FROM THE DESK OF THE GRAND SECRETARY

Dear Readers:

As I sit here contemplating what I should write about and I keep thinking about all the power struggles going on, with everyone wanting things their way or no way. We all took an oath do what is right for the Order and each other. After something is debated and voted on, then we should all get behind it to make it work. And if we lose we should not be doing everything we can to make it fail. That is not what Odd Fellowship is all about. We have Degrees which portray how we should be living our lives. Every Lodge meeting we sing the opening ode. Think about what the words "Join, Odd Fellowship of Members (Brethren), in the song of truth and love; Leave disputes and strife to others, We in harmony must move" mean. Think how much more we could get done working together.

Now that I have said that I will ask a question. How long has it been since your lodge took in a new member? How long has it been since you signed up a candidate to become a member? If you want your lodge to grow,

Fraternally,
William L. Locke
Grand Secretary

FROM THE DESK OF THE DEPARTMENT COMMANDER

THE MERRY, MERRY MONTH OF MAY

May is usually overshadowed by spring activities culminating in Memorial Day celebrations and picnics. Most folks want to get out of the house and enjoy the warm weather. Barney Wells was no exception.

Lodge meetings are inside affairs. There needs to be a way to close the door and keep intruders out. Our secrets are not so great that a legion of spies surrounds our temples but there are an idle few, spurred on by curiosity, who would seek to discover our ancient mysteries so they could reveal them to world.

In 1919 Barney was fresh from his exploits in Europe. He thought it would be grand to hold a lodge meeting outside. His lodge was picking up steam and had 500 members on the books with an average attendance of 60. The chairs were always filled and those coming late had to use folding chairs.

After some discussion, it was decided that the last meeting in May would be held outside. This brought the unanimous consent of the membership. A dispensation was obtained and arrangements were made to secure a small field on the back of Barney's farm. There were enough extra guardians that no intruder would crash this lodge meeting, well maybe.

The first thing that was necessary was to make sure that the weather would co-operate. There were no radio or TV broadcasts in 1919, so the newspaper and the almanac were the only sources of information. The day of the meeting, it rained buckets. By 7:00 p.m. the rain was over but the grass was soaked. Barney had cut the field two days earlier, so things weren't too bad.

The rain kept the committee from setting up the chairs until 15 minutes before the meeting at 7:30 p.m. The lodge used small pedestals in place of the ornate stations in the lodge hall. The hour having arrived, there were fewer members than a normal meeting but still a good turnout. As the meeting began a flock of ducks flew over the assembly. The ducks had been eating seeds in the field of a neighboring farm. The ducks were full. This was bad. Four members were hit directly; including the recording secretary, right on the minute book. There were spots on the ground.

The warden and conductor began taking up the password. They were progressing slowly to avoid the duck droppings when the conductor, Brother Clancey, discovered there was a groundhog hole in the field. He sprained his ankle and fell on duck droppings. A recess was declared. After Brother Clancey was helped to his car, Brother Ryan drove him home.

The meeting was now delayed for twenty minutes. The refreshment committee had used picnic tables in the lot directly behind Barney's house to set out the lunch. The smell was wonderful and a very light breeze was blowing toward the wooded area behind the field where the meeting was being held. The Noble Grand wanted to get the meeting moving because he feared rain. He started going through the Order of business when the secretary pulled out candles. The Warden and acting Conductor now passed out the candles for the officers.

Things seemed to be going well as the Vice Grand began the Valediction. A rustling was heard behind the field, in the wooded area. It seems that the Sovereign Grand Master of the Order of Bears had smelled the lunch. All the members beat a hasty retreat to the parking area. Lunch was abandoned and Barney was trying to keep his property from being too badly damaged. The refreshment committee grabbed what it could, but there was still a large plate of sandwiches sitting there.

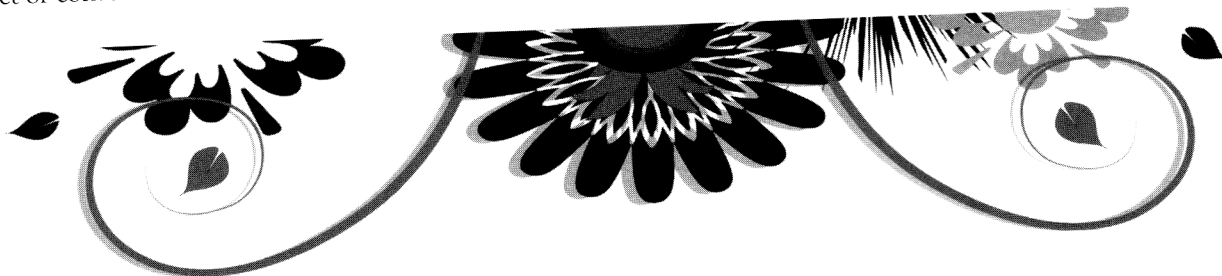

Barney ran into his barn and watched the other brothers drive away while the bear sat at Barney's picnic table and ate the whole plate of sandwiches. After the bear went back to the woods, Barney picked up the chairs and put them in the barn to take back the next day.

At the next meeting, everyone commented on how crazy an idea it was to meet outside. Brother Clancey was using a cane and he was upset for the whole meeting. Barney was told by more than one Brother that he should keep his ideas to himself.

So, dear reader, you now know why we try to conduct our affairs indoors.

Next month, June.

Comments and questions are always welcomed by the Department Commander. You can contact him by email at jcupp@verizon.net or conventional mail at 2 West Main Street, Suite 517, Uniontown, PA 15401-3403.

MEMORIAL DAY

We walked among the crosses, Where our fallen soldiers lay.

And listened to the bugle, As TAPS began to play.

The Chaplin led a prayer, We stood with heads bowed low.

And I thought of fallen comrades, I had known so long ago.

They came from every city, Across this fertile land.

That we might live in freedom., They lie here 'neath the sand.

I felt a little guilty, My sacrifice was small.

I only lost a little time, But these men lost their all.

Now the services are over, For this Memorial Day.

To the names upon these crosses, I just want to say,

Thanks for what you've given, No one could ask for more.

May you rest with God in heaven, From now through evermore.

CENTRE COUNTY

Dinner

The March dinner was our best so far this year. The change in menu surprised a lot of people. I guess they didn't figure we could make anything but spaghetti and meatballs. The Pork and Sauerkraut really was good and it showed. A lot of our friends had seconds that never did before. Too bad you weren't there. The menu for this month is still being considered. You'll just have to come and be surprised. We also had our best attendance this year.

Membership

We are seeing some gains in membership this year. Lady Emily is gearing up to initiate three members on April 27. Ellie Trulick is reviving the degree team we had so that we can greet our newbies in our own Lodge Hall. It isn't going to be easy but we will make it work. An interesting note, we will be welcoming a Mother/Son pair to Lady Emily membership.

The AMOS chapter had its first regular meeting last week at Centre Lodge. They have something like 15 members from lodges around Central PA. Any Odd Fellow who would like information on joining AMOS should call Mackie Levine at (814) 867-8308. He tells me that AMOS is the fun side of Odd Fellowship.

Session Tidbits

Fun Night will be at Windmere Hall on Sunday, June 21. The Homan's, Laura and Robert are taking reservations for Fun Night and the banquet. Send $10 to Bob for Fun Night and/or $25 to Laura for the banquet. Checks should be made out to "Unified Session Committee." Their address is 3061 W. Whitehall Road, Penna. Furnace, PA 16865. Their phone if you have questions is (814) 238-3537.

Major Events

This years major events each have a chairman. Some things are already in place. If you want to help or would like info on the event, call the Chair of that event.

- Spikes Baseball Outing - Steve Mesko is in charge. Date is set, July 24 at 5:30 pm. Steve's phone is (814) 466-7306.
- Dinner Theatre - Tom Kidd is in charge. No plans as yet. We are waiting for the Boal Barns schedule of plays. More later.
- Summer Picnic - Bob Owens is in charge. Again, no details available. We are trying to set up something in conjunction with Port Matilda.
- Christmas Party - Bob Homan is doing the honors. Date is first Saturday in December. Other arrangements are in process.

Again, if you would like to help with any of these events, call the guy in charge. Also, if you have any questions or suggestions, call 'de man.

Every year we host and feed one of the UN Tour buses on their way home from the visit to New York. This is always a refreshing time because the kids' enthusiasm has not yet worn off. If you would like a boost for your morale or just a fun evening or breakfast, join us on July 12 to help with dinner or Monday morning, the 13th, for breakfast. If you need details, call Bob Homan at (814) 238-3537 or me at (814) 237-3993. Besides, if you help with the meal, you get to eat free!

Do you have an article that would fit this letter? Send it to me, info. below.

NORTHWEST ODD FELLOWS FIGHT M.S.

Once again Bob Martin, P.G., Cussewago Lodge #108 will ride for the fight against Multiple Sclerosis on the "Escape to the Lake (Erie)." It is a 150 mile Bike Ride from Moraine State Park to Lake Erie at Conneaut, Ohio. The ride will have a variation this year. Instead of going through Meadville, the ride will travel through Edinboro. There will be some who start in Edinboro. They will follow a different route. The ride is divided into two parts, approximately 75 miles each day.

You will notice Bob's shirt is covered with names of those who have MS or who have passed away because of it. If you know of someone with MS, or someone who passed on, you may place their name on his shirt for a sum of $10. You may donate as a lodge or personally. If you wish to just contribute, any amount will be gladly accepted.

There is limited space on the shirt, so get your name in early. We will try to get them all on, if possible. Do you know any names on his shirt? Maybe you can sponsor one or more if you do not know any MS sufferers. Some do not renew the name each year. As of now, there is plenty of room on the shirt.

The last two years, Bob has been in the top 40 money raisers, over $3,000 each year. The ride has raised over one million each of the last two years with Bob being #35 in 2008. He is hoping to do better this year. Local lodges contribute generously to help Bob. It is good advertisement for the Order. He is one of a few who wears a dedicated shirt.

The ride takes place June 6 to Edinboro and on to Conneaut, Ohio on June 7. Cussewago has volunteers at Cochranston, and Woodcock Dam as well as at Edinboro University. If you live nearby, maybe you can help feed the over 1500 riders who will be riding. All you need to know is how to make peanut butter sandwiches, make gatorade, hand out bananas and power bars and say "Welcome" to those you meet.

Donations may be sent to Cussewago Lodge #108, 400 N. Main St., Meadville, PA 16335. Mark the envelope or check "For M.S." Checks should be made out to MS Society, Allegheny Chapter. Thank you for your concern and help.

Leland E. Dorchester, Secretary, Cussewago Lodge #108

(70 Years Ago May 1939)*BERKS COUNTY NEWS

The Berks County Past Grand's Association met in the Hall of Oley Lodge, No. 218, Reading, Tuesday evening, May 16, and had an exceptional and enjoyable meeting. Questions of relative importance to Grand Lodge Representatives were discussed at length. Dr. Zimmerman and a Staff of officials from the Philadelphia Orphanage were present and enlightened those present about affairs at the Orphanage from an educational standpoint. All members present were well repaid for having been present.

Saturday, May 13, Wernersville Lodge, No. 835, celebrated its Sixty-sixth Anniversary with a banquet at the Penn-Werner Hotel, Wernersville, PA. The First Anniversary of Lady Alice Rebekah Lodge, No. 107, was celebrated at the same time. Fifty-five Odd Fellows and Rebekahs were present. Among them was Harvey Hoover, an Odd Fellow for forty-three years, and Albert G. Gerhart, an Odd Fellow for forty-seven years, also Grand Warden, Samuel I. Koller, who delivered an appropriate address.

Past Grand, John Adam Werner who had been a member of Wernersville Lodge, No. 835, since 1886 for a period of fifty-three years died May 13 in the Reading Hospital after an illness of about three weeks.

LAWRENCE COUNTY PAST GRANDS ASSOCIATION

Lawrence County Past Grand's association held its annual banquet Saturday evening, May 13th, in the East New Castle Grange Hall. Dinner was served by the ladies of the Grange to 120; ingredients were all home-made-bread, butter, apple butter, jellies and everything, and you didn't feel a bit hungry after it was over.

Afterward all enjoyed 45 minutes of fine entertainment by "Lonesome Larry and his Saddle Mates" – four lads and a girl from Ellwood City, under the management of John Vobler. They put on a very good show. They broadcast regularly over WKST.

Lawrence County Past Grand's Association held their regular meeting in the hall of Pulaski Lodge, No. 780, on Thursday evening, May 18th, with a good representation. Committee on the banquet held on Saturday, reported it was a success in every way, and Brother Richardson declared it was the best one of all.

The committee appointed to organize a Junior Lodge reported everything was progressing fine. Brother Fenton PGM made a wonderful talk on the cause of this Branch of the Order and related the splendid work of the Sharon Junior Organization in instituting a new lodge, and installing officers, and the good teachings, and the great benefits derived by the boys through the initiation onto this Order. He also explained the great need of moral education of all school children as is being sponsored by the I.O.O.F.

(60 Years Ago May 1949)I.O.O.F. HONORS H. O. ELDRIDGE

Approximately 40 persons attended a testimonial gathering in Ebensburg Monday evening, May 16th, in honor of H. O. Eldridge of Nanty Glo, who recently completed his 23rd year as editor of the Nanty Glo Journal. The event took place in the

I.O.O.F. Hall under the sponsorship of Royal Encampment No. 253, I.O.O.F.

Mr. Eldridge is Senior Warden the Encampment and will be elevated to the position of Chief Patriarch next spring. Byron Davis presided over the gathering.

Mr. Davis announced that Highland I.O.O.F. lodge of Ebensburg will meet Wednesday, May 18th, to complete plans for formation of a softball team. At a meeting scheduled for June 1st, a class of 10 new candidates will be initiated.

Little Princess Theta Rho Girls' Club is two years old and boasts of a membership of forty girls and 14 Rebekah Sisters. The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of Sandy Lake, PA support the Girls' Club in every way possible. The Girls' have a fine Installing Staff and held a joint Public Installation with Princess Rebekah Lodge on April 27th.

TARENTUM

On Saturday evening, May 7th, J. B. Nicholson Encampment No. 187 was host to the Grand Encampment Officers at an affair in their Tarentum Hall. About 200 Patriarchs were present.

The first event on the program was a dinner at which the Grand Encampment and their wives were guests of honor. This was followed by a Special Session (Limited) of the Grand Encampment. The three Encampment Degrees were then conferred on a class of 26 candidates.

J. D. Nicholson's well organized degree team did the work in a most efficient manner. Slightly more than two and one-half hours were consumed in conferring the degrees. The degree work was made impressive due to the fact that the lodge hall had just been completely redecorated and new rubber tile block floor installed.

A vocal trio from Clement Encampment No. 238 aided the team by leading the singing. The trio was composed of Patriarchs Barton, McCormick, and Smith. Emmanuel Wagner, Secretary of the Grove City Home, officiated at the piano.

Refreshments were served in the social room after the meeting.

(30 Years Ago, May 1979)KOLLER'S 50TH

Two of Berks County's most active members of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows for many years will mark the 50th anniversary of their initiation into the Rebekah Degree in May.

They are Samuel I. Koller, dean of the Past Grand masters of the Grand Lodge, and his wife, Sarah, a Past President of the Rebekah Assembly of Pennsylvania.

The Kollers were initiated into Esther Rebekah lodge No. 4 in Reading, in May 1929. When Barbara Fritchie Lodge No. 138 was instituted in 1938 in Shillington, the Kollers transferred their membership and became charter members of the new unit.

Brother Sam is still active in Shillington Lodge No. 1175. Sister Sarah includes among her many lodge activities the job of pianist for the district deputy president's staff.

ARTHRITIS COMMITTEE

Honoring the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs

On Saturday, March 21st, the Eastern Chapter of the Arthritis Foundation held a breakfast to celebrate the efforts of many volunteers who support the Foundation with their time and money. "Volunteers are Fan-tastic" was the theme and all were asked to wear something from their favorite sports teams. The group was large and enthusiastic. Awards were presented in many categories. The IOOF Arthritis Committee was asked to attend as the IOOF was to receive an award. The Danihels and Tuckers were able to attend and were quite honored to receive 2009 Financial Development Award for the Committee and all members of the IOOF. We were even more surprised and honored as the President of the Eastern Chapter Board announced that in the future this award will be renamed and called "The Independent Order of Odd Fellows Community Development Award." A picture of the award and actual award presentation are included in the magazine.

We have been very successful in supporting the three Arthritis Foundation Chapters over the years and now we need to continue our efforts to help those affected by arthritis with our time and financial support. Join a team for one of the arthritis walks in your area, volunteer to help with registrations at an event. Use your talents in some way to help

JEWEL AWARDED

William E. Torrence, well known Odd Fellow of Coopersburg and former Chaplain of the General Military Council was awarded the Distinguished Service Jewel by the Department council of Pennsylvania. This outstanding event took place during the banquet at the Philadelphia Orphanage.

Flanked by his son and grandson - "Bill" stood proudly as the Deputy Sovereign Grand Master, Eugene Mount presented this outstanding emblem in recognition to him.

The services that have been rendered by him are too numerous to mention in this magazine, so we will just say "Congratulations to a dedicated Odd Fellow".

(25 Years Ago, May 1984)

ALL STATE RALLY

On Saturday afternoon, May 19 1984 at 1:00P.M.: The Rebekahs and Odd Fellows of Pennsylvania came to order at Leatherman Hall, Hummelstown. This was a new adventure, so of course there were a few "groups of goofs". The Committee hopes you will forgive us for them. A delicious luncheon was served at 11:00 A.M. Next year will be a different arrangement if the Committee decides to go to the church again. There were 7 Odd Fellow and 7 Rebekah Candidates who took the degrees. Lady Salome Rebekah Lodge of York conferred the Rebekah degree and the first and second degrees was conferred on the Odd Fellows by Walker lodge No. 306 of Philadelphia; the third degree was conferred by Bowmansdale lodge No. 1179.

In regards to the banquet, we had some who didn't get as much to eat as others did. We hope those were not the good people who made their reservations early. The first count given the caterer was 111 - last count on Friday evening was 173 - so that was the reason you ended up with not enough help. I don't know how often it is stressed that you get your reservations in early and also give the names for whom made, so no duplications like was had this year will occur. We were lucky because it was family style and we did sell some of the double reservations.

The Committee also hoped that everyone who stayed at the Inn made their reservations by April 19th as the letter stated in order to get the group price.

Dr. Jeffery Harris from the Hershey Medical Center Eye Bank was a very interesting speaker and informative as to the Central Pennsylvania Eye Bank. He showed slides and had a question and answer period. A check was presented to him by Zelma H. Fishel for $300.00 which was the profit from the sales of dolls, ect, at Session and Rallies, so if you bought from the table in the last 18 months you helped in a small way towards this contribution to the Central Eye Bank's start. And those that stayed a while longer really enjoyed seeing the 1984 Rose Parade as shown by Edith Morrison, and also a chance to see our own Float longer and really see it.

The Rally closed with the benediction by Blair S. Fishel and making a circle and dinging Blest Be the Tie that Binds.

A good time was had by all and as one Brother stated: we had terrific rooms for the degree work and also for the banquet, and thanked the Committee for same.

HONORING ODD FELLOWS AND REBEKAHS

For the past twenty years, the Independent Order of Odd Fellows have not only financially supported the Eastern Pennsylvania Chapter, they have also provided hundreds of hours of their time speaking out on behalf of people affected by arthritis.

Whether Odd Fellows members were manning the phones at Arthritis Foundation Telethons or spending their time serving with the Odd Fellows Arthritis Committee, volunteers have always stepped up and given of their time.

Odd Fellows members donate and work to raise funds to support arthritis programs and services offered by the Arthritis Foundation. They have provided the Arthritis Foundation with quality volunteers at the past Mini Grand Prix, by joining us for the Jingle Bell Runs, Arthritis Walks, Juvenile Arthritis Holiday Parties and Family Educational programs.

Through the continual efforts of the Odd Fellows lodges over the years, more than $200,000 has been raised to support Camp JRA. Because of this generosity, hundreds of children have received the rewards of experiencing the Camp program. The Odd Fellows also come to Camp JRA every year to serve the campers ice cream on the opening night and to decorate the dining hall tied to the Camp theme that summer.

To truly reflect the long-lasting commitment of the Odd Fellows, we are proud to announce that this Financial Development Award will be re-named in future years to be called "The Independent Order of Odd Fellows Community Development Award."

Now I'd like to welcome Charles & Jane Danihel of the Odd Fellows to the stage to accept the Financial Development award.

ABOUT MEMORIAL DAY

Memorial Day was originally called Decoration Day. It is a day of remembrance for those who have died in the service of our nation.

Waterloo N.Y. was officially declared the birthplace of Memorial Day by President Lyndon Johnson in May 1966, but it's difficult to prove the origins of the day. There is also evidence that a women's group in the South decorated graves before the end of the Civil War. In either case, Memorial Day has had numerous starts due to the human need to honor the dead. Though some people think it's a day to honor any and all dead, Memorial Day is intended to honor those who have given their all in service to our country.
