FROM THE DESK OF THE GRAND SECRETARY

Dear Readers:

As I think about what to write about, I think this is going to be a busy month. Session will be the last week, and if your Lodge wants a say in what is happening in the Order you need to have a Representative at the session, where the plans are made and the changes to the Code of Laws are presented. If your Lodge doesn't feel they can afford it, you can always have a fund raiser to cover the cost of your Representative. If you don't have someone there you can not do anything about it after the fact.

We are coming into the nice part of the year, I hope for everyone a great and enjoyable summer. Do not forget the Annual Fun Day at Knoebels Park on July 25. I hope to see you there.

Fraternally,
William L. Locke

FROM THE DESK OF THE DEPARTMENT COMMANDER

June is Busting out all over

June is usually the month that people think about weddings and other such things. The Odd Fellows do their spring house cleaning in June. Barney was busy teaching school till the first of June and he was the mover and shaker as far as house cleaning.

In 1929 the great depression had not yet hit. Barney was busy with his family and farm and he couldn't spare any time at all to clean the Odd Fellows Temple before school left out and he got some relief from his teaching job. After the Memorial Day picnic, the lodge members were bringing some of the tables into the temple and stacking them in the basement. Barney noticed a door at the end of the room. He had never been through that door.

Upon completion of his table stacking Barney stood in the main social room and pondered aloud, "Does anyone know what is in the room at the end of the basement?"

Brother Clancey responded, "We used to have a couple of other lodges meet in this temple. That room is small and was used for storage by a chapter of the Grand Army of the Republic. The Grand Army of the Republic was an organization of civil war veterans. I think the last meeting they held was in 1905 or 1906. I believe the last member died in 1919 or 1920. We never had a key to the room, so it has remained locked for years."

Barney said, "We have succeeded to the contents and should look in the room to see what is there. Besides, we can clean it up and use it to store tables. That would free the rest of the basement for a shuffle board court or bowling alley."

Much discussion was held and the members decided the trustees should make some decision. A trustee's meeting was held the next night. The trustees decided to hire a locksmith to open the room. The following Thursday, a locksmith arrived in the early afternoon and met Barney and several other trustees at the lodge hall.

The room was dusty and full of relics from both the Grand Army of the Republic and the Civil War. Barney saw a wooden box that had written on it "captured loot." After some work, they got the box out and opened it. It was full of money. Confederate money. Barney reckoned it contained about $10,000,000.00. Of course it wasn't worth anything. The lodge had to figure out a way to get rid of the contents of the room without just disrespectfully throwing it away.

Barney went to the local public library and he arranged to give them the contents of the room to set up a civil war exhibit. Barney then went to see Brother Thomas who was the editor of the local newspaper. After long discussion, they arranged a presentation with a picture.

The headline for the article read, "Local Odd Fellows Lodge donates $10,000,000.00 to public library."

The lodge couldn't have benefitted more if it were real money. At least a dozen people approached Barney or some other member. Four people joined, including a civil war buff. The benefits lasted for months and the Odd Fellows were recognized at numerous community events.

The moral of this story is, "Publicity is a good thing." Go out and bang your drum. A good headline will encourage people to read a story. If you want your organization to grow, talk to someone in the media. The TV, radio and print media are the best ways to get your lodge recognized. The easy thing for Barney's lodge to do was throw the old GAR material away. They found a means to get their message across. You might think people don't read anymore. If you are reading this article, you can see the print media are still alive.

Next month, July.

Comments and questions are always welcomed by the Department Commander. You can contact him by email at jcupp@verizon.net or conventional mail at 2 West Main Street, Suite 517, Uniontown, PA 15401-3403.

ORCHARD MANOR

Brothers William Watson, Treasurer of the Trustees, and William Clark, Trustee, from Connoquenessing Lodge #278 presented a check for Orchard Manor to Diane Robinson, NHA, Administrator and Marcia LaVan, President of the Board of Directors, at the Annual Meeting, which was held at Orchard Manor in April.

CENTRE COUNTY

Turkey and Waffles

Last month's dinner was delicious but we didn't have enough eaters. Looking at this month we had a problem choosing a date. With Memorial Day our normal weekend we decided to delay a week, hoping the turkey would help you to remember the date. One of our members, Jeremy Smith, surprised us with a huge, huge turkey. So come and help us eat it. All other data remains the same. Open to the public, so bring your family. Hours 4:00 to 7:00 PM. Price up two bucks, $8.00.

Spring

How about the color. The tulips this year are spectacular. After the additional bulbs planted last year the islands really look nice. Drive by and take a look.

GRAND MASTER VISITS REBEKAH LODGE

We at Ellen Rebekah Lodge #233 of Waltersburg, PA were honored to have our Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of PA, William Ramsey, Jr., at our regular Lodge Meeting Night on April 27th. Traveling with him was the Grand Guardian of the Grand Lodge of PA, Joseph Geibel, Jr.

There were a few members that were unable to attend, because of being on the staff of PRA Patricia Newman, and they were traveling. But representing her was VPRA Tamara Schlott. She was greatly welcomed. Also, we had the honor of having Carolyn Barger PPRA with us.

The whole evening turned out wonderful, members that were at Ellen was 11 attending.

Grand Master Bill was glad to be here and was also glad to be invited. Also, Grand Guardian Joe was glad to be here. They were on their way to the Ohio Session.

A light meal was served and a lot of socializing. Proved to be an enjoyable evening. Everyone is always welcomed at Ellen Rebekah Lodge #233, Waltersburg.

Lady Emily

Another spectacular event took place last Monday. After some time the Lady Emily degree team went at it again. With only one practice and a little more on the run, the Rebekah Degree was put on for the edification of three (3) new members. I don't remember the last time there were that many at one time. Maybe 1998 when my wife and I were initiated with several other folks. Ellie Trulick did a masterful job of leading the performance. She used her influence to get help from a lot of "names" from the past. From some distance also. Please forgive me if I miss someone among these: Elaine Weekly, Lee Etta Mansbury, Pat Newman, Marsha LeVan, Beverly Sabatula, and of course, our own Mary E. Walker who labored at the piano all evening to put the musical icing on the cake. Another first was done in that there was a Mother and Son among the three. Janet Owens and her son Robert were the pair. Bob is well known around the county as an Odd Fellow. I think his home is Centre Lodge but I am not sure. He is an associate member at State College. It doesn't really matter though, he is all Odd Fellow wherever he is. The same can be said for the other fellow who was included in the three, Mike Duminiak, who makes his Odd Fellow home at Port Matilda. He has a memory that would be hard to copy. He once memorized a service on the way to it.

2009 Session

Reminder, the banquet on Sunday after the memorial service. If you haven't mailed your reservation, get on it. Ditto the fun night festivities at Windmere Hall, home of State College Lodge. Bob and Laura Homan are taking care of the details on these two functions. Their address is 3061 West Whitehall Road, Pennsylvania Furnace, PA 16865.

DEAR CHAMPION

Dear Champion,

Thank you for being a hero for me and thousands of other people who have MS. I don't know if you or a loved one has MS, or if you're just doing this out of the goodness of your heart; the important thing is that you're going out there and making us and our cause more visible.

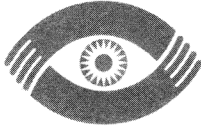

I was diagnosed with MS when I was only 19 years old, shortly before my sophomore year of college. At that time, I was told I would probably never walk again, and would certainly be bed-bound by the age of 30. Thanks, however, to the research you and people like you have funded through your generous participation in these events, I am now 27 and can walk, dance, jump, play with my cats, hang out with my friends, and do all of the normal 20-something stuff I previously thought had been stolen from me.

Thank you. Thank you, thank you, thank you, for helping people reclaim their dreams, no matter how mundane. You are truly Champions, and I hope that your dedication serves to inspire other future champions to help such an important cause.

Yours Truly,

Alisa Grishman

PAST GRANDS' ASSOCIATION OF SOUTH-EASTERN PA

On June 3rd, Pennsburg, Montgomery County, was invaded by more than 150 members. They came by bus, Auto, ecc., to look over this quiet little town placed amid scenic beauty, to hear of past and future Association activities, to enjoy 90 minutes of singing by well trained non-professional male singers and to hear an up-to-the minute speech by a noted Pennsylvania legislator.

Brief though was the business session, still many communications were read and acted upon and the reports of several Committees were received with due consideration.

Charles Schwenk and his several committeemen invited all to attend the Annual Picnic at Willow Grove on the first Saturday in August and predicted that at least 25,000 Odd Fellows, Rebekahs, and their friends would be there to enjoy the sports, music, songs and fun.

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

*Any man can be a Father,
but it takes a special person to be called Dad.*

The idea for creating a day for children to honor their fathers began in Spokane, Washington. A woman by the name of Sonora Smart Dodd thought of the idea for Father's Day while listening to a Mother's Day sermon in 1909.

Having been raised by her father, William Jackson Smart, after her mother died, Sonora wanted her father to know how special he was to her. It was her father that made all the parental sacrifices and was, in the eyes of his daughter, a courageous, selfless, and loving man. Sonora's father was born in June, so she chose to hold the first Father's Day celebration in Spokane, Washington on the 19th of June, 1910.

In 1926, a National Father's Day Committee was formed in New York City. Father's Day was recognized by a Joint Resolution of Congress in 1956. In 1972, President Richard Nixon established a permanent national observance of Father's Day to be held on the third Sunday of June. So Father's Day was born in memory and gratitude by a daughter who thought that her father and all good fathers should be honored with a special day just like we honor our mothers on Mother's Day.

THE HISTORY OF FLAG DAY

Though the origin of Flag Day dates back to the late 19th century, its inspiration takes us further back to 1777. On June 14th of that year, in Philadelphia, the Continental Congress passed a resolution specifying that the flag carry 13 stripes and 13 stars. The colors would represent hardiness and valor (red), purity and innocence (white), and vigilance, perseverance and justice (blue).

The concept of a specific day to annually recognize the American Flag came 108 years later. In 1885, a Fredonia, Wisconsin schoolteacher, B.J. Cigrand, arranged for the students in his school district to observe the resolution on June 14th as 'Flag Birthday'. In 1889, George Balch, a kindergarten teacher in New York City, planned similar festivities for his school's students. In 1893, Philadelphia became the first city to celebrate Flag Day, and in the following year, New York was the first state to observe June 14th. After decades of expanding community observances, President Woodrow Wilson established Flag Day on May 30, 1916.

Still many communities did not celebrate Flag Day. It wasn't until 1949, when President Harry Truman signed into an Act of Congress that National Flag Day be observed every June 14th. The United States Flag Code, as adopted by Congress, states "The flag represents a living country and is itself considered a living thing." This is why we should give the flag our full respect.

Flag Day is celebrated on June 14.

Properly Display Our Flag

There is a right way and a wrong way to display the flag. The American flag should be held in the highest of regards. It represents our nation and the many people who gave their lives for our country and our flag. Here are the basics on displaying the American flag:

- The flag is normally flown from sunrise to sunset.
- In the morning, raise the flag briskly. At sunset, lower it slowly. Always, raise and lower it ceremoniously.
- The flag should not be flown at night without a light on it.
- The flag should not be flown in the rain or inclement weather.
- After a tragedy or death, the flag is flown at half staff for 30 days. It's called "half staff" on land, and "half mast" on a ship.
- When flown vertically on a pole, the stars and blue field, or "union," is at the top and at the end of the pole (away from your house).
- The American flag is always flown at the top of the pole. Your state flag and other flags fly below it.
- The union is always on top. When displayed in print, the stars and blue field are always on the left.
- Never let your flag touch the ground, never...period.
- Fold your flag when storing. Don't just stuff it in a drawer or box.
- When your flag is worn and has seen better days, it is time to retire it. Old flags should be burned or buried. Please do not throw it in the trash.
