THANK YOU

A BIG THANK YOU to Vice President Rebekah Assembly for her contribution to the library of Odd Fellow magazines – (Sep., Oct. & Nov. 1963 and Jan., Feb. & Mar. 1964).

I was thrilled to receive the $500 scholarship award. I am still attending Millersville University majoring in math education. I will apply this money to my tuition this fall. My father and grand father have been Odd Fellows for many years. They both were honored to hear that I received this scholarship. It is nice to know that the Odd Fellows support higher education and I very much appreciate this contribution to my personal education. I hope to teach math and help future generations of students not only in school but also in life. Again I wish to thank the Odd Fellow's Organization and hope to see you continue your endeavors.

In Appreciation, Andrew Kamp

I would like to sincerely thank you all for your contribution to my education. A few years ago, your organization sent me on the United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth, and this scholarship is another wonderful act of kindness that you have shown me. This money will be very helpful in paying for my books this coming semester. I am incredibly grateful for this award. Thank you!

Mary Pechulis

I would like to thank the Odd Fellow and Rebekah Lodges of Pennsylvania for the generous scholarship that I received. I appreciate your recognition of my achievements academically and socially as well as my involvement in my community. The scholarship that I received was used towards books for this coming semester. I am truly appreciative of your generosity and would just like to say thank you again.

Cara Elias

PLAN NOW TO ATTEND THE PILGRIMAGE TO THE TOMB

The 80th Pilgrimage to the Tomb of the Unknown Soldiers is scheduled to take place at Arlington National Cemetery, Sunday, May 5, 2013. The ceremonies will begin at 1:00 PM with a parade from the USS Maine Mast staging area, followed by the Memorial Service and Wreath Laying Ceremonies at the Tomb.

The Hilton Alexandria Mark Center, Alexandria, VA will serve as the main headquarters. The Annual Banquet is scheduled for Saturday at 7PM. There is also a Saturday morning Mt. Vernon Tour from 9AM to 3PM. PLEASE if you are interested in details for any or all of these events contact the Grand Lodge Office and the information and forms can either be e-mailed or sent to you.

IMPORTANT – We have had this privilege for 80 years, it is only through your support that our government continues this. Attendance has been continuously dropping over the years. If they see there is not enough interest this will be suspended.

Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Pennsylvania
Spring 2013
Rally

Proudly held in Vienna Hall, Allentown, PA

Attention all Odd Fellows,

And we're at it again! Plans are being made for the 2013 Rally and I want to get as much notice to the Jurisdiction as possible to start lining up their candidates! Here is what I have as of now:

The date for this Rally is April 20th. To be held the same place as last year – Vienna Hall, 118N 9th St., Allentown.

There will be four degree teams as last time. Plans are also being made to have a Rebekah Degree Team also.

There will be a lunch; menu and prices to follow.

Last year was truly a blast! We had over 100 members in attendance! It was a great day for fellowship and it seemed to me like everyone had a fantastic time. Come back out to make this years even bigger! There are plenty of Hotels in the area, so you don't have to be from around here to go! Stay a while! More details will follow in the upcoming magazines and a candidate sign-up form will be forthcoming.
We hope to see you in Allentown!

Fraternally for the Committee,
Justin C. Bailey, Deputy Grand Master

MEET YOUR GRAND LODGE OFFICERS

Raymond F. Rodgers, Grand Herald of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, I.O.O.F., was initiated into Sandy Lake Lodge #573, Sandy Lake on April 11, 2002. He excelled though the chairs and became a Past Grand Oct. 4, 2004. He received his Grand Lodge Degree June 27, 2005.

His hobby is visiting his daughter whom lives in another state. Brother Ray works as a shift manager at Taco Bell in Grove City.

When asked what or who inspired him to join, his response was Harold McQuiston. His favorite Odd Fellow activities are attending Session, Orchard Manor picnics and visiting other Lodges.

Also, when asked what his approach to asking someone to join, "we have the opportunity to help you in many ways and becoming a more caring person for others". Helping to educate you & your family and expanding your friendships.. Also when asked what should the Order do that it is not, "asking Lodges what they need to better equip the Lodge to bring in more members and how to fund the project".

Welcome aboard Ray

SHENANDOAH MEMBERS AND FAMILY JOIN FOR CHRISTMAS DINNER

Members and loved ones of Shenandoah Lodge #591 joined together December 17th for a night of fellowship and good food. To end the year on a high note, an application was received from Robert Briggs to join our Lodge; he was also in attendance at the dinner. It was the first social night Shenandoah Lodge had in years, and all were happy to be involved. Shenandoah Lodge has bounced back from the brink of existence with only 5 members three years ago to eleven members today. We plan on bringing Mr. Briggs in for the All State Rally and hopefully can pick up one or two more candidates.

Fraternally submitted,

Justin C. Bailey, Assoc. Shenandoah Lodge #591

Greetings! This article was found in the Oregon Pacific Odd Fellow, December 2012. We feel this is something as not all laws, procedures, or charge books will hold, however very important. This is something that has torn down Lodges in the past and it still is seen in other Lodges. As we have entered 2013, let's renew our Lodges and work with these situations in securing a future:

Dealing with conflict

There is one topic that always seems to arise whenever I present a seminar on Membership. That is: "How do we deal with conflict in the Lodge?" Each situation must be dealt with on an individual basis, but I hope to address a few instances and solutions in this article.

The first situation is the "one member that is always negative with all suggestions for action. I hear people say, "We have one member that stops everything we try to do". Well, first of all it takes 5 members for a quorum. If one person is against something there are still at least 4 others to vote in favor of the project. If a lodge allows one person to stop all the activity, then I say shame on the rest of the members of the lodge. It is always difficult to stand up to a strong personality, but my Brothers and Sisters, we need activity in our Lodges to keep our members interested and we need activity in our communities to let our communities know we are alive and well. We have been asked to make a difference in our communities, we cannot do that if we allow that "one" person to influence our lodge in a negative way. The hardest thing is to be the one to stand up in lodge and give the explanation of the benefit of the project without attacking the person who is negative. Remember it should never be a personal attack when discussing projects. A difference of opinion should be able to be voiced without creating arguments. The first time is the hardest. Each time a member brings up the positive side of the situation it will get easier, until there is good discussion and a more informed decision will be made.

Another difficulty is the member who tries to be helpful, and gets the lodge involved in activities without action of the lodge. It is hard to put a damper on that gung-ho member, but sometimes an activity may not be the best fit for the lodge. We all think our ideas are best. We all have different interests so what interests us has got to be better, right? We as members should bring up ideas for activity at a regular meeting of the lodge. Technically it should then go to a committee to check out and investigate the pros and cons of the activity to be presented at the next meeting. Many times we think a project sounds good only to find out there may need to be more involvement than originally thought, or the cost or time commitment on our part may be more than the lodge can keep up with. Anytime we take on a project it is important to be able to fulfill the obligation to the project in a credible manner. In order to represent the best image of the lodge, the members who represent the lodge in the public eye should be the best examples of the lodge. The best way to make sure the people who represent the lodge are the best examples is to do continuing education with members. Knowing the product makes it easier to sell. Studying the ritual and understanding the degrees and their meanings, knowing the projects of the Order, and what we are involved in and stand for, make it easier to talk to the public and set a good example. Working together on education and choice of activities will solve many of the gung-ho member conflicts.

The last conflict that I am going to address is the conflict of personalities that appear occasionally in a lodge. For every project or idea that is presented there will very probably be opposing ideas on how to do whatever it is or even whether to participate in it at all. The problem tends to arise when someone who opposes the idea and speaks against it, it comes out as appearing to attack the person instead of the idea. This can immediately create a division in the lodge and ill feelings between members. The best solution to this problem is to think before we speak out against something and be sure it is not against the person presenting it.

We are now in the middle of the Holiday Season. With all the extra activities, sometimes we need to remember that everyone is busier at this time of the year so we need to be more tolerant of others. By doing this we can avoid some of the conflict and keep Happy into our Holidays.

I hope everyone has a wonderful Holiday Season.

HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY

The Arthritis Committee hopes all of you are surviving the winter weather and as Valentine's Day turns your thoughts to love for your special someone, you'll remember to help the three PA Arthritis Foundation Chapters. They are looking to recruit help from the IOOF Lodges for their activities. You ask, "What can I do?" You can go to the local office and help with a mailing. You can help at the Registration table for one of their events. You can send a check to The Arthritis Committee to help us help those with Arthritis. We sure hope you'll consider one of these suggestions!

Things are a little slow at the Chapters for the winter months with actual activities, but they are planning a multitude of activities for the spring. Remember, every penny sent to The Arthritis Committee goes directly to the project specified.
