CENTRE COUNTY

March Dinner

It is always a pleasure to present a check to one of those organizations for which we raise fund. The Salvation Army has always had a soft spot in my heart. If I wasn't Lutheran or my original Baptist, I would be somewhere in the Salvation Army. My feelings go way back to the 1940's when I was in the service. SA was doing incredible things to make a GI's life just a little better. Captains Pat and Chuck are just my kind of people. They do much good work with people who are disadvantaged in one way or another. It would do your heart good just to hear some of the stories about their work. The check I gave Capt. Pat was for the proceeds of our spaghetti dinner in March. I just wish it could have been much bigger. Our April dinner will be on the 8th and will be to support the work of Centre Volunteers in Medicine.

Conclave

The Middle Atlantic Conclave was held in Morgantown, WV this year. The trip down was good, the weather was sunny but a little chilly. A new state was added this year. Virginia will be the eighth state belonging to the Conclave. The entertainment Friday night was excellent. The meeting on Saturday went well. There was not much business brought up this year. The drill teams and skit teams from most of the seven states were pretty good. The trip home was uneventful. Thanks to Bob Homan for this report.

Tomb of the Unknown

The trip is next month. This event is very interesting and should be attended at least once in an Odd Fellows career. There are several bus trips planned. Check with your lodge secretary to locate lodges or groups that are going.

Session

It is also time for final planning to get under way for this years Unified Session. If your representatives have not yet been elected, you volunteer, it is the experience of your Odd Fellow career. We don't realize what goes on in our state until the Session has been attended.

State College Lodge

Our events for this year are in the mill. The only date finalized so far is the baseball outing to see the Spikes. Dinner will most likely be at Kelly's in Boalsburg. And of course there will be picnics as usual. I can't remember the dates but there will be several events. The County picnic and some individual Lodge outings. More on these in future letter.

I believe in the Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. Lets never forget those words.

See you in church.

MEMORIAL DAY REMEMBRANCE

While transferring Harmony Lodge's old Ledgers from the 1800's to the computer, I found this from December 10th 1846 and found it very fitting for the coming month with Memorial Day and urge all the Brothers and Sisters to think of our Veterans past and present:

Justin Bailey

"Resolved that while we duly regret the departure of our Brothers from amongst us, we duly appreciate the motive which compels them in leaving us upon their patriotic measure and wherever they go our best wishes will accompany them hoping they may safely return to their friends."

- S. Morganroth

IOOF GETS A BIG ROUND OF APPLAUSE

The Eastern PA Arthritis Foundation Chapter held its 2011 Volunteers are FANTastic Recognition Event on Saturday, March 26th in King of Prussia. If you remember at the event in 2009, they renamed an award The Independent Order of Odd Fellows Community Development Award. That award is presented to an individual, corporation or group that has done the most to help fund the activities of the Chapter. This year the award was presented to ENDO Pharmaceuticals.

The Independent Order of Odd Fellows was presented the Corporate Philanthropy Award for the $20,001 - $30,000 range at the event. The award was accepted by Charles Danihel, Chair, PA IOOF Arthritis Committee. It is certainly heartwarming to attend functions such as this and hear the positive remarks about the IOOF from the campers at Camp JRA and their parents, and the Foundation Chapter Staff. Some of those present were campers and gave a round of applause when the IOOF was mentioned.

Activities are getting into full swing. I hope you and your Lodge members are able to get involved wherever you live in PA. Call the Chapters at the numbers below.

Speaking of activities, the Arthritis Walks are coming up. Would you be able to help at the Registration Table or would you form or join a team for the arthritis walk in your area? Use your talents in some way to help. Here's the list of PA runs. Call your local branch for information on those in your area.

MIDDLETOWN HOME

Family Style Meal is a great celebration here at The Middletown Home! The residents help to chop, stir, mix, peel, and measure ingredients for their supper meal and then are served, restaurant-style, in our Activity Room. Pictured here are a group of hard-working residents that spent the afternoon helping to peel potatoes, and reminiscing about all the hundreds of potatoes they've peeled throughout their lifetime! Other tasks included preparing the flower centerpieces and mixing the ingredients for the cherry cheesecake. It was delicious! On next month's menu: Homemade spaghetti and meatballs with tossed salad and strawberry shortcake for dessert.

ORCHARD MANOR

Irish Luck

Norie Young, Resident, hopes her green Irish hat brings her luck at Bingo.

St. Patrick's Party

The Residents turned the Dining Room into an "Irish Green Room" and enjoyed a musical program with all the festivities.

Karen Richards, Activity Aide, pours everyone a glass of "green punch!"

2011 SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

Odd Fellows and Rebekahs Association of Western Pennsylvania 2011 Scholarship Award

The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs Association of Western Pennsylvania will continue to offer $2,000 scholarship awards to a maximum of three (3) students who fulfill the specified requirements of the Award. As a reminder regarding two of the requirements in particular:

- 1) The applicant or a family relative must be a member of the I.O.O.F. or Rebekahs of Western Pennsylvania, and
- 2) The applicant must be a full-time student majoring in one of the three eligible areas (music, education, and health related) and having completed at least one year of college.

The Awards, of course are being made to not only defray some of the cost associated with higher education, but also to help increase public awareness of Odd Fellowship and in turn, hopefully receiving petitions for membership to perpetuate our great Order.

As in previous years, a copy of the "Rules" and an "Award Application" will be sent to all the lodges representing the Western District in early May. The 2011 Awards Committee requests that all lodge secretaries and scribes relay this forthcoming information to their respective membership and make copies necessary for distribution. The committee also asks that the public be made aware of our Award by informing schools, colleges, newspapers, churches, etc. in your respective areas. Your cooperation and assistance in relaying this information will be very much appreciated. Hopefully, we can once again be honored in presenting the Awards to three qualified and worthy recipients.

If interested in obtaining a copy of the "Rules" and an "Application," contact Chairman Robert Grant @ 724-483-8875 or email him at robag@comcast.net.

THE GRAND LODGE OF EUROPE, ICELAND

The establishment of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in Iceland in the year of 1897 was a grand gesture by the Danish Oddfellows to the Icelandic nation when they decided to build a Leprosy Hospital in Reykjavik Iceland. After a visit of brother Dr. Ehlers, architect Turen and Dr. Petrus Beyer all from the Danish Order of Odd Fellows, to Iceland, it was obvious that the leprosy disease was a great problem. Dr. Petrus Beyer Grand Sire of Denmark then brought up the idea to build a Leprosy Hospital in Iceland. He then convinced his fellow members of the board of the Danish Odd Fellow jurisdiction to work on this project. When Grand Sire Dr. Petrus Beyer later visited Iceland to decide the building site for the Hospital, five influential Icelandic citizens were impressed and moved by the action of the Danish Order of Odd Fellows, asked him to institute an Odd Fellow Lodge in Reykjavik and to be installed into that Odd Fellow Lodge.

Sunday, August 1st, 1897, gathered at the premises of Reykjavik's Court of Law, Dr. Beyer, Mr. Thuren the Danish architect and designer of the Hospital, Mr Bjorn Jonsson, then editor of the first Newspaper in Iceland, Mr. Guobrandur Finnbogason, Consul for Norway and Sweden, Mr Guomundur Bjornsson, physician and later the National Medical Doctor of Iceland, Mr. Halldor Danielsson, Reykjaviks Magistrate and Mr. Sighvatur Bjarnason, the director for the National Bank of Iceland, the two Danish Oddfellow's installed the Icelanders into the Order, and when they had been given the three degrees, the first Icelandic Lodge, number 1, Ingolfur was instituted.

The noble minded gift; the Leprosy Hospital which was handed over to the Icelandic nation in 1898 by the Danish Odd Fellows, became an incentive for other Icelanders to participate in the high minded work of the Order. Attendance from day one became so strong that it was insured that the Order was here to be. The growth of the Lodge was steady and on the 10th anniversary of the Lodge number one Ingolfur, the brothers counted 76. In 1971 the second Lodge was instituted in Akureyri, the country's second largest town.

The first Rebekah Lodge Bergpora, was instituted in 1929 in Reykjavik and the same year the first Encampment, Petrus, was instituted, named after the former Grand Sire of Denmark Dr. Petrus Beyer. Patriarch's Militant, Canton no. 1, Njall was instituted in 1961. Today in the beginning of year 2009, there are in Iceland 23 brother Lodges, 14 Rebekah Lodges, 6 Encampments and one Canton. The brothers are 2.148 and sisters are 1.256 total 3.404 which is more than 1% of the Iceland population. The Icelandic Order has a steady growth of 2-3% a year.

A District Grand Lodge of Iceland was instituted in 1933. In 1948 the Independent Grand Lodge of Iceland was founded.

The Icelandic Order of Odd Fellows has always emphasized charity work in many various fields, such as providing hospitals with instrumentation for cancer treatment, heart diseases, eye diseases, training of handicapped people and the latest big project was building a Hospich, Hospich Chapel and Hospich Day Care Unit.

The Grand Lodge of Iceland wishes Odd Fellows all around the world prosperity and growth.

Gylfi Gunnarsoon, Grand Sire
