What Makes a Dad

God took the strength of a mountain,
The majesty of a tree,
The warmth of a summer sun,
The calm of a quiet sea,
The generous soul of nature,
The comforting arm of night,
The wisdom of the ages,
The power of the eagle's flight,
The joy of a morning in spring,
The faith of a mustard seed,
The patience of eternity,
The depth of a family need,
Then God combined these qualities,
When there was nothing more to add,
He knew His masterpiece was complete,
And so, He called it ... Dad

GRAND MASTER ON THE ROAD

Now that my year is almost over I wish to thank you all for the courtesies that were given to my officers and me.

I hope that we were able to help you with new ideas for projects, opening and closing your Lodges in the proper way and gave you helpful suggestions to get new members.

The Grand Master and Staff are here to help your Lodge grow stronger. We are as near as the phone, e-mail or FAX.

A trip to Arlington to place the wreath on the Tomb of the Unknowns is scheduled along with four Lodge visits in May. Also there will be two more Lodges in June that I am planning to visit before session.

I wish to thank you very much for the support given to the Grand Master's projects. I may have a few surprise visits. I look forward to seeing you and your Lodges in my travels.

*In FL&T,
 Arthur R. Moyer,
 Grand Master*

PRAYER REQUEST FROM LADY LANDIS REBEKAH #303

Dear Sister Rebekah's

We would like to request the thoughts and prayers of fellow Rebekah sisters Odd Fellow brothers, for one of our dear members and her family.

Recently our sister, Eva Group's husband Gerald, had emergency heart surgery and is having a difficult recovery. We ask you add Eva, Gerald and their family of 2058 Shermans Valley Rd., Ellittsburg, PA 17024 to the list of requesting cards, prayers & concerns. We know the combined prayers of so many will help strengthen the Group family and bring Gerald to a quick recovery.

Thank you for all your blessings.

FROM THE DESK OF THE ACTING GRAND SECRETARY

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Well here we are in June. Time to make your reservations for Harrisburg, and attend your Sessions for the various Branches. Remember your input is important. If you feel changes are needed, then this is the place you make yourself heard. As I stated before if work does not permit you attending the morning meetings, there are some very nice and interesting activities planned for the evenings. If nothing else it is a time to visit with old friends and meet new ones.

I would like to share some various observances I have been privileged to see in this short time of being in the office. One letter from a man, inquiring about his grandfather, he lived in Norristown his entire life. He passed away in 1995 and is researching his life as a genealogical project. The Odd Fellows played a very important part in this man's life. He remembers as a child on Christmas mornings, before spending time with his family, he and his Lodge Brothers would visit a children's hospital. "This selfishness is something that I always admired about my grandfather." This really touched me, I can't help but wonder how many have ever thought about the dedication our former Brothers had for mankind and how many today are willing to "go that extra mile".

Another article I read while researching for my days gone by involves the IOOF Welfare Bureau. It seems a young girl's father passed away, her mother married shortly thereafter to a very abusive man. This young girl took what money & possessions she had and left home. She carried on as best she could until her money was gone, then she was forced to seek out shelters. This shelter, aware of her background sent her to the IOOF Welfare Bureau. The girl offered the only thing she had left for money, her late father's gold watch chain with a Past Grand medallion. The Welfare Bureau helped her get back on her feet and upon leaving there, returned her father's "treasure" so she would always remember her father and what the Odd Fellows meant to him. Again, another act of what we are all about.

Brothers and Sisters, yes times have changed, but in this ever changing world it seems many of our principles and teachings are needed. Search throughout your Lodge and Community and make an act of kindness your project. Let people know what we stand for.

In closing, I wish all our "Fathers" out there a "Happy Father's Day", especially my Dad who is now facing the trials of reaching the golden age of 89 without the cooperation of his health.

In FL&T,

Charles H Bailey, Acting Grand Secretary"

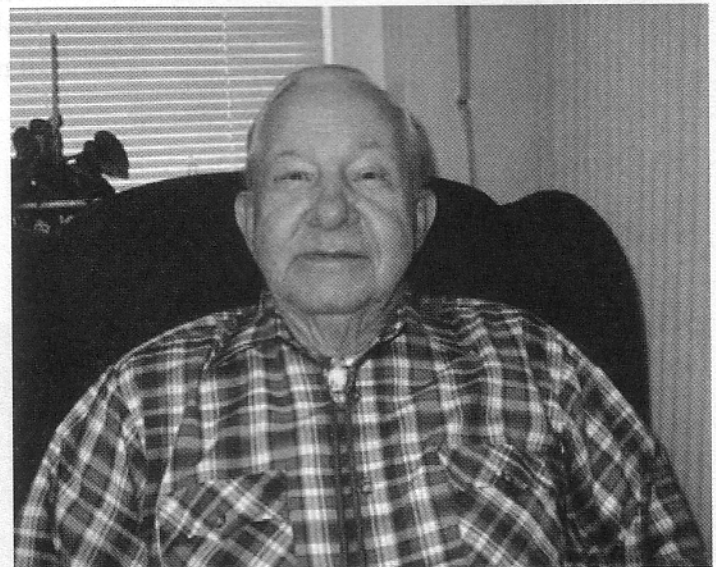

MIDDLETOWN HOME RESIDENT OF THE MONTH

John William Robinson, Sr. was born in the Holmesburg neighborhood of Philadelphia, PA on George Washington's birthday, February 22, 1926. He was born to James Robinson, Sr.

and Gertrude Preston Robinson, and together they had 12 children. Both James, Sr. and Gertrude passed away here at The Middletown Home. James was a lifelong Odd Fellow and Gertrude was a lifelong Rebekah.

John quit school in 1940 and his father allowed him join the military with his four brothers who were drafted. With five brothers in the military, they were in the rare category of "five star window" during WWII, in which stars were hung in the window to signify how many in the family were serving their country during the war. Thankfully, they all came back safely. John was in the dry cleaning and interior decorating business his entire life. He worked all over Philadelphia. His first marriage was to Marion Heller and they had a daughter, Marilyn. Marilyn presently lives in Center City, Philadelphia. She is married to John Taylor and they have given John Sr. five grandchildren. His third marriage was to Hedwig Kerker and they had a son, John Jr. John Sr. has 2 grandchildren from his son's marriage. John is very proud that all grandchildren have graduated from college.

John is a life member of the Odd Fellows of Pennsylvania, Mystic Lodge #270, he joined 4/15/46.

Additionally, he is a lifelong member of the American Legion and was President of the Savings and Loan. He enjoys golfing, roller skating, dancing, and playing cards. He also mentions that he idolizes the life of Will Rodgers. John loves to be around people and lives by the Odd Fellows values of "Friendship, Love, and Truth." He states, "These are the basic teachings of all mankind."

ODD FELLOWS AND REBEKAHS ASSOCIATION OF WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA 2011 SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs Association of Western Pennsylvania 2011 Scholarship Award Committee was pleased to report to the Association's Board during their October 2011 meeting that four very qualified applicants were chosen for this year's awards. (The Board agreed at their July 2011 meeting to increase the number of recipients from three to four and to also increase the award amount from $2000 to $3000.) Chairman Robert Grant commended the Board for their continuing support of the scholarship program which he feels is probably one of the more prestigious awards being offered by any of the service organizations in Western PA. He also reported that the number of applicants have increased each year since the eligible areas of content expanded two years ago to include not only the music field, but also both the education and health related fields.

The Association's Award Committee (Chairman Grant, Leonard Santini, Bonnie Phillipi, and John Rebar) presented their candidate recommendations to the Association's Board during their "bi-monthly" meeting in October. The four recipients, each having fulfilled the requirements of the Award, were unanimously approved by the Board. Each received a $3000 monetary award which was sent to their respective college/university.

The 2011 Scholarship Award recipients were as follows:

Neil Bender, son of Cathy and Terry Bender, Fort Hill, PA. Neil is an I.O.O.F. member of Kingwood Lodge #1010 located in Kingwood, PA. He is currently in his junior year at California University of PA (California, PA) majoring in Secondary Education. Neil hopes to become a History teacher upon graduation.

Alaina Egger, daughter of Karen and William Egger, Clarks Mills, PA. Alaina's grandfather, John Redfoot, is a member of Fallowfield Lodge #1128 located in Atlantic, PA. She is in her senior year at Bloomsburg University (Bloomsburg, PA) majoring in the Health Sciences field. Alaina is presently completing her internship involving hospital laboratory rotations at an eastern Pennsylvania hospital. Upon graduation, Alaina plans to utilize her medical technology degree by working as a lab-technician in a hospital laboratory setting.

Chelsea Grant, daughter of Taryn and Robert Grant, Charleroi, PA. Chelsea's father is the PNG of Charleroi Lodge #1030. As a sophomore year student at Slippery Rock University (Slippery Rock, PA), Chelsea is dual-majoring in Elementary and Special Education. She hopes to further her education by pursuing a M.Ed. Degree upon graduation. Her future goals are to acquire an elementary teaching position and to become an elementary school principal thereafter.

Nicholas Petrilla, son of Georgiann and Christopher Petrilla, Berlin, PA. Nicholas' grandfather, George Jock, is a member of Somerset Lodge #438. He is presently in his sophomore year at Shenandoah University, located in Winchester, VA. Nicholas is enrolled in a 7-year dual educational program which will earn him a Doctor of Pharmacy/Masters Degree in Business Administration. He continues to work part-time at a local pharmacy and hopes to open his own pharmacy soon after graduation.

On behalf of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs Association of Western Pennsylvania, the Award Committee once again wishes Neil, Alaina, Chelsea, and Nicholas continued success in completing their college degrees and in all of their future endeavors.

ODD FELLOWS AND REBEKAHS ASSOCIATION OF WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA 2012 SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs Association of Western Pennsylvania will continue to offer $3,000 scholarship awards to a maximum of four (4) students who fulfill the specified requirements of the Award. As a reminder regarding two of the requirements in particular:

- 1) The applicant or a family relative must be a member of the I.O.O.F. or Rebekahs of Western Pennsylvania.
- 2) The applicant must be a full-time student majoring in one of the three eligible areas (music, education, or health related) and having completed at least one year of college.

The Awards, of course are being made to not only defray some of the cost associated with higher education, but also to help increase public awareness of Odd Fellowship and in turn, hopefully receiving petitions for membership to perpetuate our great Order.

As in previous years, a copy of the "Rules" and an "Award Application" are sent to all the lodges representing the Western District in early May. The 2012 Awards Committee requests that all lodge secretaries and scribes relay this forthcoming information to their respective membership and make copies necessary for distribution. The deadline date for submitting applications will be July 14, 2012. The committee also asks that the public be made aware of our Award by informing schools, colleges, newspapers, churches, etc. in your respective areas. Your cooperation and assistance in relaying this information will be very much appreciated. Hopefully, we will continue to be honored in announcing the Awards to four qualified and worthy recipients this coming August.

WALKER LODGE PREPARES "AID FOR FRIENDS" DINNERS

On February 27, 2012 Walker Lodge No. 306 received a dispensation from the Grand Master to hold a social meeting in lieu of their regularly scheduled Monday evening meeting. The main reason for holding a social meeting was to prepare dinner meals for "Aid for Friends." Aid for Friends is a charitable community outreach organization in the Philadelphia area. They provide home delivered frozen meals to isolated homebound individuals of all ages unable to cook for themselves and have no family to help out. Meals are donated by volunteer cooks (like us at Walker Lodge on the 27th). Deliveries are made on a weekly basis, with no fee for the service and they serve all five counties of Greater Philadelphia.

Aid For Friends' mission is: "to serve needy, isolated shut-ins, primarily the frail elderly, in the 5 county Greater Philadelphia area, with free daily home-cooked meals delivered weekly by empathetic volunteer visitors, and also to provide shut-ins with free out-reach services. The goal is to help our homebound "client/friends" maintain their cherished independence by supporting their determination to remain in their own homes for as long as possible and to enhance their quality of life." <http://www.aidforfriends.org/>

Pictured are members and family who volunteered for the evening. Our lodge contacts with Aid for Friends are Charlie and Judy Balmer as was his Father Charlie Balmer a member who passed away 10 years ago. My how time flies, it's been over 30 years that Walker has been supporting this fine charity with monetary donations as well as meal preparations. (Bob Smedley - NG of Walker 306)

"Office apologies to #306, this was submitted in a timely manner, however overlooked for the Apr. issue"

LOST TREASURE FOUND IN GRAND LODGE VAULT

Now that I have everyone's attention, I am happy to report while cleaning the back shelves of the Grand Lodge vault, a forgotten treasure was found and will make it's final appearance in PA at the annual communication in June. In 1929, Vancouver - Hastings Lodge #8, British Columbia started circulating throughout British Columbia a heavy and very beautiful Traveling Gavel, along with a registry book and letter until 1974. These items were presented, July 10, 1974 to Sovereign Grand Master Shelby McCauley at Session in Arizona to "convey to his home Lodge as the first long step on its journey. As this gavel starts its journey from our fair city of the Pacific, it is our hope that it will travel eastbound to the Atlantic shores before it once again returns to its home Lodge." My brothers and sisters from 1974 to 1992, according to the register has traveled through

Arizona, Oregon, Nevada, Utah, New Mexico, Colorado, N. Dakota, Minnesota to W. Virginia, then Delaware where in 1992 they presented this to Walker Lodge #306. It traveled through Pennsylvania arriving at Grand Lodge Session in June 1996 and was used by the heads of our order to preside a day at Session. It continued to travel until July 1999 when it went to Mahanoy #551 and was returned to Grand Lodge, stored in our safe for future travel. It is time, 83 years later to start its journey home. I presented it to the two newest Lodges in PA, Harmony #86 & Lady Harmony Rebekah #86 to use at their meetings. It will be at Session this month for our Grand Master and President to use, after which will be presented to DSGM Charles Renninger to go to his home Jurisdiction of Washington DC and begin its travel back to the "Pacific Shore"

GW Justin Bailey, current NG of R#86 gave up reigns that evening to present VG Kate Bailey, his wife, with the gavel to preside over the meeting.

Acting GS Bailey presenting gavel to senior ranking PG Jeff Guscott to preside over #86 meeting.
