leadoff double off base of the fence in the right center and moved up on a bunt.

Up 1-0, St. Leo missed a golden opportunity to double that advantage in the fourth inning when Kevin Cotchen didn't break from third on Jamie Pashuck's one-out dribbler.

He was left there as Gene Nissley struck out and was also stranded at third in the sixth as Donmoyer struck out Pashuck.

"I just had to keep my focus," said Donmoyer, "just know that... we can get outs."

"Four hits," Mike Regan reflected. "That's usually not going to be enough and we came up just a little short."

"(Lititz is) a good hitting team," he continued, "and they put enough together to get two runs, just enough to make the difference."

ARTHRITIS COMMITTEE

Summer is almost over.....

The PA IOOF Jurisdictional Arthritis Committee would like to thank each and every one who has supported our activities this year. Camp JRA had another successful year. There were 123 campers that participated from around the State. We were able to visit on opening day this year as Middletown Home Day and Camp JRA weren't on the same day. Their theme was The Olympics this year and each cabin made a Cabin Flag as the campers assigned to that cabin arrived. They were quite innovative. The Opening Ceremonies were held and the Olympic Torch arrived via yours truly. (Thanks Mark for getting it to work again!) Several members from Thalia Lodge were there to decorate the dining room. They brought flags from many countries, medals on red, white and blue ribbons and whistles for all. Most importantly though, they brought the "Sundaes on Sunday" that has become a very special event at Camp.

Our Committee members have been very supportive and active and I'd like to personally thank each of them and look forward to working with them again this year. Your help would also be appreciated by your local Chapter or Branch at one of their planned activities as another way of supporting the Odd Fellow commitment to helping the Arthritis Foundation. Call the Chapter nearest you and find out what you can do. The contact addresses and telephone numbers are noted below. Some of the upcoming activities are: October 4th: Women's Health Summit at Lehigh Valley Hospital (Volunteers are needed to help with registration); November 1st: Women's Health Summit at Williamson's Restaurant in Horsham (Volunteers are needed to help with registration). Jingle Bell Runs/Walks start in late November and the dates and locations will follow next month.

Remember - 100% of your donations sent through the PA IOOF Arthritis Committee goes to the three PA Arthritis Foundation Chapters to help the kids with arthritis that go to Camp JRA each summer or the adults with arthritis who participate in the programs offered by the PA Arthritis Chapters.

Send ALL donations to Nevin Adams, Treasurer, 951 Shoemakersville Road, Shoemakersville, PA 19555-9010. Note how you want your contribution designated (Camp JRA, or general fund). Donations received will be noted in the Odd Fellow and Rebekah Magazine.

JORDAN LODGE #192 ANNUAL CLAM BAKE

Once again Jordan Lodge had a great clambake. About 100 Brothers, Sisters and friends, attended the bake. The food was great and plenty of it, lunch was started with some excellent clam chowder, sausage sandwiches, pickled eggs and all the usual items that you find at an all day food fest like this and let us not forget the Ice Cream. At five PM the clambakes were served, the clams and chicks were delicious as usual. You all know how much Leon Stamm loves chicken and he never misses this outing, he worked out a deal with his wife, he eats her clams and she eats his chicken. I don't want to mention any names but, one new member that attended the bake for the first time consumed eleven dozen clams. I heard a rumor that they were going to ban him from future Clambakes, no names but he is in one of the pictures. Our host Brothers & Sisters were great as always. What can I say about Russ, I still have not come up with a good title for him & I really don't know what it is that he is to do, other than keep him out of doing any of the work (Russ, you know that I am only kidding). Brothers from Jordan Lodge #192 and Sisters from Lady Lillie Best Rebekah Lodge #222, this is what our Order is all about, the Odd Fellowship and the many friends we make and at the same time raise money to help someone in need. I hope and pray that you will continue this outing for many years to come.
