HAMPTON LODGE #1004 ON THE MOVE

Activities are high in Allison Park, they have been perfecting the initiatory degree in what better way than actually conferring it. Attendance has been high as members from Unified #2, Clover #348 & General Worth #386 have been attending.

Hampton initiated Regina Bourquin into their Lodge on 2/11/14.

On 2/25/14 Hampton again conferred the Degree on the following: Shawn & Frederick Lowry of #386 and Paul Cherep of #2, that evening there were 28 members present. They were also pleased to have John & Emilie Cupp, Grand Treasurer & Warden respectively and DDGM#23 & 24 John Dzyak and DDGM#21 Donna L. Faub in attendance. On an even more exciting note, GM Bailey has consented to travel to assist them in conferring the First Degree on their member and possibly the three from the other Lodges. What a nicer way than to absorb the lessons one at a time.

ON THE ROAD WITH GRAND PATRIARCH JIM

Grand Patriarch, James W. Sellers, made his official visit to Perseverance Encampment #135 on Thursday, February 20, 2014. Neil B. Thomas, Grand High Priest and William S. Mooney, Grand Marshal accompanied him and introduced the officers in attendance to the group. Charles Danihel, DDGP for District 1, member of Perseverance #135, was also present at the meeting. We all enjoyed a delicious dinner before going into the official meeting.

GP Sellers spoke with those present about the need to work at membership so that the Order will continue. He was presented with a check at the end of the meeting. The evening of Patriarchal Fellowship was enjoyed by all. David Sellers, Grand Inside Sentinel was not with the group and was wished a speedy recovery by those present.

ON THE ROAD WITH PRESIDENT MARY

Prior to the January Assembly Board meeting, PPRA's Judith Wert & Sarah Baer accompanied Pres. Mary on visiting PPRA Claire Renshaw at the Middletown Home for a surprise presentation of her 50 year pin.

Pres. Mary and some of her staff on an O.V. to Grand Master Bailey's home Rebekah Lodge (Lady Harmony #86).

CANTON PHILADELPHIA HOLDS MUSTERING CEREMONY

As Canton Philadelphia #1 and Philadelphia Auxiliary #1 have both been steadily growing, we've kept on track by initiating Patriarch Sherman F. Wooden, proposed by Chevalier Grady Slade. Sherman is the current DDGM of District No. 9 and is a Past Grand Chaplain. He hails from Rush Lodge #471 and Ernestine Rebekah Lodge #548, both of Lawton, and Scott Encampment #132, Tamaqua. A great night was enjoyed by all. Afterwards, both groups got together for a picture. From left to right are Lady Nancy Tucker, Past Commandant Robert Tucker, Chevalier Grady Slade, Lady Alisha Valedon, Military Advisor Justin Bailey and Chevalier Raymond Boulanger. Seated is Chevalier Sherman Wooden. Not pictured are Lady Nicole Inama (photographer) and Maj Charles Shorten... because when we finally got him in for the picture he stood right in front of the banner and blocked it, so I didn't pick that picture!

Fraternally Submitted, Justin Bailey

HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY FROM THE MIDDLETOWN HOME

ON THE ROAD WITH GRAND MASTER JUSTIN

The visitation to Leesport Lodge #141 was a success as their turnout was not only better than usual, but the Brothers are motivated to get the wheel of Odd Fellowship back in motion and secure a strong future for the Lodge.

As the last Lodge in Perry County, GM Bailey and staff paid a visit to Mackinaw Lodge #380 of New Bloomfield. Again, there was a great turnout and membership ideas were discussed and the Brothers seemed ready to try and introduce new blood into their Lodge.

GM Bailey and staff were welcomed by a great crew of Brothers from Jamison Lodge #447. They have been progressing within their Lodge and are ready to start trying new ideas to get back into the community and start helping in Jurisdictional events. It was great to see some longtime members who have not attended in a while. There's never a bad time to get involved in your Lodge again.

The Hall of Variety Lodge #37 of Philadelphia was packed and all the chairs were full as the Grand Lodge was entertained by the Brothers & Sisters. This Lodge has been growing tremendously over the past several years and has really started taking steps to get back out in their community. They are also starting to do degree work once a month. It truly was refreshing to be in such a great Lodge showing that positive attitude yields positive outcomes.

COME VISIT THE GRAND MASTER

Grand Master Bailey has scheduled the following visits for April. I am sure he would appreciate seeing you there.

- 1 – Mystic #270 – 8 PM
- 3 – Warfordsburg #601 – 7:30 PM
- 4 & 5 – Conclave - Lancaster
- 7 – Mt. Zion #74 – 7 PM
- 10 – Waterfall #773 – 7:30 PM

- 12 – Spring Rally - Allentown
- 15 – Jordan #192 – 7:30 PM
- 21 – Mineral Lodge #285 – 7 PM
- 22 – Boyertown Lodge #708 – 7:30 PM
- 26 – Home Mtg., Middletown – 10 AM

FROM THE DESK OF THE GRAND MASTER

Fraternal Greetings! I hope by now Pennsylvania is thawed out. My visitations have increased and things throughout the Jurisdiction are really starting to take off again. I want you to take note of the last three months in the magazine welcoming the new Members; roughly 10 a month. With the rally right on our heels, hopefully we can continue this trend. I've met many of the new members and it's refreshing to see the sense of pride they carry to be Odd Fellows and the motivation they have to be part of this great Order. Don't extinguish these sparks; kindle the flame and the whole Jurisdiction will come alive again with the fire of Odd Fellowship. Don't smoke it out!

I know many of you, as well as myself, sometimes have a hard time explaining to someone what a "Fraternity" is. Many outsiders either consider it a cult or a college type frat club. Most times when trying to explain it, we're actually not even explaining fraternal organizations, but civic clubs instead. I've made a personal goal to myself this year to make sure no Lodges fold up; that I would do what I can do to keep each and every one of you going but, as you see in this month's magazine, that did not work. However, the gift I have received from Letterkenny Lodge #663 was one that I will never forget, and I hope their story, along with this article helps rejuvenate Odd Fellowship throughout the Jurisdiction. They actually gave me what I am calling a "Fraternal epiphany."

While visiting their Lodge the day of their consolidation as the last Lodge in Franklin County, they showed me piles of books and records from not only their Lodge, but Columbus #75 of Chambersburg, Fannett #811 of Dry Run, St. Thomas #950, and so many others. I had some time to page through them and what I saw astounded me. Not only did they meet every week, and pretty much take turns doing degrees, but once a month, they had a church service in a different church from town to town, with the whole district supporting that Lodge's church service. They had monthly Past Grand Association meetings at different Lodges throughout their District. Picnics, card parties, socials, traveling gavels, parades – all the Lodges had them. But it just wasn't Fannett Lodge in Dry Run for a parade. The entire District helped together. I remember my old boss, Bill Locke, saying the same thing with his district in Mercer County with visiting, picnics, etc. Well then the 1960's started coming in and Chambersburg, Fannett, Roxbury, all slowly started giving up and their Charters started falling onto each other until finally St. Thomas #950 consolidated with Letterkenny. What happened? They now lost their entire family. Yes they ended up in another district and they became close neighbors with Newburg #562, but the Districts, all of them, now do not continue the "Fraternity," they do not continue the family events. When these districts were doing the above events, their children and families, as well as the communities supported them because together they were a larger group. Many times you hear the Odd Fellows complain because they don't want to spend so much time away from their families. Well with events like these, make your family and friends part of it! It is a good way to introduce a prospective member to the Lodge.

Other factors did come into play why the Lodges started folding – it became time that Lodges did not have to meet once a week and some Lodges could not accept that. The minutes show it; they started cutting corners. They tried outdoing the system. It went from once a week, to once a month, next thing you know, they're meeting three or four times a year and finally shutting down. I challenge all DISTRICTS in April, May, the upcoming months, to hold one District function. Whether it is a picnic, card party or social. District Deputies, please look into this! Send an article into the magazine on what you did. Understand Odd Fellowship is not just supporting your individual community. We are a fraternity, we are family. Thank you Letterkenny Lodge; I understand now. To the older Brothers & Sisters, this shows why the older members are just as important as the younger ones. I need you all to tell the stories of Odd Fellowship years ago. That's when it worked! If we can start getting together not just as individual Lodges, but as Districts and Regions too, it will work again.

In closing, the rally is coming up. Support this as a District, support Session, support the Tomb of the Unknowns. If you support Odd Fellowship as a whole, and everyone is moving in the same direction together, no one will be left behind.

In Friendship, Love & Truth, the links that bind us all together, Justin C. Bailey, your Grand Master

VARIETY LODGE #37 "GOOD WORKS" COMMITTEE BEGINS NEW VOLUNTEER PROGRAM

Since, April 16th, 2013, the newly formed "Good Works" committee has performed a community volunteer effort by preparing 168 dinners, one evening every month that will be part of the over 1000 meals served to community shut ins each month by the "Cook for a Friend" program run by the Klein branch of the Philadelphia area JCC's..

These meals are delivered to seniors who are not able to get out for a hot meal, and are not capable of preparing their own meals. The lodge members were surprised that they were able to prepare the total dinner from scratch to final packaged meal in two hours. The staff members who directed us make our task easy and enjoyable. Our first effort included creating a meal of meatballs, pasta, and vegetables. We broke into an assembly line where everybody had an individual task of preparation, cooking and filling aluminum platters with the finished product. This was followed by sealing, bagging and storing the 168 finished meals for freezing until delivery by other volunteers. Each month thereafter, the menu changes.

There is the unanimous feeling that this type of effort far outweighs the giving of money for charitable endeavors, because our physical effort and the visualization of creating something very tangible for people in need, is personally felt by each of us, in a way that just writing a check could never replace. We now plan to volunteer at least once a month to make meals for those in need. As of December, we had prepared over 1600 meals for the shut-in's.

The lodge has made a commitment to have anywhere from six to ten members show up during our appointed evening each month to make this an ongoing volunteer program. We hope to find other possible volunteer activities for the Good Works committee to become involved in. This monthly dinner preparation is, for now, our initial program.

A MEMORABLE NIGHT HELD IN NEWBURG

As I would assume to be the first held in history of Pennsylvania Grand Lodge, it was a night of mixed emotions in the Hall of Newburg Lodge #562 as two ceremonies were conducted. 11 Brothers from Newburg and 6 Brothers from Letterkenny Lodge #663 of Upper Strasburg met to consecrate their history into one Lodge. Letterkenny Lodge #663 closed their doors after over 140 years and turned their charter and gavels over the Newburg, hoping the unity will secure a stronger hold of Pennsylvania Odd Fellowship. One interesting item I found out was that Newburg was not very proficient in degree work in the fact that when they had a new member, they took them down to Letterkenny to be initiated. Well it was time to lose the training wheels and find out how they worked together. Before the consolidation, an initiation was held as they welcomed two new Brothers into Newburg and a new Sister into Bowmansdale Lodge #1179. For either Lodge not conferring the degree in years, and never together, it turned out great! A very memorable night for both Lodges, I am more than confident this will help Odd Fellowship in this area of the Jurisdiction grow and we will be seeing more and more from Newburg Lodge #562. Keep up the good work!

PENNSYLVANIA ODD FELLOW AND REBEKAH MAGAZINE PROCLAMATION

To All Members of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs

Fraternal Greetings:

Whereas, the Pennsylvania Odd Fellow and Rebekah Magazine, the pride of Pennsylvania, is suffering financial hardships. It has been brought to the attention of the Representatives at Session and many efforts have been taken to ensure all the members of the Odd Fellows continue to receive this magazine for free.

Whereas, the Pennsylvania Odd Fellow and Rebekah Magazine has also worked hard to keep the single subscriptions to Rebekahs and others for $10.00 annually.

Whereas, this is your Lodge's magazine and a portal to get out into your community, we must all strive to keep this going.

Now therefore, I, Justin C. Bailey, by virtue of the authority duly vested in me as Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, do hereby proclaim,

The month of April as PENNSYLVANIA ODD FELLOW AND REBEKAH MAGAZINE MONTH throughout the Jurisdiction of Pennsylvania.

Further, request all Lodges to support this project by holding a money-raising event or a treasury donation and send to the Grand Lodge Office.

Done in Middletown, Pennsylvania, this fourth day of March, 2014, and in the 190th year of this Grand Body.

In Friendship, Love and Truth,

Justin C. Bailey, Grand Master
