FROM THE DESK OF THE GRAND SECRETARY

Dear Readers:

We have just returned from the 38th Unified Session in State College, PA. I thought everything went fairly well. Of course there were a few bumps along the way, but that is no different than any other session. I have been attending sessions since 1978, and I know there will always be problems and you can not please everyone. Now that session is over we all need to get together behind our new Grand Master, E. Keith Harvey Jr. and work to make our Order grow. He can not do it by himself, so if your lodge is one of the lodges that needs help, ask. If your lodge is doing OK, try to help the other lodges in your district. Ask the DDGM in your district what you can do to help.

I hope everyone has been having a great summer, continue to do so there is still a lot of it left. Attend all of the Odd Fellow and Rebekah functions you can. I hope to see you along the road of Odd fellowship.

Fraternally,
William L. Locke
Grand Secretary

CENTRE COUNTY

Session

A big party at State College Lodge College Lodge set things off for the week. We had such a crowd that some of the hardy ones moved outside. As near as we can tell the 38th Unified Sessions was a success. I couldn't attend all the sessions, but from what I hear things went well. The budget process, for the men at least, went better than many many other years. Did I hear right? Did Leon Stamm retire? Things won't be the same. 60 years, long time Leon, have fun in whatever it is you are going to do next. Best wishes Keith Harvey for a great Year. Our best to Carl Thomas, we are sorry that illness interrupted his activities in Odd Fellowship. Get better fast. One of our own moved into the job a little early. Our best to Art Moyer. Fresh blood coming into the pipeline is always good.

Our local Summer activities get under way with as flurry of action. First on the agenda is the Dinner-Theatre. Odd Fellows and Rebekahs and family are welcome as long as seats last. If you haven't made reservations call Tom Kidd soon, 814-466-6666. The picnic/baseball game is also selling out fast. Call Steve Mesko at 466-7306. County picnic is in Port Matilda this year, Bob Owens has details, 237-4513 Plenty of seats for this one.

Thanks for the compliment, Doris!

If you have any news or announcements of interest to 90+ recipients of this newsletter in Central PA and beyond, get the info to me by the 20th of this month.

See you in Church. God is love.

ODDFELLOWSHIP WORKS

Pictures of four U.N. Delegates from last years tour who attended Boyertown High School's Senior Prom. They are from left, Mathew Frain (my grandson) from Boyertown and his prom date Selena Nye who traveled from Shippensburg, PA, and Alex Martin from Boyertown and his prom date, Lindsay McDonald who traveled from Canada to attend. They all became very close friends on the U.N. Tour.

Our third delegate, Kyle Brader has since moved to Wilkes Barre, PA, so he did not attend.

Alex Martin will be class Valedictorian in a class of 502 students. Alex is also an excellent pianist.

Mathew Frain will be going to pre-med school in Florida.

THANK YOU'S RECEIVED ON EDUCATION AWARDS

Thank you very much for choosing me as a recipient of this scholarship. I am honored. My grandmother has been part of the Rebekah's for many years. This award will help greatly for my education and is very much appreciated.

Sincerely, Adams Williams

I just wanted to thank you for selecting me for the $500.00 scholarship from the Lodge. It will definitely help me with my educational goals. Thanks again.

Sincerely, Grant Izzo

My grandmother, Charlotte Dickie belongs to Mon Valley Rebekah Lodge #82 in Gastonville, PA. She is the one who encouraged me to apply for this scholarship. I am really honored to have been chosen. It is a privilege. You can rest assured that this money will be put to good use in furthering my dream of becoming an elementary school teacher. I am very grateful and honored. I thank you from the bottom of my heart.

Sincerely, Kayleigh Dickie

I wanted to sincerely thank the scholarship committee for choosing me for this great honor. This money will help with the finances that I will face in my final year of college. This scholarship will allow me the opportunity to pay for my books both semesters. Words are not enough to express my gratitude and thanks. I hope you continue touching the lives of young college students for many years to come. I know that the impact you have had on my life through this scholarship is one I hope to continue making in the lives of young children as I pursue my education to become an Elementary Teacher. Once again thank you so much for your consideration and selection.

Sincerely, Jamie Doughty, Strasburg, PA

I received the scholarship monies via mail and wanted to say thank you to the Pennsylvania Odd Fellow-Rebekah Education and Scholarship Committee. This scholarship is greatly appreciated and will be put to immense use. As we all know the price of college especially East Stroudsburg University, is increasing at a scary rate each year and I plan to use the scholarship towards tuition.

I would like to keep everyone updated as I continue my education. As this point in my life, I just graduated from Northampton Community College with my Associate Degree in Applied Fine Arts. I am now already attending summer classes at East Stroudsburg University towards dual certification in Special Education. This means that I will be more marketable once I finish with my Bachelor's Degree in about 2 years. I will be able to teach kindergarten through 12th grade in school districts but also children and students with learning and cognitive disabilities birth to 21 years of age. I have a higher chance of obtaining the right career being more marketable. I am looking forward to teaching students and seeing them grow using creativity and their imagination while challenging them daily. I am very excited and cannot wait until I am teaching in a classroom.

Thank you very much for this scholarship! It helps take the financial burden off my family and I and allows me the opportunity to further my education. Thank you!

Very gratefully yours, Stefany L. Schwartz

Recently I was awarded one of the 2009 IOOF Educational Scholarship. I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for honoring me with this award. Your gift will allow me to offset the rising costs of post-secondary education. I am honored that you would support me and my future goals. As a fellow Odd Fellow I have given a lot back over the past few years and it is great to be rewarded for those actions.

It was so nice to be honored by your committee! Your thoughtfulness and generosity means so much to me.

Sincerely, Edward Sheets, member Alma Lodge #523

Thank you very much for giving me this scholarship. It means a lot to me that I was selected to receive this honor. The scholarship will help me pay for my schooling this year at Slippery Rock University.

Thank you very much, Darren Egger.

I would like to sincerely thank you all for awarding me one of the scholarships. It will be of great use in the fall at Bloomsburg University.

Alaina Egger.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

CONGRATULATIONS TO BROTHER ROBERT J. BARNHART AND WIFE ON THEIR 63RD WEDDING ANNIVERSARY AUGUST 9TH.

Brother Barnhart was initiated into Elizabethtown Lodge #128 on October 17, 1939 where he served as a Past Grand. He became a member of Earl Lodge #413, New Holland through consolidation in 1970. He and his bride now reside in Dunnellon, Florida. Those wishing to send greetings may do so at:

Mr & Mrs Robert J Barnhart
21680 SW 88th Place Rd.
Dunnellon, FL 34431-5679

THE HEAT OF SUMMER

Barney was off in July. He was planning the big July 4th celebration and burned his finger on a match while lighting a Roman candle. It put him a day behind on cultivating the corn and, well, the rest is history.

In August 1918 the Canadian and Australian troops reached the Hindenberg line and the allies seemed on the path to victory. Barney was sitting in the trenches, performing maintenance on his weapons and trying to get prepared for action he anticipated in the Argonne Forest. Barney had met Pennsylvania native, Hunter Liggett, in his travels and was impressed by the General.

The trenches could get fairly boring. Barney tried to think of ways to keep his men from getting stale and disorderly. The primary amusement of soldiers not actively engaged in something constructive was gambling. Barney was somewhat religious and hated gambling. He tried to keep the men occupied. He was a newly-made company commander and had some deep feelings of responsibility for his men.

He thought the best way to keep all the men busy was to have them perform. He thought back over the degrees he had received and decided that the story of David and Jonathan was the best way to entertain the troops and instill some interdependence among the men. He pulled out his ritual and began to write a play that would carry the story line but differ enough from the degree that he wouldn't be revealing anything.

Being a playwright is hard work. Barney labored for hours getting the dialogue just the way he wanted it. He didn't have any way of copying the script so he would have to make the men memorize their parts.

He called for volunteers to participate. This was the beginning of the hard part. Men seemed more willing to volunteer for a charge from the trenches than to participate in a play. He had to use force and guile to fill his cast. He had Sergeant Browning saw the handle off a trenching shovel so that it barely had enough to grab onto. He told the men that he needed someone to shovel out the latrine so that he could move it. They had to use the shovel with no handle. Of course, volunteers for the play would be exempt from that particular work detail. This inspired many to become thespians.

This had to be a no-costume play. Barney spoke with several other officers in his regiment and set a date to perform the play. There was no hard fighting so he could rehearse at will, for a while anyway. He had the men at a particularly quiet, wooded area early in the morning and began his duties as director. Barney had been told that no officers were to be actors in the play, so he was the director.

Rehearsal was a disaster. It was good that he didn't have printed scripts because most of his cast could barely read. Instilling enthusiasm was not something that Barney excelled in. The motivational techniques from his officer training were ill-fitted for a stage production. Barney tried to exemplify each part of the play but it seemed to be without success.

During the second day of rehearsal, a sniper took a shot at the cast rehearsing. The men quickly retreated to the trenches, with two men carrying their wounded comrade. After about ten minutes the sniper was dispatched and the wounded soldier taken back to the aid station.

Barney thought about the incident and prepared a rousing speech to encourage the men to put the same feelings into the play that they had felt when they came under fire that day. His speech seemed to go over quite well. The men appeared to be picking up on the theme and were acquiring an interest in performing, so long as they weren't being shot at.

The rehearsal went fairly well the next few days and the play was ready to be presented. The ultimate interference would come from the enemy. This did not occur. Barney, however, felt almost as bad when the play was over.

The play began with King Saul lamenting his mental state. This went poorly. The character of King Saul could not remember his lines. He became befuddled and started to invent dialogue. This threw the other actors off and caused a great confusion. After a much too long scene one, the herald was dispatched.

The herald was bright and had performed in a high school play. He was also drunk. This made for terrible dialogue and had Barney contemplating how he could discipline the herald. Sergeant Browning was Jesse and he was flawless. David was a fairly good soldier and Barney thought he would do well also. His estimation would probably have been correct if David had not suffered an infected tooth. The dentist was far enough away that he could not rotate the soldier back in time for the play.

Back in the court of King Saul, the guards were reasonably proficient in their brief dialogue and the drama centered on Jonathan. Jonathan was a fairly good soldier but a reluctant actor. He stammered and mumbled his lines and became completely confused when he played opposite King Saul, who was writing his script as he went along. This made Barney feel that he had truly met his calling and he should be a soldier or a teacher or a farmer or anything but a stage director.

Before the play could be concluded, the Germans began shelling the positions and the men all ran for cover. As luck would have it, the barn where the play was being performed did not get hit. The trenches where the men would have been had there been no play, were flattened. Barney had been very lucky.

Barney gathered all the men back in the barn after the shelling had stopped. He took center stage and began his sermon:

"We have been spared destruction from an artillery bombardment because we were in this barn. It is fitting and appropriate that we should have avoided injury while studying a great lesson in brotherly love from history. We should look out for one another, for this is the only way any one of us can survive this war."

The whole incident made the men more reliant upon one another and improved morale.

Next Month, September.

ODD FELLOWS START BUSY WEEK WITH WIN OVER CV

Bruce Morgan
Record Express Sports Editor

With five games in six days this week, the Lititz Odd Fellows have an opportunity to build some momentum.

On Monday night, they took a positive first step, beating Conestoga Valley 9-2 in Witmer. Chris Wentzel went 2-for-4 and Jordan Donmoyer was on base three times with two singles and a walk to help lead the way in support of pitcher Kris Cullen, who got the decision with six innings of solid work.

And although it wasn't pretty at times, the Odd Fellows were glad for the win after going just 1-1-1 last week. That included an 8-8 tie with Donegal after coughing up a late lead, and a 6-0 loss to unbeaten Solanco.

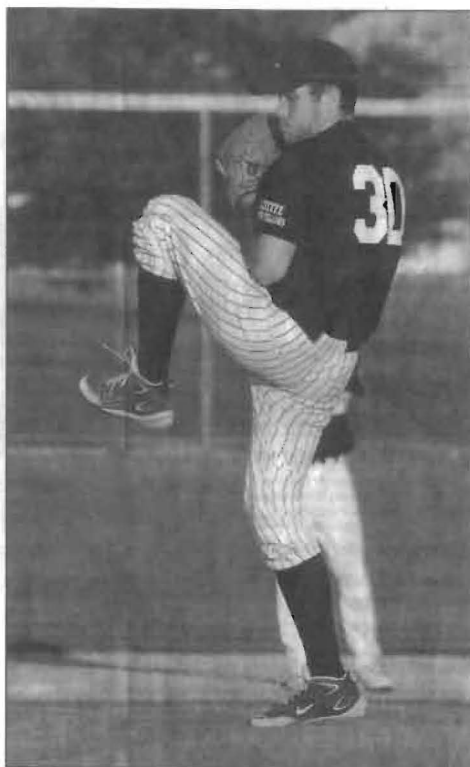

"It was a real good way to start the week," Lititz skipper Frank Camera said. "I was a little disappointed after last week. We're still coming together as a team relatively early in the season, but we have a lot of games packed in, so we don't have the time to just slowly get game ready. We have to get game ready. Right now, we're still not playing up to our potential. We still have a lot of room to grow."

That was evident in the early stages of Monday's game, as the Odd Fellows (2-1-1) left six runners on base in the first two innings against CV starter Joe Moyer while failing to execute bunt plays and falling behind 2-1.

"We've been slow adjusting to pitchers every game we've played so far," Camera said. "It's been one time through the lineup before we've made the adjustments. The way the season has gone, we had a weak pitcher, we had a good pitcher that we saw, we had a weak pitcher, we had a good pitcher. We're coming off of seeing a good pitcher (against Solanco), we saw a little bit of a weaker pitcher tonight (and we were) dropping the hands and doing some other stuff there, not going after pitches on the outside part of the plate and trying to go to right field and just looking for the perfect pitch and trying to drive it. We were really, really struggling to execute the small game and to execute basic fundamentals of the game."

They began to adjust to Moyer in the top of the third, as the Odd Fellows put up a three-spot to take the lead for good. After Andy Woolley led off by stinging a double to left field, Evan High delivered an RBI double inside the third base bag. High was on base in all three of his plate appearances, with a HBP and free pass.

Cody Snyder added an RBI single past the CV shortstop and later scored on a wild pitch to make it 4-2.

In the fourth inning, the Odd Fellows broke it open with a five-run rally off of Moyer and reliever Logan Miller. Derrick Shields led off with a free pass — one of seven issued by Conestoga Valley — and scored on Donmoyer's RBI single to left field. Donmoyer advanced to third on a ground out and scored on tone of CV's for errors. Cullen then stroked a two-out double to left-center, and after back-to-back walks to High and Snyder, Brian Eshelman greeted reliever Miller with a two-run single to left field to push the lead to 9-2.

"We were hitting the ball solid (in the third and fourth innings), being more patient, being aggressive, taking our hands to the ball," Camera said. "But we still have (room for) growth."

Cullen, meanwhile, settled in during the middle innings, retiring 10 of 12 CV batters during one stretch. For the game, the Lititz right-hander struck out five, walked two, and scattered seven hits.

"Kris was part of the (high school) varsity call-up ... not of a lot of time pitching and playing the positions, he was helping the varsity there, so he's getting back into game shape, working the innings, getting back to where we need to be at the plate and on the mound," Camera said.

CV touched Cullen for a run in the sixth on Alex Dienner's (2-for3) double and Rinerer's RBI single to left. But lefty Kyle Scruton pitched a perfect inning in relief in the seventh, with two K's, to put it in the books.

ARTHRITIS COMMITTEE

Unified Session Activities

I hope you were at the Unified Session in State College in June and were able to see the beautiful crystal award that was given to the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs by the Eastern Chapter of the Arthritis Foundation. The IOOF Arthritis Committee representing all members of the Order received 2009 Financial Development Award. We were honored to learn that in the future this award will be renamed and called "The Independent Order of Odd Fellows Community Development Award." We had the award on display at the Arthritis table and as the Chair presented his report to the Grand Lodge and Rebekah Assembly, the award was taken around each room for all members present to see. In addition to passing the Arthritis jug around, chances were sold on several items. The winners were drawn in the Wednesday Grand Lodge Session by SGM Richard Proulx before he left and they are

Pen-Joy Edgecomb Steel Truck
Maple Vail Manufacturing Group Truck

P.O.F. DAYS GONE BY

(80 Years Ago, August 1939)

SCHUYLKILL ACTIVE

The Schuylkill County Past Grand's Association held its regular meeting at Aqua Lodge, No. 737, at Girardville, Wednesday, August 28th. The Attendance was large and the meeting an enjoyable one. Representations were present from our neighboring associations. A most enjoyable entertainment included an excellent program rendered by Phillips' Orchestra, lunch and a social session.

The Association is making a special effort for a Grand Masters' Class of candidates for this coming winter and are off to a good start.

Our Outing at Lakewood on August 8th was a success. The Sunbury Home Band were guests for the day, and they had a good time. We are urging all our lodges to give their hearty support to the building programs, of the various I.O.O.F. Homes

The next meeting of the Association will be at Pine Grove, on Saturday, September 28th.

LYCOMING ASSOCIATION AT OVAL

The August meeting of the Lycoming County Past Grand's Association was held on Tuesday, August 20th, at Oval Among the things considered was the making of plans to attend the big rally at Danville on September 14th, and for the Association's annual visit to hold services at the Middletown Home, which is to take place on Sunday, September 29th. It was also necessary to elect a treasurer to fill the place of Brother Elmer E. Shaffer, who died recently. A lunch was served by the members of Oval Lodge, assisted by their wives.

ONEIDA CELEBRATES ITS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

Oneida Lodge No. 371, I.O.O.F., of Dallas, PA, celebrated its 100th Anniversary with a banquet held in Irem Temple Country Club, Friday, August 19th. A fine dinner was served and the entertainment consisted of music by an excellent orchestra, group singing led by Brother Sam Davis of Toby Creek Lodge No. 1078, solos by Brother Davis, and an address, "Our Heritage", by Dr. Frank Glenn Lankard. All were thoroughly enjoyed. Ben L. Jenkins, P.G.M., G.R., acted as toastmaster.

On Saturday, August 20th, a Brigade and Field Meet of the First Regiment, P.M., with canton Wilkes-Barre No. 31 as host was presented.

The Third Degree was exemplified Monday evening, August 15th, by the team of Robert Burns Lodge of Scranton, PA.

IT CAN BE DONE

Cicerone Lodge No. 897, I.O.O.F., located at Brockway, PA, reports that it is new members, Twenty-three applications for membership were received at the meeting of the Lodge August 15th and they expect to have fifty by the next meeting. Congratulations, No.897.

FREEPORT LODGE NO. 379

Freeport Odd Fellows Lodge No. 379 held its annual picnic on Wednesday evening, August 22nd, in their Hall. The affair was in the form of a covered dish dinner with the Lodge furnishing the corn, wieners, buns, and beverages.

There were nearly one hundred persons in attendance. Besides the members, families, and friends of No. 379, the members of Lady Freeport Rebekah and Kittanning Odd Fellows Lodge No. 340, were invited to the picnic.

Following the serving of very generous and delicious supplies of food, those present enjoyed an evening of conversing and socializing.

The Noble Grand, Morris V. McClain, acted as master of ceremonies. Past Grand J. Chester Harned offered the invocation.

Activities got under way in the morning when Brothers Frank Baker, Robert Henry, and Blair Wadding husked freshly picked corn.

The Committee in charged included Co-chairman Morris V. McClain and Robert M. Henry, and Brothers Philip A. Bauer, Robert W. Buterbaugh, George P. Jordan, and George C. McKinney, who were assisted by their wives.

BRUSHTON-SWISSVALE LODGE NO. 1107

On Sunday, August 19, 1984, Brushton-Swissvale Lodge No. 1107 held their annual picnic and corn roast at Forest Hills Park, Forest Hills, PA. For the first time in many years our picnic was catered which I am sure met with the approval of the wives who usually prepare the food.

There were approximately 85 men, women, and children present. There were races for the children and bingo for the rest.

Many of our older members who live too far away or cannot drive at night were there. We were also honored with the presence of Grand Master Howard L. Chew and Mrs. Chew.

BUS TRIP TO PIRATES GAME

Alert Lodge No. 936 and Electa Rebekah Lodge No. 537 of Rochester Mills went to see the Pittsburgh Pirates on Saturday, August 25, 1984 at Three Rivers Stadium. We had 49 passenger bus FULL and had a very enjoyable day.

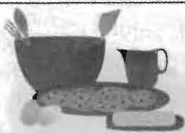

We had some young prospects with us, and I hope future Rebekahs and Odd Fellows. We do this once a year.

It was very nice having Past President Betty Elder with us. Fannie Neal baked some delicious goodies and we enjoyed them while on the bus.

This is what I call Friendship, Love, and Truth.

LLOYD HALLMAN MARKS 60TH YEAR WITH ODD FELLOWS ORDER

Collegeville resident Lloyd T. Hallman, right, recently received his 60-year pin from the Economy Lodge No. 397 of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

Mr. Hallman is a U.S. Army veteran of World War II. He joined the lodge in May of 1939. He was Noble Grand from 1947-48 and had held every post in the order. He has been the local Lodge's secretary since 1959.

Past Grand Harlold A. Gennaria, left, presented Hallman with the pin of honor.

I have enjoyed quite a long time as an "Odd Fellow" but a short time ago, our lodge merged with Spring City Lodge, and since then I have been in this home with not enough oxygen in my blood but the doctors are taking good care of me and after riding the wheel chair for some time, I am starting to take some steps with my walker.

I like the care and all the service I get here but there is no place like home.
Fraternally, Brother Lloyd Hallman.
