DGM BAILEY PLACES WREATH IN MEMORY OF THOMAS WILDEY

Thomas Wildey was coined as the Founder of North American Odd Fellowship. Raised as an orphan in England and immigrated to America in 1817. Roughly 2 years, later, an ad carefully placed in Baltimore's Newspaper sparked interest in four other men to meet in the Seven Stars Tavern and the rest became history. Thomas Wildey died in 1861, 42 years after Odd Fellowship was founded. During that year, there were more than 200,000 members of the Odd Fellows across the United States of America, growing to be the worlds largest organization.

Each year, around the date of his death, October 19th, the Grand Lodge of Maryland hosts a memorial service in his memory. Eleven wreaths from various jurisdictions, including SGL and Lodges in Hawaii, Denmark and Sweden were placed at the Grand Lodge of Maryland's new Headquarters in Dundalk, Maryland. DGM Bailey had the honor of placing a wreath Representing the Jurisdiction of Pennsylvania in the 151st year of Brother Wildey's death. After the wreath placings, Walter Hoenes, Grand Marshal of the SGL gave a Eulogy for Brother Wildey.

Comments were then made by visiting dignitaries and tours of their new beautiful office building, Lodge Hall and Museum were then given. Also in attendance from Pennsylvania was Kate L. Bailey, NG Lady Harmony Rebekah Lodge #86 and Linda Dickson and Kimberly Fairchild of Lady Worth Rebekah Lodge #328. Special thanks to PGM Shirley Sell of MD and the Thomas Wildey Committee for this fantastic event. This is definitely an event to look into going to in the future.

Fraternally, Justin C Bailey, DGM

THANK YOU

Thank you for the honor of being chosen for your generous scholarship award. As I continue my sophomore year at Temple University, please know that this grant has helped purchase the books needed for my curriculum as a dual major in Journalism and Sports Management. Through the generous support of the Independent Order of odd Fellows, you continue to help students such as myself achieve their educational goals. Thank you again.

Sincerely,
Angelise Stuhl

I am writing today to express my gratitude for an academic award I received back in June. As you may have expected, being a full time college student, money tends to be tight. With the ever constantly increasing price of college, every dollar is surely hard to come by and appreciated. So the scholarship I received from Odd Fellow and Rebekah Lodges of Pennsylvania was a gift of great proportions to my college education fund.

The gift has allowed me to defray the costs of school supplies and books for this fall semeseter. This is an expense I usually pay out of pocket or with loan money. I was at ease knowing I had the funds going into this semester to pay for such supplies.

On a side note, I recently added another major to my academic transcript. Now I am a Political Science and Business Management Major. I received good marks in my Spring 2012 semester, making the Dean's List with a 3.53 Grade Point Average. I am working hard to keep my Dean's List status. Also, this past May, I was initiated and receive my three degrees as an Odd Fellow in Allentown for Spring City, Vincent Lodge #762. I am ecstatic about being a new member of such a great fraternal order.

Finally, I would like to thank everyone who played a hand in helping me receive this academic award. I cannot express my appreciation enough. Your gift will help me stay on track to obtain a good education and become a contributing member of society. I will work hard to achieve my goals and to work as you have, to perform my duty as an Odd Fellow.

Sincerely,
Michael M. John

FROM THE DESK OF THE GRAND SECRETARY

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Some have noticed I didn't have a message in last month. As my mother & Walt Disney said ïf you can't say nothing nice," well you know the rest. It seems some of my changes are not agreeing with some, yet to those sending the words of praise and encouragement, I say thank you. As we have been saying for years in our Lodges, if what we are doing is working we would not be down to 80 OF Lodges and 31 Reb. Lodges. We all agree we need change, well so does the magazine. I can't help but notice the ones crying about the changes, I look up their home Lodge membership and that is decreasing too, coincidence or not?

I have explained my reasoning for some of my deletions. It seems the most complaints is the lack of the monthly repetitious names. I still feel our news is more important than seeing the same things every month. As one of our state leaders recently said "we are like a top heavy building, with everyone on top, we will fall" and we are falling. So on that note, January will bring another change. Since my first tenure as Grand Secretary, I was responsible for introducing the birthday list. Well I believe that has ran its course, we still get calls from members complaining because their birthday isn't listed. They don't realize we use the list your secretary sends us. So I will be introducing a congratulatory page for our members achieving milestone anniversaries in Odd Fellowship. One final answer, we heard me say I am limiting pages due to costs, some questioned why I wasted a half page with our statement of ownership. That appears once every year as mandated by the US Postal Service to maintain our mailing permit. It has been appearing once every year for the past 40 or more years, I chose to have it reduced to a half page for the both pages, other years two pages were consumed for both.

I thank you for your patience while I vented, now to the nice portion of the edition. A reminder the office will be closed for the Holiday, the 24th, 25th and Jan. 1st. Remember your shut-ins, remember those members alone and on behalf of Laura and myself a most joyous Holiday and a Happy, Healthy & Prosperous New Year.

Fraternally,
Charlie

PENNSYLVANIA I.O.O.F. JURISDICTIONAL ARTHRITIS COMMITTEE

HERE COMES 2013 - READY or NOT

As we begin to close out 2012, the Arthritis Committee hopes you have thought about or made your New Year's Resolutions for 2013 and that they include some help for the three PA Arthritis Foundation Chapters. They are recruiting help from the IOOF Lodges for their activities. Can you go to the local office and help with a mailing? Can you help at the Registration table for one of their events? Can you send a check to The Arthritis Committee to help us help those with Arthritis? We hope you answer positively to at least one of these suggestions!

Events are a little slow at the Chapters for now, but as we begin to tire of the white flakes outside, the Chapters' activities will get rolling again. With the arrival of Spring, Camp JRA will be just around the corner and that is a wonderful place for children with all forms of arthritis to go and make friends with others who are "just like me!" They can experience the fun of camping just like those without arthritis can – fishing, swimming, archery, board games and a climbing wall that allows EVERYONE a chance to get to the top - are among the things they can do at camp! Remember, every penny sent to The Arthritis Committee goes directly to the project.

FREEDOM LODGE #88 HONESDALE

Scott Kinzinger at Opening Day ceremonies at the newly re-named HLBA complex on Grove Street in Honesdale.

HONESDALE — Hundreds of local hardball fans turned out Thursday to celebrate Opening Night of the Honesdale Little Baseball Association season.

The highlight of the 2012 festivities was a pre-game ceremony honoring Scott Kinzinger, a veteran of more than 30 years volunteer service as both coach and league officer.

In recognition of Scott's three decades of service to his community, the HLBA facility will henceforth be known as the "Scott Kinzinger Complex."

"I'm very honored," he told TWI Sports after a beautiful sign was unveiled and officially dedicated.

"I still love doing this. I love working with the kids and teaching them the game. It's a lot of fun."

Looking Back

Scott began his coaching career with Hall of Famer Joe Cobb. He took over the Dodgers as manager after Joe's untimely passing and has gone on to win more than 20 titles.

When Scott first became involved with the HLBA, there were just eight teams and one division. Now, 32 years later, there are four age brackets and 28 teams.

"It's pretty amazing how far we've come," he said. "I hope we just keep getting bigger and better."

The HLBA season runs through mid-June. Then, the league's focus shifts to all-star tournaments.

The two articles were published in the newspaper in Honesdale. The one is Freedom's sponsorship of the annual cub scout Pinewood Derby (note the publicity) the other is Brother Scott Kinzinger's induction into the Wayne Cty. Area Sports Hall of Fame and the dedication of the Scott Kinzinger Sports Complex in Honesdale. Brother Scott is Secretary of Freedom #88.

ON THE ROAD WITH PRESIDENT WERT

PRESIDENT, JUDITH A. WERT AND JR. PAST PRESIDENT, SARAH M. BAER ATTENDED MAINE REBEKAH ASSEMBLY IN PORTLAND

OCTOBER 18-19, 2012

We arrived in Portland on Tuesday, October 16, got settled in and went to the Waterfront to do some shopping and see the sites. We returned to our Hotel about 6:00 and we were relaxing in our room, when about 7:15 this loud bang (like thunder) and the whole building shook. We looked at each other wondering what happened. Calling down to the desk, they said it was nothing within the Hotel. About twenty minutes later the desk called us and told us that there was a 4.6 earthquake in Hollis, some miles away. It sure rattled all of us. That was the first earthquake in Maine since 1904, and of course it had to happen when we were there. What an experience!!

It sure was a wonderful trip and it is very interesting to see how other Jurisdictions run their Assembly. It was quite different from ours. They only meet for 2 days and the first day they meet from 9:00 A.M. to 12:00 Noon, break for lunch, start again at 1:30 P.M. to about 4:30-5:00 P.M., break for supper and return at 7:00 P.M. until 9:00 P.M. This definitely makes for a very LONG day.

Friday-session began at 8:00 A.M. with Nomination and Election of Officers at 10:00 A.M. at about 12:00 Noon, break for lunch, return at 2:00 P.M. til the close of business. The banquet was on Friday evening with a very nice meal and funny entertainment. We had a very nice, interesting and enjoyable trip.
