CENTRE COUNTY

Centre Volunteers in Medicine

The dinner in April was designed for proceeds to go to CVIM. Bob Homan is shown presenting our check to Cheryl White, Executive Director of CVIM. This group makes an incredible contribution to the Centre region. We always wish our gift could be much bigger.

The dinner in May, Saturday the seventh, will raise funds for another of our outstanding support groups, State College Meals on Wheels. So try to make it between 4:00 and 6:30 PM and you will be helping us to help them in their work. The menu is Pork and Sauer Kraut with all the appropriate attachments.

Tulips at the Hall

This picture is a staple every Spring. I can't resist the beauty of the tulips when they first appear. These were started a lot of years ago in the islands in the parking lot. Every couple of years we add some so the blaze of color appears every year.

Had another picture I wanted to show you but I lost it in my files somewhere. It was of the wedding cake at the Hall a few weeks ago. My intent was to show you that we have all kinds of events.

Baseball

We will be in one of the Skyboxes with food service coming to us. We'll have some of the best seats in the stadium. Odd Fellows and Rebekahs and all family members are invited. The date is Thursday, July 21. Put it on your calendar and call the Lodge office, 814-237-1575. If the machine answers leave your name and how many and a phone number.

Dinner Theater details are almost complete. We have 20 front row seats. Call the lodge office with your reservation, 814-237-1575. Remember if no one is there a machine will answer, leave your name and seats required and a phone number.

P.O.F. DAYS GONE BY

(80 Years Ago, June 1931)

PINE GROVE MILLS

Monday, June 15, was a gala day for the Daughters of Rebekah of Pine Grove Mills and surrounding towns. The splendid degree staff of Eleanor Lodge, No. 21, of Altoona, put on the degree in a very creditable manner. The hall was crowded to its capacity, approximately 300 being in attendance. Ten lodges were represented. The visitors were cordially welcomed by the Rebekahs of Pine Grove Mills, and they are to be congratulated for their splendid lodge and for the great work they are doing in the field of Friendship, Love, and Truth. In addition to Pine Grove Mills, delegations were present from the lodges of Altoona, State College, Bellefonte, Boalsburg, Phillipsburg, and Hopewell. Toothsome refreshments were served at the close of the sessions and all departed well satisfied with the real fraternity exhibited by the Sisters and Brothers.

CARLISLE

A Special Session (Limited) of the Grand Encampment of Pennsylvania was held at Carlisle, Tuesday evening, June 16th, for the purpose of admitting Past Chief Patriarchs to the Grand Encampment and exemplifying the unwritten work of the three subordinate degrees.

MONTEFIORE LODGE

Montefiore Lodge No. 794, I.O.O.F., Pittsburgh, PA is still bringing them in. Already during this term members of this Lodge have proposed twenty-two candidates for membership, and Vice Grand Sam B. Bruder, Chairman of the Membership Committee, feels certain the Brothers; Milton Wirtzman, Simon Levy, and Sydney Seltzer will help to make it fifty before the end of this term. Last term forty-five were added to the membership roll. Past Grands Morris Gebman and Samuel F. Herman, two of the active members of the Degree Team, say they are ready to put on degree work during July, whether hot or cold. Montefiore meets every Wednesday evening and invites all Brothers of the Order to visit at the new meeting hall, 5824 Forbes street, Squirrel Hill, Pittsburgh.

MEMORIAL SERVICES

Palmyra Lodge, No. 1132, I.O.O.F., on Thursday night, June 12th, held its annual Memorial Services. Brothers who failed to answer to Roll Call were George Bashore and Martin Cope, who resided in Palmyra; Harry Noll of Hershey and Joseph McGinty who for the past several years was a resident at the Home for Aged Odd Fellows, Middletown, PA.

The services were opened by singing "America" after which Reverend Elmer G. Leinbach, Trinity Reformed Church, Palmyra invoked the Divine Blessing. A male quartette rendered sacred music; Mrs. Parke Klopp gave a reading which was very appropriate. John Nornhold rendered a cornet solo, accompanied on the piano by Miss. Betty Jane Bomgardner; Roll Call of the departed Brothers was called, after which Reverend Leinbach gave the Memorial Address. The quartette sang another selection, after which the Lodge sang "God bless America", which was followed by the Benediction.

FREEPORT ODD FELLOWS

Freeport Odd Fellows Lodge No. 379 made its annual trip to the Meadows Race track near Washington, PA, on Friday evening, June 27, 1986.

There were 46 passengers on the chartered bus, including members and their wives, and members of Lady Freeport Rebekah Lodge No. 117.

After arriving at the race track a buffet dinner was served in the Meadows Club House.

The third race of the evening was dedicated to the Lodge. The words "Freeport I.O.O.F. No. 379" were printed at the top of the page giving the line up for that race. It was a one-mile race for pacers.

The Lodge was also recognized over the public address system, and by having its name flashed on the screen across from the grandstand.

A horse named Cork Screw, with John Dvoracek in the sulky, won the third race, in the rain.

After the race four members of the Lodge, escorted by Susie, the hostess for the group, had their picture taken in the Winners Circle, along with Cork Screw, the driver and trainer. The four brothers were: James A. Acerni, George P. Jordan Jr., Timothy L. Jordan, and David McClain.

Past Grand Everett Leard was in charge of making plans for the Meadows trip.

ODD FELLOWS AND REBEKAHS OF WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA

2010 Scholarship Award Recognitions

The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs Association of Western Pennsylvania 2010 Scholarship Award recognitions took place during their Annual Meeting/Luncheon at Orchard Manor, Grove City, PA on April 30, 2011. Committee chairman Robert Grant introduced those in attendance to fellow committee members Leonard Santini, John Rebar, and Bonnie Phillippi. He then gave an up-date on the only two recipients having received the Award, that being from the inaugural year of 2006:

Katie Harrison, granddaughter of Paul Stewart (Sandy Lake Lodge #573) will be graduating from Kent State University in May with a Masters Degree in Opera and the Performing Arts. She will be marrying the choir director from Grand Valley State University in June 2011.

Tara Grgrich, granddaughter of Rich Slater, (Adoniram Lodge #739) graduated from West Minister College in 2009 with a degree in Music Education and is presently teaching in the Seton Catholic School System in Meadville, PA.

The recipients of the 2010 Odd Fellows and Rebekahs Association of Western Pennsylvania 2010 Scholarship Award were recognized as follows:

Jamie Dzyak Glenn – daughter of Jennifer and John Dzyak (General Worth Lodge #386) was regrettably unable to attend due not only to the travelling distance involved, but also the fact that her final exams were presently taking place. She is completing her senior year at Austin Peay State University in Clarksville, TN as an English Education major and will be Student Teaching in the Fall of 2011. Since receiving her Award at the beginning of the 2010-2011 school year, she happily became married in Oct. 2010. A very appreciative "Thank you!" letter from Jamie was read by Chairman Grant, and a commemorative plaque for Jamie was proudly accepted by her father.

Devon Meddock – daughter of Susan Wren and Marty Meddock (Warren Lodge #339) was enthusiastically looking forward to meeting everyone at the meeting; however, she notified the Association that she was very sorry that she would not be able to attend due to a last minute schedule change in a musical production that she was involved in at her school. Devon recently transferred from Baldwin-Wallace College to Mercyhurst College in pursuit of her music career. She is continuing to major in Music Theater and Music Performance Voice while at her new school. A gracious "Thank you!" letter from Devon was read by Grant and an update of Devon's educational career was given by her father. A commemorative plaque for Devon was gratefully accepted by her father.

Kristy Tucci accepting plaque from Bob Grant, committee chairman.

Kristy Tucci – daughter of Linda and Jeff Tucci and granddaughter of Richard Ball (Edinboro Lodge #510) was very happy to attend this year's Annual Meeting. Grant introduced Kristy, her mother, and a close friend, Zack to those in attendance. A letter received and read by Grant, updating Kristy's scholastic and music related accomplishments during her sophomore year at Kent State University, indicated that she was very talented in both areas. She then had the opportunity to express herself and inform us as to her future plans. Those who had a chance to meet with Kristy personally found her to be a very outgoing, enthusiastic, and charming young lady who will no doubt do well in all her future endeavors. A commemorative plaque was presented and honorably accepted by Kristy.

Committee Chairman Robert Grant informed those in attendance that the "Rules" and an "Application" regarding the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs Association of Western Pennsylvania 2011 Scholarship Award will be sent to all lodges in W. PA in early May. The deadline for submitting applications will be July 31, 2011.

THE GRAND LODGE OF EUROPE, DENMARK

Short presentation of the Danish Jurisdiction

The germ of the formation of the Odd Fellow Order in Denmark was laid already in 1876, when the Danish Julius Meyer returned to Denmark after 11 years stay in America. In America he quickly became a member of the Odd Fellow Order, and further he was co-founder of and noble grand for a new lodge over there. Upon his return to Denmark he he searched connection with two other Odd Fellows having come home, Carl Fratz and William Meyer, and these three agreed to work on founding an Odd Fellow Lodge in Copenhagen. Contact was established to the Grand Secretary in the German Grand Lodge, Fritz Meyendorf, and after a lot of correspondence of practical character between Denmark, Germany and America "Danmark loge no. 1 af Danmark" was instituted on Saturday the 29th and Sunday the 30th June 1878. The lodge is to work in the German language and as per German rituals, and the institution was carried out by The German Grand Lodge's Grand Sire Praetorius and Grand Secretary Meyendorf, whereafter the new members as well as the elected officers with brother Andreas Holck as Noble Grand were dedicated.

They started in rooms in Kongens Club in Østergade 15, but already in December the same year they moved to new rooms in St. Kongensgade 52, and hereafter the development went fast, as there were already in December 1881 four lodges in Copenhagen, and in 1884 there was a total of 11 lodges with more than 1200 brothers, 1 encampment and 1 Rebekah lodge.

In 1884 it had come so far that a Charter was obtained for a District Grand Lodge and at the first annual meeting in the Grand Lodge for the Kingdom of Denmark on 21 st April 1884 District Deputy Grand Sire Andreas Holck read the concession from. The Sovereign Grand Lodge to the foundation of the Grand Lodge for the Kingdom of Denmark with address in Copenhagen and with suzerainty over all subordinate lodges in the country. At the following nomination to election of officers the following were elected and installed in their offices:

Grand Master Andreas Holck. Deputy Grand Master J. Rath. Grand Secretary Johs. Hansen. Grand Treasurer L.P.Olsen. Grand Warden Leopold Simonsen.

On 30th June 1888 the Order in Denmark celebrated the 10th anniversary for its foundation with a great feast in Rosenborg Have, and at that time the Order consisted of 23 lodges spread over the whole country.

The chairman of the feast committee was Noble Grand Petrus Beyer, who on the following year's Grand Lodge meeting was elected Grand Master, and on which meeting Grand Master Andreas Holck had announced his retirement because of failing health.

The first Canton in Denmark was founded on 26th April 1889.

The task of the district grand lodge was mainly to serve as a natural connecting link to the establishment of "The Independent Grand Lodge for the Kingdom of Denmark" and after application for this to The Sovereign Grand Lodge, Charter was received dated 1 st December 1891 in the state of Ohio, upon which "The Independent Grand Lodge for the Kingdom of Denmark I.O.O.F." was instituted at the Grand Lodge meeting on 9th June 1892, and thus began a new chapter of the story of the Danish Odd Fellow Order.

Thanks Brother Ernst von der Recke the Order got new rituals for lodges and encampments in 1893 and 1894, as well as rituals for feast- and memory lodges in Danish.

After the acquisition of Schimmelmann's Palace this was fitted out for order purposes and the palace was under the name of the Odd Fellow Palace installed on 26th April 1901.

In 1924 Petrus Beyer died after 30 years as Grand Sire and was followed by brother Christian Skeel. The Order consisted at that time of 52 brother lodges and 15 Rebekah lodges with totally 7.200 members.

The scientist prize of the Odd Fellow Order is for the first time awarded in April 1969 on the 150 years anniversary of the Order in the Odd Fellow Palace in Copenhagen. The prize is together with other prizes since then awarded every year on the birthday of the Order.

The first Matriarch encampment, no. 1 "Sara", was instituted in Arhus on 27th January 1979, and the same year on 13th October Canton no. 2, "Defence", Arhus, was instituted.

In March 1981 the Order had 9596 brothers and 5007 sisters.

On 7th April 1992 the Odd Fellow Palace in Copenhagen was ravaged by a huge fire, where many irreplaceable values were lost, amongst others many objects of art, the library and the big concert hall. On the Grand Lodge meeting in 2008 Lars Jørgensen was elected new Grand Sire after Hans Pedersen, who had held this office since 1993.

At this date, April 2009, the Danish jurisdiction counts totally 109 brother lodges in Denmark, 1 on the Faroe Islands, 3 in the Czech Republic and 1 in Spain. There are 90 sister lodges in Denmark and 1 in Spain. In addition there are 15 Patriarch encampments, 13 Matriarch encampments to which shall be added 6 Cantons Patriarch/Matriarch militant - in total comprising app. 15.000 members.

100 ATTEND REUNION ON DELTA QUEEN

By MajGen(R) John A. Kunkleman, Senior Past Dept. Commander

As they sing in the old hymn "We shall gather at the river."

More than 100 former passengers and crew members of the Paddlewheel Steamboat Delta Queen went to Chattanooga, Tenn., this spring for a reunion on the boat which is now docked there and operates as the Delta Queen Hotel.

The boat is docked at the foot of the beautiful park on the Tennessee River. And she is just about the same, except she isn't moving.

Shortly after my arrival aboard I heard my name called and turned to be greeted by our old friend, Capt. Mike Williams. His first words to me were: "No swimming this week!" Then he inquired about Lady Reta (now a resident in the Middletown Home) and then he said "How are all the Odd Fellow friends."

He has never forgotten that group we had for a cruise in 2000, and a smaller group several years later.

You have all heard the story of how, six years ago, I hit a slick spot on the wharf in Louisville, KY, and landed in the Ohio River. It took two men to lift my water-logged torso out of the river.

One of those men, Gary "Popeye" Jones, was at the reunion. And he was happy to demonstrate his lifting power. Unfortunately, the other of my "rescuers," Buford Wilkins, has since passed away.

The cabins, lounges, Orleans Room (dinning room) and the Texas Lounge are unchanged. The caliope still works.

Two of the most popular crew members over the years attended par of the reunion.

Maurice (Big Mo) Hardy was with us from Wednesday night to Saturday morning. He was brought in to set up the dining room for the picnic. I spoke to him later and after he got the hotel staff to arrange the tables in the traditional picnic style, they started to cover them with white table cloths. Mo blew the whistle and told them to get out the red checked covers.

The triangle which was always used as a dinner bell for the picnic could not be found so Maurice summoned us to the picnic with a heavy ladle and a cooking kettle.

Maurice is working three days a week in a store but he is looking for a full time job. He has declined his daughter's invitation to move in with her family in Indiana.

The other crew member who was only with us on Saturday, was a former maitre de, purser and hotel manager, Lloyd Camel. He took over his old duty seating people for the Captains' Dinner. In addition of Mike Williams, Capt. Gabe Chengary was also at the reunion.

Four former cruise directors were there: Jazzou Jones, Banjo Bob Stevens, Bob Schad and Mike Gentry. One of the former drummers, Tony Martin, also was there.

In the shows, Banjo Bob sang, play a harmonica, blew a trumpet, but did not pick one note on the banjo. After several bypasses, Bob also had surgery on his left hand, and he has not yet recovered the dexterity needed to finger the banjo.

Jazzou provided all of the piano work and he and Captain Gabe played the caliope.

It will take me a long time to pass on all the hugs people gave me for Reta. So much took place there is not enough time to list everything.

I tried to find out where some of the people you asked me about are these days. Here is some of what I was able to gather.

Kevin (Red dog) Matthews, Brother Rocky Santilli's favorite waiter, is now a preacher. When Big Mo told me that I thought he was joking, but when Lloyd told me the same thing, I had to accept it. Kevin is married to Lloyd Camel's sister.

Former cabin attendant Roosevelt Puckett III (one of Reta's buddies) is now an over-the-road truck driver.

Annie Lebeaux is now working as a lounge entertainer in the Key West area of Florida. Jeff Czech, the bass player in the boat's band, is in Florida with her.

Lloyd is living in the suburbs of Atlanta and with a friend is building a Catering Business.

Popeye said he wanted to stay on the river but after getting jobs with two companies that went bankrupt, he has gone into the landscape and lawn care business.

Captain Williams is gardening at home. He did work for a time for BP cleaning up beaches in Florida.

Captain Chengary is working directing transportation for his church food bank, and his wife, Cindy, is working full time as director of special projects at her church.

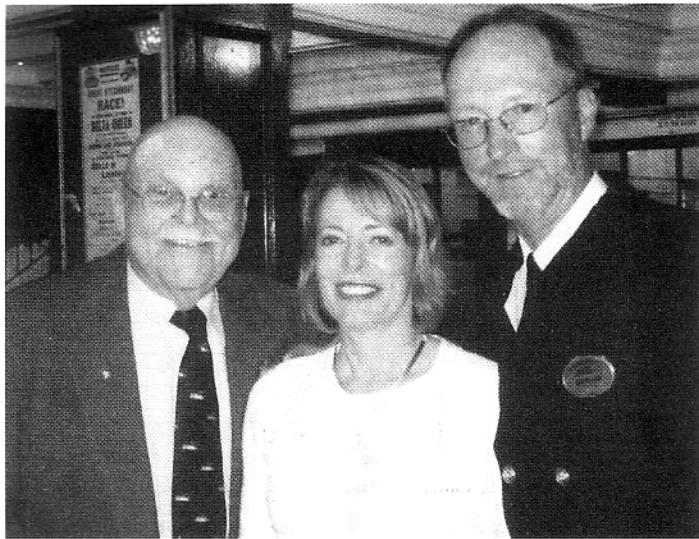

Bob Schad said he is looking for a job and trying to nurse his real estate holdings. He said "I have eight rental properties and five mortgages.

Tony Schwartz, the band's piano player, is in Kansas City but doesn't communicate with other crew people.

Walter Kross, who was the leader of the band, is touring with the Glenn Miller Band.

Bob Stevens is semi-retired and living in Nashville. However, he still does his music act, and since he is only two hours from Chattanooga, he appears periodically on the boat.

Jazzou continues his various musical activities in Maine. He and Bob Stevens have been keeping me up to date on the boat and its personnel.

The Mississippi Queen has been stripped and gutted prepared for salvage. The American Queen is pared in a boat yard looking for a buyer.

There have been reports a group of people are trying to raise money to get all boats back in service.

There is so much more but I will quit now.

If you have more questions let me know and I will try to answer them.

Gary "Popeye" Jones, of Cullman, AL, demonstrates how he lifted Brother Kunkleman out of the Ohio River at Louisville, KY, several years ago.
