 YEAR
 2009!

FROM THE DESK OF THE GRAND SECRETARY

Dear Readers:

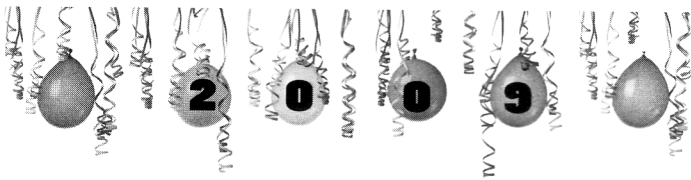

We hear a lot of talk about getting new members, which brings up a lot of other questions. Are you proud of your lodge? Is it a place you would want to spend time in with your friends? Does your lodge building need a good cleaning? Has it been painted lately? Answer these questions truthfully. Could this be the reason you are having a problem getting members?

If you have no problem with the above ask yourself some more questions. Are your meetings interesting or they short and dry so every one can get home to TV? Then you will get members that will say "why should waste a whole evening to attend meeting of an hour or less?"

If you want to have good attendance, you need a place that is pleasant to be in plus something interesting happening.

More Questions: does your community know there is an Odd Fellow Lodge there? Is your lodge involved in community activities?

Fraternally,
William L. Locke
Grand Secretary

CHRISTMAS COMES TO NORTHERN WAYNE

Nakomis #497 Fundraiser at Northern Wayne Fire Company
Seated L to R is Bonnie Watson, Immediate Past Noble Grand and Linda Lee, Noble Grand 2008-2009.

For the Sisters of Nakomis Rebekah Lodge, Saturday, November 15th was a day filled with community spirit, fun, and fellowship. Sisters prepared for the event by contributing their homemade baked goods and by arranging a Christmas basket for a raffle. In addition to managing the tables of "goodies", other Sisters were involved with local church and library projects.

This event was, indeed, "serving to serve others" in a colorful, friendly extended community atmosphere.

MIDDLETOWN HOME NEWS

Residents, staff, and visitors enjoyed a day of fun on Saturday, October 25th at the annual Harvest Festival and Assisted Living Open House. Despite the wild and wet weather and the subsequent cancellation of the outdoor hayride, folks were treated to a variety of activities. Pumpkin decorating took place in the Activities room where residents and friends were provided pumpkins, colorful markers, and an assortment of stickers. Young and old together enjoyed creating a variety of scary, funny, and wacky pumpkin faces. Many residents enjoyed creating fall drawings and pictures, as well. Adding to the colors of fall were handmade wreaths and fall decorations for sale. Raffle tickets were available for an assortment of gifts including food items, gift certificates for pizza and a local apple orchard, a lovely autumn gift basket, and a handmade doll graciously contributed by our own resident, Mary Adcock.

In both Courtyard Gardens and Crescent View lobbies, hot and cold apple cider was plentiful, and in the skilled nursing lobby, a large pumpkin was on display. Residents and visitors were encouraged to guess the weight of the pumpkin. Children and the "young-at-heart" were treated to a scarecrow-making workshop on the portico of West View Terrace. Participants were provided straw, clothing, and burlap bags to create life-sized scarecrows. A bake sale provided yummy treats and was one of the highlights of the day. Harvest pops and candy-coated pretzels, cupcakes, cookies, homemade applesauce, pumpkin roll, pumpkin pies, and fried dough satisfied hearty appetites.

The Harvest Festival and Assisted Living Open House was a day enjoyed by all!

We are looking forward to our next big celebration on December 14th from 12pm-4pm when we have our Holiday Open House.

Resident, Geraldine Campbell enjoyed decorating her pumpkin with staff member, Davett McClain.

FROM THE DESK OF THE DEPARTMENT COMMANDER

One Cold Day

Barney was cold. He was wet. He was very tired. He was hungry. It was January 1929 and Barney had been coerced into sponsoring the ski club at the high school where he taught. His wife's sister's daughter was a student at the same school and she wanted to learn to ski. Her name was Emily and she always was able to get Uncle Barney to do things for her. Barney was in charge of 16 high school sophomores, juniors and seniors, spending a January weekend in the Poconos.

They left New Jersey immediately after school on Friday, January 18, 1929 and were to return on January 20, 1929. The other chaperone came down with the flu. The train tickets were purchased and Barney was there with 16 teenagers. Conveniently, there were 8 boys and 8 girls. The majority of the members of the ski club were on the trip. Barney did not know how to ski. He was not used to the harsh winter weather in the mountains.

When they got to the lodge, the ski instructor who was arranged for the group came to the lobby and greeted them. He told them that breakfast would be at 7:30 a.m. and they would be out on the slopes till dark on Saturday. The train ride only took three hours so they were being indoctrinated in skiing by 8:30 p.m.

Barney took all of them for a late dinner and cocoa and thought he could have them all in bed by 10:00 p.m. Barney's children were very small and he had never been the chaperone at a high school event before. There were four rooms with girls and four rooms with boys at 10:00 p.m. It took Barney walking the halls all night to keep it that way. He didn't know whether the Ski Club was a Ski Club or dating club.

With less than two hours sleep, Barney dragged himself out at 6:30 a.m. for breakfast at 7:30 a.m. The students seemed quite awake. Barney didn't plan on doing any skiing so he didn't bring any ski gear. He thought he would watch the lessons and the students on the slopes. Much to his dismay, pairs of students would wander off into the pines from time to time. He had to make sure they came out of the pines before too much time passed. This was not fun. He did not have snow boots and he was not prepared to chase through the woods.

By 6:30 p.m. Barney had marched the students into the restaurant for dinner and was feeling exhausted. At least Saturday was over and he would put the students on the train at 8:30 a.m. the next day. He fell asleep at the dinner table. The waiter noticed Barney's Odd Fellows ring and mentioned it to the manager. The manager came to Barney's table and told him there would be free pumpkin pie after dinner. As Barney got up to settle the account for the ski club, the manager took him aside and identified himself as an Odd Fellow.

Barney spent fifteen minutes watching the students in the lobby while talking to the manager. He lamented the behavior of the high school students and the fact that he was falling asleep everywhere he went. The manager listened attentively and pondered what solution he could offer. It wouldn't be safe to lock the doors and he didn't want to make his staff seem like the police. He finally came up with a solution. He put an easy chair in the hallway and Barney could sit there for an hour then the manager would sit for an hour, then each of the other two Odd Fellows on the staff would sit there for an hour. If there was a problem, the other proctors would notify Barney immediately. Barney drank coffee while he was there and the restaurant sent up a pot every half hour.

Things settled down by 2:00 a.m. He didn't think any of the students had done anything to cause him a problem. He was not sure he would ever chaperone a group again. When he awakened in the morning, Barney was able to get the student to breakfast, packed and down to the train by 8:30 a.m. He arranged for the boys to be in a different car from the girls. He sat in the middle of the group of boys and slept all the way to the train station.

Barney was never so glad to get home. He made sure that all of the students were picked up at the train station by the adult designated to perform that duty and went home and fell asleep in his chair. His wife awakened him for dinner, but Barney passed and went up to bed. He got enough sleep on Sunday to get up and do his job teaching on Monday morning.

The next Sunday, Barney's sister-in-law and family came over for dinner. The meal was in full progress when Emily stated, "The trip last weekend was so much fun. When do you think the club can take another, Uncle Barney?"

Barney paused to think. He felt like saying "never" or "when you get a new faculty sponsor." But was reluctant to say anything. He discussed the matter with his wife, after dinner. She didn't have any suggestions except that the other club sponsor should do the next field trip by herself. Barney went to the next faculty meeting and suggested that Miss Walker should chaperone the next Ski Club trip. Miss Walker was young and fresh and thought she could handle this. There was a February ski trip to the same area but a different lodge. Miss Walker resigned the week after the ski trip. The principal asked Barney if he had any idea why Miss Walker quit. Barney replied, "No idea." The next year, Barney was the sponsor of the coin collecting club.

FIVE LODGES FROM DISTRICT 10

Members from the five lodges of District 10 meet recently for their annual United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth Dinner. Members of Thistle 512, Pittston, Oneida 371 Dallas, Askam 899, Wilkes-Barre, White Haven 457, and Osage 712, Lehman gathered at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Luzerne, PA for a delicious meal and an evening of F, L and T. Deputy Grand Master E. Keith Harvey served as MC for the evening and began by introducing Grand Master William Ramsey, Jr. and his daughter Samantha. GM Ramsey greeted the members and their guests and gave an inspiring talk about Odd Fellowship. The highlight of the evening, of course, were the speeches given by the UN representatives.

DGM Harvey introduced Past Grand Master and "Pop" for this year's trip, Tom McHugh who spoke about his experience dealing with the students and "loving every minute if it." He then had the pleasure of introducing the candidates.

Irina Ackerman, representative from Thistle #512, gave a moving talk about her first 10 years of life in a Russian Orphanage. She explained how the topic of "child slavery," addressed during the groups visit to the UN, was something that hit very close to home. She also stated that, after the trip, it made her more convinced than ever to become a teacher and lead children down the right path.

Nicole Harvey, representative from Oneida #371, gave the group details about the trip and the impact that it had on everyone who attended. She stated how everyone was kind of shy at the beginning but became best friends as the trip went on.

CENTRE COUNTY

Dinner

The spaghetti dinner in November was not a complete disaster but it could have been. We picked the worst date possible, why I don't know or have pushed it out of memory. The saving factor was a load of delivery dinners to the 301 high-rise. Faye Horton was the instigating factor, spreading the word and the exercise class ordered a bunch of dinners at half time of the PSU game. Steve Mesko helped Diane Kulp with the delivery. There will be no dinner this month. The date for January has yet to be determined. Let you know in next months' letter. Let's hope we can pick a better date.

Official Visit

Two from 1032 cornered the Grand Master the night of the visit at Centre Lodge #153. The attendance was good from county lodges. Funny thing though, the GM almost had to work his way into the Lodge. Turns out that he and his companion had poor directions and got lost in Bellefonte. The door had just been closed when one of the guys saw a car come in the parking lot. Well they had some fun with the GM but finally let him in without all the procedures. Food was good, meeting was good. Let's hope the rest of Bill's year goes as well.

UN Tour Night

If a poll had been taken the meeting with the young on the 10th of November would be the biggest plus you ever saw. The picture shows all the youngins' that were there with the Noble Grand's of the Lodges that sponsored them. Mae Judy, Co-Chair for the state program mc'd the meeting.

Notes

There is always space for items of interest pertaining to Odd Fellowship in this newsletter. Get in touch with me concerning news of interest to the Lodges in Central Pa. At times during the year I run across something that feels like it should be shared. If you don't like it, throw it away. If it hits a note, read it to your family. See you in church. Don't forget the Christmas Party.

OBITUARIES

Due to publication time, we regret we cannot accept Obituaries older than three months.

HAROLD LEROY NEFF

A MESSAGE FROM THE GRAND MASTER

My Dear Brothers and Sisters,

As you are reading this I will probably have six months in my term. I normally do not take the time to sit down and write letters because if I am not working I am on route 80 or the turnpike going 80 with two phones stuck to my head, just ask my traveling partners, Brothers Joe, Scott and Art. But wait until they get color back into their knuckles.

Now first and foremost I would like to personally thank all of the members that braved the cold and weather to come to the special session of the Grand Lodge. This was the first time in many years that enough were present to conduct the business at hand. I really appreciate it. This is just one sign that our Order is turning around. If you would be traveling with me, you can feel and see the excitement. Lodges are taking in new, younger members, they are trying new things. Every degree rally I was at this past year, they took in new members. I attended some in the past that we had to pull members from the side line just to practice the degree work but this has not been the case lately.

Now, Brothers and Sisters, I am not saying that our Order is in perfect shape, we still have a lot of work ahead of us but the lodges that are trying and working at it and willing to learn the proper way to do things are growing and having fun doing it. Some lodges are doing good, some are doing great, some lodges just need a little help to spark them. If your lodge is doing good or great, check out the other lodges in your area. If they need help, you may be able to give them some guidance. We have all sorts of things in place to help lodges out: Membership DVDs, SEC Manuals, Noble Grand Manuals, Vice Grand Manuals...you just have to ask.

We also have a new and improved web site, it is awesome, check it out.

If you have any comments or suggestions, email them in to the new webmaster, Robert Krebs or P.G.M. John Cupp. It is new and improved but they are still adding and updating things. Thank you John and Robert for working so hard on this project, you are doing a great job.

I also signed a contract with a multi-media group to promote our Order, they are working on a documentary for the history channel and dvd's for the use on tv, they will hit magazines and radio. The billboard promotion will not go into effect until around June so that we can target the summer vacation season.

As many of you know, I could talk or write about all the good things that are getting done in this great Order. Just remember, negative thoughts and actions breed negativity, but positive thinking, positive attitude, positive actions produce positive results. Also, always think about how Odd Fellowship affects someones life in some way, every day, whether it's in your community or state or in the world, we do affect someone. And now I would like to thank each and every one of you for working so hard on turning this Order around.

Thank you for taking the time to read this.

Yours in F.L.T
Grand Master

A MESSAGE FROM THE GRAND PATRIARCH

Brothers and Sisters,

Happy New Year 2009!

Starting a New Year is always an exciting time, planning and setting goals for the next 12 months. For the Encampment I want to see substantial growth in the next 12 months. The DVDs of the degrees have been mailed to all the District Deputy Grand Patriarchs as well as a couple of people in other jurisdictions. Now new encampment members can see the Degrees and receive their instruction so that they can attend meetings.

I hope to write to every Odd Fellows Lodge Secretary, sending him/her information on the Encampment Branch of our order to pass out to their members. It is my belief that many Odd Fellows are not aware that there are additional branches in our order. We must educate them and ask them to join.

In November, I attended the PM/LAPM Degree Rally in York with the Department Commander. There were three (3) chevaliers mustered, including the Grand Master. The ladies provided a delicious lunch and we had a catered dinner. I am sure all who attended enjoyed themselves.

I am writing this in early December and have not attended any of the many Christmas Parties that are approaching, but I am sure it will be a festive season. Seems we always get caught up in the hustle and bustle of the season. I hope you took time to truly enjoy the Christmas Holiday.

Remember to keep on asking.

In Faith Hope & Charity

Emilie J. Cupp, Grand Patriarch

P.O.F. DAYS GONE BY (72 Years Ago, January 1937)*A NEW DEGREE FOR ODD FELLOWSHIP

Some time ago some waggish (or was he waggish?) brother suggested that a new degree be provided for a certain class of members and that said degree be known as the "Past Usefulness Degree". The more though we have given to the subject the more we realize the far reaching effect such a degree might have. Past Usefulness! How many of our members might qualify? How many who, after receiving all the honors that might reasonably be expected, have allowed their interest to lapse and have ceased entirely to give their lodge the benefit of their knowledge and experience? How about the degree? An obligation somewhat like this.

I ____ (Name), being an Odd Fellow who has been honored by this lodge and the Order of Odd Fellows, do hereby renounce any and all future interest in said Order, except that of receiving from my brethren attentive and financial benefits should I find them necessary.

I do further agree to refrain from any participation in lodge activities which may require my time or entail any expense, except that I agree to attend every free entertainment provided by the lodge and to do my full share toward disposal of whatever refreshments may be offered.

I shall refrain from visiting my more unfortunate or sick brother, from attending his funeral, and from contributing in any manner to the relief of his stricken family. I do agree also to advise my family that they are to expect prompt and generous assistance should the occasion offer. That my lodge will promptly pay to them a funeral benefit and that my kiddies will be educated and maintained in a home provided for that purpose should such be necessary. All this I solemnly promise to fulfill and do agree to pay my dues before the fourteenth meeting night should I not forget so to do.

The candidate, after subscribing to the prescribed obligation, shall have placed upon his head a halo of lettuce leaves, shall be clothed in garments of deepest purple (signifying his royalty) and shall be led around the room solemnly while a funeral dirge is played.

Each officer and member shall grasp his right hand with the brothers' right hand and in mournful tones bid the brother's usefulness a fond farewell. The following song may, or may not, be sung:

Farewell brother we shall miss you,
No longer hear you rant and rare,
No more listen to you argue
We shall fill your vacant chair

We shall miss you, oh my brother
Else some night a feed is on.
Then we'll find you with another
Doing an eating marathon.

We shall not forget to tell you
When the banquet dates arrive
If we forget advice to send you
You can skin us all alive.

Farewell brother you may wander
Anywhere in any land.
And you need no longer squander
Time in lending helping hand.

Now your usefulness is ended
We know now what to expect.
Until when you must be suspended
We will treat you with respect.

The candidate shall then be led to the desk of the Secretary and given a receipt for all dues paid to date. Mean while each brother will station himself at the inner door and as the candidate emerges, give him one good kick in the pants. Any candidates?

MYSTIC LODGE ACTIVITIES

Mystic lodge No. 270, of Holmesburg, one of the most active in our state is, under the jurisdiction of its very capable Noble Grand, Brother Audenreid Downs, going rapidly forward.

January 18th witnessed the initiation of four candidates and more are in sight. The pinochle and radio party of January 15th was a very successful one and well attended. Mystic has been a staunch supporter of The Pennsylvania Odd Fellow and Brother John E. Roth. Its correspondent is ever ready to supply items of interest.

(60 Years Ago, January 1949)EBENSBURG LODGE HOST TO OFFICERS

About 200 persons attended a meeting of the Past Grand's Association of Cambria County, Wednesday evening, January 19th at Ebensburg. Highland Lodge No. 428 was host.

A new sign at the entrance to the lodge building was dedicated by Russell C. Tibbott, Past Grand Chaplain of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania. Musical numbers were presented by the Odd Fellows Chorus under the direction of Mrs. Betty Lyons. Mrs. Leonard Thomas gave a reading. Edward Monbourne, Jr., played accordion selections. Adam Walkingshaw played several piano selections.

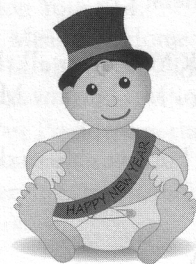

The next meeting will be February 17th in Alma hall, Johnstown. Host will be Johnstown Lodge No. 191.

(25 Years Ago, January 1984)Laurel Lodge No. 672, I.O.O.F.

On January 26, 1984 Independent Order of Odd Fellows Laurel Lodge No. 672, Punxsutawney, was host for the Visit of District Deputy Grand Master Robert Kantorski and 12 members of his home lodge, Alert No. 936, of Rochester Mills, PA.

Robert Gave a very inspiring talk on getting new members, attending Lodge meetings and the different meetings conducted in other districts. He also made the drawing of the name of the winner of the contest that was held within Laurel Lodge itself. The winner was Francis Anderson, and he was not present to accept.

The evening was closed out with refreshments and good fellowship.

ALMA LODGE TO ADMIT FIRST DOG AS BENEFICIAL MEMBER

Johnstown Police Officer, Michael Kanuch of the Johnstown K-9 Division, accepts a $1,000.00 check from John Pearce, Secretary of Alma Lodge #523, I.O.O.F., to be used toward purchasing a new dog for the K-9 Division.

Well, I'll bet that headline got your attention. I couldn't wait for April Fools Day. No, we're not admitting our canine friends into the Lodge yet, although I have the feeling that some of these special dogs—police dogs—could make it through initiation after a little coaching.

What Alma Lodge did do is make a donation (see photo) to help the City of Johnstown purchase a new police dog—two, in fact. And, after researching this story, I believe it was one of the best gifts we ever made.

It seems the K-9 division needed some help in replacing their K-9 officers due to retirement and job related disabilities. The dog in the photo is named Xander, a German Shepherd, and suffered from the hip problems German Shepherd frequently acquire.

Xander's partner, also pictured with our Lodge Secretary, John Pearce, is K-9 Officer Michael Kanuch (pronounced Kan'you). I spoke with Officer Kanuch about his job and the dogs and I have never spoken with a more grateful recipient of a donation from our Lodge.

He repeatedly thanked the Odd Fellows for their contribution and wanted us to know how much it helped the city and the K-9 Division. It seems there's a shortage of money for use in the police department (there's a lot of that going around these days), and some of the expenses of purchasing and caring for these dogs just isn't being met. The officers have to foot some of the costs personally. They hold fund-raisers, raffles, and ask for donations to help offset the cost of maintaining these dogs, but the dogs get cared for properly regardless of how much money their handlers can raise.

There are 2 new dogs on the force now, Belgian Malinois, about 2 ½ years old, and they cost between $6,000 and $7,500 each. They will serve about 8 years. There are 7 K-9 officers on the force and 7 dogs. Another will retire in January, 2009. These dogs are used for apprehension of suspects, building searches for suspects who run into a building and hide, possibly armed, and to sniff out narcotics. One is especially trained to detect bombs. These dogs can save the life of an officer but I got the impression that the officers would risk their lives to save their dog if it came to that. These guys love their dogs and provide a real asset to the force.

What happens to the older dogs when they retire? The city allows the officer who worked with the dog to buy it for $1.00 and take it home and care for it until its life is over. That's exactly what Officer Kanuch did. Xander now stays with Officer Kanuch's mother because the new dog Officer Kanuch is working with and Xander don't get along too well.

Odd Fellows have a mission to visit the sick, relieve the distressed, bury the dead and educate the orphan. I would say donating to a cause that helps all the honest citizens of a city remain safe from crime comes under relieving the distressed. I am very glad we were able to help the Johnstown City Police Department's K-9 Division and hope we will do so again in the future.

Officer Kanuch offered to put on a demonstration for our Lodge of what his K-9 partner can do and I'm thinking that we just may take him up on that offer next summer at our annual picnic if the scheduling works out. Maybe our Noble Grand at the time could wear some heavily padded clothes and attempt to flee when Officer Kanuch orders him to "freeze". That would be neat to watch. Heh heh heh.....

Respectively Submitted,
Glenn L. Campbell

THANK YOU

To all Sisters and Brothers:

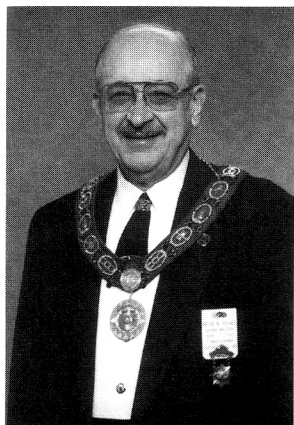

A sincere "THANK YOU" for all the prayers, calls, concerns, and cards; while I was hospitalized for two weeks in the Progressive Care Unit of Mt. Nittany Medical Center. It's not easy having to stay in bed with all kinds of tubes and wires to contend with.

I am feeling better but not able to do as much as I would like to. Thanks again.

Fraternally,

JORDAN LODGE #192

Another great event was held by the Jordan Lodge #192 and Lady Lillie Best Rebekah Lodge #222. Our First Annual October Fest was held at the Schnecksville Fire Company Pavilion on October 5, 2008 with about 200 in attendance. This year's event was for our local team for the American Cancer Society - Relay for Life.

The kitchen crew served good ethnic food-haluska, pierogies, bullasa, and the usual sausage potato soup-hot dogs with sauerkraut. You name it-we had it. Also, delicious baked goods made by our Sisters.

We were pleased with the attendance and participation in the 50/50 drawings, and our usual "German" auction and just enjoying the fellowship of friends from other lodges and communities. We try to promote what our Order is all about, Friendship, Love and Truth.

We are planning our next Gala event some time in May 2009-recognizing our U.N. Student and a special drawing, more information to follow.
