FROM THE DESK OF THE GRAND SECRETARY

Dear Readers:

I received a call the other day about some members of a Lodge making a lease with a company for the oil and gas rights on there property with out getting approval of the Lodge first. I would remind everyone not only should the Lodge give approval ahead and also get permission from the Grand Lodge.

I would think it would be for the benefit of all Lodges if the would take time during Good of the Order to study the Laws of the Grand Lodge and the Constitution of Odd Fellows so they will know what the proper way of doing things is. This would be for the benefit of all concerned.

Fraternally,
William L. Locke
Grand Secretary

IDELLA REBEKAH LODGE BANQUET

Idella Rebekah Lodge held its 51st Anniversary Lodge Banquet at the Hickory Corners Fire Hall on Saturday evening, May 9th, 2009 with 57 Sisters and 5 Brothers in attendance.

The delicious entrée of turkey and ham with all the trimmings was served by the ladies and gentlemen of the Fire Company.

Noble Grand May Lou Rebusch extended a warm welcome to all and the Prayer was given by Sister Arlene Brown.

Noble Grand Mary Lou introduced the Charter members; at the present time we are blessed to have eleven of our Charter Members.

Noble Grand introduced her Officers and Escorts to the Flags. Entertainment for the evening was provided by Lisa, Courtney and Madison Troutman.

Part Noble Grand Dawn Snyder was presented with the Rebekah of the Year Award; she served two terms as Noble Grand and did an excellent job putting together our 50th Anniversary Banquet.

At this time a collection was taken to benefit the Odd Fellow and Rebekah Home in Middletown.

Since it was close to Mother's Day the door prizes were given representing Mothers, to Sisters Shirley Kolva, having two children in the same year; Sister Janet Betzer, her daughter resides in California; Sister Shirley London, being stood up on first date; Sister Lena Klinger, lost her eyeglasses and never found them; Sister Arlene Deppen, wore two different shoes to church; Sister Alfreda Reed for having the oldest car and to Sister Shirley Silvick for leaving the house without her child.

The evening closed with the singing of "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You."

LODGE CELEBRATES ANNIVERSARY

Phoebe Rebekah Lodge #123 celebrated the 130th Anniversary of the granting of their charter on May 4, 2009 at the Clarion IOOF hall in Sligo. A Dinner was held 5:30 p.m. at the Sligo Korner Restaurant. After the dinner a Chinese Auction was held with many sisters winning prizes. Candy Walter Bowser, Noble Grand welcomed everyone and thanked them for coming. Candy and Laura Homan sang "Jesus Loves Me" (Senior Version) in honor of our President Patricia Newman. Noble Grand Candy opened the lodge at 7:30 p.m. Rebekah Assembly Officers attending were Patricia Newman, President; Marcia LaVan, Warden; Ella Lee Trulick, Treasurer; A. Elaine Weekley, Representative to IARA; Lazetta Sidwall, Marshal; Lee Etta Mansberry, Conductor; Laura Homan, Musician; Audrey Hutchison, Representative to Oddfellow and Rebekah Association of Western Pa.; Mary E. Walker, PP; and Linda Garner, DDP District 25. We also had visitors from Lady Emily #452 and Lady Worth #328. Also present was Phoebe's own member Ruth A. Good, DDP District 24 and also President of the Department Association of Ladies Auxiliary Patriarch Militant. Phoebe Rebekah Lodge has 10 members of the Roll with 8 attending our Anniversary. Total attendance 21 sisters. I believe everyone had an enjoyable evening with cake and ice cream being served after the meeting.

CENTRE COUNTY

Memorial Day

One of our best events at the cemetery in years. There were 14 people including our newest member, Bob Lilie and his wife, Jill. They are long time State College residents. Bob heard one of the radio commercials and e-mailed Bob Homan for details. Thanks to our Grand master the radio commercials are doing well, in addition to being well written. After the ceremony, we adjourned to the Waffle Shop for lunch. We all enjoy this get-together very much. Our Memorial Day service was established many years ago. State College Lodge has consolidated with many lodges over the years. We can't find all the cemeteries' where brothers are resting. So a number of years back we bought the present site in this cemetery for remembrance of fallen brothers. We are currently planning some changes to include our Rebekah Sisters in Lady Emily. This includes a number of consolidations that have expanded Lady Emily's history.

CONNOQUENESSING LODGE #278

Connoquenessing Lodge #278, Butler, presented service awards at its Annual Roll Call Dinner, two members present. Presenting the awards was Grand Lodge Lawyer, Marc Rosenwasser. He presented a fifty year jewel to Brother Robert Mariacher and a sixty year pin to Brother William Watson. Not able to attend but also receiving service awards was Brother Jesse Fithian, fifty year pin, and Brother Linwood Lindsey, sixty year pin.

Contributions

Twice a year we make donations to some of the most active and caring organizations in the State College area. Last week we were invited to the Salvation Army's Annual "Hope Endures" Dinner. It is their way of thanking the people and organizations that support their activities. We agree with their methods of helping people, especially children. In addition to renewing many acquaintances it gave us an opportunity to present our gift to them for this Spring. Robert Homan is shown below with the husband/wife team that keeps the local chapter going, Captains Chuck and Pat Niedermeyer.

Session

This is the time of year that Pennsylvania Odd Fellows meet to get things ready for next year. This year Session is in State College. All of you who get this letter are either in the environs of Centre County or equidistant from other points in the State. Please join us for a good session.

Sunday is the Lord's day, join us in Church.

THANK YOU

Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

My name is Ashley Zigmant, and I graduated Cum Laude from the University of Sciences in Philadelphia on May 20, 2009. I received my Doctor of Pharmacy degree. I will be employed by the Giant Food Stores as a pharmacist in the Allentown area. Your organization was kind enough to help me by giving me scholarship money. I wanted to let you know that I graduated, and I am moving on with my career.

I have enclosed a photo, and I wanted to thank you.

INDEPENDENCE DAY QUOTES

Those who expect to reap the blessings of freedom, must, like men, undergo the fatigue of supporting it.

~Thomas Paine

He that would make his own liberty secure, must guard even his enemy from opposition; for if he violates this duty he establishes a precedent that will reach himself.

~Thomas Paine

This nation will remain the land of the free only so long as it is the home of the brave. ~Elmer Davis

The American Revolution was a beginning, not a consummation. ~Woodrow Wilson

Liberty is always dangerous, but it is the safest thing we have. ~Harry Emerson Fosdick

Let freedom never perish in your hands. ~Joseph Addison

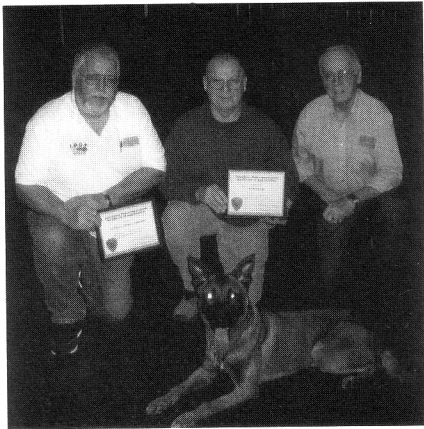

You have to love a nation that celebrates its independence every July 4, not with a parade of guns, tanks, and soldiers who file by the White House in a show of strength and muscle, but with family picnics where kids throw Frisbees, the potato salad gets iffy, and the flies die from happiness. You may think you have overeaten, but it is patriotism.

SOMETIMES THE DISTRESSED AREN'T INDIVIDUALS: ALMA LODGE COMES TO THE AID OF THE CITY

It's hard to argue that our Country is in great financial shape. And, local governments also are finding themselves in fiscal trouble. Sometime there just isn't enough money to fully fund even the necessary services the citizens expect and need, like police and fire protection.

In a past article in this magazine I reported that Alma Lodge #523, Johnstown, PA, donated $1,000 to the Johnstown Police Department to be used to aid in the purchase and upkeep of police dogs for the K-9 Division. Well, the gift was so appreciated, and the members of Alma Lodge, who make up the entire membership of the William F. Packer Encampment #127, believed this was such a worthy cause that the Encampment voted unanimously to make a $500 contribution to the same organization.

in turn, presented Officer Kanuch with an application for membership.

His new police dog had already been involved in a couple apprehensions and some searches, and was working our quite well according to Officer Kanuch. The dog, being a Belgian

K-9 Officer Michael Kanuch, with his four-legged partner, came to the Lodge Hall to accept the donation on behalf of the Johnstown Police Department and the K-9 Division specifically. While there, Officer Kanuch presented an official Certificate of Appreciation to both the Lodge and the Encampment. We,

Malinois and already a couple years old, takes his commands in French. Although he exhibited a lot of energy and eagerness, since he wasn't sure why he was in this strange building and seemed like he was ready to be turned loose to capture a suspect, behaved well and did what Officer Kanuch told him to do, I guess, since none of us spoke French and he didn't attack anyone.

However, if I had been hiding somewhere in the building, and he was instructed to find and apprehend me, he would have done so in short order. I wouldn't want to experience his work personally.

Every bit as important as the police are to a community, so is the fire department. And, lack of funding has effected Johnstown's Fire Department, as well. When the members of Alma Lodge found that the firemen (and women) needed some very critical equipment for their Rapid Intervention Team (RIT), once again, we decided to help. The members voted to donate $1,000 to the Johnstown Fire Department to help the RIT acquire this equipment so the team members could do their job better and safer.

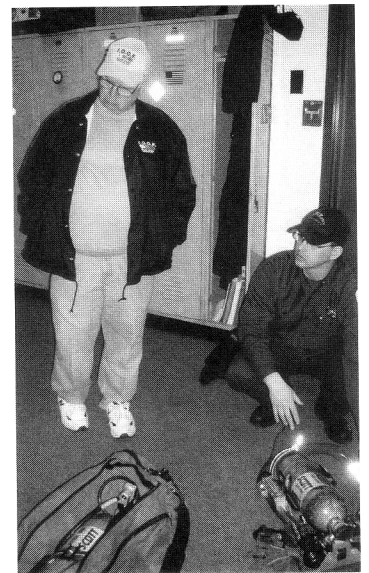

Members of the Lodge delivered the check to Fire Chief Anthony Kovacic at one of the fire stations and our Noble Grand, Ray Oaks, personally presented it to the Chief. NG Oaks and the other members of the Lodge were given a tour of the fire station and shown some of the equipment the RIT uses to enter burning buildings and in the rescue of citizens perhaps trapped inside while offering the firemen some degree of safety. The firemen were most appreciative of our donation. The Chief sent the Lodge a very nice letter of thanks not long after the donation was made. We just hope they will never have to use their tools of the trade on any of us or our Lodge Hall, but one never knows.

We now have quite a few people in the police and fire departments that know some more about Odd Fellowship, what we do and our missions, that never even heard of us before. And, we helped our community in some very important ways. It's good to be an Odd Fellow.

Respectably Submitted by,
Glenn L. Campbell, Alma Lodge #523

MEETING AT SHENANDOAH

Grand Master Ely has signified his desire to have many District Meetings during his term as Grand Master. The first was held at Shenandoah, PA, on July 11th, in connection with a Special Session, Limited, of the Grand Lodge. It was a most pleasant and successful one.

Eighteen Past Grand's were present to receive the Grand Lodge and Past Grand's Degrees. DDGM Clayton Frost, who made the arrangements, is to be congratulated upon the response received from his invitation to other Lodges to send representatives.

Grand Master Ely, Grand Warden Naylor, Grand Conductor Walthers, Grand Marshal Creighton, Grand Chaplain Hamilton, and the Grand Secretary were present.

The Grand Encampment was represented by Grand Junior Warden Roth.

Addresses were made by each of the officers present, after which a buffet luncheon was served.

LAURA REBEKAH LODGE, NO. 101 HOSTS U.N. BUS TRAVELERS

On Monday, July 2nd, Laura Rebekah Lodge No. 101 of Erie, PA served a dinner for a bus load of boys and girls on the United Nations Tour. There were 23 on the bus this year, about half of the usual amount. The Lodge has been doing this each year for the past ten years. It has always been such a pleasure to do them the favor of feeding them before going to Meadville, PA for the night, and breakfast before starting on their journey homeward. They always have interesting stories to tell and sing a few songs.

Tuesday, July 24th, the Lodge and their families will enjoy a picnic at Zuck Park.

LITITZ LODGE, NO. 1050

Lititz Lodge No. 1050 I.O.O.F. is celebrating its Ninety-Second Birthday having been instituted July 11, 1892 in Bomberger's hall, 11 South Broad Street. Several Charter Members had been affiliated with Clay Lodge, Lincoln, PA and felt that the town of Lititz should have their own fraternal organization.

Lititz Lodge was instituted and a Charter granted by Deputy Grand master Maunch of reading, PA. The petition was signed by 39 candidates and of this group 20 were initiated in the afternoon class.

Immediately the Brothers assumed the responsibilities of organizing a Degree Staff and with the assistance of the Grand Lodge Officers exemplified the work of the Order to the 19 remaining charter candidates the evening of July 11, 1892.

In 1900, Lititz Lodge moved their meeting place to a rented third floor of Rudy's Hall at 49 East Main Street and occupies that building for a period of years until the Malta Hall, opposite the present Post Office, was constructed for lodge purposes. Here the Lodge grew in its influence and its membership was substantially increased. The Lodge lost its lease and for a number of years met in the old Recreation Center adjacent to the Lititz Springs Park.

Feeling the need for more permanent facilities, the Lodge purchased and extensively renovated the old Enck Building at 111-113 north Broad Street which provides a comfortable and attractive meeting place. Under the guidance of the late W. Martin Hess, District Deputy Grand Master, an installation staff was organized and performed notably in this work throughout the state.

Our Lodge was honored by having three of its members - WE. Martin Hess, Carl V. Reedy, and Robert L. Derr elevated to the position of Grand Master of the State of Pennsylvania.

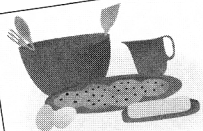

In 1957 Mt. Joy Lodge consolidated with Lititz adding 22 members to the roster. In 1962 Orion Lodge of Columbia merged with Lititz with the addition of 23 members. In 1969 Cocalico Lodge of Reamstown affected a consolidation and added 15 members. In 1978 Conestoga Lodge of Millersville merged adding 23 members.

Now in July 1984 Lititz Lodge honors Brother C. Eugene Long of 117 Moravian Avenue, Lititz. At 98 years of age and a 77 year member, we are extremely pleased to announce his faithful continuous membership in our fraternity.

Brother Long was 6 years old and living on North Broad Street, when Lititz lodge had its beginnings here in town.

He recalls he joined the Lodge in 1907 and was initiated by a team from Lancaster. Before retiring in 1960, he headed the Long Coal and Lumber Business. Today his son H. Sidney Long (an Odd Fellow) and Robert L. Bomberger head the company which bears the name, Long and Bomberger Home Center, at 45 North Broad Street, Lititz, as they continue to grow while serving the Lititz area.

THE HISTORY INDEPENDENCE DAY

Independence Day is the national holiday of the United States of America commemorating the signing of the Declaration of Independence by the Continental Congress on July 4, 1776, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

At the time of the signing the US consisted of 13 colonies under the rule of England's King George III. There was growing unrest in the colonies concerning the taxes that had to be paid to England. This was commonly referred to as "Taxation without Representation" as the colonists did not have any representation in the English Parliament and had no say in what went on. As the unrest grew in the colonies, King George sent extra troops to help control any rebellion. In 1774 the 13 colonies sent delegates to Philadelphia Pennsylvania to form the First Continental Congress. The delegates were unhappy with England, but were not yet ready to declare war.

In April 1775 as the King's troops advanced on Concord Massachusetts. Paul Revere would sound the alarm that "The British are coming, the British are coming" as he rode his horse through the late night streets.

The battle of Concord and its "shot heard round the world" would mark the unofficial beginning of the colonies war for Independence.

The following May the colonies again sent delegates to the Second Continental Congress. For almost a year the congress tried to work out its differences with England, again without formally declaring war.

By June 1776 their efforts had become hopeless and a committee was formed to compose a formal declaration of independence. Headed by Thomas Jefferson, the committee included John Adams, Benjamin Franklin, Robert R.

Livingston and Roger Sherman. Thomas Jefferson was chosen to write the first draft which was presented to the congress on June 28. After various changes a vote was taken late in the afternoon of July 4th. Of the 13 colonies, 9 voted in favor of the Declaration, 2 - Pennsylvania and South Carolina voted No, Delaware undecided and New York abstained.

To make it official John Hancock, President of the Continental Congress, signed the Declaration of Independence. It is said that John Hancock signed his name "with a great flourish" so "King George can read that without spectacles!."

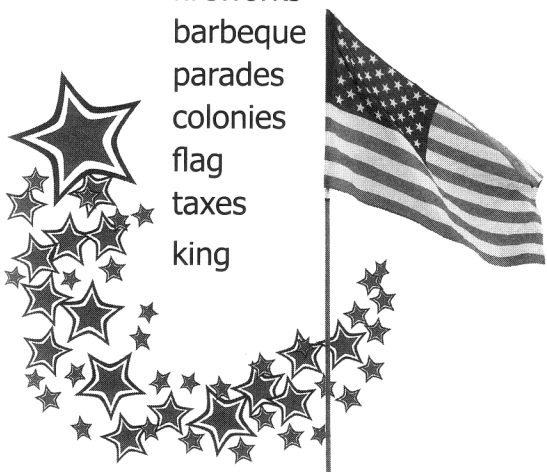

The following day copies of the Declaration were distributed. The first newspaper to print the Declaration was the Pennsylvania Evening Post on July 6, 1776. On July 8th the Declaration had its first public reading in Philadelphia's Independence Square. Twice that day the Declaration was read to cheering crowds and pealing church bells. Even the bell in Independence Hall was rung. The "Province Bell" would later be renamed "Liberty Bell" after its inscription... Proclaim Liberty Throughout All the Land Unto All the Inhabitants Thereof.

And although the signing of the Declaration was not completed until August, the 4th of July has been accepted as the official anniversary of United States independence. The first Independence Day celebration took place the following year - July 4 1777. By the early 1800s the traditions of parades, picnics, and fireworks were established as the way to celebrate America's birthday. And although fireworks have been banned in most places because of their danger, most towns and cities usually have big firework displays for all to see and enjoy.
