FROM THE DESK OF THE GRAND SECRETARY

Dear Readers:

For those of you, who have Semi-Annual Terms, you will be installing new officers this month. Give these new officers all the support you can. They will need your help if their term of office is to be a success. If they have some new ideas to help your lodge, give them a chance. You can never tell when something might be just what your lodge needs to get it growing again. For everyone else give your officers all the help that is needed. You may be surprised what you can do for your lodge if you try. Here in your office I see what some of the lodges are doing, and there lodges are growing. Others are not growing. What is the difference?

Fraternally,
William L. Locke
Grand Secretary

2009 MUSIC AWARDS

The Association's 2008 Music Awards Committee members (Chairman Robert Grant, Raymond Rodgers, and Leonard Santini) were once again surprised and disappointed that not one application was submitted for consideration of the 2008 Music Awards. Chairman Grant reported this "news" to the Board during its August 2008 meeting. A discussion by the Board resulted in the unanimous decision to continue offering the Awards and to do so without any "rule" changes at the present time. The Board also agreed to look into utilizing our website, <http://www.grandlodgeofpennsylvaniaioof.org>, to help in promoting the Awards for 2009.

Therefore, the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs Association of Western Pennsylvania will once again be offering $2,000 music awards to a maximum of three (3) students who fulfill the specified requirements of the award. As a reminder regarding two of the requirements in particular: 1) The applicant of a family relative must be a member of the I.O.O.F. or Rebekahs of Western Pennsylvania, and 2) The applicant must be a full-time Music Major having completed at least one year of college.

The Awards, of course are being made to not only defray some of the cost associated with higher education, but also to help increase public awareness of Odd Fellowship and in turn, hopefully receiving petitions for membership to perpetuate our great Order.

As in the past, a copy of the "Rules" and an "Award Application" will be sent to all the Lodges representing the Western District in early May. The 2009 Music Awards Committee (Chairman Robert Grant, Bonnie Phillippi, Edison Phillippi, and Leonard Santini) requests your assistance in relaying this forthcoming information so that we can once again be honored in presenting the Music Awards to three qualified and worthy candidates.

ORCHARD MANOR

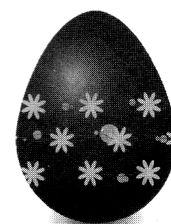

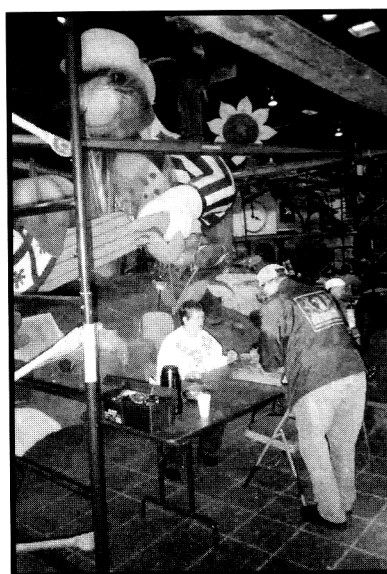

Resident Dolores Beaudry shows off doing the "Limbo"! Our Residents shoed Grove City College students and guests that they can still cut a rug as they danced the night away at the Annual Valentine's Dance held in the Great Room. Along with the dancing, everyone had lots of fun socializing, and enjoying chocolate covered strawberries, cookies, fruit and vegetable trays provided by our Dietary Department.

Dancing the night away!

ROSE PARADE

Sister Reba Kuhn again was in California visiting her son and went to help on the 2009 Rose Bowl Parade Float. Reba is a member of Lady Worth #328 and the Ambassador of Goodwill for the Rebekah Assembly of Pennsylvania.

FROM THE DESK OF THE DEPARTMENT COMMANDER

APRIL AGAIN

Barney Wells was used to pranks. He was an experienced teacher and had encountered any number of stunts in his class room. The great depression was looming in 1933 and there were many young people with no work or hope for a job. Idle minds are the devil's workshop. The truth of this became apparent in 1933.

On April Fool's Day, one or more juvenile delinquents had painted a line over the two O's in the IOOF sign at Barney's lodge hall and filled the O's in to look like eyes. The image looked like the sign outside an optometrist's office. Barney and the remainder of the house committee met on the Monday after Easter to discuss the method of cleaning up this mess.

The first possible solution they came up with was to remove the paint applied by the graffiti artists. This did not work. The paint in the sign was the same type and the attempted repair looked bad. The second suggestion was to paint over the sign. This would work but would take a lot of work, more money and look terrible, unless the whole sign was repainted.

The house committee decided it would throw the matter to the whole lodge for a decision. The lodge met and spent over an hour discussing the matter. Brother Martin was a regional sales manager for a national paint manufacturing firm and he offered to donate the paint to redo the entire sign. The lodge accepted his offer.

Two weeks later, Barney came home from school and his wife told him there was a delivery on the back porch. Barney was thrilled to see two cases of five-gallon cans of paint. His excitement waned when he opened the cases to find that one case contained mint green paint and the other case contained deep purple paint. His despair was punctuated when his wife told him there was another case of paint on the steps because she didn't want it brought in the house, there was mud on the case. Barney went out and opened the third case, it was deep purple too.

Barney called another house committee meeting. The house committee didn't want to spend the money buying paint, the economy was rough. The green and purple paint just didn't meet the taste of the committee. Barney called Brother Martin. He didn't know what he could do. The factory would only send him free paint of the overruns. If the overrun of the month was purple, that is what he got samples.

The committee next thought about a paint swap. Maybe there was someone else who could use green and purple paint. Each committee member was assigned to a different retail outlet or painting contractor. Extensive contacts for two weeks brought nothing. Barney was stumped.

He called Brother Martin to see if he could get more free paint. A little more than a week later, he came home from school and his wife told him there were three cases of paint on the back porch. Barney went out to see what arrived. There were three cases of sun yellow paint on his back porch. This was not going to go over well with the house committee either. Barney called another meeting and asked Brother Martin to attend. There was a long discussion and finally Brother Martin had what he thought might be the answer. He was the factory sales manager for the largest region in the country. He could get one-fourth of the entire factory overrun sent to him. On April 28 Barney came home from school and his wife told him that there were two trucks that covered the first floor of Barn with cases of paint. Barney found red, white, blue, black, orange and six colors of paint he never saw before.

The first Saturday in May, the lodge painted the entire sign with a royal purple back and red, white and blue links. The Lodge name and number were painted in white. The sign looked beautiful. Now all the lodge had to do was find some use for 162 five-gallon buckets of many different colors of paint.

The next lodge meeting was well attended because the new sign attracted the attention of all passers by. Barney announced the problem and asked Brother Martin if he could help. Brother Martin said he had pulled every trick he knew as regional sales manager to get the paint and he was afraid he wouldn't be regional sales manager any longer if he tried to send the paint back.

Barney did not want the paint sitting in his barn forever. The lodge did not have the space anywhere for that amount of paint and the cans were marked "not for resale" so they couldn't sell them. Brother Johnson remarked that his chicken coop needed painting. Lights and bells went off in Brother Clancey's head. He asked, "Why don't we paint chicken coops to raise money for the lodge?" Thus began the Odd Fellows chicken coop adventure. The project lasted the entire spring and summer with Barney's lodge raising enough money to pay the Grand Lodge taxes, real estate taxes on the building and prepare a community Thanksgiving dinner for the needy in the community.

The lodge had charged less to paint a chicken coop than the normal retail cost of paint, so the color of the paint was the choice of the lodge. When Barney would drive to work each morning that fall, he would see the multi-colored handiwork of his lodge. All the colors of the rainbow; this seemed appropriate to Barney as he remembered the signs of the degrees.

Comments and questions are always welcomed by the Department Commander. You can contact him by email at jcupp@verizon.net or conventional mail at 2 West Main Street, Suite 517, Uniontown, PA 15401-3403.

CENTRE COUNTY

First thing I must do is apologize for the lateness of this letter. It seems the short month of February combined with the worst cold I have had in years can knock the heck out of anyone's schedule. It seems the last week just escaped me.

Official Visit

The sixteenth of February shall live in memory, at least for a while. First off, Bob Homan outdid himself with dinner. One of the best we ever had, even the Grand Master agrees. We had to coax him to dinner to get him away from some business he was trying to get done. The special session of Grand Lodge went off without a hitch. We had the biggest collection of Grand Lodge Officers at State College Lodge since our new building was dedicated in 1996, (see picture). I have heard Bill Ramsey on several occasions and his ideas are the best and the things he wants us to do are right on the money. The thing we must not forget is the new generation of members. When you get them, treasure them and put them to work. Do it right away, don't wait for next year. Get them involved in projects, get them into the chairs, teach them what Odd Fellowship is about. They will spread the word.

Birthday Dinner

This quarter we journeyed to Joe's near Tyrone for our quarterly birthday dinner. The gal with the record was Faye Horton, 95 on the 23rd of February. You would never guess she is that old. She went through some chicken and waffles better than some of the younger ones. I was just getting the crud that has hindered me so I could not do justice to dinner. Everyone had a good time and nobody went home hungry.

Fund Raising Dinner

The January and February dinners were reasonably good. We will continue them for the rest of this year and continue to look for new ideas for fundraising. The people who come are enjoying them, we just need more people. The next one is scheduled for March 21 and the menu will be Pork and Sauer Kraut.

CHARLEROI LODGE NO. 1030

A capacity crowd witnessed the dual ceremonies held at the Charleroi Odd Fellows Temple, Thursday evening, April 6th, when a class of thirty one candidates took their first step in Odd Fellowship. Immediately following the degree work, the District Deputy Grand Master, Ira W. Tuxford and his efficient and well trained Staff installed the newly elected and appointed Officers for the ensuing term into their respective chairs. The manner in which Brother Tuxford and his Staff conducted the Installation was received with the plaudits of the assemblage as being the best that they had ever witnessed. The accomplishments achieved by his Staff have set a precedent which will be hard to reach for those who follow him in his capacity as District Deputy.

Past Grand, G. W. Shawl, Sr., of Coal Valley Lodge, a man who has passed the ninety first milestone in life and has been a member of the Order for sixty nine years, delivered the Past Grand's Charge during the exemplification of the degree work.

Visitors were present from nineteen lodges and among those were Superintendent Bonney and Vice President Stewart of the Pittsburgh Orphans Home, who journeyed to Charleroi for the sole purpose of seeing Robert Stiffler inducted into the office of Noble Grand. Robert was a former resident of the Home and it was there that he learned his trade as cabinet maker.

During the past six months, Charleroi Lodge has taken in 82 members, and has not stopped as there is a class scheduled for next month.

Charleroi Lodge has opened a social room at 323 Fallowfield Avenue which is equipped with a pool table, a ping pong table, a dart game, and a reading room. A cordial invitation is extended to all visiting Odd fellows when in Charleroi.

Plans are now under way to form a Mush Ball team to participate in games with Monongahela, Gastonville, and Elrama, who already have teams, thus forming a closer relationship during the summer months when lodge activities are not so brisk.

LADY LANDIS REBEKAH LODGE #303

As each new year brings the promise of many new beginnings, so has this come true for Lady Landis Rebekah Lodge #303. We are very blessed and proud to have been able to expand our Lodge's membership by instructing the Rebekah Degree on two new sisters. Michelle Parson and Susan Beinhour joined our Lodge in November. They will be a great addition to our Lodge and we welcome them with open arms. Michelle is our Secretary, Juniata Parson's granddaughter. Thank you Juniata Parson.

On other news about our Sisters, we have 4 who have been members for 50 or more years, Hulda Dum, 58; Jeanette Albright, 57; Virginia Dum, 57 and Associate member Glenna Nulton, 50 years. We also have 4 sisters with over 40 years of membership, Nola Benbow, 48; Florence Bolze, 46; Juniata Parson, 46 and Pearl Fay Yohn, 42. Last but certainly not least, Betty Reisinger and Arlene Ardnt each have 35 years. Congratulations sisters for the many years of hard work you have given to this Lodge. We are very fortunate to have you as an inspiration so that we can keep Lady Landis going for many years to come.

Lady Landis keeps very busy throughout the year with many projects and being supportive to the many different organizations and our community. Our projects for fundraising includes, selling of Wolfgang candy and also a bake less bake sale. Our collecting food and health care items every month for the food bank is also a success. We are very faithfully supportive to the Heart, Cancer and Arthritis Funds, Special Olympics, March of Dimes, School Awards and also children and youth in which we have sponsored 2 children at Christmastime to help families who are facing difficult times. Gifts collected for these children are abundant and are greatly appreciated. It warms our hearts to know we have put a smile on the face of a child at this special time of the year. Helping Hands (who works with Bethseda Mission) is another organization we help support. We donated homemade quilts, used clothing and well over 100 pairs of socks. One of our newest supportive activities is to collect items and or articles for our troops.

We are a very dedicated and supportive Lodge in many ways. We may be small in numbers but the generous giving from the heart and out of our love for others is abundant.
